Gentlemen - for clearly that is overwhelmingly what you are,

I have just received my copy of your annual report, and I only wish I might be at your/our annual meeting April 26. I may in fact be able to make it, as I am working in Washington that week.

I am reinforced by the Report in my resentment against your practices. Recently you have cancelled my American Express Card after almost 20 years of my paying monthly bills covering travel all over the world. Although I objected, you clearly have no mechanism for correcting this basic discriminatory error.
