Dear Maya:

Even though you didn't win the election, you did something that no one else in Nevada, in my time, has done. You articulated, and made respectable, a point of view which has never before been acceptable in this state. You have established yourself as a person of dignity, one entitled to respect, and one whose voice will be listened to in this state. Your campaign was magnificent!

I for one am deeply grateful to you for accomplishing a significant break-through; and not only giving the more enlightened hope, but prestige and influence as well. I know that, without asking, you are going to continue to assert your positions vigorously and I will look forward to joining you with respect to most of them.

Sincerely,

GRANT SAWYER
