Epilepsy focus of neurology conference

ELKO--The third in a series of one-hour neurology conferences for physicians will focus on epilepsy Thursday, April 19, noon, at the Commercial Hotel.

Dr. John H. Peacock, M.D., professor internal medicine, University of Nevada School of Medicine, will discuss recent advances in the management of the illness. Dr. Peacock is one of three neurologists coming to Elko through June to see patients at the Elko Regional Medical Center and speak at the monthly conferences. A resident in internal medicine will accompany Dr. Peacock.

The program is sponsored by Nevada Area Health Education Centers, which works in partnership with the School of Medicine to provide education for rural health professionals. Physicians attending will receive one credit hour of category one continuing medical education.
