Parkinson's Disease focus of neurology conference

ELKO--The second in a series of one-hour neurology conferences for physicians will focus on Parkinson's Disease Monday, March 15, noon, at the Commercial Hotel.

Dr. Richard M. Zwieg, M.D., assistant professor internal medicine, University of Nevada School of Medicine, will discuss recent advances in the management of the illness. Dr. Zwieg is one of three neurologists coming to Elko through June to see patients and speak at the monthly conferences. The program is sponsored by Nevada Area Health Education Center, which works in partnership with the School of Medicine to provide education for rural health professionals.
