Medical technologist course offered

ELKO--A course for medical technologists on blood banking, serologic assaying and infectious disease will be held Saturday, June 2, Elko General Hospital, 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Kenneth Maeharra, Ph.D., associate professor and director, Clinical Laboratory Science Program, University of Nevada School of Medicine, and Wendy Kiehn, M.S., assistant professor, Clinical Laboratory Science, will be the instructors for the course, which provides five contact hours of continuing education credit for medical technologists. Cost is $40.

The course is sponsored by Northeastern Nevada Area Health Education Center, a program that works in cooperation with the University of Nevada School of Medicine to provide education for health professionals in rural Nevada.

For more information or to register contact Karen Kimber, in Elko, at 738-3828.
