FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Probably the most exciting - and nerve wracking - day in the life of a medical students is Match Day. This is the day when each and every medical student in the United States learns where he or she will be spending the next few years of their lives; they learn where they will do residency training in their chosen medical specialty.

Match Day this year is Wednesday, March 20, 1991, and students at the University of Nevada School of Medicine will receive their matches at precisely 9:00 a.m.

In Reno, the festivities will take place in the School of Medicine's Manville Gallery.

In Las Vegas, the match will take place in the 6th floor conference rooms C and D in the 2040 Building on West Charleston.

Family and friends, as well as school faculty and staff, will help celebrate this happy occasion in both cities.

Media representatives in Reno should contact Lynne Williams, 784-1605

Media representatives in Las Vegas should contact Bonnie Stuenkel, 383-2638.
