

Lewiston resident is med school graduate in Nevada

Lynne D. Williams, medical school information
May 20, 1991

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lewiston resident Fraun Flerchinger was among the 41 members of the Class of 1991 at the University of Nevada School of Medicine. On Friday, May 17, Dr. Flerchinger received her academic hood, the symbol of her acceptance into the profession of medicine, from Michael V. Pokroy, M.D.

While attending medical school, she was presented with the Excellence in Pathology award, 20th Century Club Scholarship, Outstanding Basic Sciences Student and Outstanding Behavioral Sciences Student award. She was president of AOA, interviewer for the Admissions Committee; president, Family Medicine Interest Group and editor of Iatrogenesis. She was also a member of AMA and AMSA. Dr. Flerchinger will do her residency at the Oregon Health Sciences University in Emergency Medicine at Portland, OR.

Dr. Flerchinger earned her undergraduate degree in General Studies, Interdisciplinary from the Lewis Clark State College. She is the daughter of Frank and Dixie West of Suffolk, England.