FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Peter Coggan, M.D., has been recruited to fill the position of Associate Dean for Medical Education/Administration at the University of Nevada School of Medicine. He also will serve as an associate professor in the Department of Family and Community Medicine. Dr. Coggan's responsibilities include curriculum development, faculty development and evaluation.

Before coming to Nevada, Dr. Coggan was a family practice physician in Ontario, Canada, and went on to serve as an assistant professor of family medicine at the Southern Illinois University School of Medicine in Springfield. He also was assistant professor of family medicine at the University of Washington School of Medicine in Seattle, and most recently was associate adjunct professor of family medicine and assistant dean for medical education at the University of California College of Medicine in Irvine.
