

Two Santa Clara graduates win honors

Lynne D. Williams, medical school information
May 19, 1992

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Two Santa Clara University graduates, Drs. Sherrie Crouch Hald and Elisa De Angelis, have earned their medical degrees and won honors at the University of Nevada School of Medicine.

At the school's Awards Ceremony both received Janet M. Glasgow Memorial Achievement Citations for being among the top women, scholastically, in their class; and they both were inducted into Alpha Omega Alpha, the national honorary medical society.

Dr. Hald also earned the Upjohn Achievement Award, and will be doing an obstetrics and gynecology residency at the University of California, Irvine. She is the daughter of John Crouch and Georgia Dudding of Reno.

Dr. De Angelis will do an obstetrics and gynecology residency at the University of Michigan Hospitals in Ann Arbor. She is the daughter of Arnold and Margaret De Angelis of Reno.