

Twin Falls resident is med school graduate in Nevada

Lynne Williams and Lynette Hein, medical school information

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Twin Falls resident Colleen M. Marron is among the 47 members of the Class of 1992 at the University of Nevada School of Medicine. On Friday, May 15, Dr. Marron received her academic hood, the symbol of her acceptance into the profession of medicine, from Dr. Gregory Highison from the Department of Surgery.

Dr. Marron, who is the daughter of David and Nancy Marron of Twin Falls, attended high school in Twin Falls and earned her undergraduate degree from the College of Idaho. She will be completing a pediatrics residency at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics in Iowa City.

While attending medical school, Dr. Marron was a member of the American Association of Pediatricians and the American Medical Student Association; and has been named to Alpha Omega Alpha, the national honorary medical society.