FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Medical history in Reno is richer this month because of a complete set of the "Classics in Medicine" donated by Mrs. Blance Zucker in honor of her late husband, Reuben Zucker, M.D.

Mrs. Zucker donated the books to the University of Nevada School of Medicine's Savitt Medical Library, which serves as a medical resource for the entire state.

Dr. Zucker, who was a long-time Las Vegas physician, collected the books, and has already provided one set to the University Medical Center library in that city. The set consists of 56 leather-bound, gilded volumes, which now are properly displayed in special secured bookcases in the medical library.
