

Las Vegas Emblem Club Donates to Nevada's Medical School

Lynne D. Williams, medical school information
June 30, 1989

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Las Vegas Emblem Club #114 has donated $1,000 to support cancer research conducted by Dr. Alex Little. Dr. Little is the chairman of surgery for the University of Nevada School of Medicine. The funds were raised at the club's 33rd annual Italian dinner, which was chaired by Lil Mikulich.

The funds were presented to Dr. Little, medical school Dean Robert M. Daugherty and Associate Dean Thomas J. Cinque by club President Verlee Anderson, Corresponding Secretary Peggy Bryson, Second Guard Marie Jarvis and Recording Secretary Lil Mikulich.

The Emblem Club, which is a national organization, has indicated its support for the school's proposed clinical and research building in Las Vegas.