

AIDS Conference

Lynne D. Williams, medical school information
September 1, 1989

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Place on calendar

A conference entitled "AIDS in Nevada: A Clinical, Legal and Ethical Analysis" will be presented at the Manville Auditorium at the University of Nevada School of Medicine Sept. 29.

The conference will deal with recent AIDS legislation, moral issues and current research protocols in the fight against the disease.

Presenters will include Dr. Alexandra Levine, executive associate dean of the School of Medicine at the University of Southern California, and Bryan M. Nelson, chief deputy attorney general of Nevada.

The program is designed for physicians, nurses and physician assistants and has been approved for continuing education credit by the more

AIDS add one

American Academy of Family Physicians and the Nevada State Board of Nursing.

The cost, including lunch, is $45 for physicians and $35 for allied health professionals if paid by Sept. 15. If paid after Sept. 15 the cost is $50 and $40 respectively.

The conference is sponsored by the Family Medicine Interest Group and the University of Nevada School of Medicine.

For registration and more information call 784-6001.

#

Written by Jeanne Lauf

NEWS RELEASE

University of Nevada School of Medicine

Public Relations Office
Savitt Medical Sciences Building
Reno, Nevada 89557-0046

(702) 784-6001

FOR THE GOOD HEALTH OF NEVADA

AIDS Conference

Lynne D. Williams, medical school information
September 1, 1989

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Place on calendar

A conference entitled "AIDS in Nevada: A Clinical, Legal and Ethical Analysis" will be presented at the Manville Auditorium at the University of Nevada School of Medicine Sept. 29.

The conference will deal with recent AIDS legislation, moral issues and current research protocols in the fight against the disease.

Presenters will include Dr. Alexandra Levine, executive associate dean of the School of Medicine at the University of Southern California, and Bryan M. Nelson, chief deputy attorney general of Nevada.

The program is designed for physicians, nurses and physician assistants and has been approved for continuing education credit by the more

AIDS add one

American Academy of Family Physicians and the Nevada State Board of Nursing.

The cost, including lunch, is $45 for physicians and $35 for allied health professionals if paid by Sept. 15. If paid after Sept. 15 the cost is $50 and $40 respectively.

The conference is sponsored by the Family Medicine Interest Group and the University of Nevada School of Medicine.

For registration and more information call 784-6001.

Written by Jeanne Lauf