Medical school publishes media directory and speakers bureau guide

Lynette Boggs and Lynne Williams, medical school information
January 7, 1994

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The University of Nevada School of Medicine has recently released its 25th anniversary edition of its Media Directory and Speakers Bureau Guide. This free publication was designed to assist individuals and organizations seeking expert comment or presentations on complex medical questions and issues.

The publication lists School of Medicine faculty from throughout the state who can provide expert comment on more than 500 topics in some 56 medical subcategories of interest. Health care reform, AIDS, cancer, geriatrics, nutrition and mental health are among the many timely topics covered. Speaking engagements to community clubs and organizations are offered free of charge.

Organizations wishing to receive a complimentary copy of the guide or book a speaker should contact Lynette Boggs in Las Vegas at 383-2638 or Lynne Williams in Reno at 784-6003.
