

Lynne D. Williams, medical school information
June 9, 1994

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rexburg resident Jason Lee Blaser was among 40 new physicians graduated with the Class of 1994 from the University of Nevada School of Medicine. Dr. Blaser is the son of Clair and Rosemary Blaser of this city. Dr. Blaser received his academic hood from his father at the school's Hooding Ceremony in May, and will be doing a pathology residency at Madigan Army Medical Center in Tacoma, Washington.

While attending medical school, Dr. Blaser was a member of the Family Medicine Interest Group and was on the Student Executive Council and the American Medical Student Association. Dr. Johns also served as Class Secretary from 1991 through 1994.