Medical Students work with Local Doctor

BOULDER CITY - A local physician is working with a senior medical student from the University of Nevada School of Medicine this month.

Senior medical student William Kyle begins a four-week stay with Dr. Warren Smith Sept. 23. He will complete his work Oct. 18 with Dr. Smith, a local family practice physician. Kyle, along with all fourth-year students, is required to complete a month-long stay with a family practice physician in rural Nevada.

The student's rural rotation is coordinated by the School of Medicine's Nevada Area Health Education Center.
