FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A faculty member at the University of Nevada School of Medicine was presented with a prestigious award by the American Federation for Clinical Research Foundation (AFCR) at their annual meeting in May.

Dr. John S. Pixley, assistant professor of internal medicine, was chosen to receive the Henry Christian Award for Excellence in Research for his abstract presented at the meeting. According to the Foundation, "these prestigious awards were established in honor of the founder of the American Federation for Clinical Research, Dr. Henry Christian, and are considered the highest quality abstracts in each subspecialty submitted to the AFCR for presentation at the meeting."
