FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

David Fiore, M.D., associate professor in the University of Nevada School of Medicine's Department of Family and Community Medicine, has been named the first Lombardi Faculty Scholar. Dr. Fiore is also associate residency director for the Reno Family Practice Residency program.

Funds for the scholarship are provided by the Dr. Louis E. Lombardi Endowment and will be used to support Dr. Fiore's participation in the National Residency Director Development Program sponsored by the American Academy of Family Physicians, the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine, and the Association of Family Practice Residency Directors.

The program draws participants from throughout the United States for a series of training sessions and meetings designed to develop and increase the individual's academic and administrative skills.
