FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kevin Charles Wolverton, M.D., son of Robert Wolverton of Billings and Janet Wolverton of Klamath Falls, Oregon, was one of the 53 members of the University of Nevada School of Medicine Class of 2000 who were officially welcomed into the medical profession at an academic hooding ceremony on May 12. Graduates choose as their hooders someone who has been most responsible for their success in medical school.

Dr. Wolverton was hooded by his mother, Janet Bear Wolverton. Wolverton will obstetrics and gynecology residency training St. Joseph Medical Center in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

During his medical education, Dr. Wolverton earned the Claude Lardinois Award for the Best Poster Presentation at the Western Medical Student Research Forum, was Student Ambassador, served as student representative on the Out of State Admissions Committee, and was a Student Outreach Clinic volunteer.
