FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jason Melvin Wilhelmsen, M.D., son of Melville and Linda Wilhelmsen of Napa, Idaho, was one of the 53 members of the University of Nevada School of Medicine Class of 2000 who were officially welcomed into the medical profession at an academic hooding ceremony on May 12. Graduates choose as their hooders someone who has been most responsible for their success in medical school.

Dr. Wilhelmsen was hooded by his wife, Heidi. Wilhelmsen will do his emergency residency training at the University of Illinois, St. Francis Medical Center in Peoria.

During his medical education, Dr. Wilhelmsen was awarded Outstanding Student in Special Qualification in Nutrition, Winner of the National Student Abstract Competition, and Excellence in Research Award. He also was a member of the American College of Emergency Physicians, Emergency Medicine Resident's Association, the AMA, American College of Physicians, Student National Medical Association and the American Academy of Family Physicians.
