Housing Volunteers Needed

The University of Nevada School of Medicine needs volunteers in Winnemucca to open their homes for four weeks to a medical student.

Volunteers can specify when and how often they can house a senior medical student. Students require their own bedroom, but can share all other space. Housing volunteers often form long-term friendships with the students and help a medical student complete their education, while showing them the community.

Please call Jamie Anderson, 702-784-1317, for information.
