FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Reno photographer Erik Lauritzen will be the exhibitor for the May show at the University of Nevada School of Medicine's Manville Gallery. His show, "In Color - Seven Years," will run from May 2 - June 3.

Lauritzen earned his bachelor of fine arts in photography from the San Francisco Arts Institute and his master of the arts in photography from California State University at Northridge, CA.

He has had numerous one person shows, including exhibits at the Second Street Gallery, Charlottesville, VA; Marcus/Gordon, Pittsburg, PA; Greyston Gallery, Riverdale, NY; Project Gallery, Cambridge, MA; and Photoworks, Richmond, VA. He also has been part of many group shows and his works are included in collections throughout the country.

Lauritzen also has taught photography for 12 years and is currently director of exhibitions and coordinator of the Arts-in-Education Program of the Sierra Arts Foundation in Reno, NV.

The opening reception for this show is Monday, May 2, from 5 - 7 p.m. in the Manville Gallery. Gallery hours are 8 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.
