FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Manville Gallery at the University of Nevada School of Medicine is showing the paintings of Reno artist Lynda Yuroff throughout the holiday season. The artist works with paint, canvas, masonite, paper pulp, vinyl, sticks and acrylic.

Yuroff teaches drawing at Truckee Meadows Community College and is part of the Artist-in-Residence program at the Nevada State Council on the Arts. She also has shown her works in the Sheppard Gallery at the University of Nevada-Reno; the Alta Ham Gallery at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas; the Delux Gallery in Reno; and the Chan Elliot Gallery and White Gallery in Sacramento.

A native of Springfield, IL, Yuroff received her bachelor of science degree in art from Illinois State University in 1970.

The Manville Gallery is partially supported by a grant from the Nevada State Council on the Arts. A reception is held at the opening of each show on the first Monday the month; hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.
