

Private.

Storrays Thaine, at the Office
Sept 21st 1860

My dear Nellie,

Your welcome letter of Aug 26th reached me this morning, and Nellie I can not express my joyful heart to you, when I am so happy to know of my Nellie's safety in her new home & her happiness there too, with him, whom she has chosen for her companion - Nellie may you always be thus happy, you deserve it, and may our Heavenly Father see fit to make you always happy.

I have been impatient to hear from you for some days -

I had not been home yet to tell the folks. Our father heard a portion of it ^{from you} & says you joy -

Thank you Nellie, for the Private note - Harry certainly is very kind, and I am I surprised too that he was so considerate - Of course Nellie whatever you choose to tell me about your self I shall be very much interested in, yet I can not of course urge you to tell me, any thing you would not wish to -

Here comes Peter
Gray - now he has gone away - How very pretty your house must be wish I could run in & give you a call, I would help you eat the delicious Jam & give you about, would take a seat on your lounge - & gather flowers from the big ones - and give roses & happy too perhaps, who knows. So you have not been traveled with the dropper yet - receive my congratulations -

Your description of your journey was very pleasant & in my mind eyes I could almost see the grandeur of the scenery. Nellie with me often & particularly too, if you go in to company write me what dress you own - likewise in receiving company - am I asking too much - Tell me please how you like the ladies. Mrs Johnson & Mary B - &c &c - I'm no artist but what others besides Harry thought you looked pretty at your wedding.

Letter from Eliza yesterday advised us that they would be here in October - I wish you could be here too - & keep us how a jolly time - - Nellie I miss you so much, and in Spite of my self, my tears I will glad come at the thought of my loneliness, but I will shut away in thinking of your happiness. Some was very kind to send you flowers. The orange blossoms shall be preserved - I thank you for them - they are very fragrant now. I hoped there would be a letter from you or Harry to aunt M - none came this morning. I presume there are some on the way.

Have come to noon back - good by for the present.
Evening.

a letter to aunt Meghett. From you & Harry came to night - also the papers with the marriage of Harry & Nellie. Thank you for mine. So Harry is happy too.
I see by his letter to Aunt Meghett.
Tell him how glad I am -

I made some calls this after noon - upon Hueda, Mrs. Jane - & Mrs. David Noyes, who is at the Elm House stopping a few weeks - The Norway girls often inquire for you & send love -

Had a letter from Aunt Meghett & Harry

Per Steamer -

Sept. 21st 26
1866 from Lu

Mrs May Harry R. Nichell.

Care of May Harry R. Nichell.

Appeal Office. Carson City,
Nevada

Private.

Norway Maine, at the Office
Sept 21st 1866

My dear Nellie.

Your welcome letter of
Aug 26th reached me this
morning, and Nellie I can not express my joyful heart
to you, when I am so happy to know of my Nellies safely in her new home & her happiness
there too, with him, whom she
has chosen for her companion -- Nellie may you always be
thus happy. You deserve it, and
may our Heavenly Father see fit make you always happy. -- I have been impatient to
hear from you for some days --

I have not been home yet to tell the folks. but father heard a portion of it your letter & wept for joy --

[page 2]

(Thank you Nellie, for the Private note -- Harry certainly is very kind, and I am surprised too that he was so
considerate -- Of course Nellie
whatever you choose to tell me
about yourself I shall be very
much interested in, yet I can
not of course urge you to tell me, any thing you would not wish too --)

Here comes Peter
Gray -- now he has gone
away -- How very pretty your house must be wish I could run in & give you
a call. I would help you eat the delicious fruit you write about. would take a seat
on your lounge -- & gather flowers from the big weeds -- and grow rosey & happy too perhaps, who knows. So you havent been

[page 3]

troubled with the dropsey yet -- receive my congratulations --

Your description of your journey was very pleasant &
in my mind eyes I could
almost see the grandeur of the scenery. Nellie write me often & particular too. If you go into company write me what dress you don -- likewise in receiving company -- am I
asking too much --? Tell me please
how you like the ladies. Mrs
Johnson & Mary B__ &c &c.
I've no doubt but what others besides Harry thought you looked
pretty at your wedding.

Letter from Eliza
yesterday assured me that they would be here in October -- I wish you could be here too -- & help us have a jolly time -- Nellie I miss you so much, and in

[page 4]

spite of my self, my tears will often come at the thought of my loneliness, but I drive them away in thinking of your happiness. Someone was very kind to send you flowers. The orange blossoms shall be preserved -- I
thank you for them, they are very
fragrant now. I hoped there would be a letter from you or Harry
to aunt M__ none came this morning. I presume there are some on the way.

Here comes the noon hack -- goodly for the present.

Evening,

A letter to aunt Mighels, from you & Harry came to night -- also the papers with the

marriage of Harry & Nellie, thank you
for mine. So Harry is happy too I see by his letter to aunt Mighels Tell him how glad I am --

I made some calls this after noon -- upon Hulda, Mrs Hane -- &
Mrs David Noyes, who is at the Elm
House stopping a few weeks -- The Norway girls often enquire for you & send love --

[in margin]

Hulda and Kate in particular --

[envelope]

Per Steamer --

[postmark: NORWAY SEP 27]

[stamp removed]

Mrs Maj Harry R Mighels.
Care of Maj Harry R Mighels.
Appeal Office. Carson City.
Nevada