Great Ruler of the Universe,
 All-seeing and benign,
 Look down upon and bless our work
 And be all glory Thine!

Oh! hear our prayers for our honored dead
 While bearing in our mind
 The memories graven on each heart
 For Auld Lang Syne.

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died;
Land of the pilgrim's pride;
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

Members of the Pacific Coast Bear Club:

Gentlemen:--As the time is fast approaching for our big annual hunt which will take place about September 15th, we hope that you are not overlooking the fact that you are expected to attend.

Game is reported as being very plentiful this year. We look forward to a grand time.

Captain Brown will exert every effort to familiarize himself with the haunts of the wily bruin, in order that there may be no delay at the hunting grounds when we arrive.

Bait will be distributed at least ten days in advance of the arrival of the hunters, so that there may be no trouble in locating fresh trails for the dogs. We expect to bag at least ten of the stock destroyers upon this trip.

Master of the hounds, Robt. Dunn, reports them (which number at present about forty) in fine condition. Under his watchful eye and careful training the young dogs are becoming very proficient trailers. We regret very much the loss of our big Texas hound, a very promising dog, presented to the club by its president, Gov. John Sparks. He was recently killed in a fight by his kennel mates.

We hope you are looking into the matter of a good saddle horse as this is one of the most essential things, and I might suggest right here that an occasional jaunt in the saddle is a very good thing in order to get into condition, as the writer can say from experience that the first few days in the saddle are very strenuous to those who are not in practice.

I will also say to the old timers that the financial game will not be so easily bagged as in the past. Some of our new members, I understand are quite proficient. Our camp will be supplied with every convenience for comfort. There will be plenty to eat, and possibly (?) something to drink. I would suggest that you provide yourselves with a few changes of underwear, not altogether on account of the possibility of changeable weather, but they may come in handy any old time. Captain Brown has a sure cure for bear fever.

In the matter of ammunition do not take too much, as the Captain has a mania for killing the bear with his hunting knife. Small game such as sage hen, quail, fish, horse-flies and mosquitoes are reported plentiful. This fact will be interesting to those who do not care for the strenuous task of trailing bruin or a hand at poker. For the benefit of Gov. Sparks the writer reports mint growing exuberant along the banks of Grizzly Creek.

You will be notified later of the date the hunting party will leave Reno. We sincerely hope that you will find it possible to attend. It will be the trip of your life.

JULY 1, 1907--Captain Brown has just brought in the claws of a 400-pound Cinnamon which he killed on Diamond Mountain June 26th, in a very exciting fight.

Yours truly,

CHAS. J. SADLEIR, Acting Secretary.

Some Candidates I Know

There came a goat, so spick and span,
"Pray, whither now?" quoth Pink and Dann.
"To have," said he with ne'er a stop,
"My whiskers cut at the baa-baa shop."

I asked Joe Gray "Why all this din?"
Said he, "I'm puzzled out and in,
For all my days and nights I've tried,
To steal the goat I fear to ride."

Funereal George sighed deep and long;
Said I to him, "How sad your song."
Said he, "If I use tact, will the eggs-act
Lodge work leave me, infact, intact?"

I asked Frank H. "Pray tell me why
You seem so glad?" He winked his eye.

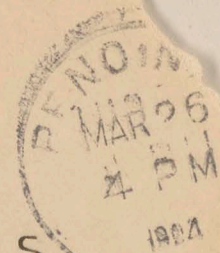

"I have no moustache, sir, you see,
And so they'll have no hold on me."

John H., so blond, was joshed all day.
Said I, "Why don't you run away?"
"Neigh, neigh, my stable mind," said he,
"Still keeps its equine-imity."

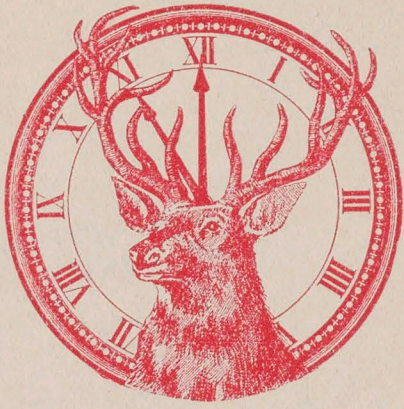

I asked Charles A. "Why don't you josh
The Elks who laugh at you, b'gosh?"
"Alas! I can't be rash," said he,
"Till I get through B. P. O. E."

Gray, Reid and Wright, but Reid is in,

Whereas, the all Wise Creator has seen fit to call to himself the soul and spirit of our beloved Governor and worthy and esteemed brother John Sparks; and,

Whereas, we fully know and realize that the hand of God, in taking from our midst one so beloved, one so honored, so esteemed and unforgetfull not only strikes sorrow to our midst by causing us to mourn the loss of a beloved member and brother; not only causes a multitude consisting of the entire commonwealth of our State to bow its head in sincere reverence and sorrow; but also takes from the home hearth its flame, and from the home surroundings its loving husband, father and protector; and we fully appreciate and realize that in the latter instance the sorrow strikes most deeply and most affectedly into the hearts of those who loved him beyond the love

Dear Sir <sup>and</sup> Brother

As a memento of your visit to our Aerie, on March 4, 1904, we have decided to tender to you the accompanying token of our respect and esteem as a brother Eagle.

This pin is made of Nevada gold, taken from the mines of Ironspan; and we hope you will accept it in the spirit of its offer, that of fraternal respect and patriotic appreciation of a brother Eagle's services to our State and our order.

We trust you will wear it with the remembrance of the Principles of our beloved

Midnight Resolution No. 7-7-7

Introduced by the members of the Coyote Club, March 14-15, 1903

WHEREAS, During the long-to-be-remembered Twenty-first Session of the Nevada Legislature, the members of the Hope-Not-to-be-Forgotten Coyote Club have not only led a strenuous, exciting and most conspicuous existence, but have been most considerately, kindly and sociably entertained by those of their friends who realize that life is short, time is fleeting, and that we will all be a long time dead; and,

WHEREAS, We are loth to depart the good and hospitable City of Carson without in some manner reciprocating and taking some step to commemorate and cause to endure forever the name, fame and fair reputation of our most worthy and beloved order; now

Therefore, be it resolved, by our most exalted membership, in executive session convened, That the rules be suspended and that the club hold its session, out of order, at 9 o'clock p. m. at Armory Hall, on Monday evening, March 16, 1903, and from that on to an hour indefinite; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be engrossed and delivered to our esteemed friends, with a request that they remember the time and place, and with due notice that no refusals will be accepted.

I have some of the Lampasas boys at work. I heard from John Nichols, Dick Kolt, and Judge Thomas, last night. The Lampasas boys expect to meet you here. W. J. Melton, with whom you are acquainted, is our Brigade Commander and has considerable influence with the boys. Marion will be here and give you a chance to roll him on the grass.

He is much larger than when you saw him last, but is not near so much of a man. I do not know that he feels his age much, but he has not the get up and get he used to have. He is 67 years now, and I was 47, the 6th of this month.

All we need for the best kind of an old times time is, fair weather. Up to this time it has been raining from one to three days every week since January, so we are

REUNION

At Menardville, Texas, July 26, 27 and 28, 1905.

Menardville, Tex., _____ 1905.

hopeful of a dry time for the reunion.

Most of the boys are coming in hacks and wagons, with complete camping and fishing outfits.

Let the affairs of State take a rest while you take a trip of recreation through the old camping grounds, and meet many an old friend for, very likely the last time.

Your Sincere Friend & Comrade,
J. J. Callan.

The James Callan, named above, you carried in your arms, when he was a babe at Camp Colorado. He was born when Elijah Cox died of measles. Do you remember?
