

Policy No. 4825106.

The Company is authorized to insert the number and date of Policy in this note.

$ 1317<sup>50</sup>

On the first day of June 1894, for value received, I promise to pay to the Sun Insurance Office, of London (at their office in San Francisco, Cal.,) or order, the sum of One hundred thirty one and 50/100 Dollars, with interest thereon from maturity, at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, in consideration of the execution and delivery by said Company of its Policy of Insurance, numbered as above, bearing date the 8th day of June 1894.

BANK OF CALIFORNIA

This note is given to evidence the indebtedness due said Company as premium upon Policy as above. In the event of any loss under said Policy prior to the maturity of this note, the amount due hereon shall become immediately payable and be deducted from any claim under said Policy.

Failure to pay said note at maturity shall at once cancel said Policy and such cancellation, or cancellation from any cause prior to the maturity of this note shall render the maker hereof liable for the earned premium, if canceled by the Company, or short term rates and expenses, if canceled by the maker hereof;—in the event of failure to pay such earned premium, or short term rates and expenses, upon demand, said Company, at its option, may declare the whole sum due hereunder immediately payable.

In the event of payment of this note after maturity, the Company may, at its option, reinstate said Policy, but in no event shall any liability attach for any loss that may occur while said payment is in default.

Dated at Man this 25 day of May 1894

Witness: R. Hyman
