The Fair in 1915 has started things on the road to prosperity, and I had an offer or two that looked good but am waiting for something substantial before going into anything. I want you to write to me and if you can think of anything that in your opinion would be a good thing to do.

everything is a guess.

I hope things are going along smooth for you on 32 and that matters are straightened out between the various Companies, to the satisfaction of all parties concerned. Give my regards to Bill Beckham, J. H. Hedrick (The Cook) Dan Mc-Kellop W^m F. Halley, Paul Hunt and I will
