

WORKS OF
HUBERT HOWE BANCROFT.

San Francisco, Cal.,
May 3, 1886.

DEAR SIR:

We have the pleasure to assure you that the publication of Mr. HUBERT HOWE BANCROFT'S Historical Works will positively proceed to completion, with only a temporary interruption consequent upon the recent fire. The volume that would have been issued on the 20th of July will be delayed a little over one month. With thanks for your generous patronage hitherto, we will say that remittances now will be received with very grateful and special appreciation.

A. L. BANCROFT & CO.,
Publishers.

NOTICE.—As our business is divided into Departments, and at times an individual may have an account in more than one of them, it is not impossible that there may be an additional amount charged against you elsewhere on our books.
