Wells Fargo & Company Express

Carson, Nev. 6/24/1909

RECEIVED from

W. H. ... said to contain value declared by shipper as

Twenty dollars marked

Which Wells Fargo & Company, hereinafter called the Company, undertakes to carry upon the following terms and conditions, to which the shipper hereby agrees, and as evidence of such agreement accepts this Shipping Receipt.

1. It being understood that the Company relies upon railroad, steamboat, stage and other lines for transportation, and has no control over same, it is agreed that its liability shall be that of a forwarder only, and that it shall not be liable for any damage to said property from delay of any railroad train, steamboat or other conveyance on which the same may be carried.

2. The charge for forwarding said property being based upon a valuation not exceeding Fifty Dollars, unless a greater value is declared, it is hereby agreed that the Company shall not be liable in any event for more than Fifty Dollars unless a greater value is stated herein and in case of partial loss or damage, shall not be liable for more than such a proportion of same as Fifty Dollars, or the value declared herein, bears to the actual value if greater.

3. If the Company has no office at destination, it shall carry said property to its office nearest or most convenient to destination, and there notify consignee or deliver said property to connecting carrier to complete transportation, and the Company shall not be liable for any loss or damage occurring after giving such notice to consignee or after delivery to connecting carrier.

4. The Company, unless negligent, shall not be liable for loss of or damage or delay to said property caused by quarantine, customs regulations, strikes, riots or perils of navigation, fire or steam, the act of God, heat, cold, wet or decay, nor for the escape, injury or death of live birds or animals, the Company not being a carrier thereof, except at owner's risk. Nor shall the Company be liable in any event for any loss of or damage or delay to said property from any cause whatever, unless the same shall be proved to have resulted from the fraud or negligence of the Company, or its servants.

5. The said property being packed, secured and addressed by the shipper, it is agreed that the Company shall not be liable for any delay or damage to same resulting from improper or insufficient packing, securing and marking, nor shall the said Company be liable for any damage to fragile articles or articles consisting wholly or in part of or contained in glass or chinaware, unless the same shall be marked, described and accepted as such herein, and additional compensation paid or agreed to be paid therefor.

Nor shall the Company be liable for any loss of money, jewelry or valuable papers, unless the same are separately packed, sealed, marked as such and so described herein.

6. If any C. O. D. is not paid by consignee within thirty days from the date hereof, it is agreed that the Company may, at its option, return the said property to shipper, who shall pay charges for transportation both ways, and that the liability of the Company shall be that of warehouseman only, except during actual transportation and twenty-four hours thereafter.

7. In no event shall the Company be liable for any loss, damage or delay unless written claim therefor shall be presented to it within ninety days of the date of such loss, damage or delay; and any suit for or on account of such loss, damage or delay shall be brought within one year from the date hereof or be forever barred, any statute of limitation to the contrary notwithstanding.

8. It is further agreed that any carrier or party liable on account of loss of or damage to said property shall have the full benefit of any insurance that may have been effected upon or on account of said property.

9. The Company shall not be required to deliver said property except within its present delivery limits unless herein otherwise agreed and specially paid for. At points where the Company has no delivery service, the consignee shall receive said property at the office of the Company.

10. If said property shall be forwarded upon Ocean Routes, it is agreed that the regular Bill of Lading of any steamship company to whom the same may be delivered, shall limit and define the Company's liability with respect to such ocean transportation unless an extra charge has been paid or agreed to be paid for Marine Insurance and noted herein by receiving agent of the Company.

11. All the terms and conditions of this receipt shall apply to any forwarding or return of said property, and shall extend to and inure to the benefit of any person, company or corporation to whom the Company may deliver the said property for transportation, storage or delivery.
