O.K. arrived at La Union

Dear Brother Chas:-
Well we are nearly
at the end of our
trip. for I guess we
will reach La Union
tomorrow morning.
We are anchored off
Acapulco Salvador.
Today been here
since early yesterday
morning. yesterday
being Sunday they
wouldnt take out the
cargo for double day.
so we had to lay here
all day yesterday.
We amused ourselves
this morning by
catching a shark
took a $\frac{3}{8}$ " butchers hook and a $\frac{1}{4}$ " hemp rope baited the hook with a piece of beef & hooked
one right away. We

pulled him about half
way up the side of
the boat alright. &
got some pictures of
him & then tried to get him up far enough
to get some teeth &
also kill him. but he
commenced to kick
& straightened out the
hook so got away.

We also saw the
Volcano Yzallo in
eruption last night
It certainly looked
pretty on a dark
night the flames
shooting up in the
air and then the
lava running down
the side of the mountain
We have quite a bunch
of young fellows on
board fine fellows too

Two going to southern Chile to start up a sawmill. Two going
to Panama in the
government service
and three of us going
to La Union. I like
the ~~rest~~ country here
better than any
since California and
the natives seem to be of a little better
class than any others
we have seen. You
Bull has a bad case
on that Stockton
girl of his. writes
a book to her every
day. going to be
married when he gets back ect. What are the fellows going
to do about a house
this year. I hope
