UNIVERSITY HYMN

May we through life thy teaching bless,
Endow our souls with thankfulness,
Void every action of offense,
Divest our lives of false pretense,
    And make our hearts forgiving.
And may our reverence for thee
A guide and inspiration be,
That in the future we may find
Our lives a solace to mankind,
    And better for the living.

While pulsing years may come and go,
Life speed her shuttle to and fro,
With each succeeding festal day
O hand of Hope still point the way
    To some serener height.
And where the lamps of learning glow
Teach us to feel, teach us to know;
And light of truth, with steady ray,
Disclose each pitfall in the way,
    And guide our steps aright.
