

Galena Creek - 6 a.m.

(placed last night)

Submerged plug, now projects at low crest  $3\frac{1}{4}$  in.

(placed at noon)

N. W. Stake - near plug, level now  $5\frac{1}{8}$  in, below notch

According to sundry water marks water has been  $1\frac{1}{2}$  in above notch
and has reflected even higher.

But acc. to tree projecting from bank to center of plug.

Highest mark in night (at least) was $1\frac{1}{8}$  in, above prev. average crest.

High level notched.

Fluctuation of present sub levels,  $\nabla$  &  $\nabla$  &  $\nabla$

East stake - level quite below low crest notch of yesterday - noon

Temp  $32^{\circ}$  F,