

Friday Aug 27.

A party reached the summit today at 5.15 pm. It consisted of F. B. Alverson, proprietor of Brockway Hotel, George Hamlin Fitch, literary editor of the S.F. Chronicle, Harold Fitch of S.F., Miss C Mc Killop of S.F., Mrs Porterfield of Oakland and Mr and Mrs Joe Osborn of Sawtelle, Calif. We came up by the incline road to Longbeaugh's Camp and then struck up through a

Canyon and reached the hogback that is separated from Mount Rose by a deep canyon. There
we left the horses
and pushed on on foot,
reaching the summit
in one and a half hours.
