Mr J. E. Church. 7

I am in receipt of your letter from Tahoe City & am greatly relieved to know Mr. Hawkins has been taken care of. It sure bothered me a lot. Now dont pinch your self to make a payment for me, I'll get by & anyhow President Clark will forward my check for July & that will help a great deal.

I believe I would certainly hammer Calif.

I have made myself a fine musical instrument (Trombone) & will be quite a novelty to keep. The Inventor & owner of the factory insists that I stay with him in charge & promises a very good future. However I will consider it as something for the future possibly Best regards
