

Excursion of American Geographical Society

The following reply has been received, to the invitation extended to the excursionists of the Society now in San Francisco, to visit the University:

"Thank you for your hospitable offer
"which we cannot accept, Impossible for
"our special train to make any stops or visit
"your University."
W. M. Davis "

Consequently, the plan for a reception of the excursionists must be abandoned.

Requisition