Under the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, the types of accommodations listed in item 1 below are eligible for decontrol on July 1, 1947, or on the date of first renting after July 1, 1947.

These accommodations remain subject to the rent regulation unless the landlord files this "Decontrol Report" with the rent office within 30 days after July 1, 1947, or within 30 days after the date of first renting subsequent to July 1, 1947.

If the landlord fails to file this "Decontrol Report" within the applicable period these housing accommodations remain subject to the provisions of the rent regulation until the date on which the "Decontrol Report" is filed.

File this report in DUPLICATE with the rent office shown above. A copy will be returned to you.

1. Type of accommodation: (Check one type)

- A. A newly constructed dwelling unit, the construction of which was completed on or after February 1, 1947.
 - B. A dwelling unit created by a conversion completed on or after February 1, 1947, which changed the structure from a nonhousing to a housing use.
 - C. A dwelling unit created by a conversion completed on or after February 1, 1947, in which a structural change in a residential unit or units was made involving substantial alterations or remodeling and which resulted in the creation of additional housing accommodations.
- NOTE.—Housing accommodations in items A, B, and C above are eligible for decontrol, except that contracts for the rental of housing accommodations to veterans of World War II and their immediate families, the construction of which was assisted by allocations or priorities under the Veterans Emergency Housing Act of 1946, shall remain in full force and effect.
- D. A dwelling unit which was in existence on February 1, 1945, and which at no time during the period February 1, 1945, to January 31, 1947, both dates inclusive, was rented (other than to members of the immediate family of the occupant) as housing accommodations.

2. If this dwelling was not rented as housing accommodations on July 1, 1947, indicate the date it was first rented after July 1, 1947 July 1st. 1947

WARNING.—It is not necessary that this report be sworn to, but false statements may subject you to the penalties provided by law.
