Company A Wins Cup

Handsome Trophy Awarded Capt. W. C. Harris

After much deliberation in regard to the competitive drill during the annual inspection Company A was awarded the silver trophy held so long by Company B. Captain Laubach expressed himself as highly pleased with the showing made by the battalion. Promptly at 10 a. m. the battalion formed on the Mackay Field. After a short delay, Capt. Laubach, U. S. A., accompanied by President Stubbs and Lieutenant McClure inspected the battalion, guard mounting, battalion drill, close and extended order were executed in the order named. Last of all came the competitive drill. Company B, under the command of Capt. Jepson executed several movements in close order and extended order. Platoon drill completed the executions in competitive drill.

May Day Dancers

QUAD TO BE SCENE OF DANCING

On May 16th, 1911, Class Day

An enjoyable entertainment in the form of a series of folk dances is being prepared by the members of the department of physical culture, to be held Tuesday of commencement week on the quadrangle of the University campus. Miss Howe and her pupils will assist by presenting a pantomime, and the band will render several musical selections. The program will be introduced by a grand march of the nations, in which all those who take part in the dances later will parade in costume. The dances to be given are the minuet, the American dance, Spanish, Scotch, Irish and Brownie dances. Seventy girls will take part, and as nearly every dancer appears in two dances, the number is equivalent to one hundred and forty. Miss Howe's Greek pantomime, which is to be performed between the dances, promises to be an enjoyable feature. The program offered is in a measure unique, in so far as it represents, not the work of a few highly trained individuals specially selected from a large class, but every member of the physical culture department. Then too, it is an entertainment by the girls. Heretofore they have taken little part in University affairs, so far as the public is concerned, except in the case of the basketball players. Now they have an opportunity to "hold up their end" of the responsibility, and all have responded enthusiastically.

The recent rise into prominence and popularity of the folk dance is almost unbelievable. Such dances are taught in the gymnasiums of nearly all the larger colleges in many Y. W. C. A. gymnasiums, and in almost every public play ground, and dances somewhat similar to the folk dance in character—gymnastic dances, artistic dances, and interpretative dances—have almost wide a spread. The folk dance of any nation is as much a means of expression of that nation's racial soul as is its folk songs, its legends or its superstitions, and many of these dances have been handed down through the ages, in their original form, by one generation to the other. The gymnastic dance is one means of artistic expression, splendid exercise, thus combining beauty and utility.

HIGH SCHOOL PARTY IN GYM

Friday Night Party in the Gym—Adelphi Literary Society Present

Friday evening the Adelphi Literary Society spent a most enjoyable evening in the University gymnasium. Seated around two long tables, the members were served with salad and sandwiches, ice cream, cake, and punch. After the repast, the president, Ben Curler, called upon the following students to respond to toasts: A Brief History of the Society.....

Reginald Stendihl

The Value of Public Speaking.....

Gertrude Hinch

Reull Cottrell

Views of One on the Program.....

After the toasts were finished the students danced informally until about eleven. All spent a most happy evening.

The Adelphi Society is an active organization of the University High School. Since the beginning of the year the students show a marked improvement in ability to render parts assigned on the program, and in general interest in the work.

Here's to the Adelphi,
Whose life work has just begun.
May it live and flourish and prosper,
Till its wreath of laurels is won.

Here's to each Delphi member,
May his life be so staunch and true
That his work will bring honor and prestige
To the High School of N. S. U.

SENIOR FARCE PROGRESSING

The Senior farce from all we can learn is progressing rapidly. The "College Widow" has been selected as the subject for their play. The characters are both serious and comical when they burst forth with their local hits on the landmarks (queeners) throughout the play.

TO THE CADETS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA

The Commandant desires to express his appreciation of the manner in which all the members of the Cadet Battalion conducted themselves during the annual inspection last Friday.

The appearance of all the cadets was excellent and the drill could scarcely have been improved upon. In fact the cadets conducted themselves like regulars.

The inspector has assured the commandant that the detail of an officer on the active list of the army will be continued notwithstanding the fact that the number of cadets is thirty-four below the minimum prescribed by the war department to keep an officer on the active list detailed. This is due to the excellent showing made by the cadets at inspection.

Company A was given the decision in competitive drill. However, before the company drill the inspector was inclined to give the decision to Company B. The general appearance and bearing of the cadets of that company having been better during the inspection proper.

PROF. JACKSON IN RENO

Former Mines Professor Visits

Last Friday evening R. D. Jackson visited a few of his old friends in Reno. Since Mr. Jackson gave up his position on the faculty he has been engaged in exploration work in South America.

Prof. Jackson may be present at the Silver Jubilee in two weeks.

FACULTY WOMEN ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Thurtell Is Guest of Honor

Complimentary to Mrs. Henry Thurtell, who leaves with her children early in June to join Mr. Thurtell in Washington, D. C., the Woman's Faculty club entertained at a handsomely appointed luncheon at the Riverside at one o'clock Saturday. Besides the club members the wives of the Regents were invited and Mrs. Thurtell's mother, Mrs. Snow, and her house guest, Mrs. Mary Sherman. The long table was most artistically adorned with pink carnations and greens, and apple blossoms also added their fragrant beauty. A most delicious menu was faultlessly served and the place cards, adorned with the club's monogram in gold lettering, bore the names of the guests. The pretty scene was enhanced by many beautiful gowns and hats, giving color and style to the merry gathering. Seated around the luncheon table were Mrs. H. Thurtell, Mrs. J. E. Stubbs, Mrs. H. E. Reid, Mrs. Geo. Taylor, Mrs. Snow, Mrs. J. M. Fulton, Mrs. A. A.

P. Ferguson, Mrs. Heiler, Mrs. Mary Sherman, Mrs. J. E. Church, Mrs. Richard Brown, Mrs. Sawvell, Miss De Laguna, Miss Bardenwerper, Mrs. Jacobson, Mrs. O. Johnstone, Mrs. S. Dinsmore, Mrs. C. Knight, Miss Lewers, Miss Armstrong, Miss Meeghan, Mrs. M. Kennedy, Mrs. G. E. Kaye, Mrs. Watson, Miss M. Mack, Miss E. Berry, Miss K. Rigelhauth, Miss Gotbolt, Mrs. P. B. Kennedy, Mrs. R. Adams, Mrs. J. G. Serugham, Mrs. S. T. Smith, Mrs. J. D. Layman, Mrs. H. Boardman, Mrs. L. McClure, Mrs. Hartman.

CANDIDATES BALL

The cast of the "Russian Honey-moon" are giving a hard times dance in the gym next Friday night, May 5. This will be the last social dance of the college year. The floor will be in perfect condition and the best of music will be provided. It is understood that the play given by the dramatic club was not a financial success and the players have hit on this scheme for their final appearance. The floor will be one great stage and each person present his own actor. The show will be a good one. All students should avail themselves of this last opportunity to have a good time. Never again will the same old bunch be back together. Hale's orchestra will provide the music. Admission fifty cents only. Be there.

U. N. LIBRARY HAS MANY NEW PERIODICALS

The latest addition to the list of periodicals received by the University library is seven of the leading British reviews, monthly and quarterly. They are Blackwood's Edinburgh magazine, Contemporary Review, Edinburgh Review, Fortnightly Review, Nineteenth Century, Quarterly Review, and Westminster Review.

They have been placed with the other periodicals in the library reading room, each in its alphabetic place.

A week ago last Friday the Hind lot of new books arrived at the library. They are ready for inspection by faculty members and students.

Here follow a few of the titles: Pierce's Principles of Wireless Telegraphy, Parloa's Camp Cookery, Lewis' Elementary Latin Dictionary, Wilcox's Municipal Franchises, Calkins' Proto-zoology, Kraus' Descriptive Mineralogy, Folsom's Entomology, Stauffer's Modern Tunnel Practice, Widtsoe's Dry Farming, Richard's Sanitation in Daily Life, Weingreen's Electric Power Plant Engineering, Harrison's Landscape Painting, Jarchow's Forest Planting, Grabau's Index of Fossils, Piersol's Normal Histology, Moscheles' Life of Beethoven, Underhill's Solenoids, Heller's Studies in Modern German Literature, Sarcy's Siege de Paris, Coffin's Victor Analysis, and Slocum's Strength of Materials.

THE CLIMAX

"The Climax" will be seen at the Majestic tonight. It is one of the most remarkable dramas of modern times. It contains all the essentials of success. First, it has a tremendous plot, which is worked out with admirable power. Second, it has great heart interest; and third, it has situations which for intensity have never been surpassed. The play is by Edward Locke, dramatist, who has seized upon the salient points in modern life and has transferred them to the stage with fidelity to nature. It has been one of the most successful plays on the road this season.

FORMER PROFESSOR HERE.

Professor R. D. Jackson, former professor of mines at the University of Nevada, stopped off in Reno last night to see some of his old friends. Mr. Jackson has been carrying on some very extensive mining explorations in South America and in African diamond fields. At present he is consulting engineer for a large mining corporation of Eastern capitalists and has headquarters in San Francisco.

Professor Jackson was connected with the University of Nevada for nearly ten years, where he has a host of friends.

ED LUNSFORD CANDIDATE FOR CITY ATTORNEY

Among the names appearing on the election ballots is E. F. Lunsford. Mr. Lunsford is not only a practicing attorney but he has had considerable experience in the world as well. Although unable to attend college Mr. Lunsford is heartily in sympathy with all University happenings.

Since his partnership with Frank Mayers, coach of the 1909-10 rugby team of the University of Nevada, Mr. Lunsford has won many friendships with the U. of N. men that he has become acquainted with.

SILVER JUBILEE

What are you going to do during the Silver Jubilee?

Commencement Week begins May 14th, two weeks from last Sunday. Are you going to stay during Commencement week?

Each and every student is needed here at that time.

Heretofore the students have been too anxious to "get out of town" as soon as their examinations are over. This year above all others the University needs every student during the Silver Jubilee. Many visitors will be here at that time. What can they say when a rooting section of a few live ones respond to the call. Will you?

The program for Commencement Week will include many pleasant gatherings of students, present, past and future. Why will you not join us?

It is not necessary to mention at this time that each and every member of the student body can greatly aid his Alma Mater by being present during the last week of 1911.

Another duty falls on all of us during this time. We owe our presence at the U. of N. during this one week to our benefactor. The one man who has aided our University during the last four or five years.

If for no other reason than this we should be present to meet "Our Friend."

During Commencement Week the members of the graduating class will appreciate the presence of all the student body during Commencement Week. Will you respond?

Junior Preps Enjoy a Feast

Last Friday evening Manzanita hall was the scene of a very enjoyable party given by the third year high students. The younger co-eds showed all their visitors that they could entertain. Dancing, games and refreshments concluded one of the merriest parties ever given by the high school students.

Dainty refreshments were served by the young ladies to the members of the 1912 High School class.

A LAST WORD BEFORE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Don't throw your vote away. Your own convictions are as good as anyone's. Vote that way.

Mr. or Miss is so pleasant, so jolly that I think he or she will make a good officer. Just such thoughts will lead any one to an erroneous selection.

The Sagebrush urges upon each and every member of the student body a duty they owe, and that duty or trust is—to elect the officers which will stand for the best we can find in the West.

The U. of N. needs you, individually and collectively, to aid in the greatest crusade for students ever instituted by any university.

The Sagebrush stands for the "biggest and best."

Five hundred students next Fall. Use your influence to aid in keeping them there.

VOLE RIGHT.

O, YE SENIORS

All photos for cuts should be given to the editor before Thursday, May 4, at the very latest as it will take a week or more to have engravings finished for the commencement issue, May 15th. In order to make this last issue a success in every way we need the cooperation of all the class of '11.

Plans for a "class history" of the members of 1911 are being worked out by Mr. M. E. Jepson. Any ideas will be gladly received by him.—Edit.

MANY ENTRIES FOR Annual Track Meet

Prof. J. G. Scourgham, chairman of the entrees committee of the Nevada Academic league, reports nearly 80 entries for the track meet May 13, two weeks from today, on the Mackay Athletic field at the University of Nevada. The track meet is an annual affair at the university and attracts a great deal of interest among the students.

This year field day comes just the day before Baccalaureate Sunday, May 14, 1911. Clarence H. Mackay and a party of friends, including Mrs. Mackay, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt (nee Virginia Fair, Col. George Harvey, and many others, will be present during the Silver Jubilee, May 12-17.

Former students, members of the faculty, graduates and friends will be present to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the establishment of the University of Nevada.

MME. BERNHARDT'S ECCENTRICITIES

Numerous are the theories that used to be told of Mme. Sarah Bernhardt's little eccentricities, and to some of these at least she pleads guilty. "It is quite true," she said, "that I used to wear boy's clothes in my studio when executing statues and busts, which was one of my hobbies, although I have no time for it now. The fact was that when so engaged I had to mount ladders, hence the garb. Nor can I deny that I have slept in a coffin. It happened in this way. Years ago I was painfully thin and habitually in very poor health. It was thought I was consumptive. A friend said to me: 'I want to make you a present,' and I replied: 'If that is so, you had better send me a coffin'. And in due course a coffin arrived. I kept it in my bedroom. It is still in my possession."—London Tid-Bits. Bernhardt is at the Majestic on Wednesday, May 10th.

High School

Last Tuesday afternoon the H. H. Howe Literary Society held its last meeting. The program was well prepared and showed that the members of this society have a great deal of talent.

Original stories by Misses Winn and Anderson were very well prepared. Miss Nettie recited very well "Tom Sawyer Whitewashing a Fence," "A Glance Over the Past," by Miss Frances Smith, and a "Glance Into the Future" by Grace Harris made the program very interesting.

A debate which the sides had not studied their subject completed the program.

Literary Societies Meet Next Friday

May 5th will witness the last meeting of the High School literary societies. Speeches by Basketball captains together with short presentation speeches followed by the granting of block Ps to members of basketball teams.

But prices were so very high,
She had to vegetate.

It is not Mary's dance, you know,
Which so well her purpose serves;
The part that doth entrance them so
Is that Mary has the curves.
