

THE SENIOR NUMBER CLASS 1913

NEXT FRIDAY IS ELECTION DAY OF A. S. U. N. IN THE GYM.

Class of 1913 Nearly Alumni

The Time Is Drawing Near for 1913 to Bid Farewell to College Days

Two short weeks more and the class of 1913 will have passed from its four years' period as an active class in the University of Nevada. Nevada hates to see it go. 1913 has been a good class for the college. It has been well represented in every department of which the university boasts; its graduates are representative men and women of those colleges, and they enter their graduate work with a confidence in themselves which has been attained by reason of their confidence in their school.

'13 has also been represented in that field of college remote from the class room. Bill Settlemyer has occupied the chair of the student body at a critical period in its history. During his administration there have been times when interest has reached its very lowest ebb—when those who knock have seemed to triumph over those who boost. Though these storms A. S. U. N., under President Settlemyer of the class of 1913 has safely weathered. The record of the 1912-1913 achievements will compare favorably with those of any previous years. In the executive committee the class is further represented by Harold Layman, vice president; Eunice A. Cagwin, secretary; Nat Wilson, treasurer; and Lillian Davey, women's athletic manager.

In athletics the members of 1913 have been splendidly represented. By football, baseball, basketball and track the seniors are represented in the Block N society. Football will suffer without Mackay, Settlemyer, Layman and Charles. Probably to a less extent, but still to a degree that varsity athletics will appreciate, track, baseball and basketball at the U. of N. will feel the loss of the class of 1913.

The following is the official list of the candidates for graduation:

MASTER OF ARTS

Charles Leroy Brown, Reno, Nev.

BACHELOR OF ARTS

College of Arts and Science

Eunice Adelaide Cagwin, Sparks, Nevada; Marie Augusta De Flon, Eureka, Nevada; Lillian Adelaide Davey, Grass Valley, California; Mildred E. Donohue, Bodie, California; Emma

WELCOME!

SANTA CLARA U. CONQUERS U. OF NEVADA IN GREAT MEET

By WILLIAM UNMACK

You Nevada boys are to be complimented on the fight you put up against Santa Clara Saturday. Both you and Santa Clara are to be complimented for the give and take friendly spirit that characterized the men of both teams throughout Saturday's hard fight. Santa Clara won by a score of 67 2-3 to 54 1-3, but the Nevada boys showed the same spirit that I have always admired in them upon the football field—that spirit of fight, fight, fight until the last.

Long before the meet started this spirit of friendship was in evidence and it is just such actions that go to make for real clean sport and with this friendship uppermost, with a spirit of keen, healthy rivalry that exists, it looks as if the contests between Nevada and Santa Clara are going to grow in importance and in a few years' time will rank on the same plane as the big California-Stanford meet does.

Nevada has a good team. In the hour of defeat the students of the university and the supporters of athletics in Nevada state have reason to be proud of the lads that wore the big N Saturday. The boys, every one of them, gave everything they had and made an impression on me permanently that very few teams of that caliber do.

It would be telling an untruth if I were to say that Nevada has the best team I have ever seen. It would not be doing the Nevada or Santa Clara boys justice if I were to say that with a little more luck Nevada would have won. It was not luck that was wanted; it was head work that was wanted, and it is this big essential that only comes after long participation in competition.

This Nevada up to the present has not been able to get, mainly due to its geographical position but the way is now paved for regular competition and it will not be long before Nevada is on the athletic map. Do not misunderstand me. Nevada is already on the athletic map so far as this coast is concerned, but the east—the irony of it—refuses to recognize an athlete or a college, or rather refuses to recognize as such until such man or college has "shown them." They are from Missouri in the east, but I am missing my guess if within five years the athletes of Nevada do not show these skeptical people that Nevada is on the map not only in the west but throughout the country.

Your Distance Men

In Ogilvie, Kent and Reynolds Nevada varsity has a trio of distance men she may well be proud of. These boys won all the distance events from half mile to two miles. Ogilvie ran a beautiful, well judged race in the mile, having made the pace all the way. In the last lap Hovey pushed the Santa Clara hope, Harry Bennison, to a finish and beat out the prune picker easily in as good a piece of generalship as could be seen. In that boy Kent you Nevadans have some runner. He's plucky and he's heady. I never want to see a prettier piece of work than that Kent-McCarthy go for a second place in the two-mile. It was a peach. Kent killed his man—he's a fighter to the last. In praising Kent, remember, I am not detracting one mite from the glory due Reynolds—the Grass Valley lad won a pretty and well generated race, and I know Nevada is proud of him.

Your captain, Bringham, is a strong man. I understand he is to leave you next year and Nevada will feel his loss. In spite of the fact that Bringham made a mistake in the 440 Saturday that may have cost him the race, I recognize in him an athlete of the first water. He's got the speed and the stamina, and the admiration that his team holds for him, shows him a captain of ability.

Santa Clara

In meeting Santa Clara you boys met a team of experience and worth. To be defeated by a team of the caliber that Santa Clara sent up here Saturday is no dishonor. From that meet Nevada will gain many pointers in the game.

Haskamp was the individual star of the day. In your paper I am going to say few words of his performance. Because of the speedy gale that blew down the straight away, his record of 10 seconds flat cannot be allowed as equaling the Pacific association record. However, the lad proved himself one of the most versatile athletes on the coast and it would be to Santa Clara's advantage to enter the boy in the all-round championships of America at Los Angeles in July.

Commencement Program Ready

The Official Announcement of the Week's Doings Made Yesterday

The commencement program, which has been withheld from publication hitherto pending the acceptance of a commencement speaker, was finally arranged yesterday, when a telegram arrived stating that the Rev. Elmer I. Goshen of Salt Lake City would deliver the commencement day address. This year's commencement promises to be one of the best in the history of the school. It will be featured by two of the most eloquent speakers it has been the lot of Nevada audiences to hear. The Rev. Robert J. Burdette of Los Angeles will deliver the baccalaureate sermon in the gymnasium on the Sunday morning preceding commencement. The Rev. I. Goshen will be the orator of the day on May 14.

Owing to the rush and worry of these last few days, the seniors, at a special meeting last night, decided to give up their senior farce. This left vacant in the program the evening of May 10 and Miss Elsie Sameth promptly offered to insert on that evening folk songs and dances by the class in physical training.

The program for commencement week as issued by President Lewers yesterday is as follows:

Friday, May 9, 8 p. m.—Nevada academic declamation contest in the gymnasium.

Saturday, May 10—Meeting of the honorary board of visitors; exhibition in domestic science department; Nevada academic field meet on the Mackay athletic grounds; 8 p. m. folk songs and dances by the students of the department of physical training.

Sunday, May 11, 10 a. m.—Baccalaureate sermon by Robert J. Burdette of Los Angeles, in the gymnasium; 3 p. m.; band concert on the Mackay quadrangle by the U. of N. cadet band.

Monday, May 12—Thesis day; 8 p. m.; address before Nevada Historical society; meeting board of regents.

Tuesday, May 13—Class day; 8 p. m.; cantata, "The Rose Maiden," by the Girls' Glee.

Wednesday, May 14—Commencement day; 10:30 a. m.; Commencement address by Rev. Elmer I. Goshen of Salt Lake City; 8 p. m., senior ball.

Nevada Grads Hold Reunion

Boys in Tonopah Gather At Mizpah to Renew Their College Days

Twenty members of the alumni and former students of the University of Nevada participated in the reunion banquet held at the Mizpah grill last evening. The attendance was better than was expected for several former students, whose names were unknown to those responsible for the dinner, pre-ented an appearance and joined in the story telling that ran throughout the course of the dinner.

Old tales of college happenings were related and the occurrences proved of general interest. College larks, in which various professors figured to their sorrow were also told.

The oldest graduate present was Sam Durkee who was a member of the class of 1895. Durkee informed the gathering that he had attended a reunion several years ago at Johannesburg, South Africa, at which 20 former Nevada students were present. He declared reunion dinners were held annually at Johannesburg and were always attended by Nevada students who lived within a radius of 100 miles of that city.

Arrangements were discussed for the holding of a dance in the near future at which former co-eds of the Nevada university would be the guests of honor. Among those present last evening were F. O. Breeding, Clinton Sparks, Dr. Robert O'Neal, Raymond Robb, Jay Carpenter, K. J. Booth, Homer Williams, Cecil Williams, C. S. McKenzie, Fred Ninnis, Milan Davidovich, James Nesbitt, Walter Anderson, Wallace Alexander, Joe Scott, W. J. Moran, E. J. Erickson, R. B. Layman, A. M. Boyle, Sam Durkee, Ernest Boynes and J. P. Hart.

Walter Palmer returned Friday night from Gerlach where he went to qualify as a witness in a land contest case which the Western Pacific is fighting with some holders of mining claims in that region.

High Schools Plan for Meet

Dr. Maxwell Adams of the department of chemistry is making an extended tour through the southern districts of the state inspecting the schools and incidentally arousing a greater enthusiasm in the academic meet, which will be held on the Mackay oval on May 10. In a letter to a member of the faculty, Dr. Adams has the following to say of the schools and the men they will enter in the coming meet:

"From Yerington they will send three or more boys to compete. Their best man, who was entered in the high jump, has hurt himself and will probably not be able to compete. It will cripple their team, but they will come anyhow.

"The Tonopah boys are rounding into shape and will send three good men. Flood, in the distances, is probably their best man. John Harrington is also counted upon by them as a point winner. There will be several others than these men from Tonopah.

"Goldfield will probably send three men. Their captain, Rolf Brown, and McCall were both in the meet last year. They have shown considerable improvement this year, and will doubtless be harder men in competition than they were last year."

MILITARY SCHEDULE

April 25, 1913.

Memorandum No. 20

The following schedule of instruction for week commencing Monday, April 28, is hereby announced:

Monday, April 28—Battalion drill. Practice advance and rear guard formations, outposts and battalion in attack.

Tuesday, April 29—Cleaning rifles and equipment by both companies.

Wednesday, April 30—Inspection of the cadet battalion by Captain Merry, general staff U. S. army. Hours for calls to be announced later.

Thursday, May 1—Company drill, sergeants commanding companies. By order of the

COMMANDANT OF CADETS.

Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. D. R. Frazer will be hostess to the Y. W. C. A. on Wednesday afternoon. The hour will be 3:30 instead of 4:30 as usual because following the meeting a social hour has been arranged for Mrs. Sharp, who graduated last year from U. C. and is full of college spirit, will talk to the girls about "Traditions at Berkeley," and no college woman can afford to miss the afternoon at Mrs. Frazer's. Come at 3:30 and bring some one with you. Mrs. Frazer's home is at the corner of Eighth and Lake, east of the Delta Rho house.

Reno High School Notes

On Wednesday evening the first literary contest ever held in the high school was held. The two societies, the Adelpia and the Olympic, had worked very hard and the work showed this. All numbers were all enjoyed by a small crowd. The Olympic society won by a score of 4 to 3. The boys' declamation was won by Dean Bryant of the Olympic, but was given a close call by Dan Call. Miss Edna Troisi also won by a slight margin from Bessie Dixon of the Adelpia. The debate was on the question that "Immigration is Detrimental to the United States." The Adelpic society carried the honors by proving the question. The members of the winning team were: Miss Watson, Messrs. Harriman and Layman. The negative was upheld by Miss Constable, Messrs. Johnson and Laveaga. Miss Hartung and Mr. Corris gave a musical number on the piano and Miss Mear rendered a solo. These numbers were greatly appreciated by all as they were excellent.

It is hoped that these contest programs will be held annually in the high school. The first was a success, and as the first attempt is generally the trial, the others to follow should be better.

Mr. Lyons was out of school the latter part of the week. This was due to a strained back, received while working with the track team.

The team that is to represent the high school will be known Monday evening, for then the try-outs will be held. The men assured of their positions are Harriman, Raines, Martin, Chism, McCarthy and D. Burke.

The seniors have selected the cast for their play and have started into work on the production.

Friday night will see the first minstrel show ever attempted by the school. This will be a huge success if the present rate of progress keeps up.

RENO HI TO GIVE A MINSTREL

On Friday eve "de darkies will gib de bes show eber seen." The date, May 2, is set for the minstrel show. This production, under the direction of Mr. Pierce, is fastly shaping itself into a high class performance, and those who visit the high school on that date will certainly get their money's worth as the admission is only 25 cents.

The end men are composed of some of the best talent in school along that line. The middle man won fame wherever he went, and will be worth the price of admission alone. The chorus will be composed of 40 members, who all have the very best of voices, as the selections were made after much debate on the part of the director, Mr. Pierce. A number of solos will also be given. There is to be a farce after the main part, and this is being handled by students of very high acting qualities. A number of tableaux will be given by the grammar school students. The evening will be ended with a dance, which will last for a couple of hours.

There will be candy and ice cream booths in order that persons might not get hungry or thirsty. All will be handled by coons, first class coons, too.

If you want to spend a pleasant evening, wander over to the Reno Ho on Friday evening. The admission is only 25 cents, so it will not bankrupt you financially.

BILL KEARNEY AT MEET

State Engineer Kearney was in Reno Saturday and came up in the afternoon to cheer the boys along in the track meet.

Delta Rho's Entertained

Mrs. Charles Hobbins was hostess Friday evening to the Delta Rho sorority at her home on North Virginia street. Miss Helen Hobbins is a member of this popular sorority and will return home soon from a successful term of teaching school. The rooms were fraught with fruit blossoms and the evening was devoted to music and conversation.

Delicious refreshments were enjoyed. Bidden were: Miss Edith Murray, Miss Elsie Herz, Miss Nel Morrow, Miss Arnold, Miss Jeanette Cameron, Miss Alice Maxwell, Miss A. M. Smith, Mrs. Adamson, Mrs. J. Carpenter, Miss Helen Fulton, Miss Margaret Fulton, Miss Lena Laden, Miss Erma Warren, Mrs. Stanley Palmer, Miss Pearl Stinson, Miss Marzen, Miss Marie De Flon, Miss Jepsen, Miss Ada Hussman, Miss Jessie Hylton, Miss Ruth Miller, Miss Edwina O'Brien, Miss Marguerite Prouty, Miss Clara O'Neill.

THE BIG N

You're the child of college pep,
 Whose home Nevada claims.
 You're to tell the people coming,
 Of our hopes, our mighty aims.

You're to tell of sweaty labor,
 Of a ditching party too.
 How we toiled and milled and plotted
 To build you strong and true.

How we saw you full completed
 A blazing beacon light,
 For the help and inspiration
 Of our successors in the fight.

Be proud of your sagebrush jacket,
 Your rugged printed face,
 For Nevada's sons hope only
 That you'll warn them from disgrace.

Watch forever, now we charge you,
 Make Nevada's sons all men;
 Make them keen, and good and stal-
 wart,
 We bow to you Big N.

—ANONYMOUS.

"TO GET TOGETHER"

Our big N graces the side of the mountain above the Reno Mizpah. As a couple of the boys were returning to the campus last Thursday night after the last square foot of rock of that huge letter had received its coat of whitewash one of them said to the other: "If a bunch of college men get together and work, they can do anything."

There is a message in that little remark to the boys of U. of N. In spite of the fact that we have had a Mackay day, in spite of the fact that we have built an "N," in spite of the fact that the key note of this year's administration has been "to get together," the fellows at Nevada are not together.

This is the senior number of the Sagebrush. But two short weeks remain for that class in the University of Nevada. Let those two weeks be a foundation for a new spirit next year, and 1913 will leave, a happier graduating class.

It is a great thing to go to a university and to achieve honor upon honor in your work. When those college years are over the honor man has made a record of which he may well feel proud. But that honor man, if he has reached that high position by striving and worrying for himself alone through those four years; if his college and his fellow students have not been enriched by his presence, he has not been wholly a success. Colleges are designed to equip men that they may the better serve society—why, then, should not the student begin to serve in that little society at school.

That individualistic tendency is one of the evils current here. Men are too willing to take from Nevada all she offers and leave nothing in return. Next year should mark a still greater growth in U. of N.—there is one way to do it. It is the way we built the N. Remember, if a bunch of college men get together and work, they can do anything.

THOSE TENNIS COURTS

Those tennis courts as you will notice elsewhere in this paper, are ready for active work to begin. The faculty subscribed $100 toward their construction, the Girls' Tennis club donated $100, the boys offered to give their share in labor. The committee is arranging the schedules so as to have a definite number of men on the job all the time. The contractor refuses to be responsible for any defects in construction by the non-appearance of college labor. Therefore see the schedule committee at once, give them a definite time when you can be there and then "be there." There is more harm in saying you will work and then not "show up" than there is in not offer-

Seniors Will Give No Play

Senior Class Graduates Decide to Entertain Visitors in Other Ways

At a meeting of the cast of the senior farce and the class of 1913 last night it was finally decided to omit the annual farce for 1913 owing to the lack of time to practice and the volume of work that the members of the cast are forced to carry out before graduation.

The date for the farce was officially set by the authorities for the 10th day of May. This year the folk dances are to be substituted for the farce. A social dance of an informal nature is scheduled to take place in the gym after the folk dances where all the high school students attending the academic meet may congregate to enjoy themselves at a more pleasing party than the farce would prove.

The senior farce has for a number of years been one of the "Jonahs" of the graduate and in the past it has also been customary to use a lot of ringers in the cast to save the graduates from the drudgery. This year the cast was composed wholly of members of the graduating class. But time would not permit the production of the play. There is no reason to misrepresent the facts but the class has decided to make the final days of college to all the students the most pleasant in every way.

The class day exercises have not been fully planned as yet but they will consist of a great many novelties to bring back old times and make the graduate wish himself a "babe" once more.

The final program is not complete as yet, but it is assured to all the students that there will be pleasure enough to interest them all regardless of their tastes.

ing to work at all. Every man, whether he is interested in tennis or not, should do his little stint. It's a work for the advancement of the school.

Prof. G. True Found Guilty

By A WITNESS

Last Friday evening the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. was converted into a court room. Before a large audience Judge A. E. Cheney commanded "order in the court room" and the proceedings started. Professor Gordon H. True was the victim who had been suspected of stealing a lamb.

The first witness called upon was John Lemberger. He stated "that on the afternoon of April 21 he saw Professor True upon the roof of Hatch station looking around. Finally he suddenly disappeared and the witness accompanied by David Abel, hurried down to the station but found the professor no where in sight. The only thing that attracted their attention was a trail of red corn, or rather yellow corn, leading off to the bridge over the Orr ditch. The two followed this trail of corn to the brow of the hill. There they saw Prof. True in earnest conversation with Uriah, the shepherd, who was tending the lamb Bathsheba. After the professor had finished his conversation Uriah started off for town and the two witnesses returned to the hall."

"What did you do after dinner?" asked the prosecuting attorney.

"After dinner," the witness continued, "we engaged in a little game at the hall, and finding ourselves out of chips, for which corn was a substitute, we started down to professor's house where we expected to fill our pockets with the necessary chips. At the foot of the hill we saw a man carrying a struggling animal in his arms. Our curiosity being aroused we followed him and when he got under the arc light we recognized him as Professor True. After watching him enter his backyard and go out to an old pig pen in the rear, we followed him and heard the blee of a lamb."

"How did you know it was the lamb Bathsheba," ask dthe prosecuting attorney, Lee J. Davis.

"Because the lamb has a very peculiar blee with which we were all familiar," answered the witness.

At this point a lamb was brought into the court room in a box and as the cover was taken off it began to blee. Of course the witness recognized the lamb's voice as that of Bathsheba and proceedings continued.

"Did you get your corn," inquired Attorney Lee J. Davis.

"Oh yes, we got it all right," began the witness, "and then returned to the hall."

"That's all for you," said the attorney, and David Abel, the next witness, was called.

Abel confirmed the statements made by Lemberger and also produced the yellow corn which he picked up when trailing the professor from Hatch station to the brow of the hill.

Mrs. Norton was then called and examined. She was the business manager for the Salvation Army, and had hired Uriah as a bugler. The professor in his conversation with Uriah at the foot of the hill had persuaded him to join the Salvation Army and quit his his position as shepherd.

Mr. Fulton was the next witness and was very deaf.

"What made you deaf," questioned Attorney Lunsford.

"A bugler in the Salvation Army," answered Mr. Fulton.

"How long have you been deaf?"

"Since the 22d."

"Can you hear me talk?"

"No; not a word."

Mr. James, the famous "disinfective," representing Hemlock Jones, was the next to be questioned. Mr. Pargellis, the Y. M. C. A. secretary, had employed Hemlock Jones as detective. In order to reach the bottom of the case, Hemlock Jones, disguised as a student and entered the university. That afternoon he attended one of Prof. True's classes and found him very much distressed, his mind was wandering, and all at once he jumped up from his chair, exclaiming:

"Boys, I can't continue this class for my wits have gone wool gathering."

Mr. G. W. Plummer next took the solemn oath and swore not to tell one-tenth of the truth or any part of the true, but the whole and entire truth. He stated that he had always known the professor and that he would not steal a sheep. He also stated that the professor always paid his bills (25c in the Waldorf).

Lastly, the defendant, who had pleaded not guilty, was called upon. When asked what he thought about the university students, he said:

"They are too young and are not students; they are pupils. And besides this they are not responsible for what they say."

At last, after a long, serious and tiresome trial, the jury reached into the box, with Mrs. Coffin as foreman. When they returned and the clerk commenced to read the verdict the excitement was intense. "Guilty," echoed from the lips of the clerk and our worthy professor had been convicted. The clerk continued to read: "Four agree that the sentence should be that the guilty man should eat a bale of hale or get out of town, and four agree that he should immediately leave town, and the other four, three of which were ladies, could not come to any agreement."

The final sentence pronounced by Judge Harwood was "that Professor Gordon H. True should stand on the top of Hatch station from sunup till sunset on the first and last day of every month."

O YOU FACULTY

Be it known by those who can read and understand plain English that the male members of the class of 1913 do hereby challenge the faculty forces as a body representative of the educational media of this university to a baseball game to be played on the Mackay field on class day, May the 13th, at an hour agreeable to all. The exact hour and minute of this last struggle between the Owls and the Lucky 13 to be at such a time that it will not conflict with any class or recitation.

It is to be further understood that you are not to use any freak players other than from among your own body and that you are to use all the substitutes that may be required to maintain a team of nine "near" players in the field.

The seniors make this as their last challenge to your honorable body to demonstrate their abilities.

(Signed) THE CLASS OF '13.

Tennis Courts To Be Built

By THE COMMITTEE

Today the men started to do the required work on the tennis courts. There is but a small amount of work to be done, and if each man steps in and does his little part, our side of the contract will be very small.

As no one is directly in charge of the work, it is up to each man, who works to do the same as if he was the master workman. The work to be done is as follows:

On the east court several piles of dirt need to be moved over the east bank. Directly north of the courts a large gravel pit is awaiting the efforts of the men. Mr. Boardman has had two large screens made to separate the gravel from the dirt. The screens and shovels are now ready for use.

A time sheet has been made out and the hours of work arranged for as far as possible. This sheet will be placed on the bulletin board, in order that each man may see the time, that is most convenient to work.

Because the committee has been unable to see all the men, they take this opportunity of asking each man who has not been approached to give his time to Perkins, Gilcrease or H Layman.

Be a booster and get together on this proposition. Push it through with the true Nevada spirit. The cement is on the ground.

MOTHER COMING BACK

Word has been received from Geo. Hubbard, better known as "Mother," to the effect that he will register at Nevada next semester. Mother is still in the employ of the Stone-Webster company. For the past several months he has been located at White Salmon, Washington, where he has occupied successively the positions of cement tester and shift boss in the power house construction work which has been under operation there.

Ceremony and Banquet Held for 17
New Members on April
Twenty-first

The initiation ceremony and banquet of the Phi Kappa Phi fraternity was held on Monday evening, April 21. After those newly elected to membership had received their degrees in the society in room 6, where the ceremonies were held, all adjourned to the Thomas cafe where a sumptuous banquet awaited.

At the banquet Dr. P. B. Kennedy presided as toastmaster and after several members of the faculty had responded to toasts he called upon the members of each class there represented. A graduate representative of each of the classes of 1899, 1900, 1901, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912 and 1913 responded.

It was a happy and impressive gathering of Nevada grads.

The Phi Kappa Phi is a national honor society composed of graduate and under graduate members of all departments of American colleges and universities. Its prime object is to emphasize scholarship in the thought of college students, to hold fast to the original purpose for which institutions of learning were founded, and to stimulate mental achievement by the prize of membership. As a secondary object it seeks to bind more closely the alumni to their Alma Mater, to furnish an additional tie of college friendship, and to interest its members in the promotion of a more thorough education.

On last Monday evening the following became members of the Nevada Chapter of the Phi Kappa Phi:

Eunice A. Cagwin, Florence E. White, Mildred Donahue, Helen Higgins, E. E. Williams, J. F. Abel, Estella Prouty, Elizabeth Stubbs True, Georgia A. MacNair, Alwine Snelaff, Jean Maxwell, Miles B. Kennedy, Harriet White, Williams Goldsworthy, Laura Arnot, Catherine Hand, Lillian Esden.

Beside these, there were present at the ceremony and banquet, Prof. Boardman, Prof. Scrugham, Dr. Mack Prof. True, Mrs. R. L. Fulton, Dr. Watson, Prof. Hill, Prof. Young, Prof. Hartman, Dr. P. B. Kennedy, Dr. Ordahl and Dr. Haseman.

Prof. George J. Young of the Mackay school of mines is in the eastern part of the state and is making an investigation of the alum deposits, near Elko, in behalf of the government potash laboratory here.

THE FAIR GIRL GRADUATE

If the girl graduate will spend a few moments with us, we will easily satisfy her that we can not only furnish that gown and all its accessories, but can save her money on the same. We have made special preparations this season, and we are justly proud of our elaborate display.

THE READY TO WEAR GOWNS

Every season sees more and more of the ready-to-wear gowns sold. And why should there not be, when you can secure as beautiful garments as we are showing? Handsome voiles, nets, lingerie, French batiste, charmeuse, messa lines, sheer linens, etc., all daintily trimmed with fine laces, insertions, medallions and other late effects. The assortment is now at its best.

MATERIALS FOR MAKING

Possibly you prefer to make your gown, and if so, we would suggest one of the following: Crepe de chine, charmeuse, crepe meteor, silk poplin, albatross, plain or fancy voile, marquisette, French batiste, flaxon, silk crepe, plain or fancy crepe, Irish linen. Everything that is new and dainty, as regards trimming, we have to match every fabric.

SOME OF THE Accessories

We have always paid special attention to the furnishings that make My Lady's toilet complete, so we are well prepared with kid gloves, silk handkerchiefs, silk underwear, silk hosiery, muslin underwear, lisle hosiery, corsets, parasols, neckwear, etc., and all at the low prices for which the Palace is justly noted.

Annual Affair Of Our W.F.C.

One of the brilliant functions of the week was the annual luncheon of the Woman's Faculty club Saturday afternoon at the Riverside hotel. The entire dining room was decorated in spring blossoms and pennants of Nevada as the club is composed of the wives of the faculty of the university and the young lady members of the faculty, who have met the first Wednesday of every college month. The luncheon was served at small tables which were decorated in sweet peas, the place cards being dainty souvenirs and hand painted in University of Nevada pennant design. The menu was most elaborate and at the close of which the following program was enjoyed: Mrs. A. A. Codd, "Our Absent Hair;" Mrs. P. B. Kennedy, "Pay Day;" song, Mrs. E. A. Howes; "Old Broom," Miss Bardenwerper; "New Broom," Mrs. Sharp; song, Miss Gertrude Halleck; "The Children," Mrs. J. C. Watson; music, Mrs. Maxwell Adams; "Clan Song," by the members.

Covers were laid for Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. Albert Jacobson, Mrs. Scopp, Mrs. Romanzo Adams, Mrs. Gordon Trnue, Mrs. J. C. Jones, Mrs. Peter Frandsen, Mrs. Sharp, Mrs. George Young, Mrs. Cogwill, Mrs. Sanford Dinsmore, Mrs. Heller, Mrs. J. C. Watson, Mrs. J. E. Church, Mrs. Horace Boardman, Mrs. P. B. Kennedy, Mrs. A. E. Kaye, Mrs. Walter Palmer, Mrs. Scott Jameson, Mrs. R. Thompson, Mrs. Maxwell Adams, Miss Day, Miss Halleck, Mrs. Winfred B. Mack, Mrs. H. P. Boardman, who was absent, and Mrs. J. E. Stubbs, also absent in Europe; Mrs. A. A. Codd, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. George Ordahl, Mrs. J. H. Applewhite, Mrs. Preston, Mrs. J. D. Layman, Mrs. E. A. Howes, Mrs. Charles Gorman, Mrs. J. O'Brien, Miss Alice O'Brien, Mrs. Theodore Clark, Mrs. Miles Kennedy, Miss Sameth, Miss Wygall, Miss DeLaguna, Miss Bardenwerper, Mrs. Charles Knight, Mrs. W. H. Hood, Mrs. Robert Price, Mrs. R. D. Billinghurst.

Swans Grace Campus Lake

The swans are here. They are a pair of beauties—big black ones, and they certainly add to the beauty of the lake that is to be their home. They arrived in Reno Friday. Comptroller Gorman grabbed his hat and his motor cycle and streaked it for W. F. & Co. He got a dray, brought them to the campus and then while the assembled multitude gazed in awe (or asked each other where the poor things were going to sleep), they were launched upon University lake.

The swan agitation began at the last meeting of the board of regents on April 15. Shortly afterward Regent Pratt went to San Francisco and a few days ago he located, at a dealers, this pair of beauties, which had just arrived from Australia. Promptly he notified Mr. Gorman, Mr. Gorman notified the students and the swans on the lake are the result. The regents are not allowed to purchase such things as swans out of the state funds and so Miss Marie De Flon and Doctor Karl Milentz volunteered to circulate a little subscription list among the students and the faculty.

The students and faculty are each contributing their mite (10 cents and 25 cents), but as yet there has not been enough money raised to pay for Mr. and Mrs. Swan. The couple cost $35 and were so greatly in demand that Regent Pratt had to either take them quick or lose them. The committee—Miss De Flon and Doc Milentz—will appreciate early contributions.

ROBB ON CAMPUS

Ray Robb arrived from Tonopah Friday and is visiting at the Sigma Alpha house. Ray spent Saturday roaming about the campus and admiring the improvements and was "there" at the meet, too. Ray was one of the Nevada boys at the reunion of the bunch in Tonopah and he says they had "some time."

English I, section 2, held its class on the lawn under the shade of the trees Saturday morning, instead of in the stuffy class room. Oh, you spring weather!

Santa Clara Conquers Nevada

was in good form with the shot, winning the event with nearly 41 feet. The hammer throwing was poor, though a damaged hammer and the weather conditions were against anything in this event.

The relay race was the best on the program. Hylton of Nevada and Crane of Santa Clara went the first lap, the sagebrusher getting the best of the duel and sending his teammate, Hovey away with a 15-yard lead over Caspar of Santa Clara. The latter, however, reduced the lead to five yards, Milburn taking up the running this distance behind Powers of Nevada. Milburn caught his man on the backstretch and passed him, sending Momson, the last man, away with a lead of a couple of yards on Bringham of Nevada. The Nevada captain ran a great race and stuck to his man like glue, but was unable to overcome the margin, and Santa Clara won in the good time of 3:38 15 seconds.

Before the meet started Holway, the Nevada coach, essayed to break the world's professional record of 104-5 seconds for the 110 yards held by Jack Donaldson of Australia. The Nevada coach gave Smithson three yards and beat him handily in 104-5, but the wind prevented the performance being recognized.

Some Friendly Advice

Now I am going to close my article for the Sagebrush in the same manner that I closed my Journal story, i. e., I want to give you some friendly advice. As this is your own college paper I will add a little that may not have been fitting to print there. You boys want to get more men out for track. All of your best men Saturday were overworked—if you expect to win, you have got to have greater numbers. Again you must get more experience. Encourage interclass competition in every branch of athletics; they arouse enthusiasm, they discover new material, they teach you how. Reno High School and your classes should be constant rivals. The contests would do you both good.

On the Stadium

Just a word or two in regard to the university stadium and few words that I hope will be taken as advice from one deeply interested in the future of athletics in general in this state.

You have the finest stadium on the coast, but your facilities are poor for holding the field events. I fully expected to be able to run that meet off in about two hours, but it took a full two and a half. The difference came in the lack of jumping facilities. You want three jumping pits and you have the space to put them in for little money.

There should be a special pit for the high jump, another for the broad jump and another for the pole vault. The necessity of this is apparent when you know that practically all three of these events are going at the same time in a well regulated meet. I strongly urge the university boys to get in and make these pits. It will then give you a well equipped track for all events.

Make your broad jump take-off considerably longer than the one used yesterday with a width of eight inches sunk flush with the surface of the ground. The high jump take-off yesterday was not conducive to good jumping as the pole vault block was liable to balk a man.

I wish to thank the University of Nevada and the people of Reno for the confidence placed in me by selecting me as referee, and it will always be a pleasure to me to help along athletics of any sort in this state in whatever capacity the people wish.

Results follow:
110-yard—Haskamp (S. C.), first; Best (S. C.), second; Powers (N.), third. Time 10 seconds.

Nevada Nine To Play Rival

The varsity baseball aggregation take train Friday evening for their game with Santa Clara on next Saturday afternoon. Under Coach Jack Cullen the team has been making great progress in the last two weeks and the wise ones predict a little surprise for the boys of the prune valley when bats are crossed.

The game was originally planned to take place on the St. Ignatius grounds in San Francisco, but it has been found more convenient to play on the home grounds of our rivals. Bill Settemeyer will manage the trip.

So far as is now known, the following men will be those who represent Nevada on the Santa Clara diamond:

Kent, Ferris, Boggs, Sheehy, Grayson, Abbott, Hamilton, Riley, Bowen, Charles, Scheeline, Bringham. Coach Cullen will accompany the team.

Bob Bringham, who is spending this weeks leave of absence from college in San Francisco where he is taking examinations for West Point, will join the team in that city and will occupy his position behind the bat Saturday afternoon. Hope for Nevada centers around the battery, Ferris and Bringham, and the good sticking the team has been showing in practice of late.

NEW N MEN

As a result of the Santa Clara-Nevada track meet last Saturday the following will be eligible to membership in the Block N society: Reynolds, Kent, Hovey, Hylton, Powers, Hancock, Rose, High, Ogilvie, Patterson.

NEVADA TO SEND ATHLETES TO MEET

To take part in the conference meet, which is to be held in Berkeley on May 8, the University of Nevada will send Ogilvie, the miler; Hovey, in the half mile; Bringham, in the quarter, and High, in the shot put. The men will be in charge of Coach C. E. Holway.

It is possible that Hylton and Pennel may be included in the party.

This meet is between athletes from all the coast colleges and universities, including the University of California, Stanford, the University of Washington, Santa Clara college, St. Mary's college and colleges from southern California.

Coach Holway says that if the Reno men train faithfully and get down to a hard grind there is no reason they should not show up strong in competition with the coast teams.

CADETS' INSPECTION TOMORROW MORNING

Annual government inspection of the cadet battalion of the University of Nevada will be held on the quad beginning at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Captain William T. Merry of the general staff has been ordered to conduct the inspection.

The cadets will be put through battalion and company drill in close and extended order and will be paraded.

As this inspection is one of the features of the cadets' work it is expected that a large crowd will be on hand to see the boys go through their evolutions.

(S. C.), third. Height, 8 feet.

RENO MERCANTILE COMPANY
Hardware and Groceries

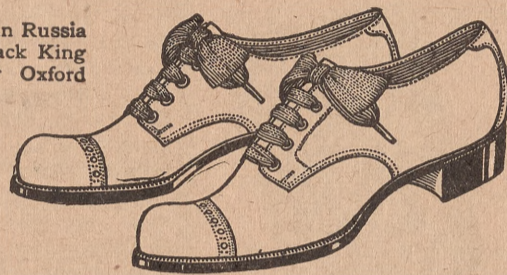

To dress informally does not mean to dress carelessly—the Woodrow is a smart raised toe style that young fellows will like.

This is a happy compromise between the extreme radicalism of the usual "high toe" styles and the more conservative English custom shapes. The toe is somewhat narrow, very graceful, and is raised quite a bit at the end. The last provides ample room at the ball, or treading surface, and the spring of the sole allows comfort for the man who does quite a lot of walking. The heel is moderate in height.
