NEVADA DELEGATE FOR CONVENTION

Y. W. C. A. NATIONAL MEETING
TO BE HELD MAY 5 IN LOS ANGELES

On May 5th the Young Women's Christian association will hold its national biennial convention in Los Angeles. This convention numbers over four thousand women and girl delegates. The convention city is decided upon two years previous to the meeting and is made ready at the last by an able committee of women whose business it is to set up the convention. Miss Louise Brooks, the chairman of this committee, comes to Los Angeles six weeks before the date set and personally superintends printing, arrangements for meeting place, hotel, lists, headquarters buildings and receives the registrations which begin coming in weeks ahead.

The business of the convention is twofold; the transaction of all details regarding the methods, policies, finances and constitutional changes of the Y. W. C. A. of America, and the disseminating throughout the entertaining city and through the delegates to all parts of the country of information and inspiration for the highest and most beautiful living of which womanhood is capable. To this end speakers of international reputation, both men and women, are gathered in the convention to address the delegates upon all subjects which are vital to women today. There is no subject humanitarian or religious which is worthy of consideration which will not be touched on in May by the speakers in Los Angeles.

The most important piece of business to arise is that concerning the student, basis of membership in the student Y. W. C. A. The present basis is to the effect that only people who do their religious thinking in certain ways may be voting members of the association. At the time of its adoption this basis was wise and fair but it does not seem entirely suited now to the type of thinking everywhere prevalent among college women. The new basis, if adopted by the coming convention, will in no sense change the character of the purpose of the Y. W. C. A. but will lead more women to find the association an avenue of service and a place of security.

Since the University of Nevada has never had the privilege of a delegate in such a gathering as this will be it is especially fortunate that at least one undergraduate student may have a voice in the deliberations in Los Angeles in May.

Laurena Marzen spent last Saturday and Sunday in Truckee.

GOOD STUNTS FOR ANNUAL HE JINKS

NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT THE TIME,
GYM THE SCENE OF BIG GET-TOGETHER

Because Carson day was postponed until next Tuesday the annual he-jinks (for men) will be held Friday night in the gym. The committee in charge has the matter well in hand, and a bunch of freshmen are now working on their assignments.

Judge P. A. McCarren, who is to act as judge of the kangaroo court, has evinced much interest in the event as outlined to him. Judge McCarren has put some little thought to his part of the program. A little thought, and Judge Pat's pure emerald wit, will make the court the leading attraction of the evening.

The hopes of the committee for complete success were boosted 100 per cent when at a meeting Sunday a member announced a really truly find. The idea is not a secret, but it is not for publication. Look it up before Friday.

The admission, you know, is to be 15c, and for that jitney fifty you are to get eats, smokes and a chance at several valuable prizes. Men of the faculty and student body will lose money by missing the he-jinks, the real get-together of the year.

EXHIBITS SENT BY U. N. GIRLS

Y. W. C. A. BUILDING AT EXPOSITION TO BE GRACED BY NEVADA SCENES AND PENNANTS

"Wof N. So Gay." Going to the fair? Foolish question when the walking is so good! Then when you go, don't miss paying a visit to the building of the Young Woman's Christian association. Don't go alone, either! Take with you (by force if necessary) every doubting easterner and supercilious Californian who may have peculiar views about the beauty of the Sagebrush college and show them U. of N. at her prettiest.

The girls of Y. W. C. A. have chosen to send a display of photographs (of the campus) to represent Nevada in preference to any other exhibit. The pictures are not the same views that are on display in every handbook of the state, but a Carson Day—the college picnic—is next Tuesday. The faculty, and Pres. Hendrick, have declared a holiday on that day, and students and faculty alike will join in one big time.

The observance of Carson Day was inaugurated two years ago, through the energies of the Glee Club, and the special idea in mind at that time was in interesting Nevada's solons in an appropriation for a library and a physical director for men.

The purpose of the pilgrimage was realized. The library and Jack Glasscock attest to that. A result not intended also developed. Everybody had such a good time that the idea of a periodic Carson Day was made fast. In accordance with the precedent established, Tuesday will mark the second bi-annual Carson Day.

What will we do Tuesday? Well the program is not wholly prepared for Governor Boyle asked to look over it before it was announced, so that he may make a few additions.

Gov. Boyle has ordered all state institutions at the disposal of visitors on that day, and wishes the program to include everything and also provide sufficient time for each number.

Among the events that will certainly transpire are these:—We will leave Reno on a special train about 10 o'clock. We will stop at Steamboat Springs for a half an hour, sufficient time to investigate the geysers and hot springs. The University band will be along also, and all this time much music will rend the air, as per the Military Ball. Arriving in

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

On every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon the Girls' Glee club practices from 4:35 to 5:35. We are learning new songs all of the time and working over the old ones. Miss Denny says we are a true up-to-the-mark Glee club now, doing standard glee club work and that this is the first time in the life of this Glee club that it could be called such. Besides having songs to prepare for the weekly assembly we have several other invitations ahead to sing at different places.

EDITORIAL

EDITORIAL

In this issue of the Sagebrush the women come to the readers a second time as the editors. It is with pleasure that the women students grasp this opportunity of thanking not only the Sagebrush staff but the public for the interest shown at all times in their activities. It is the earnest wish of the college girls that they shall at all times contribute to the ideals of the university and show loyalty and courage in the college life. Unity is the open sesame to success and achievement and in so far as the student body, co-eds as well as men, stand together and stand for the right good will come.

EFFORT

Nothing is accomplished without true effort. It is up to every man if would succeed whether he has one or five talents, whether he has a small or great thing to do. Effort constantly pushes ahead perfecting its aim all the time. If this is so why sit idle and let all the opportunities that this university affords slip by? A little genuine effort on each student's part in raising the scholarship or in helping out in athletics, in debating and other college activities will raise the standard of this university and more, too, it will help the most important part of it, that student develop and gain a greater mastery over his own abilities.

Y. W. C. A.

The Sagebrush takes pleasure in presenting to its readers the annual Y. W. C. A. edition. Good, conscientious, clever work shows in every article contributed, and we desire to congratulate the various contributors for their splendid work.

The true Nevada spirit is surely exemplified in the live work of Nevada's Y. W. C. A. May it enjoy the long and active life which it deserves.

Y. M. C. A. PLANS FOR OPEN HOUSE

UNIVERSITY MEN AND WOMEN INVITED TO ATTEND CELEBRATION ON MARCH 5

On March 5th the men and women of the university student body are to have their annual play in the city Y. M. C. A. building. There will be speeches and music and pranks of every sort for the souls who care not to climb the dizzy heights of the dormitory rooms and halls or descend into the mysterious abyss where bowling is a favorite sport, or wield the cue across the billiard tables. After a while everybody will eat and at last everybody will go home. You will see to it that you do not miss the annual reunion within the hospitable walls down town. If you are a freshman ask some one who went last year whether you can afford to miss it or not. Every student on the hill is invited not only to come but to bring some other student along to the Y. M. C. A. building March 5 at 8 p. m.

Tennis Tournament Planned by Girls

COMMITTEE NAMED TO TAKE CARE OF STATE MATCHES IN MAY

Spring is almost here, but tennis spirit does not wait for spring and a few enthusiasts have been trying to rush the season.

A few days ago some girls were seen going over towards the tennis courts for a little spring practice. The girls however, were doomed to have their enthusiasm damped, for when they got there they found the trusty old concrete courts miniature lakes. We like this spirit shown by the girls, and we hope to have a regular girls tournament this spring.

A committee of college girls was appointed a few days ago by Miss Sameth to manage the high school girls' tennis tournament of the state. This tournament takes place during the week of the high school boys' track meet, and as this does not take place for some time the girls did nothing about the rules and regulations.

With the added number of students and added enthusiasm since last year our two courts will be kept pretty busy. Let us hope that by summer there will be more than two courts, for there will surely be enough players to keep them busy all the time.

League Rules Are Announced

HIGH SCHOOLS OF STATE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN ANNUAL ACADEMIC MEET MAY 8

We hope the various high schools of the state are as interested as usual in the field meet which will take place in May. The university extends invitations to them all. Railroad rates will be procured for those taking part and all will be entertained without charge while here. A few definite plans have been made and are as follows:

On May 7th—Declamation contests, an exhibition of the department of physical education for women.

On May the 8th the tennis tournament, the field meet and the Glee club concert will be held.

The revised rules for girls' tennis are as follows:

1. All girls attending public schools of the state are eligible.
2. All games will be played in doubles.
3. Each team will furnish own rackets. The Academic league will furnish balls, nets, etc.
4. At the preliminary trials each team will play three games with every other team entered. In the finals the two teams having the highest percentage of victories will compete. The winner of two out of three sets will be awarded the trophy cup.
5. Each team will be allowed one substitute player.
6. All decisions will be governed by the U. S. N. I. T. A. rules for 1915, published by Wright and Ditson and the Spalding company.
7. Tournament will be under direction of the tennis tournament committee, composed of eight college women, who will appoint all officials.

Extra—All contestants are advised to play in leather soled tennis shoes, the courts being of rough concrete.

The tournament will be called at 8:15 a. m., Saturday, May 8th, on the U. of N. tennis courts. Any team not ready for play at that time may be debarred from the contest. Preliminary games may be played on the morning of the 7th of May. A silver trophy cup is offered to the team winning the tournament. Permanent possession of this cup will be given to the team first winning the tournament three times.

All entries must be received prior to May 1, 1915. The committee of college girls has been chosen as follows: Bird, Winger, Emma Herz, Elsie Herz, Gallagher, Johnson, Frey, Fuss, Singer.

Miss Davis is planning on taking an extensive trip throughout the eastern part of the state. She will leave Tuesday and some of the places she will visit are Battle Mountain, Lamoille, Elko, Ely and Austin.

University Girls Organize Club

CO-OPERATION WITH HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS IDEA OF NEWLY FORMED ORGANIZATION

Under the leadership of Vera Lemmon and ten university girls a high school student club is being formed for all girls in the Reno high school. The purpose of this club is to strengthen the tie between high school and college girls and to initiate and maintain some meetings for the high school girls which shall be uplifting and broadening. The club is in no sense a social organization and purposes to do some good solid work discussional, literary and otherwise.

Tuxedo Keeps You In Good Trim

Christy Mathewson, lovingly known as "The Old Master," is probably the greatest pitcher baseball has ever known. This wonderful athlete is noted for his clear headed common sense, his quick wits, perfect physical condition, and absolute control over his nerves. His use and endorsement of Tuxedo prove that this inspiring and healthful tobacco is helpful to mind and body.

COMPARISON OF MIDDLE WEST AND WESTERN UNIVERSITIES INTERESTING CONTRAST

It was not without misgivings that I forsook my alma mater to find a college home in the farther west, but braving the anxiety of relatives, the amazement of friends, and the amusement of ticket agent and conductor, I started for Reno. My courage, I confess, began to fail after interminable stretches of sand and sagebrush; at such moments my consolation was in clutching at a U. of N. register, and reading the place saying, "Reno is situated in the beautiful Truckee valley. The Sierra Nevada mountains on the west. Majestic Mount Rose. The green carpet of the valley, all unite to make the site of the U. of N. a delightful one," and I hoped that I would find this true.

From the moment when I caught my first glimpse off the Block N on the hills and wondered what it was all about, Nevada, has impressed me with its novelty and "difference," which I have been asked to tell you about.

To a certain extent I knew what kind of scenery to expect, as after the confirmation of the beauties of nature as explained in the register, my first surprise was the people. Instead of the divorcees and pugilists I was told so much about, I found a cheery, frank and open hearted folk, with a free and easy manner. Their cordiality and courtesy and self conscience without snobbishness, was most agreeable. Perhaps it is because the Nevadans, busy with meeting the real things of life have not time or inclination for affectation. Wide awake, with a definite purpose in view, they are ready for any new conditions that may occur.

A more conservative spirit than this belongs to Baker university. The oldest college in Kansas, she has a rich store of traditions, and of customs which she is loath to change. There is something about the old trees, the ivied walls of the campus, suggestive of a general atmosphere of conservatism that crushes individuality, but is conducive to loyalty and college spirit.

The many and varied student activities at Baker give a common bond of interest. Six literary societies, Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., German, French and Science clubs, debate and student councils, the lecture associations, interclass contests, eating clubs and fraternities offer opportunities of general acquaintance. Class spirit is fostered by a unique device. Each class has its organization modeled after a historical or modern form of government; one for instance, is "King Arthur's Court," of which the mottoes, offices, songs and traditions are adopted from the custom of the days of knighthood. The year after King Arthur's court is the graduating group, it comes in again as the freshman class, repeating its four year cycle. When the old grads return to visit, they are welcomed as alumni of their order by its present members. There are interclass contests in most forms of athletics.

Although, as in most universities, the greatest uniting factor is found in athletics, this is by no means the only matter of common interest. Practically everyone belongs to some literary society, where he is trained throughout his course in debate, oratory and extemporaneous speaking. Contests in these are regularly held among the various societies. On the same day that letters are presented to the athletes the intercollegiate debaters receive a medal.

Other Universities And Nevada

Customs are naturally different. Hazing is practically unknown, rivalry between underclassmen being confined chiefly to the class scrap or some arbitrary contest. The lecture course, and a harmless little movie show, still called the "Co-ed," although its official name has been changed. The short distance to Kansas City and Lawrence makes it possible to hear the best plays of the season, and to attend the big games of the state university. Our contests are with the colleges in the state that are not state institutions; the latter have a league called the Missouri valley conference. Every day a half hour assembly is held, where matters of common interest are discussed, lectures given, yells practiced, etc. Monday is the "day off," instead of Saturday. Fewer students are self-supporting than at Nevada. Rarely girls do office work of some kind.

I do not wish to give the impression that this is a typical Kansas college, for all the state institutions and denominational universities have distinctive customs and activities. One characteristic they all have in common: intense loyalty and enthusiastic spirit. The greatest difference after all is in the attitude of the students themselves, for in a few weeks the democracy and friendly generosity of the Nevada spirit had convinced me that although this is my first year here, I don't want it to be the last.

Debaters Dance Proves Success

INTERESTING PROGRAM ENTERTAINS CROWD; DANCE ENDS EVENING OF ENJOYMENT

Saturday evening, February 19, the University of Nevada Debating society gave a very delightful program and dance in the university gymnasium, which was attended by a large audience of both college and town people. The purpose of the entertainment was to provide the funds which will send our team to Provo, Utah, where they will debate the Brigham Young university.

The program was as follows: Song, male quartet; reading, Miss Hazel Hayes; song, Girls' Glee club; speech, Mr. T. L. Withers; reading, Miss Gladys Hofer; duet, Misses White and Taylor; reading, Miss Norcross; solo, Mr. Tom Walker; reading, Miss Phoebe King; speech, ex-Governor Oddie; song, male quartet.

The entertainment was given under the direction of the director, Mr. Turner, and the business manager, Mr. Cazier.

The debate will take place the last of this month and the yet new organization is very anxious to have Nevada carry off the laurels this year. Last year the debate was held in Reno. Nevada lost, but was taught the lesson of earnestness and steadfastness from her defeat. We have an excellent chance for success this year, but for the best success we need the support of the student body.

This year we are planning on having a debate here, with either the University of Denver or the University of the Pacific.

On Tuesday, February 23, the society met in room 202, Morrill hall, at 7:30. It was the last chance to hear our team before it leaves Nevada and quite a large crowd attended.

"SEPTEMBER MORN" DAWNS UPON RENO TONIGHT AT THE MAJESTIC

Six Charming Little Dancers With "September Morn" Appearing at the Majestic Tonight and Tomorrow Night

"Those who stayed away from the Bakersfield theatre last night because they thought "September Morn" was not going to meet with the standardized ideal in musical comedies will regret today their folly," says Ross C. Miller, reviewer on the Bakersfield Evening Californian. The attraction, which comes to the Majestic tonight and tomorrow evenings, has just closed a successful two weeks' engagement in Los Angeles and played in Bakersfield early this month. Continuing the Californian reviewer says:

"There was also some little anticipation on the part of a few holler-than-thou individuals that the play might be a bit 'suggestive', but September Morn, seems a full dress after emerging from some theatrics where nature garments are bong-tong, recherche and other things Frenchy. So after all we are glad we have lived in the present day of whirly-girlie shows and ragtime music and will pass beyond before the coming generation of calamity howlers knock all the sweetness out of life.

The book of lyrics of the morning in September were written by Arthur Gillespie, whose cheerful sportive lyrics adorn a number of musical comedies. These have been scored by Aubrey Stauffer. The piece has a thread of story ambling through three acts and having as its principal theme something about a dancing damsel.

Argentina, played by Miss Grace Childers, a dainty wisp of femininity who has a personality that clutches at one's very heart strings. Her dancing is clever and her originality knows no bounds. Miss Childers is assisted by one of the most able companies that has been here this year and the chorus,—well, nothing more could be asked in the way of fair voices, pretty faces and shapely figures.

"Yes, we the audience, vote 'September Morn' a very good show and offer thanks to Frank Tannahill, Jr., for staging so fine a production. The choruses and ballets were arranged and rehearsed by Virgil Bennett."

Human Interest

Story at Majestic

A "Human Interest" story of the life of a man spent in lawlessness and deprecation and his return to the realm of good society, his success as an upbuilder of good government and his whirlwind campaign for governor of the state in which he spent several years of his life in the penitentiary, will be shown in a six reel moving picture at the Majestic theatre next Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Al Jennings, the man who came back, will lecture for the pictures showing his life history. The pictures are a version of the articles called "Beating It Back," which were published in the Saturday Evening Post some months past, and they show many of the expeditions and former haunts of the bandits and bad men of the middle west.

Al Jennings was convicted and sent to the Oklahoma penitentiary for robbery along with many others of the same gang. While at the prison he wrote much and showed the finer traits of his character and was pardoned by President Roosevelt. He established himself in the community where he formerly resided and became a prominent member of society, and was beaten for governor of the state in the last campaign only a few votes.

RENO HIGH NOTES

Friday the girls' and boys' basketball teams journeyed to Gardnerville where they played the teams of Gardnerville high. The Reno girls defeated the girls of Gardnerville 26 to 11, but the boys lost to the Gardnerville five by the score of 32 to 26, although they had a small margin in their favor at the end of the first half. This victory for the girls gives them the championship of the state. Next night the boys played in Dayton and were again beaten, 33 to 32.

Under the competent direction of Miss O'Neill and Mr. Bowhay the farce, "A Strenuous Time," is fast rounding into shape. This production is expected to be the best ever staged by the high school.

The high school students who are alumnae of Orvis Ring are all planning to attend the alumnae party at the Orvis Ring school next Friday evening. They think the plan an excellent one, as it shows that the school still has some thought of its graduates.

NEVADA SECOND IN PENNANT RACE

DEFEATED BY CALIFORNIA BUT WIN AGAINST ST. IGNATIUS AND COLLEGE OF PACIFIC

Handicapped by a strange floor and a new type of game indulged in by their opponents, the Nevada basket ball five lost to California by the score of 28 to 17. The game was fast and full of fight throughout, but too rough to allow any good playing to be exhibited. At the end of the first half, the score stood 11 all; the second half started with Nevada playing her best, which resulted in two baskets in quick succession. McCubbin and Stewart showed to good advantage throughout the game, playing a heady game and making accurate shots from all sorts of angles. The same team played throughout the game, though one or two were more than tired at the finish. California played a "body-guarding" game, that is, used the body to guard with, instead of the arms and hands. The advantage of this is seen, when one team is heavier than the other.

Although Archie Trabert was picked as substitute for the trip, he sprained his ankle the day before leaving, and was unable to go. His place was taken by Wendell Jones. Though Nevada put up the best kind of a fight throughout the game, her opponents gradually slipped ahead in the second half, which ended 28 to 17.

Nevada line-up: Stewart and Sheehy forwards; Henningsen, center; Capt. Painter and McCubbin, guards.

The other two games played by Nevada, against St. Ignatius and the University of Pacific, were closer than was anticipated.

Nevada played St. Ignatius on Rice Institute floor, where they were forced to play their best to win out. The final score was 30 to 23. St. Ignatius played straight basket ball, but her speed and team work were not sufficient to win for her. McCubbin and Stewart held high point honors for the game, with Sheehy and Henningsen close behind. Captain Fainter showed his class at guard, where he held his opponents down in good form.

The next night the team journeyed to San Jose, where they met the College of Pacific team. A good stiff game was anticipated, and realized. Fast team work by the Nevada five kept her in the lead, however, though the game was tied for several uneasy moments. According to the San Jose papers, "Stewart, of Nevada, showed wonderful speed and basket-shooting ability." Sheehy really turned the tide in the last few minutes, by shooting two baskets, in quick succession. The score 29 to 26, gives a good idea of the closeness of the game.

California now leads the league with the other teams as follows:—

| Intercollegiate Basketball Standing | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|-------------------------------------|-----|------|------|
| California                          | 4   | 0    | 1000 |
| Nevada                              | 4   | 1    | 800  |
| Stanford                            | 3   | 1    | 750  |
| St. Mary's                          | 2   | 2    | 500  |
| College of Pacific                  | 1   | 2    | 250  |
| St. Ignatius                        | 0   | 5    | 000  |

If Stanford defeats California, the first three will be tied for high place. In case of a tie, California will be played in Reno, which is all that will be necessary.

GIRLS' MUSIC CLUB

Over at Manzanita these days no one is much alarmed at hearing strange, wierd sounds wafted down the halls or issue from closed doors; for the disturbance means only practice time for some member of the musical club. This club, which has been recently organized by Miss Denny, consists of a group of twelve girls, and its aim is to become through voice culture and control a sort of secondary glee club. The class meets on Saturday mornings at 11, and is open to those who care enough about the training to put some enthusiasm into the work and take advantage of the expert instruction offered by Miss Denny. The members are Misses Singer, Donlin, Frey, Stoddard, Lathrop, Fuss, Hall, Shade, Bertschy, Morris, McIvor and Luking.

The music committee of the Y. W. C. A. entertained the girls last Sunday afternoon at a "sing" in the recreation room. Light refreshments were served and a delightful time was spent there.

collection belonging to Miss Lewers, which she herself has made. The pictures were taken for the most part in the summer, and needless to say are artistic in every detail. Manzanita with her graceful weeping willow, of Mackay with the surrounding trees a mass of bloom, the Orr ditch, the lake, the "quad," the avenue of trees along the walk, all are there. There are fifteen pictures in all.

You will find the Nevada corner without the aid of a directory, too, for Jessie Hylton has made a pennant two yards long and a yard in width. It is our shade of blue, and its "Nevada" is all white. It doesn't take an expert to know it is some pennant.

Just go and take a look at the pennant and the pictures and if they don't give you a feeling of pride you had better see a doctor. There's something wrong with your spirit!

GIRLS TRACK MEET TO BE HELD IN MAY

ATHLETICS INCLUDES RACES AND VARIOUS RELAYS, WITH FEW FIELD EVENTS

There's another surprise coming for you all very soon. Another spring festival. Does it sound interesting? The first Saturday afternoon in May will see all of Miss Sameth's classes assembled on Mackay field, running relays and exhibiting club and wand work.

The freshmen section and sophomores will join in dancing the light fantastic step and each section will have something special. As before the children will take part in contributing their portion of the program.

This year the physical training department has advanced noticeably in all directions. There are now some children's classes, teachers' courses and special dancing classes in addition to the old divisions. For those who wish to teach this kind of work a material course is offered. Miss Edith Taylor and Margaret Kemper have classes at high school. The Reno high pupils are showing an active interest in their work and do not hesitate to go because of the early morning hour, 8:15. We shall look forward to seeing the result of our college girls' work at the May festival.

To test the ingenuity of the girls a girls' special dancing class has been organized on Tuesday evenings at 7. At this time original dances, often with fantastic names, are given by the girls. The "Flight of Mercury" is very complicated and mystic, as well as beautiful.

An opportunity is given to do playground work at the Reno grammar schools. Misses Taylor, Kemper and Cowgill are delighted with the work and are accomplishing much with the little tots.

Remember that the exhibition takes place in May in the afternoon. It will last but two hours and be full of spicy Nevada "pep." Don't miss it, but bring your friends and their friends and enjoy a couple of restful, pleasant hours. The girls are working hard, don't disappoint them. N-E-V-A-D-A. Rah! Rah!

GLEE CLUB SINGS NEXT SATURDAY

FIRST CONCERT OF SEASON TO BE GIVEN AT SPARKS BY SONGSTERS

The Glee club's first appearance with the present season's program will be in Sparks next Saturday night. The affair is in the hands of M. E. Jepson, superintendent of the Sparks schools, and promises to be a real event in the railroad city. Many Reno people will journey thence to size up this year's club, since the opportunity for them will not arrive until May 8.

MILITARY BALL GREAT SUCCESS

have the best time?" Being a Military Ball, patriotic decorations were used exclusively. The ceiling was an immense American flag, with red, white and blue streamers draped to the balcony. The walls and door ways were also draped with flags. The military note was further carried out by the blue uniforms of the privates and gold braid of the staff and of the officers of the battalion. However, this country is one of peace and so no guns were used in the decorations. Trailing plants hung from the balcony, which gave a new and delightful effect.

The programs were dainty booklets, with the American flag and the flag of U. of N. crossed on the front cover.

A stately grand march led by Governor and Mrs. Boyle started the evening's pleasure. Following them came the governor's staff and their ladies, Honorable Tasker Oddie, the Board of Regents, President Hendrick, Commandant Captain Applewhite, Officers of the Battalion, privates and guests. Music was furnished by the university band, and the crowded old gym danced to its strains until an early hour on Saturday morning.

Patronesses of the evening were: Mrs. E. D. Boyle, Mrs. A. W. Hendrick, Mrs. J. J. Sullivan, Mrs. J. W. O'Brien, Mrs. A. A. Codd and Mrs. H. L. Applewhite.

UNIVERSITY DAY AT CARSON CITY

Carson, lunch will be awaiting at the hotel, and Big Bill has promised a good one.

The afternoon events, though not definitely arranged as to time, will include a trip to the state prison by auto, a peek at Senators and Assemblymen about their business of making laws, a thorough inspection of the capitol, the library and the printing office, and a visit to the orphan asylum. The Glee Club and band are to perform for the prisoners and the children at the asylum.

In the evening the Glee Club will present its program at the Carson Opera House, and following the concert the band will play for a short informal dance. The special train will leave Carson whenever we want to, and aboard her will be all the sandwiches and doughnuts we can consume.

That's the general plan. A day of fun unalloyed and incidentally a chance to show the legislators what we have aboard.

As to expenses, these are few. Fare is $1.50 round trip. Meals at the Arlington have been reduced to 50 cents. The concert and dance in the evening totals 50 cents. Further than these we can't spend another cent, we'll all be too busy enjoying the program.
 All aboard!!!

Several U. of N. people attended the opening of the fair grounds last week. Among these were Prof. Hase-man, Coach Glasscock, Bourke Healy and Silas Ross and wife. All witnessed the game at U. C. last Friday night.

Y. W. C. A. MEETING

The next Y. W. C. A. meeting promises to be very unique. The meetings committee are going about posting up little red devils with a very mysterious air. But the only answer they give when asked what they mean is, "Come to Y. W. C. A. Wednesday and find out. It's a secret now." So come and solve the mystery.

The New Styles IN SPRING SUITS AND MILLINERY

The smart dash and clever design of our models are sure to make them Favorites with College Women.

Never before has our Spring Showing been so complete at this early date. and never have styles been so chic and charming—so thoroughly in accord with the spirit of youth. In both Millinery and Ready-to-Wear Garments there is a style here sure to please you and one that you may be sure is absolutely correct, since all the new things have come direct from New York, selected in person by our own buyers—a fact that means much from a style standpoint. We urge you to see the preliminary exhibit in these departments—come and inspect the new things whether you intend purchasing or not. It will indeed be a pleasure to show you.
