GREAT FOOTBALL RALLY IN GYM TONIGHT

Executive Committee Holds Special Session

Price of Season Football Tickets Is Reduced by Small Amount

A special meeting of the executive committee was held on the afternoon of September 16. A motion was carried to the effect that the price of the season football tickets be reduced from $2.50 to $2. Treasurer Gooding reported that to date 344 tickets had been sold. Bills to the amount of $248.98 were presented and ordered paid. It was decided to pay $200 on the account due Spaulding Co. for athletic equipment. Adjournment followed.

EXTENSION DIVISION STAFF IS INCREASED

Assistants With Special Training Will Help to Stimulate Interest in Scientific Farming

C. A. Norcross, director of the agricultural extension work at the university, has two new assistants who will be stationed in the farming centers of the state. J. L. McGinnis, district agricultural agent for the north-eastern section of Nevada, will have headquarters at Elko, his province including the Humboldt river valley from Lovelock to Metropolis. Mr. McGinnis is a graduate of Oregon university and comes here from Corvallis, Oregon. C. G. Vinson, of the University of Missouri, will have charge of the southwestern district. His headquarters from April to November will be at Yerington and at Las Vegas the remaining months of the year. His work will lie in Smith and Mason valleys and the agricultural sections of Clark and Lincoln counties. The chief work of these men will be to arouse interest in progressive counties. The chief work of these men will be to arouse interest in progressive and scientific farming methods by work among the ranchers and the organization of Boys' clubs.

The results accomplished by E. B. Oxley, who has been engaged in this work in Douglas county since last March, have proven the effectiveness of this means of creating enthusiasm for the agricultural possibilities of Nevada. The addition of two new men to the staff will stimulate this interest throughout the state.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hayes, graduates of the class of 1900, were visitors in town during the preceding summer. Mr. Hayes is a prominent engineer connected with large engineering enterprises in western Canada. Mrs. Hayes is an alumni member of Pi Beta Phi, formerly Delta Rho. Their address is now Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada.

Prof. Robert D. Jackson, former head of the Mackay School of Mines, and Mrs. Jackson were in Reno during the summer renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Jackson has recently been engaged in mining operations in northern California. He expects to return to the campus during the fall months.

Mr. James Comerford '01 was a visitor on the campus during the summer. Mr. Comerford is now state deputy superintendent of public instruction for the Ely district.

Mr. Joseph Durkee '15 now with the Southern Pacific land department was a visitor on the campus during the summer.

FALLON WELCOMES UNIVERSITY PARTY

Contingent of Faculty and Students is Royally Treated at State Fair

EXCELLENT LIVESTOCK EXHIBIT Hospitality is Dispensed by Former Track Star and University Graduate

University Day at the State Fair held at Fallon last week was an occasion not soon to be forgotten by the participants, the event being distinguished by a spirit of open-handed hospitality and welcome which characterizes the meetings of western communities and a spirit of cooperation and helpfulness which gave ample evidence of an friendly attitude toward the university on the part of the people of the Fallon district.

A special train left for Fallon on last Thursday morning bearing the students and faculty of the agricultural college with the exception of those who made the journey in automobiles. On arrival at Fallon the university contingent paraded up the main street in double file and after the disposal of a few preliminaries the entire party set down to a sumptuous chicken dinner furnished by Mr. Ira Kent, one-time university student and track star, still holding the campus record for the two-mile, and now one of the staunch citizens of Fallon. After the inner man had been satisfied the various members of the university party dispersed to the various attractions of the fair, some to the exhibition pavilions and others to the place where the ponies run, from which vicinity they departed several hours later with a feeling of having left something behind. In the evening the party was again treated to a meal of chicken and extras furnished by the same generous-hearted Mr. Kent. The university train left Fallon in the evening arriving in Reno at 11 o'clock.

The exhibits of the university were placed in a prominent place at the pavilion and were the object of considerable attention, consisting of dairy and beef cows, Percheron draft horses, one pair each of Duroc and Berkshire hogs, a Poland China sow, and ten sheep. The pair of Australian Corriedales recently purchased by the university are included in this exhibit. Professor F. W. Wilson was judge stock at the State Fair; Dean C. S. Knight, grain and grasses; Miss Bardenwerper and Miss Mills, domestic science and art; V. E. Scott, S. C. Dinsmore and W. M. Regan, all of the university, were the judges for the dairy products.

During the fair Miss Norma J. Davis, of the agricultural extension work, assisted by Mrs. J. R. Meskims and Miss Leah Barker gave a series of lectures and demonstrations. A room was fitted up for this purpose, and the work of the girls' clubs was on exhibit. During the past week Miss Davis gave three canning demonstrations in the agricultural districts near Fallon.

Another feature of the fair of interest to the university was the excellent showing made by the hogs exhibited by the Nordyke Stock Farm, owned and managed by Mr. Joseph Wilson, a graduate of the College of Agriculture who for the past few years has been devoting special attention to the breeding and rearing of pure bred Berkshire hogs with the result that most of the prizes for this breed were taken by one of the university graduates.

Silas Ross, '09, former graduate manager, became the father of a bouncing baby boy during the summer.

TEAM FROM STEWART INSTITUTE TO MEET VARSITY SATURDAY

INTERCLASS GAMES POSTPONED IN ORDER TO GIVE CONTESTS BENEFIT OF FOOTBALL KNOWLEDGE AND BETTER PLAYING CONDITION

The coming game with the team from the Stewart Indian Institute at Carson City is attracting considerable interest not because there is any serious doubt as to the outcome of the contest but rather because of the pluck and abandon with which the red-skinned players throw themselves into their game. The team from Carson played the second team on two occasions last year and while Nevada's score was never topped the second varsity men knew that they had been in a contest and were made aware that the red-skins could tackle and block and in particular, run interference. Rumors have come to the effect that the team is to be considerably heavier than last year and this advantage, for they were generally outweighed, together with coaching and training by a former Carlisle star may result in a real contest for the varsity squad. Saturday afternoon practice was held last week and a sharp scrimmage indulged in for about half an hour. Only the simplest plays and formations were used and with each side knowing where the opposing backfield was going due to the use of the squad signals it was hard to form a real estimate regarding the degree of football knowledge gained during the two weeks of training. Although the squad is daily improving there was a feeling that a large improvement was necessary before squad is ready for the heavy games of the season.

On account of the rather slow progress of the squad Coach Glasscock, desiring to make the interclass games good exhibitions of football knowledge and to give the new men an opportunity to learn as much of the game as possible has decided to postpone the contests to Wednesday, September 27 and it is expected that by this date the members of the squad will have rounded into good playing condition.

Y. M. C. A. to Open House to Students

"Pinky" Brown to Wrest Kid Ireland, Claimant of Bantamweight Championship

ALL PRIVILEGES ARE FREE Swimming Pool, Bowling Alley and Pool Tables to Be Thrown Open to Men Students

Friday night, Sept. 22, is to be University night at the local Y. M. C. A. building when Secretary Pargellis and Director Henderson plan to hold open house for all men students and to extend the privileges of the entire equipment to those who will avail themselves of the opportunity. The basement of the association building contains a fine group of showers and a good sized swimming pool, together with a double-alley bowling court. On the second floor the pool-room containing a half-dozen tables will furnish entertainment for additional guests.

As an added attraction for the evening "Pinky" Brown, holder of the 115-pound championship of the Pacific coast, will endeavor to pin to the mat the shoulders of Kid Ireland, claimant of the bantamweight championship of the world. "Pinky's" reputation is already established. Ireland has been wrestling at the association gymnasium for some time past and has proven himself a clever master of the game. The contest will be fast from start to finish and the university men will have a chance to see Brown perform in a manner similar to the style he adopts in his championship bouts on the coast. Director Henderson is also endeavoring to secure some local talent for a few rounds of boxing and if he succeeds this additional attraction will be present.

The home of Leonard Gilcrease and wife, nee Elda Orr, was made happy during the summer by the birth of a son.

ASSEMBLY ADDRESSED BY EASTERN SPEAKER

Mrs. Emma McDietrick of New York Speaks on Good Citizenship

ORCHESTRA FURNISHES MUSIC

Vice-President Lewers Pays Tribute to Memory of John J. Bristol

The speaker of the morning at last Friday's assembly was Mrs. Emma Graves McDietrick of Lockport, N. Y. Mrs. McDietrick is a fluent speaker and an efficient organizer in the temperance field. Prior to the introduction of the speaker by Vice-President Lewers who presided in the absence of President Hendrick, the newly organized university orchestra rendered several selections worthy of a group of musicians who had practiced together for a considerable length of time. The individual numbers were: "American Eagle March," J. G. Boehme; "A Perfect Day," Carrie J. Bond, with saxophone solo played by Mr. Case, and "A Night in June" by G. S. King.

Mrs. McDietrick took for the subject of her address "Good Citizenship" and her manner and method of speech characterized her as an able and fluent speaker. The great need of America today, she stated, is loyal, intelligent citizenship when holds for the country and the ideals for which it stands a deep and profound spirit of respect and reverence. The wealth of the country, the speaker affirmed, was not in industry or material advantages but in the character of the citizenry. The schools of the country are the factory in which good citizens are molded and formed and given to the body politic. Good citizenship the speaker contended is that willingness on the part to task which lies close at hand and to accept the opportunity to serve wherever it may be found. Mrs. McDietrick compared the various methods of training employed by the English and American squads at the last Olympic games. The Americans, she

ORCHESTRA PLANS GIVE GRAND BALL

Presence of Large Amount of Musical Talent Makes Organization Possible

SPLENDID MUSIC IS FEATURE

Plan to Make Dance an Annual Affair to Be Held in Gymnasium

The presence of an unusually large amount of musical talent in the university this year has made possible the formation of a large and well-trained orchestra. Under the direction of Assistant Professor Preston the players have been practicing weekly and although they have not attained the cohesion and unity which is to be expected later in the year the numbers rendered at last Friday's assembly promise some excellent music for the coming year.

A grand ball has been arranged to be given on the evening of September 29 which will be an annual affair and one of the best the season will afford. Introducing a new custom, the dancing will start promptly at 8:30 p. m. which time it is expected all of the seasons formal affairs will start. With the present musical organization the best of music will be rendered, such dreamy waltzes and snappy dances as have never before been introduced. All of the receipts from this affair will be used for the purpose of purchasing new equipment for the musical organizations.

The members of the orchestra are: Director, A. W. Preston; piano, Miss Sanini; violins, Cessna, E. Parker, Henry, Ford, Hansen; cornet, Case, Sather, Wagner; flute, Stever; trombone, Tam; bells, Curns; bass horn, Kimmel; drums, Meyn.

The admission to the dances will be $1 per couple and 50 cents for extra ladies.

Fitchett-Bryan

A quiet little wedding took place at a home on Riverside Drive May 7th, in fact it was so quiet that it was not known until late this summer that Miss Adeline Fitchett had become the bride of Mr. Ray Bryan at 8 o'clock on this Sabbath evening. The young couple, in the presence of a few close friends, were married by Rev. Brewster Adams of the Baptist church. Upon the close of school the young couple enjoyed a short honeymoon in California and have recently made their home in Reno in order that they might complete their courses at the University of Nevada where the happy couple have been receiving congratulations. Both are very popular students and well known in social circles.

stated, due to their patriotic desire to win, used no tobacco or liquor while the English squad, despite the advice of their trainer, were in the habit of using both beer and tobacco.

Mrs. McDietrick called attention to the need and importance of intelligent, loyal womanhood in the political life of the country. The strength of the women movement lies not in the vote, she contended, nor in numbers, but in the quality of character which women exercise on the communities in which they live. Good citizenship also demands that both men and women live up to the same standards and that women be not asked to bear their burdens in a society where an unequal code is imposed.

Following the principle address Vice-President Lewers paid a short but worthy tribute to John J. Bristol, a graduate of the university who died a short time ago. A brilliant mathematician, an unusually successful engineer in the South African goldfields, a thorough gentleman who bore the trials of his long and trying sickness with pleasant patience, a lover of his alma mater to whom he left as a legacy some exceptionally valuable instruments, the vice-president contended that the university should cherish the memory of such a gentleman and scholar for all time.

INTEREST CENTERS ON DEBATING QUESTION

Subject of Universal Military Service Being Debated by Argumentation Classes

Interest is centering on the question which Nevada is to debate with College of the Pacific this fall in the annual intercollegiate contest.

The question reads as follows: "Resolved, that the United States should adopt a system of universal military service modeled after that of Switzerland. Several of the argumentation classes have been discussing the question and some live, pertinent debates have resulted. The question furnishes a wealth of material for discussion and can be approached from several points. Within a short time the authorities at College of the Pacific are expected to forward their choice of a side and tryouts will be held under the guidance of Assistant Professor Turner in order to select members of a team with alternates which will enter the contest to be held on the campus either in the first or second week of December.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR ELECTRICAL GRADS

Dean Scrugham Placed on Committee to Plain Opportunities for Graduate Engineers

Comprising in its membership some of the largest employers of technically trained labor in the United States the National Electric Light Association has organized an educational committee to recommend to member companies plans for establishing opportunities for electrical graduates in central station work. The association's membership controls practically all of the electric light and power business in the United States and their decision to encourage the employment of technical graduates will develop a great increase in the opportunities for electrical students. The personnel of the committee includes C. A. Stone, president of the Stone-Webster Corporation, John A. Britton, vice-president and manager of the Pacific Gas & Electric Co., and the managers of the great operating companies in New York, Chicago, and other large cities, Dean J. G. Scrugham, of the engineering college of the University of Nevada, Prof. Harris J. Ryan, of Stanford, and Prof. C. L. Corey, of California, are the only western college representatives on the committee. The remaining membership is drawn from Harvard, Yale, Cornell, Purdue, Wisconsin, and Johns Hopkins Universities. The committee will also devise plans for educational opportunities for employees of member companies and recommend practical subjects for research to the engineering colleges of the country.

One of the most beautiful weddings of the year was that of Miss Leonora Parry and Prof. Theo. Hook at the home of her parents. Screens of pink and white blossoms with a canopy of white, rose and green made the living room beautiful. The bride was beautiful in a gown of white satin de luxe with tunic of radium lace. The bride was attended by Miss Edith Mack while the groom was supported by Mr. Ardent Jensen, Jr., of Gardnerville. Rev. Trout of the Congregational church performed the ceremony using the ring service.

Y. W. C. A.

Time—Wednesday, 4:30 p. m.
 Place—Stuart Hall.

Circumstances—Y. W. C. A.
 Every new girl should know this by heart because she'll miss a vital part of college life without Y. W. C. A. Last Wednesday Bible study was the topic Helen Fulton spoke to us about. In her enthusiastic way she told us how to lead well-rounded lives of usefulness. It is good form to be religious and extremely bad form to be unreligious. College courses take care of mind and body, but the spiritual training is from some other source—Y. W. C. A. Every church in Reno is offering courses to meet the needs of all students and one "still to be arranged" will be held on the hill.

Three more girls were recognized as Y. W. C. A. members after Miss Fulton's talk, and it is hoped every girl on the Nevada campus will join with us in this active student organization.

Remember next Wednesday, because Miss Brown will speak to us on a very interesting subject.

MANZANITA HALL

If you should see a crowd of girls on Saturday evening out for a hike, walking as if they enjoyed it, you will know that they are the members of a new club, and that when these same return to the hall they will go to Miss Kempton's cheery, big room on Second street and make candy, or something as good, and sew and chat. If you are a Manzanitanian and love to walk, don't read this wistfully but come and join the club and have a lot of fun. You are welcome.

Miss Brown and Miss Kempton are at home to all the girls on the hill, Friday afternoons from 4 to 5:30, in Miss Brown's reception room in Manzanita. It is a very good way for the girls to get together for a social chat, to relax from the week's work, and to get a cup of tea.

Much to our joy, the laundry is now ready for use. We are not planning to spend our whole time in it, you understand, but it is convenient at times.

WHITE-SMYTH

William Smyth '14 and Vivien White were among the many alumni who decided to enter the ranks of married people during the summer. The groom was a Block N man, winning his letter in track, and a charter member of Sigma Nu. The happy couple are now living in Tonopah where the groom, who is a graduate of the Mackay School of Mines is following his profession as an engineer.

Engle—Pearson

The early evening of May 28 was witness to the marriage of two of Nevada's most popular students when Miss Vivian Engle became happily united with Jack Edgar Pearson at the home of her parents in Auburn, Cal.

The front room of the home was prettily decorated with flower and fern, and it was here that the young couple in the presence of immediate relatives took their oaths before Rev. Schafer of the Congregational church.

After the ceremony the mother of the bride invited all to the dining room for refreshments, where a pleasant hour was spent.

Attired in blue traveling suits the young couple caught the evening train for their future home, Schenectady, N. Y.

Mrs. Pearson is a member of the Delta Delta Delta Sorority and was always a prominent factor in the social activities of the hill. Mr. Pearson was a member of the Sigma Alpha Fraternity, was always popular with the students as evinced by the number of school offices he held, notably that of manager of the Sagebrush. Wherever Mr. Pearson's bread winning activities carry he and his bride they are sure to bear the well wishes of all who knew them.

The home of Clinton Sparks, who is now residing in Tonopah, was gladdened during the summer by the arrival of a baby girl.

The Brisk Smoke—"Bull" Durham

When you see an alert-looking young man in a lively argument roll a "Bull" Durham cigarette—it's the natural thing. He likes to punctuate a crisp sentence with a puff of "Bull" Durham. His mind responds to the freshness that's in the taste of it, and his senses are quickened by its unique aroma. A cigarette of "Bull" Durham just fits in with keen thinking and forceful action.

GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO

THE UNIVERSITY GRILL WILL CATER FOR UNIVERSITY TRADE

The University Grill, formerly the McKissick Cafe, has been recently opened under the management of one of San Francisco's leading restaurant men. The Cuisine is the very finest in the city. Music is furnished by the best musicians obtainable and dancing can be indulged in every evening. We would be pleased to furnish estimates for any size luncheon, dinner, or supper parties on short notice. Our prices will doubtless meet with the approval of university people and we will do all we can to please them.

England controls 70 per cent of the world's wool. Germany leads in the manufacture of dye-stuffs. The war in Europe has therefore sent the price of reliable fabrics soaring.

Styleplus $17

Neckwear

Broad values in wide silk four-in-hands, to introduce our new stock of smart neckwear for Fall. There are some whose brilliancy of coloring duplicates that of the Autumn leaves—and some are more sedate for the tastes of conservative men. Altogether it is a most fascinating display. At $1 you may find its equal but such cases are rare. The largest variety in town at 50c.
