

ARTEMISIA STAFF PUBLISHES SPLENDID ANNUAL BIG SHOW STARTS SATURDAY NIGHT AT 8:00 O'CLOCK

GLEE CLUB GIVES LAST CONCERT OF THE YEAR

PROF. HASEMAN'S SONG BIRDS END SUCCESSFUL SEASON WITH FINAL CONCERT AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM.

Saturday night, the University Glee Club gave its annual play at the High School Auditorium. Although the crowd was rather small owing to the unsettled weather, the program was excellent. Besides the songs rendered by the entire Glee Club, many good skits were given. Clem Caffrey, Wooster and Frank gave a real "meller drama," only the villain was able to walk off the stage at the end of the scene, which is contrary to all rules of acting.

"The Way We Have at Nevada" with Ed Caffery, as the football hero who neglects his studies. Clem Caffery, the harsh father and Ferney Snare as the old negro, was given in a taking manner. The talk on college loyalty and the idea of sacrificing something of your own for your college could be taken to heart by a number of the students here.

The Mandolin Club gave a few of its selections which were very well received. Mason Rhodes then sang "How Ireland Got Its Name," so that one almost believed him.

The big hit of the evening, however, was "Reno and Juliet," with Joe Guervarra and Clem Caffery taking these parts respectively. Guervarra made a "sure nut" Romeo and Caffery was all that could be desired of a young lady in love.

After singing "U. of N. So Gay," the "Star-Spangled Banner" was sung by the Glee Club and audience as well.

GIRLS TRACK MEET IS CALLED OFF

Lack of Interest and Too Many Other Activities Cause Captains To Make Decision

Owing to the fact that not enough interest was exhibited on the part of the girls and track aspirants and that there were too many other activities to take up the last two weeks of school, the girl's track meet has been called off.

It was to have been held the fourth of May and some of the girls have been practicing faithfully for at least a month in anticipation. Every morning early, the track has been the scene of furious activity but the number of those working gradually decreased until there were not enough left to hold a meet. Therefore the captains of the four class teams met and decided to call it off for this year.

Alumni day, final examinations, and many other cares of the few remaining days of college were also a deciding factor in the action of the captains.

Recently the co-eds of the University of Kansas has a questionnaire about their intended vocations, and out of the 1098 women students who answered, only one offered matrimony.

BLOCK N SOCIETY HOLDS BANQUET AND ELECTIONS

Enjoyable Banquet at Century Club

With twenty-seven men present, the members of the Block N Society gathered together last Wednesday for the big banquet. It was held in the banquet room of the Century Club and served by the ladies of the Century Club. Besides the active members, three old members were present, Harvey McPhail '14, George Henningson and "T. G." North. The presence of the old members was deeply appreciated for it showed that they still had the interests and aims of the Block N in mind to make it a point to be present at the banquet.

Because the resources and the shortness of time did not permit a very elaborate banquet for the first semester, it was decided not to hold a banquet and postpone the affair until this semester when the track and baseball men receiving their N's could also participate. But due to the fact that these seasons were called off no N's were granted and only the men who received football N's were present.

With President Frank Martin as toastmaster, the evening was spent in speeches from the new N men and the visitors: Prof. Haseman, Dean Scragham, Coach Glasscock, Manager McDonald, North, McPhail, and Henningson. All spoke upon the past, present and future of the Block N, and athletes in general suggesting new fields of activity for the society and setting forth ideals and plans for the future.

At the close of the banquet a short business meeting was called and officers for the coming year were elected. Jens Jensen, a member of the football squad for two years, was chosen as president; Fred Winnegar, for vice-president; McKenzie, as secretary; Hutson, as treasurer, and Harker sergeant-at-arms. The following men received their N's this year: Winnegar, Tam, Silva, C. Melarkey, Hutson, Brown and Leap.

At a recent test held at the University of Iowa, five hundred first-year students were given fifty hundred words to spell. The girls made an average of twenty-one errors; the men thirty-two. An important fact brought out was that there was a close relationship between mental ability and ability to spell.

BELLE ISLE CARNIVAL PROMISES TO BE GOOD

TWENTY-FOUR FRIVOLOUS, FANTASTIC, FOOLISH, FREAKISH, FARCICAL, FUN-PRODUCING FEATURES.

PARADE STARTS FROM MORRILL HALL

MME. COBINA TO SING, BAND TO PLAY, GIRLS TO DANCE, POKER AND ROULETTE GAMES, SHOOTING GALLERY, REFRESHMENTS, EVERYTHING.

Confetti, serpentine paper, clown suits and costumes, and innumerable side-show features will mark the advent of the first University Carnival at the brilliantly lighted Belle Isle when the gates swing open to admit the students "joy" parade which starts from Morrill Hall at 8 o'clock. Headed by the University Band in motley regalia the student funmakers will proceed through town to trumpet out the townfolks and announce that the twenty-four stunts opening at Belle Isle at 8:30 are the liveliest, loveliest, biggest, best mirth provoking, demi-enticing features of the year. The kindly donation of the Isle by Mr. George Wingfield, together with the granting of free lights by the Reno Light and Power Company has given an impetus to the affair which has interested the town people as well as to create a spirit of rivalry between the different organizations on the Hill.

Each organization is vying with the other to produce the best dime-collecting stunt and to date the committee in charge reports the following side-shows and features:

Aggie Club with its "NO BULL" stunt. The farm boys have listed four separate and interesting parts to their side show as well as to offer for sale ice-cream and other edibles produced by the college of agriculture.

Phi Delta Tau in "College Life" will attempt to portray familiar and embarrassing campus scenes. S. A. E. will reveal raspberries and take-offs on familiar subjects and scenes.

Phi Kappa Phi (the campus hibernians) will put on an original and interesting interpretation of the well known Shakespearian characters Mutt and Jeff.

Mme. Cobina, operatic star and well known in the musical world, will be seen riding about in Spanish costume behind a tiny "jasack." Between rides she will be one of the main features in the big feature building rendering several of her most noted selections.

Manzanita Hall has a hot one in the form of a Spanish Cabaret—singing, dancing and chicken (inside the tamales).

The Gothic "N" wheel of fortune will tell you all about your future wife—your future life and—guess what else?

Girls Glee Club—twenty dainty dancing dolls will dance in Spanish and sing under Miss Denny's direction.

The Coffin and Keys in a "Regular Hold-up" will stage a '49 gambling house. Faro games, roulette wheels and blackjack games engineered by experienced men will furnish excitement for the chance-taker. Loosen up on your yard and take a chance with these rough tough birds with the six-guns.

- All of the Senior laws at Cornell University who enlist in the army in protection of the nation will get their degrees just the same as if they went on and graduated in the regular course of work.

The Aggie Bar will dispense bum booze over a bogus bar by two bow-legged bar-boys.

Delta Alpha Epsilon speaks English fairly well but their attention will be turned to the best method of finding a man's heart when they auction a tempting cake made by one of their members. (We withhold the name.)

Clonia has ceased to argue and will offer an array of nigger-babies. Knock 'em dead before they speak. One cheroot if you clip three o. them. One man smokes it and six men get sick.

The Block "N" boys will handle a shooting gallery, Red Cross nurses in attendance.

Sigma Alpha offers an African egg dodger. Fo' that egg and hit the Sigma tau baby. Eggs guaranteed to be ripe.

Pi Beta Phi has reproduced the "Streets of Cairo." Egyptian mummies—modern rummies—several dummies. Plenty of "jaz" and music by hand and mouth.

Tri-Delt will be seen in the Hawaiian Village. Hula Hula girls in shredded wheat dresses. Honolulu hand shake, Ukes, and singing.

The executive committee will handle the Jitney Crawl. Two jitneys per dance, but they're twice as long as the regulation scud.

Y. W. C. A. will be housed in the Pound Masters Paradise where they will dispense hot dogs to hungry Igorrottes who desire that form of nourishment.

I. O. A. O. in their Japanese Tea Garden will serve that palatable liquor to those who desire a tea party. Several tables have been reserved already and business looks good.

The Faculty Men will dispense confetti, serpentine paper and other forms of fluffy funmaking materials. Look the confetti over carefully as you may find some of your old exam papers.

The University Band besides leading the parade will furnish music throughout the evening from its pedestal in front of the main building.

Another of the prominent features of the evening will be the "Belle Isle Currency." Chairman Gooding of the finance committee has arranged to have currency issued for the evening which will serve as admission to any show on the grounds. Two denominations will be issued—one and two dollar bills and will cost in actual cash but five cents per dollar of "Belle Isle Currency."

With the use of the "Belle Isle Currency," the number of high class side-shows, the co-operation of the students in the big parade and the amount of interest taken by the town people the Carnival on Saturday night should net the Student Body sufficient money to pay off the student body debt of $800 and leave a running surplus for next year.

RESOLUTION RECOMMENDS UNIVERSAL CLASS DUES

QUESTION TO BE CONSIDERED OF MAKING CLASS DUES AND SAGEBRUSH SUBSCRIPTION PAYABLE WITH ATHLETIC ASSESSMENT.

The following resolution will be presented for action at the A. S. U. N. meeting to be held Friday morning at eleven:

Be it hereby resolved by the Associated Students of the University of Nevada that the student fee collected each semester be increased from four to five dollars and that one dollar of the fee per semester be expended as follows:

The first fifty cents of each additional dollar received during the first semester to be held in trust by the Associated Students treasury subject to the action of the Sophomore and Junior classes, the fund to be divided between the classes in proportion to their relative numbers:

The second fifty cents of each additional dollar collected during the first semester shall be held in trust by the Associated Students treasury subject to action by the business manager of the Sagebrush, said action to be limited by regulations listed below:

The first fifty cents of each additional dollar collected in the second semester shall be held in trust by the Associated Students treasury subject to the action of the freshmen and senior classes, the funds to be divided between the classes in proportion to their respective numbers:

The second fifty cents of each additional dollar collected during the second semester shall be held in trust by the Associated Students treasury, subject to action by the business manager of the Sagebrush, said action to be limited by regulations listed below:

Regulations for Class Funds. Upon request of the class treasurer, the Associated Student treasury shall transfer to the class treasury the amount to which the class is entitled by virtue of its membership.

At the end of the college year, the class treasurer shall present to the executive committee a statement with attached vouchers of all expenditures and also statement of all additional assessments which any class may deem it wise to levy.

The executive committee shall not be considered in any manner responsible for class indebtedness.

In case the income in the first semester shall not admit of assigning to the sophomore and junior class treasurers the sum of fifty cents for each member of the class additional funds shall be subtracted from the second semester income to meet the discrepancy.

If a student refuses to elect a class his membership shall be determined by the records of the registrar.

Sagebrush Fund Regulations.

Each additional dollar assigned to the Sagebrush fund shall entitle every student to one weekly issue of the publication to be delivered in the customary manner.

Sixty percent of the fund shall upon the request of the Sagebrush manager be transferred to the regular treasury of the publication, the Associated Students treasurer receiving receipt for said sum.

The remaining forty percent of the fund shall be expended by the Sagebrush staff in the purchase and publication and exchange with other university publications of cuts of scenes and contests about the campus; and in the publication of extra editions upon the occasion of important events in the campus calendar; said expenditures to be accounted for to the executive committee in separate statement with attached receipts and vouchers.

The advocates of this resolution contend that the burdens of class activity will be more equally shared by the universal payment of class dues.

The regulations of the Sagebrush fund admit of no increased profit to the staff, the sixty percent covering only the increased cost of publication and the average percentage of income from subscriptions by the manager during past years.

ARTEMISIA HERE NEXT THURSDAY

Get That $2.50 And Be the First in Line At Miss Sissa's Desk.

The student Body must be made to realize that the staff has given them a book worth, by the closest figuring, at least $5.50. The engravings and cuts have been made by one of the best firms on the coast. The printing has been handled by the most efficient firm in Reno. The entire book is balanced. The workmanship throughout has been carefully planned and superintended.

The staff is placing two hundred books on sale to the Student Body and general public. Upon the sale of these books depends the success of the year's work. The original plan was to have the book ready for sale on May 1. The delay of two days has been caused by a mistake in shipment of the books from the firm in San Francisco which is roughing the paper for the firm in Sacramento, which is doing the binding. When the books reach the students' hands, they will be fresh from the binders, and will not have had time to season in our dry climate. It is therefore urged that each person obtaining a book, keep it, when not in use, between heavy weights of some sort to prevent warping of the cover.

If the book pleases, the Staff is glad. If mistakes have been made, the staff begs a common privilege with everyone. If any part arouses anger, the staff wishes to point out that the angry persons viewpoint is a wrong one.

The University of Wisconsin will build a new radio station this summer to take the place of the old wireless. The tower will be of steel built in concrete, and will rise 157 feet above the ground. The antennae wires, which will be six in number, will be 350 feet long, 15 feet longer than the old antennae wires, and about 55 feet higher.

SENIOR PLAY BEING PERFECTED

Jack O'Sullivan Hard at Work Getting Material Into Perfection.

Jack O'Sullivan is rapidly whipping the Senior Play into shape for the final presentation on May the 11th. The play chosen is "The Amazon" and it was written by Pineroy.

There are no less than six yeards, affording an opportunity for rival stars to show their ability. All are practicing faithfully and Jack O'Sullivan is well pleased with the material.

The play will be given in the Majestic Theatre and the prices will range from 35 cents to $1.25 with a reduction to college students. All profits will be turned over to the Nevada Red Cross Association.

Fifteen Northwestern athletes, including three captains, fell by the wayside in recent examinations, and are ineligible.

NEXT YEAR'S SCHEDULE

Due to the general feeling of uncertainty and the preparations for war it seems almost a sacrilege to talk about plans for the future but it should not matter if we interjected a few words about our own immediate future on the subject of next year's football schedule. If the war ends this summer as we all hope it will, we will go on where we left off and will enter upon college activities with renewed vigor.

We have learned by experience that the schedule is almost as important a factor in the teams success as its own skill and prowess. We have either been playing teams beyond our reach or teams whose defeat did not amount to anything once beaten. We have played at bad times and under poor conditions. We have wasted our strength and crippled our stars upon inferior teams whose sole aim seemed to be to lay out as many men as possible. As a lesson, the past two years have been profitable, but as a source of pride and something to brag about they have been only a disappointment.

It is a mistake to play the California Freshmen. To beat a freshman team no matter how good it is does not put a feather in our cap and the freshman teams of the big colleges are putting out teams as good as the varsity. So we are going beyond our strength to even play them. Club teams are not worth playing except those with a national reputation as the Olympic Club of San Francisco. The big college varsities are way over our heads at present and we had best avoid them until a fat year comes in our football history and we can equal them.

We should enter into an agreement to form a natural rivalry with some one college somewhere near our equal and compete in all four sports with it. Davis Farm and St. Mary's are logical choices but Davis is handicapped by finances, therefore St. Mary's is the only choice left to us to have our big game with and enter into a year round agreement. An early season game with the Indians, a game with Davis here, one with the Olympics and St. Ignatius here, and the big game with St. Mary's here and down there, and a possible trip to Southern California would make a well rounded and profitable season.

THE PROPOSED RESOLUTION

In another part of the Sagebrush we are printing a copy of a resolution that will be presented at the next student body meeting. It embodies two very original and untried principles, namely: to make the payment of class dues and the subscription to the Sagebrush compulsory. That it would be a change for the better seems to be true beyond a reasonable doubt.

Since the resolution embodies two separate clauses, there are two separate lines of argument in support of the proposition. Anyone who has ever attempted to collect class dues knows what a difficult task it is. Only a small percentage of the total number registered ever pay their dues. This necessitates a rather large assessment upon those who do pay. If everyone were forced to pay their class dues, the burden would be evenly distributed and considerably reduced. The dues are to be collected at registration along with the athletic fee and these funds are to be held in trust by the A. S. U. N. Treasurer to be issued to the class officers on the presentation of a bill of expenditures. In this way the executive committee can hold a check upon extravagant and frenzied finances on the part of the classes. Every student will have to pay his dollar and in this way the dead beat will be forced to declare his class and bear his share of the burden.

The second clause provides for the compulsory payment of a Sagebrush subscription. To some this may look like a scheme on the part of the Sagebrush staff to increase their profits but this is not true. Here is the way the money will be spent. Figuring the percentage of students taking the Sagebrush for the last five years we would subtract this number from the increased number who would take the paper under the new plan. Then we would subtract the extra cost of printing the extra number of papers and what was left would be the extra profit. Subtracting a fair amount of this profit for the Sagebrush staff to compensate for the extra labor involved, the amount left would be spent for advertising purposes and improving the Sagebrush. This fund would enable the staff to buy cuts and exchange cuts with other papers, to put out a better paper, and to advertise the University as it should be advertised. It would mean very little to the staff financially but it would mean something to them as a matter of pride in a better paper.

To know that every student has a Sagebrush and to be able to tell the advertiser that every student on the hill will read his advertisement will mean a great deal to the Sagebrush staff. The college paper should be a source of pride to every student and it can never be as long as he does not give it the support and material upon which to build and improve.

REGENT ABLE ON TRIP EAST

Chairman of Board of Regents Goes East to Secure Additions.

Regent Able left last week for an extended visit in the East. He intends to visit all the leading universities studying men and methods and also to interview several possibilities for filling the vacancies in the Faculty.

There are three deanships to be filled the coming year which were left vacant by the resignation of Dean Scrughum of the College of Engineering; Dean Watson, of the College of Arts and Science, and Miss Brown, Dean of Women. There are also the professorships of home economics and languages to find capable teachers for.

Regent Able also hopes to find a suitable educator to assume the President's chair left vacant by former President Hendricks. There are several applicants in eastern universities desirous of the position and he is to interview these men. He will be absent for about three weeks.

Harvey McPhail '14, was on the campus for a short time last week, remaining only long enough to get hitched in double harness with a girl from Oakland. Harvey and his bride returned to Lovelock where he is engaged in business and where they will make their home.

OUTRAGE PERPETRATED

NOSES THE VICTIMS

SENSE IS PARALYSED

All last week we suffered while a certain compound of old fish, dead horses, and packing house refuse was being sprinkled on the lawns and shrubbery of the campus. While it made the grass grow green it made our noses curl and writhe under the strain.

The odor was the most terrific, pungent, penetrating soporific unbearable, and nauseating odor that ever made a glue factory famous or a chem. class seek fresh air. And when one came up through the gates whistling gaily and thinking what a fine day it was, the effect upon him when that perfume struck his proboscis was all conquering. He would forget the day and his studies and everything except that incense.

And there was no escape, for the effects permeated everything, clear to the top floor of Morrill Hall and travelled along the ground to Manzanita Hall and Lincoln Hall. It spoiled your appetite and gave you bad dreams. It ruined your temper and wrecked your pleasures. In fact the good that the grass received was more than counter-balanced by the harm that humanity suffered.

MANZANITA HALL

MANZANITA, IS IT?

"R-R-Rupp, R-R-Rupp, Rupp, Rupp," came the sound of a drum down the street, and there followed, in a large Mitchell Car, the king and queen of the Lombard country.

All of a sudden, a ball came whizzing out of the Garrison at a Hesson riding by.

"What's the fuss?" cried Smith. "Let's get into the fray. Come a Langwith me," exclaimed Francis to Harris who replied.

"Shirley we will," and they all began to run.

"Ketchum," called the King, and then he noticed Hanna who was moody and in a Brown study as she stood in the shade of the Dyke.

"Wy gall," he said to her, "Here is a Nichol, now tell me the trouble." And she related to him:

"Sir, I am the daughter of Hempton, the Taylor, but as I rode with Williams, a Carter, today, I heard the Baker call to his wife:

"Put it in the oven with a good Coke fire. Culverwell, and don't Burnett." Then he rode along the creek and found the water above the Damm all Riley so that the horse could not drink. 'Tis a sad world."

Odbert Lamberson had overheard and he remarked.

"Markwell that I do not Daust your word, but McMasters always said that you would some day be Slavin for Patterson or Wilkinson."

She did not listen but began to warble.

"Clayton Kemper kept his temper, but.

Blevins Browder shouted louder:

"Greenough Green is the grass!"

By this they knew she was a Singer, but what was their surprise when a chorus consisting of Heuer, Maris, McWilliams, Kempton, Belli, Halsell, Ogilvie, Kimball, Ivings, Pendergast and Shartel joined in singing:

"O we are the girls of Manzanita, Could there ever be any sweeter? Please pardon now this little skit, For we had nothing to do with it."

SOCIETY

I. O. A. O.

The members of the I. O. A. O. Club gathered together at a banquet, given in Mrs. Wilson's rooms, in honor of the graduating members. Songs were sung and toasts given until 8 o'clock. Those present were Mrs. A. E. Turner, Mrs. J. D. Layman, Misses Kathryn Rupp, Donna Dyke, Elvina Blevins, Gladys Pendergast, Velma Markwell, Jimmie Odbert, Hulda Shartel, Lois Kimmel, Georgiana Steiner, Marie Pohle, Mary Martin, Lora Lamberson, Gladys Pendergast, Salome Riley, Thelma Bradshaw, Leah Barker, Marguerite Mac Iver, Lela Halsell.

DELTA, DELTA DELTA

Monday evening Elsie Humphreys was a charming hostess to the Tri-Delta girls. Many keeleles were in evidence, so that the girls could try out upon themselves the music for the Hawaiian Village at the Belle Isle Carnival. It proved to be very gay and fantastic. Don't miss it!

At a late hour dainty refreshments were served and every one had a jolly good time.

SENIOR PICNIC

A small but enthusiastic party of Seniors made a pilgrimage to Bowler's Mansion Sunday. They left early on the V. & T. and spent the whole day at the Mansion. Some swam, some climbed mountains, some danced and some "twosed," but all had a good time. They returned that night on the V. & T. There were some pretty good cases of sunburn in the crowd.

FOOTBALL MEN HONOR COACH GLASSCOCK

The football men of last year's squad gathered together last Sunday afternoon at the home of Captain Frank Martin and paid honor to Coach Glasscock, who is leaving in a few days. After a tasty banquet, a few words of appreciation were spoken by Coach Glasscock, Prof. Hase-man, Coin Cazier, Frank Harriman, and Captain Martin, also expressed the sentiment of the men and the student body in general regretting the departure of Coach Glasscock.

HOUSE PARTY!

Saturday noon a gay crowd of co-eds and their necessary masculine escorts departed for Bowers Mansion, to spend the week-end 'neath the shade of the pines, and among the cool springs of the famous old summer resort. They took with them, many frying pans, and other utensils, to accommodate the nice juicy steaks, bacon and eggs, etc., and needless to say they came home empty handed. Miss Kempton ventured to chaperon the crowd. How could she? For see who they were—Margaret Queen, Fern Wright, Dixie Coke, Peggy Coke, Zelma Francis, Blanche Garrison and Jack Wright, Bert Walker, George Ogilvie, "Tiny" Fairchilds, Pete Stewart, Maurice Smith.

Y. W. C. A.

Apr. 25: Helen Fulton, the traveling student secretary for the Pacific Coast field, talked at this meeting. The girls were very much surprised when she told them of the action which the advisory board had taken, concerning the general secretary for next year. It has been known for some time that Miss Wygal cannot return and it has taken a great deal of consideration to find some one who can fill the position as she has. This task was unusually difficult since the University is in such an unsettled condition. But a person was found in our own college who has a.1 the requirements for the position, Helena Shade. Helena is going to take work in the summer session of the National Training School in New York and next fall will be with us again, ready for work. The proposition was unanimously accepted by the girls, and after a vocal solo by Doris Taylor, the meeting was closed.

Next Wednesday is the last meeting of the association for this year, and it is also the last time that we can hear Miss Wygal.

The students of the University of California recently were able to hear a lecture given by Count Ilya Tolstoin on "The Life and Ideals of My Father," for the benefit of the Women's Hall fund. An unusually liberal percentage of the receipts went toward making the Women's Hall a reality.

EXAMS! HOW POETS MIGHT HAVE FELT

Wait a minute, everybody. I have a little secret to tell you. You know next Monday? Well, exams are going to begin. We have been thinking of it for three weeks now and, to make it worse, the editor says we have got to write poetry about them. Of course, if you are going to write poetry, it is best to take a good model for your work. So, while cogitating as to the best method of approaching the subject, there came to our mind the following little gem, as a sample of what Mr. Kipling might have said on entering the room to take a Bug test.

Text book and notes, o'er which last night I till the early morning pored, Come to my brain now, clear and bright.

The questions now are on the board! Oh memory, be with me yet, Lest I forget, lest I forget.

Having perpetrated this, we fell to pondering on the possibilities which lie hidden in the thought of Tennyson coming out of a Spanish exam which had been a little out of his class. The great poet would naturally be in a rather melancholy mood, and with this in our mind, we decided on the following as being his most probable outburst:

Plunk, plunk, plunk! I know that I cannot have passed. For of all the questions in that exam I answered but half of the last.

After Tennyson our thoughts naturally turned to Browning, his great rival in the Victorian era. Our fancy painted Mr. Browning as recording his impressions after trying to complete an hour exam in, say, the third part of Caj's Math. There seemed to be only one poem with right swing to express the mad haste with which he would have been obliged to write, so we concluded that he would have gone on record something like this:

I grasped pen and paper, and Thomas and he; I scribbled, Bill scribbled, we scribbled all three.

"Schpeed!" shouted the Prof. who was giving the test, "Schpeed!" echoed the room as we scribbled our best.

And so on till the quiz was completed.

About the time we reached this point the editor called us up and wanted to know where the *** our copy was. He didn't really put it that way, but that's the way editors are supposed to do. Under this spur we fell upon Lord Byron and after wrestling with Childe Harold a while we produced the following as a sample of the poet's feelings after passing through a little session with Prof. Bushee.

The blackboard frowns upon the spot Where I now sit, a hopeless wreck, And only one short hour ago I dreamed that I might yet pass Ec. But, when I say those questions there I knew my dreams was naught but air.

At this point the time limit set by the editor and our courage both ran out, and we put the cover on our typewriter and rushed our copy up to the office. All those that flunk any of the above mentioned courses may console themselves with the thought that great men before them have had similar trials and have become famous in spite of them.—C. C. Tiger.

TAUS ENTERTAIN

Phi Delta Tau entertained at a dance Friday night, April 27, in honor of its new members. A very enjoyable evening was passed, and dancing was the principal feature of the evening. Delicious punch and wafers were served, and the pep and enthusiasm of the event made the affair a marked success.

The guests present were Misses Salome Riley, Elsie Humphries, Claire Hofer, Martha Folsom, Helen Hobbs, Dixie Coke, Pauline Coke, Belle McMillan, Lois Codd, Joe Damm, Margaret Hesson, Alice Hobbs, Bonnie Stephens, Dorothy Patterson, Kathryn Rupp, Francis Jones, Katherine Skinner, Ardis Brown, Lola Hanna, Leila Ogilvie, Velma Markwell, Elvina Blevins, Marian Lombard, Elsie Farrer.

Messrs Tom King, George Ogilvie, Lloyd McCubbin, Chester Greenwood, Scott Hyde.

The Senate of the University of Kansas has voted down the honor system on the ground that there is not sufficient sentiment against classroom and examination dishonesty.

George (Hungry) Henningson came down from Gardnerville for a few days last week and went the rounds. He was present at the Block N banquet.

HONOR.
The Women Students of Nevada realizing the need of crystalizing their sense of honor, and averse to the establishment of a mechanical device for this purpose, have adopted the following resolutions:

1. That we, the women students of the U. of N., do hereby stamp with our contempt all dishonest methods that may be employed in college life, academic, athletic, political, or social, and do heartily agree to do all that lies in cleanliness and honor in our college.

2. That we determine it as the duty of the President of the Women's League to call together all Freshmen during the first week after their matriculation in the college, and explain to them this resolution.

3. That we expect of each member of this association that she will, in case of any dishonorable action coming under her notice, first speak to the offending person and if her suspicion is confirmed, bring such action to the attention of the Executive Board.

We recommend that the investigation and punishment of breaches of the spirit or letter of these resolutions be under the control of the Executive Board, subject to the reservations expressed in the published agreement between the Faculty and the Women's League.

Two years of military training is now a Senior requirement for Cornell men. Those electing the course for four years will receive a salary from the government, and upon graduation will be commissioned as second lieutenants.

A race war was precipitated last Friday night between the Laws and Engineers of Oklahoma University by the theft of Old Trusty, the sacred cannon of the engineers, by the bar-risters. As a result of the hostilities, in which shooting irons were promiscuously displayed, although without any fatalities, the parts of the cannon are scattered to the four winds, while five Laws and six Engineers, today, are eating their meals standing up.

A new draft is to be made at McGill University to fill up the ranks of the McGill battery which is now at the front in France. Last year the university sent the battery, but now its ranks are so depleted that they have to have a new draft to fill up the empty places. The battery has rendered some of the most efficient service on the border.

"In case of war between the United States and any European power, such as the United States is now engaged in, it will have the support of all the South American republics," said Hon. Alejandro Alvarez at a recent lecture at one of the most prominent universities of the North. "The South American republics feel that they owe a double duty to the United States and one of the bonds of union is the Monroe Doctrine. They feel grateful to the States for the protection that has been extended to them, and this gratefulness will assume form in case of war."

There were various remarks heard in the girls' dressing room on the rehearsal of the new musical comedy, "Broadway Mary," at Syracuse University. "How do you expect a fellow to put on a No. 4 shoe when you are used to wearing a No. 8? How do you get in this skirt, head first or feet first? (And he was a college man). My waist measure 40; how do you expect to have me dance wrapped up in a 36? Can't you lengthen my skirt; this one would do for Annette Kellermann? (And he was a track man). Is that all the powder I get around my shoulders?" But you will have to excuse them, for you see in this show the boys are playing the part of the chorus girls.

Blind and an orphan, Horace Condee of the Gallipolis High School, is working his way through school and paying off a mortgage on his home by selling lead pencils on the campus of the University of Ohio. Condee has made special arrangements with a pencil company to sell 16,000 pencils, for which he will receive $400.

What Does Silage Cost?
The acres used and cultivated time and again, and the area to be gone over to get the fodder are the big items in Silage cost.

Nitrate of Soda, as a Top Dressing worked in when cultivating, will cheapen production of your Silage. Bigger, more succulent stalks and bigger ears will be yours.

TRACK CAPTAIN ELECTED FOR YEAR OF 1918

Chet Greenwood Chosen as Skipper to Next Year's Track Team.

After the Block N banquet last Wednesday night, the track men eligible, got together and elected a track captain to pilot the team next season. The man chosen for the berth was Chet Greenwood.

Chet has been a premier track man ever since his entry into college and is well fitted for the position. His particular event has always been the high hurdles, and his ability in this event may be judged from the fact that he holds the present record for the high hurdles. If the track meet had not been called off he would have been a mainstay of the Nevada team in the big meet on the coast this year.

From the looks of the material out for track this year and the new material which we may reasonably expect next year, Chet will have a winning team behind him next year.

THE PHI DELTA TAU ENTERTAINS MEMBERS

Last Friday evening the Phi Delta Tau fraternity entertained their three new members, Robert Carter, Dean Holt and William Van Dennis with an informal dance, held in Maple Hall.

Those present were Misses Humphrey, McMillan, Farrar, Markwell, Stevens, Hofer, Ogilvie, Rupp, Blevins, Skinner, Riley, Paterson, Hesson, Pauline and Dixie Coke, Jones Brown, Codd, Damm, Lombard, Helen and Alice Hobbins, Folsom, Hanna, Kempton and Mrs. Nyswander. Messrs. McCubbin, Ogilvis, Mervin Chester Brennen, Jones, Baker, Wooster, King, Greenwood (Woods, Moore, Van Dennis, Holt, Carter, Smith, Decker, Stephens, Buckman, Grant, Mayley, MacIver, Redfern, Hutson, Barnes, Hobbins, Hyde, Weatherwax, and Nyswander.

At the Sophomore class elections last week the following officers were elected: President, George Hopkins; Vice-president, Pauline Coke; Secretary, Salome Riley; Treasurer, Henry Rhodes.

The election of Artemisia editor for next year, which resulted in a tie last week between Edna Greenough and Ira Redfern was also decided and this time the majority went to Edna Greenough. This is the first time a woman ever held the office of Artemisia editor but in view of the fact that women are entering every line of industry worth while, it seems only fitting that a woman should also enter the editorial field. As a student and writer of ability, Edna Greenough will keep to the standard of previous annuals next year.

Emmet Smith was selected business manager of the Artemisia and upon his energy and business sense will depend a large measure of the success of the book. Smith is a member of Phi Delta Tau, and a popular and capable student.

The students in Michigan do not favor a course in military training, only 150 out of five thousand students expressed any desire to take such a course. Texas can at least be thankful that there are no slackers among her students.

University of Minnesota men do not want to learn to cook. Only two of them agreed to take a course in cooking, designated to teach men the most modern culinary methods, which was offered by the Home Economics Department at the University of Minnesota. It was decided not to give the course after the two men told the head of the department that they had found two co-eds who offered to teach them the art of cooking privately.

TRAINING CAMP WILL OPEN 15TH OF MAY

FACULTY IRE STIRRED

CULPRITS UNDER BAN

COLD BATH IS NEAR

When the big preparedness parade started last Wednesday the university was well represented. Not only were all the students there but also nearly all the faculty. They were not all there because Dean Knight and Prof. Allen had business elsewhere and thus spoiled a perfect score for the faculty. As a consequence feeling ran so high among these worthy gentlemen that a tubbing was proposed for the black sheep.

To show how near Prof. Allen and Dean Knight came to counting bubbles in a nice cool body of water inclosed in an ancient bathtub it need only be mentioned that the time and place had already been set and it only remained to choose the chief bubble counter and his assistant. Competition was keen for the job, Prof. Hase-man claiming it on the ground of great experience in such ceremonies and Prof. Turner on the ground of providing the bathtub.

Prof. Knight presented a difficulty on account of his size and Prof. Turner insisted that he be put in the tub first and the water turned on then so that he wouldn't cause an overflow and flood. But Coach Glascock insisted that such a course would be to easy on the victim and while they were arguing it out, the wiser and cooler heads lead by Prof. A. E. Hill, pleaded for mercy and decided to let the culprits off since it was their first offense. Then the conspirators dispersed and the affair was hushed up, and tragedy narrowly averted.

And, oh, yes, another thing happened in connection with our faculty on that day. They were marching

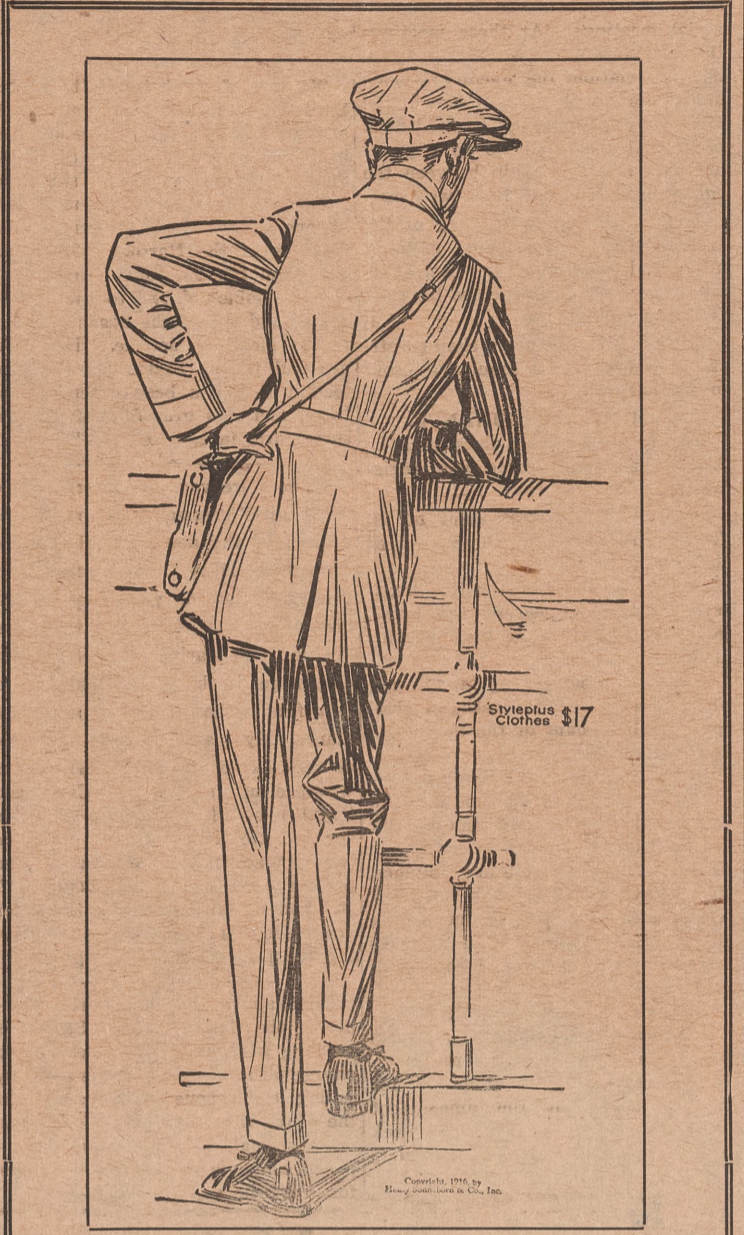

One out of every five co-eds in the University of Washington is wholly self-supporting, and one out of every eight is partially so, according to a statistical index of 1610 co-eds of the university. Of this number 256 live in the sorority houses, while 310 live in approved boarding houses, and 540 have their home in Seattle.

down the street out of step and straggling along in a desperate effort to keep up and not get run over, some thinking about next day's lecture and something about vacation, when an observing lady on the sidewalk was heard to remark, "Oh, here comes the G. A. R. Don't they look old and tired? Poor brave men."

We think America and the Star Spangled Banner two great old songs. Don't you? We don't know every word of them by heart. Do you? We are pretty well ashamed of that fact. Are you? But we've resolved to learn them within the next twenty-four hours. Have you? We are going to ask the boys around the table not to sing "Glorious" and "Down in the City of Booze" so much. Will you?—Michigan Daily.

And we think they will sound mighty good and mean a lot more. Don't you?

New concoctions at the fountain nearly every day. Dalton, Clifford & Wilson Co.
