VARSIITY vs. DAVIS THURSDAY

Final Game of 1919 Football Season on Thanksgiving Day

CADET BATTALION IS INSPECTED

Colonel M. N. Falls, commander of the eleventh district, inspected the R. O. T. C. unit here last Thursday afternoon. His visit was entirely unexpected and came as a great surprise to all the students. The Colonel, however, expressed himself as very well pleased with the showing made by the battalion, which compared very favorably with other units in this district. He spent Thursday morning inspecting the junior unit of the R. O. T. C. at Reno High School.

Colonel Falls was in command of the Camp Dobbins officers training camp and saw active service in France.

DEBATORS WANT TWO YEAR CONTRACT

Word has been received from the college of the Pacific that they are anxious to enter into a two year contract with Nevada for intercollegiate debates, the first to be held in Reno, early next April. The question for debate and the side of the question to be taken by Nevada will be decided by a majority vote. The final decision as to the option of a contract with Pacific will be made by Clunia at its next meeting.

ENGINEERS HOLD IMPORTANT MEET

The Engineers held a regular meeting Tuesday evening, November 25 and arranged the final steps for affiliation with the A. A. E. Several important questions were discussed and acted upon. There will be one more meeting this semester, Tuesday, December 9, and student Engineers who wish to get on the ground floor of the Student Chapter of the A. A. E. should do so this time, at the latest.

THREE NEVADA STARS OUT OF THE GAME

"Tiny" Fairchild, captain and tackle on the Varsity, who was injured in the Santa Clara game is reported to be improving rapidly and will probably be up and out in a few days. At first it was feared he had suffered a broken rib but an X-ray taken showed that he had a bad bruise on the rib instead. He will probably not be able to play against the Farmers Thanksgiving but promises to be out on the sidelines giving them a boost wherever they need it.

"Molly" Maloné is another of Nevada's star linesmen who will have to grace the sidelines in the Thanksgiving game. Molly's knee was injured in the Santa Clara game and it is feared that the injury will not be healed by Thursday. His place will probably be filled by Witter.

Vince Dunn was called to his home Sunday by the death of his father and so his place will probably be filled by Grant or Hobbs.

"Tiny" Fairchild's job as tackle will be filled by Joe Hill.

Even though these men may be absent from Nevada's Varsity for the Thanksgiving game, there is no cause for worry for their places on the team are filled by men who are by no means amateurs at the game, and with the proper help from the rooting section Nevada will hammer the California Aggies for another good score.

"VINCE" DUNN GOES HOME

Vincent Dunn, Varsity fullback received word of the sudden death of his father in Stockton last Sunday and left immediately for home. He will probably return to college within the next few weeks.

RESOLUTION

The men of Lincoln Hall are unanimous in expressing their most heartfelt sympathy in this hour of your bereavement, and therefore have ordered the following resolution to be spread upon the minutes of the Lincoln Hall Association and to be published in the college paper:

Whereas God in His great wisdom has seen fit to call to the Great Beyond the father of our esteemed friend and associate, Vincent Dunne, therefore be it resolved that we extend to him and his family our sincere feeling of condolence in this hour of their sorrow and bereavement.

LINCOLN HALL ASS'N.
L. L. SCOTT, Mayor.
JOHN WALL, Secretary.

SENIORS AND SOPHS MIX THURSDAY

"Twisty" Layman, Senior Coach, Promises Big Struggle Turkey Day

Next to the Varsity-Davis game on Thanksgiving Day, interest is centered on the coming Senior-Soph meele, which is scheduled for Thursday morning. Neither team has been selected definitely, the Sophs having had only three or four nights' practice and the Seniors even less than that. "Dutch" Kimmel, veteran of several years experience on the Varsity a few years ago, has taken the second year men under his wing and is teaching them all the fine points of the game.

It has been decided to play the game on Thanksgiving morning instead of as a preliminary to the big contest so everyone not actually playing in the game is expected to be out and see what happens.

Twenty-two has a bunch of likely looking football men, many of whom have seen considerable experience. In the backfield, Luce, former Wyoming prop. school star; B. Egan, a Tonopah player, built like the proverbial Samson; Walsh at quarter, and Jess Christensen, of Sparks, holding forth. For ends, Witter and Sullivan are available, fast men, both of them; Graham and Hardy, two hard fighters, at the tackle positions, with Bruce and G. Lee, of Dummy rush fame, playing guard. D. Lee will be at the pivot.

The Seniors have a galaxy of old vets for the team, and a number of old Block N men who will smash things up for the Sophs. For the line, Harker, Patterson, Layman, Olmstead, Badt, Cahlan, Gooding, Smith, Bartlett, with Organ, Sirkegian, Bryan, the Benson brothers Frish, Frosh and several others who will make good backfield men.

SAGEHENS WIN FROM SANTA CLARA ELEVEN

MUCH HERALDED CALIFORNIA ELEVEN ARE UNABLE TO CHECK COURTRIGHT'S SCORING MACHINE WHICH RUNS UP 41 TO 7 SCORE—DUNN STARS AT FULLBACK.

Nevada's tradition topping Varsity met Santa Clara's invasion last Saturday and stemmed the tide of pessimistic opinion by severely beating the San Jos invaders by a score of 41 to 7. The score gives an indication of what a tremendous struggle both teams put up. The Santa Clara-Nevada game was the finest display of real football tactics that the most rabid pundit of sportdom could ever hope to witness.

Saturday dawned clear but rather chilly—ideal gridiron weather. Santa Clara came on the field first, closely followed by the Silver and Blue defenders who were given a big ovation as they tore out on the turf for a few minutes of preliminary signal practice. A large crowd of University students, Reno High boosters, and townspeople rose to their feet to exercise their pulmonary cells as an opening tribute to the Sagebrush eleven.

Captain Ferrario, of Santa Clara, lead the fast Catholic aggregation. The consensus opinion was all in favor of a bitter defeat for the Sagehens. Santa Clara sent up a machine which was rated by coast dopesters as the third best eleven in California. Baker, snappy Santa Clara back, was back in the game, as was Manelli. Great things were expected of these two players. Gobs of Santa Clara money flashed defiantly in the drawn faces of Nevada men. The odds were to neither side's advantage.

Captain Fairchild won the toss and chose to receive on the first kickoff. The Sagebrushers were all too anxious to get started. Man for man, the Santa Clara pigskin jugglers were a trifle heavier than Nevada's men. Santa Clara appeared over-confident at first due probably to their splendid showing against Stanford's Cardinal Varsity two weeks ago.

The whole affair was replete with thrills to such an extent that a Mexican hairless pup watching the battle grew an inch of thick, heavy wool from excitement's marvel effect. Nevada's line-storming backs gouged out gain after gain through Santa Clara's line, around both ends, and on forward passes. Coach Courtright used most of his plays in the game to great advantage.

Vincent Dunne started at fullback. Dunne proved a brick and to him goes individual honors for the most consistent line plunging skill seen on Mackay field since the time of Goat Curtin, the great rugby player, and Fran Martin, who scored on the California Varsity in 1915. Dunne is possessed of two speedy legs which work like a pair of connecting rods when he is bucking the line. He picked openings to perfection against Santa Clara.

Homer Johnson, strong contender for an All-Pacific Coast backfield position, and Rabbit Bradshaw, Nevada's spunky quarterback, put fear into the hearts of the grey-jerseyed Santa Claran's every time they took the ball. Bradshaw came out of his slump this last week to claim a large portion of the individual glory. His queer, dodging method of running through a closely scattered field was responsible for the feature play of the game.

The Nevada streak tore down the field from Nevada's own twenty yard line for a touchdown. Dunne, Ed Reed and Ted Fairchild running swift interference for the comet-like quarterback, who has attracted wide attention on the entire Pacific Coast by his spectacular heady cleverness.

Johnson was by far the peer of any Santa Clara player, either in end shooting or on the defensive. He was responsible for two touchdowns in the closing moments of the game which were made only because the "Fourteen-inch Howitzer" outran all of Santa Clara's backfield pursuers. The first came as a result of a perfect forward pass from Bradshaw in the center of the gridiron. The second was a flash around left end from the fifty-yard line.

Captain Mahlon Fairchild was severely injured in the final frame by a

CROSS COUNTRY RUN IS POSTPONED

Owing to the late start made for the cross country run, coupled with the large number of track men playing on the football squad, has caused the run which was to have occurred on Thanksgiving Day in connection with the Davis-Varsity contest, to be postponed for this fall.

In practice, a great deal of good material for spring track showed up, and when spring training begins, it is expected to see an abundance of experienced men, out for practice.

JUST A "FISH" STORY

Tom Grant, former resident of Kansas, but now of the University, got a taste of real western hospitality the other day when two well known "Native Sons" treated him to a fish dinner.

Grant, "Doc" Whalman and Ira Redfern were discussing eats and eating and Grant shifted the conversation around to fish, declaring that members of the finny tride that were to be snared in the waters near his home town could not be excelled. He raved at length over the superior merits of a mudfish he claimed he had captured and said that western fish weren't in it with the fish of Kansas.

The two native sons got their dander up and became reckless. Ira had just received his stipend as Boy Scout master, and "Doc" was feeling pretty fat after the Cal "Babes" defeat, so they invited Grant down town to partake of a big dinner with fish as "piece de resistance."

After due consideration they found a place that presented a golden opportunity for them to make a lavish display of the talents as epicures.

They seated themselves and ordered soup and salad and were about to select fish when "Doc" and Grant saw some acquaintances at another table and stepped over to talk to them, leaving Ira to order the fish.

He did.
It was—TRUPE.

Grant says, "These native sons don't know nothing; tripe isn't fish, it's a bird."

BONUS STUDENTS ENTER NEW "VET" COURSE

When the state board of vocational education had received several calls for work in veterinary medicine, a new course was established at the Wisconsin College of Agriculture to meet the demand. Eight students enrolled for the first year of work, all of them former soldiers entitled to aid under the bonus act.

The work of the course covers two years of the four years required for the degree of doctor of veterinary medicine. Students who complete the work will be qualified to enter the junior year in any first-class veterinary college. The course is under the direction of Dr. F. B. Hadley.

A temporary laboratory for the study of the anatomy of domesticated animals has been provided in the Stock pavilion. Provision will be made next year for special courses in pharmacy, materia medica diagnosis, physiology, and clinical work designed particularly for students in this group.

PRINCETON MAKES WAR RECORD

Figures just compiled by the Princeton War Record Office show 287 citations and decorations to have been awarded to Princeton men during the war. Two hundred and twenty-one Princeton men received these honors.

American decorations and citations awarded Princeton men, included two Congressional Medals of Honor; 41 Distinguished Service Crosses; 11 Distinguished Service Medals; 23 Divisional Citations.

Ninety-four Croix de Guerre were bestowed by the French government on Princeton men. The list of honors given to Princeton men by the French included also 3 Medaille Militaire; 23 Legion d' Honneur. Seven men are entitled to wear the Fourragere.

Included among the British Honors won by Princeton men are 8 Military Crosses; 4 Distinguished Service Orders; 2 Distinguished Flying Crosses; 1 Order of the British Empire; 1 British Order of the Crown, and 1 Royal Air Force Cross.

Sixteen Princeton graduates received honors from Belgium.

Italy bestowed on Princeton men 13 War Crosses of Merit; one Legion of Honor; one Order of the Crown of Italy, and one Caproni Medal.

Colonel Augustus Trowbridge of the Department of Physics, received decorations from three countries. Melville Hall, was honored with the British Order of the Crown, Star of 1914, which is only given to the members of the original British Expeditionary Force prior to November 30, 1914; Knight of the Order of Belgium Crown, Distinguished Service Order, the Military Cross, and the Croix de Guerre.

Present statistics of Princeton show that the total number of Princeton men who died in the Service is 142.

PENN. COLLEGE FACES STUDENT STRIKE

Franklin and Marshall College faced a strike of the entire student body as a result of the suspension of a number of sophomores for hazing Charles Duttenhoffer, a freshman, a week ago.

The students voted unanimously to strike and announced that pickets would be placed around the college grounds to prevent any one from attending classes until the suspended students are reinstated. Members of the football team also struck and the annual game with Gettysburg on Thanksgiving Day probably will be called off.

Seventeen members of the sophomore class, who are alleged to have taken part in the hazing, were held by a magistrate in $200 bail each.—Gazette.

"DOT" PERCIVAL VISITS

Dot Percival came down from Elko last Saturday and saw Nevada trim the Santa Clara team on Mackay Field and took in the I. O. A. O. dance that night. "Dot" was one of the best workers on the Sagebrush staff before leaving college to return home and is a member of Pi Beta Phi. She expects to return to college next semester.

PAUL BARKER HEADS INDEPENDENT MEN

Paul Barker has been elected president of the independent men on campus. The election was close and was won by a plurality of only a few votes.

The independent men are organized into eight groups according to place of residence. Each group is to organize into individual clubs, clubs will enter into inter-campus activities.

Several prominent men on campus recognized the need for an organized effort among the independent men that they might create a better Beaver spirit. They were instrumental in organizing the movement for big things are held by the leaders.

Paul Barker, the newly elected president, is a senior in agriculture and will come here from the University of Nevada—O. A. C. Barometer.
