BE AT FRIDAY'S ASSEMBLY

UNIVERSITY HONORS TEAM FRIDAY

Presentation of Sweaters to Football Men; Snappy Talks Promised

Friday is the last chance you will have to show your appreciation of this year's never-to-be-forgotten victorious football team. Also it will be the last get-together this semester. A fitting program has been arranged, and Prexy Jones promises lots of jazz on the occasion of awarding the Varsity letter to the deserving ones. Si Ross, '09, who in his day was a star on the old rugby team, Varsity coach in 1912, and coach of three pennant winning basketball teams, will give a talk on football that only Si can give, and which promises to be a world beater. Following that Coach Courtright will award the letters and pass out the sweaters which it is hoped will be here by that time. There will, of course, be the usual speeches from the men also and taken altogether it will be a day which will live long in the memory of all who attend. This will NOT be a student body meeting and every one who is interested is expected to be there. This includes the faculty, and every loyal Nevada, with the proper school spirit will be present and make every one of those twenty men feel that the entire school, faculty and student body, and not just a few, appreciate the efforts they made to put the old U. of N. back on the football map once more. BE THERE.

DEBATERS SELECTED FOR B. Y. CONTEST

Hornaday and Belford to Represent Nevada in Coming Talk Fest

At a meeting of Clionia last week a two year contract for an annual debate with the College of the Pacific was accepted. The first debate will be held in Reno, probably in April, 1920, and the next year Nevada will send a team to debate at San Jose.

Try-outs were held for places on the team which will go to Logon, Utah to debate with Brigham Young University some time next March. Paul Hornaday was awarded first place, John Belford second, and John Harrison, alternate. The judges of the evening were Professor W. H. Hill, Dr. Lowther, and Mr. Summerfield. After the decision had been rendered, the judges were call on, and responded with words of encouragement for Clionia and the arts it is fostering.

PLANS UNDER WAY FOR ARTEMESIA

"A Record Book for a Record Year," Is New Motto

Plans are now well under way for getting out the 1920 Artemesia. Indications are that the book this year will be one of the largest and best that has ever been gotten out by this University.

In order to make the annual a success it will be necessary to have the combined efforts of the entire student body and faculty. Every student should consider himself a member of the staff and use for his motto "A record book for a record year." It is estimated that this book will cost nearly twice as much as any previous Artemesia and it is therefore going to take strenuous work on the business end to raise sufficient means to accomplish this. Furthermore, we can not expect Reno to assume nearly the entire burden as it did last year. Therefore all students who are going home for the holidays and can get advertising should make it his business to see the business manager for rates and do everything he can to aid in this part of the work.

Arrangements have been made with Mr. Goodner to take the pictures and all students graduating or leaving school at the end of this semester should have his picture taken on any of the following days before the end of the term, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday.

NOTED EDUCATOR'S VISIT POSTPONED

Dean of Simmons College Is Unable to Speak Here Due to Late Trains

Miss Sarah Louise Arnold, Dean of Simmons College, Boston, and an educator of note, was to have been the guest of honor at several functions Tuesday, but due to heavy storms encountered en route, passed through Reno ten hours late and was unable to make her expected stop. She was to have addressed the women students, and the teachers of this city Tuesday.

Extensive preparations had been made to entertain Miss Arnold during her stay here, including a luncheon at Kane's Cafe, a reception by the Home Economics department, and a dinner party at the Riverside, in the evening, as guests of Miss Mack and Miss Day. It is very likely that she will stop here on her return trip to Boston.

The By-Laws of the Athletic Section of the Woman's League were adopted. After the meeting adjourned, Rose Harris, president of Cotuitic N took charge of the Athletic Section and the following officers were elected: Chairman, Gladys Dunkle; vice chairman, Hallie Organ; treasurer, Avis Lathrop; secretary, Jure Harriman.

PARGELLIS LEAVES FOR OXFORD SOON

University Graduate Soon to Take Up Studies at English University

President Clark is in receipt of a letter from Stanley Pargellis who is at present attending Harvard University, stating that he expects to sail the first of the year for Oxford, where he will pursue studies in Political Science and Modern History, which are among the university's finest courses.

Pargellis was elected as Rhodes scholar from Nevada last year, and will remain in Oxford for a period of three years, the duration of the scholarship, after which he will probably return to Harvard and complete a three year law course.

Pargellis graduated from the University with the Class of 1918 and was a popular and prominent student while in college. He was on the basketball squad, a member of the debating team and was assistant to Dr. Church in his work for the weather bureau on Mt. Rose.

SCHEDULE ARRANGED FOR BASKET SEASON

COURTRIGHT ATTENDS MEETING OF NEVADA-CALIFORNIA BASKETBALL CONFERENCE. THREE LEAGUE GAMES TO BE PLAYED HERE

Coach Courtright returned last week after attending a meeting of the Nevada-California Basketball League held in Berkeley. The purpose of the meeting was to formulate plans for the coming hoop season between the Bay region colleges and the University of Nevada. Rumor had it that both Leeland Stanford university and the University of California would withdraw from the league. These two institutions play a heavy schedule with Pacific Coast Conference teams of which the Sagebrush institution is not a contender. The principle objection seemed to be that both Stanford and California did not favor a double schedule of games.

Both of these colleges will be members of the Nevada-California conference but will play on a half schedule basis. Nevada will meet Stanford's Cardinal quintet this season but has not yet scheduled a game with the University of California.

Walter Christy, director of the Golden Bear coaching staff, was chosen to head the league. Some new rulings were adopted, which will not, however, materially affect Nevada's chance for copping the championship. No freshmen ruling was agreed upon so it is practically assured that Freshmen play on Nevada's hoop ringing squad. Should two teams play a tie game a series of games between the two teams will be necessary to decide the winner of the initial contest.

Nevada has positive assurance of six regular league games. The first three contests are against colleges on their home courts. The Silver and Blue Varsity once again must make a long trip to the coast on January 19th for three hard games against St. Mary's College, Stanford and Santa Clara. This means that some rush training practice is ahead of Coach Courtright's basket shooters. Two weeks of strenuous practice, starting with next semester's opening will limit the Nevada boys' rather closely. Practice has already begun with a goodly number of likely men who possess considerable basketball experience.

The Varsity will be seen in action on three occasions the coming season against College of Pacific, St. Ignatius and Davis Farm on their home court. These three games are by no manner of means easy outlooks. St. Ignatius is coming into the league with a crack aggregation. The Golden Gate college has all of its men who played on last year's team which nearly won the championship. Yet some of the wise ones predict that three of these old men will not even make the St. Ignatius team. Some idea of the quality of their new material can be gained from this advance dope.

Preparations are being made to bring the University of Oregon and the University of Washington to Reno for games against the Sagebrushers sometime in February. No definite arrangements have been decided upon as yet, but it would greatly boost chances for entering the Pacific Coast Conference next year. Nevada has always put out a speedy, strong contending basketball team. Her past record with numerous defeats over California, Stanford and St. Mary's entitles the Sagebrushers to more consideration as bang-up basketball players.

The following is Nevada's schedule in the Nevada-California league:
January 20—St. Mary's at Oakland.
January 22—Stanford at Palo Alto.
January 24—Santa Clara at Santa Clara.

February 7—College of Pacific at Reno.

February 28—St. Ignatius at Reno.
March 7—Davis Farm at Reno.

FOOTBALL SWEATER FUND GROWING

More Money Is Needed to Defray Expense of Athletic Sweaters

The sweater fund campaign under the management of Mel Sanders and Harvey Luce is rapidly being brought to supply the cost of the sweaters. The sweaters were ordered some time ago and will be on hand for distribution at the student assembly Friday in the gym.

Several downtown subscriptions were received, among them very generous ones from Mr. H. H. Kennedy, cashier of the Reno National Bank and the Reno Lodge of Elks. A good sized sum was also contributed by the Women's League of the University.

Any students who have not already subscribed to the fund and who wish to show a little appreciation of the good work done by the men on the Varsity this year, are asked to see Harvey Luce, who is "holding the stakes."

COMMUNICATED

Dear Editor: I have given considerable thought to the question of installing a College of Commerce at the University of Nevada. I feel from observation and from questioning students at the University that it is absolutely essential that a College of Commerce be installed in the near future.

I find from investigating that a great many students from Nevada High Schools leave the State of Nevada and attend colleges elsewhere in order to gain knowledge along commercial lines. In my estimation a College of Commerce will add anywhere from one hundred to two hundred students to the roll of the University. It might also be said at this time that we will lose several students in the near future unless a College of Commerce is put in.

In sizing up the situation, I think with very little effort on the part of the faculty, a College of Commerce could be installed and it would be a big boost to the enrollment of students and to the University in general.

RENO NIGHTS

(By "Duke")

In this city of health, wealth and beauty

Dear old Reno, where I first saw the light

Now there's many a pleasure I've had there

That's fresh in my memory tonight.

One evening when out for a ramble

With never a thought or design I met an old "Grad" from the U

A good old time pal of mine.

To a nearby chow joint he led me

With a smile and a word of good cheer

It was warm inside and pleasant,

And he ordered up waffles and beer, (Bevo.)

As we sipped draughts of our skittles

And talked of the days of yore, A crowd of students entered

With a shout and a slam of the door.

'Twas like times we had almost forgotten

And the scene was not quite the same,

But the talk was chatty and pleasant

And we learned of the Hill and its fame.

For the students talked of their troubles

And sorrows and joys and their bliss

And we closed our eyes and listened

'Twas only old faces we'd miss.

The Deserted Street Car

The old street car is gone but not forgotten. In a short time it will be a memory only; the sound of its flat wheels and rickety body will soon be only an echo of the past.

However, it has served its purpose well and in the last few days demonstrated what value even a derelict can have.

With the event of winter campus 23 ceased to be an outdoor sport; the tramway is deserted, the lawns hear no more the world old message softly spoken and the trees on the dear old hill sway back and forth in the winter blasts longing for the return of sunshine and warmth and laughter.

In the heyday of its glory the old street car carried many a jolly party down town and brought them back after the merriment; many of our transients and sorrows are in some way connected with the beloved old rattletrap.

And at the very end the old car showed what a true friend means. Deserter and alone, chilled by the icy blasts of King Winter, and piled high with snow it stood on the corner of Ninth and Virginia streets through the worst of our recent storm. Seemingly alone and deserted but the counter of the waffle joint has heard strange tales concerning the old car. It is said that smoke was seen issuing from the smokestack; that tiny glowing lights were observed within, like the coals on a cigarette and even the gentle mummur of voices was heard during the lulls in the storm.

Those wierd tales have been traced to certain members of the Ancient Order of Saturday Night Soaks and for this reason we can not vouch for them entirely, but it is possible that the warm fireside of Manzanita would be deserted for the old car? Personally we leave it to you.

The Secret Vice

Staid and sedate, conversing with but few and more deeply ingrossed in the doings of American Association of Engineers than in anything else, assistant Prof. E. M. Mitchell has been a shining example for the studiously inclined.

There has been something mysterious about his behavior however, and many attempts have been made to solve the mystery. Not until a few days ago was anything definite found out about his strange absences and his subsequent return in a highly exhilarated condition.

At last his secret has been brought to light, his vice discovered and it is with relief that we are able to say that this vice will injure no one but himself.

T. Mitchell is a waffle inebriate. Tightly wrapped in his much worn trench coat, with his cap pulled down over his eyes in an effort to disguise himself he was found in a low roofed building seated in front of a counter which was piled high with well done waffles. When addressed he barely made reply and turned aside to gulp down the evidence of his shame.

The proprietor of the evil joint on being interviewed said, "Yes, she ban regular customer, everytime she cum in Ole he say, 'Jan! Two dozen waffles, that hog from the school, she hungry again."

It is thought that there are other reasons for the Prof's. frequenting that particular place. He stated in a bashful way when pressed for a reason that the waffles are much larger and more gamey than can be captured elsewhere.

U. N. From experience comes the only actual knowledge we have.

FRIDAY'S ASSEMBLY

Friday morning at 11 o'clock, faculty and students will gather in the Gymnasium and pay homage to the first winning football team turned out of this institution during the past ten years. Unless by some unforeseen chance, the sweaters fail to arrive on time, the presentation of these honors will be made at this meeting. Si Ross, graduate of the University, for several years Varsity basketball coach, and at all times a loyal booster for Nevada, will be the main speaker of the occasion, and as all who have heard him, know there could be no more representative speaker to address the students on this day, than "Si." Any Nevada student who fails to attend this assembly, will not only be guilty of a gross discourtesy to the team, but will miss hearing a talk of unusual interest and value.

THE LAST ISSUE

With the coming of the semester examinations and the consequent necessity of enforced study, the Staff feels the need of considerable time to devote to other than literary pursuits. Consequently, this issue of the Sagebrush will be the last for this semester. The next appearance of the "Brush" will be the first week in January, when the staff returns with renewed vigor, after a two weeks' "rest cure," and the subsequent exhilarating effects of turkey, mince pie, and Santa Claus combined.

During the idle hours around the home fireside this vacation, take a few minutes off occasionally, start the old headpiece working and see what you can think up in the way of new ideas or suggestions for improvement in the Sagebrush. This paper is the students' publication, and aims at all times to voice their sentiments, and it is only through the interest and aid of all the students that this end can be accomplished.

PICKIN'S

FOUND BY THE OFFICE DOG

The truth is out. I always had a sort of a sneakin' hunch that at least one or two students read my column. Now I've got the proof, a letter to "the said worthy Sagebrushers." Here we go—

Let's buy
A very nice LOVELY collar
(gold preferred)
For the good old OFFICE DOG
(nice bow-wow)
Shall we ask for the RIGHT SIZE
(let's not)
Please let's GET IT
(Two sizes too SMALL)
So he will LIKE IT
(but choke a bit)
Specially when he THINKS
Of the OFRUL
STORIES
He's said ABOUT
We poor
College Ge
Jays.
(From K-T I-B)

You have all asked whoinell the Office Dog is. To set your minds at rest, I've had this little photograph below taken. It looks just like I will appear when I leave for my Christmas vacation, with my books in one hand and my ticket in the other. If you will look closely you will notice that I have no coat on. That is in soak, so I could buy a ticket.

Once upon a time a child swallowed a frog egg. The egg incubated and the frog kicked the child in the stomach killing him. The frog croaked.

Say, speaking of abandoned street cars, when IS a street car full?

Ye Ed. played in the Senior-Soph football game some time ago and he evidently was so elated over the Seniors' victory, that he forgot and announced in the Sagebrush that the "Seniors Win From Frosh Team."

Can you imagine a fellow like that?

Oh well, I noticed an advertisement in a paper the other day part of which said, "We Have a Corpse of Trained Men."

You have all heard that little saying, that the early bird catches the worm.

And you have all said, it's rather tough on the worm.

And now, the cat comes along and gathers in the bird. So there you have it.

You know this chap Jones? J. Claude I mean. This week a small stout man came up to his office to see him and when he asked J. Claude questions about conditions in Nevada Prof. very kindly told him. Now J. Claude as you might happen to know has SOME line when he gets started right, and he did his best to convince the little man of his ability as a consulting geologist. The little man took it all in, and Prof. continued, telling him of the many traps he has taken this year, and the oodles of coin that he has acquired in his consulting work. It was sure good and the little man listened open eyed and open mouthed and took it all in. Finally the little man thanked J. Claude and left. J. Claude smiled and patted himself on the back for being able to peddle such a line, and have it get by in such fine shape. It got by all right, but now J. Claude has ceased to smile.

Talk about pulling a Brodie. Prof. sure pulled one that time.

Why? The little man was an Internal Revenue officer and was getting done for the INCOME TAX.

Say, I've razberried you all enough for one year, let's call it off. Here's wishing you this vacation, much grub, real food that you can only get at home, lots of joy, perhaps an occasional snifter of—root beer, no studies to prepare or exes to take, and best of all, the happiest and best Christmas and New Year's you have ever had.

"OLD CROW."

What's that? Oh, yes, I'll be back next year.

JUNIOR PROM IS HUGE SUCCESS

Unique Decorations Give Charm to Semester's Biggest Dance
The Class of '21 fulfilled all expectations—and even more—with the Junior Prom which was given last Friday evening. The decorations were unique, transforming the gymnasium into a fragrant bower of green. A mass of pine boughs formed a low canopy, completely hiding the balcony from view, and at regular intervals little red lights shone among the branches. Pine trees were placed erect along the sides of the room and on the orchestra platform at one end of the hall, and cozy corners were nestled behind a miniature forest of pines in each corner. During the tenth dance all lights were dimmed and from the top of one of these miniature forests shone a half moon with a small owl perched upon its upper tip. The programs were "stove pipe" hats, made of paper with a finish resembling felt.
The patronesses of the affair were Mrs. W. E. Clark, Miss Louisa Sissa,

Miss Margaret Mack and Mrs. A. E. Turner. On the committee having charge of the dance were John Douglas, chairman decorating committee; Phil Frank, chairman finance committee; Earl Wooster, chairman music and refreshment committee; Emily Burke, chairman invitation and program committee. The officers of the Junior class are Gerry W. Eden, president; Hallie Organ, vice president; Margaret Barnes, secretary, and George Egan, treasurer.

The approaching conjunction of the planets has been made by some prophets to spell the end of the world. But the department of astronomy at the University of California has come to our aid and predicts that the fore-said occurrence will not occur. This leaves a good many of us without cause to shirk of ex's. Cheer up there is still lots of time to fluke 'em before we pass out.

NEWS FROM OTHER COLLEGES

California
The threatened breach of the University of California with Stanford University in their relations has been averted. Before the big game a number of Stanford students journeyed to Berkeley and painted the campus with red paint. This had often been done before, students from both colleges invading the rival campus, but within recent years an agreement has been in effect between the two colleges that neither should invade the other. When President Wilbur heard of the breach of contract he immediately declared that the athletic relations which the two teams had just resumed after a number of years would again be discontinued. Through the recommendation of the students, President Wilbur reconsidered his move and has expressed the wish that normal athletic activities between the two schools should continue, stating that it was unfair to impose upon the student bodies of both universities the brunt of the punishment for an act committed by a small group of irresponsible students and that the matter would be submitted to the authorities of the Pacific Coast Inter-Collegiate Conference, of which both institutions are members.

Oregon
The University of Oregon is putting in a strong bid for the annual track meet of the coast conference. Professor Howe, as chairman of the faculty athletic committee, stated that the University of Oregon has already asked to have the annual Pacific coast conference track meet held at Eugene, Oregon next year, and this matter will be decided on at the meeting of the conference board the latter part of December. The request of the University of Southern California to enter the league will also come before the board.

Arizona
The University of Arizona states that its age is 19,573 years. This age is compiled from the figures in the registrar's office. The seniors are 1,373 years old with an average of 23 1/2 years. The juniors have a total of 1978 with an average of 21.42. The Sophomore sum is 3338 with an average of 19.61 years. The freshmen, although the greenest, are the oldest with 4677 years to their credit. Figuring that way we're rather ancient ourselves.

De Pau
The DePau Daily, the campus publication of DePau university carried an announcement lately of a dance following the game with Wabash at Indianapolis. The faculty learned of the dance announcement. They went to the printing shop, where the Daily is "run off," and the whole issue was burned. Regulations at DePau, which is a Methodist institution, prohibit dancing.

MANZANITA NOTES
June Harriman entertained a number of her friends with a duck dinner last week in Suite 213. The rooms were prettily decorated in a red and white color scheme. Those who voted June a charming hostess were Misses Riley, Griswold, Shade, Rockett, Sloan, Ross, Shields, Haughney, Browder and Money.

We are glad to welcome Frankie Porter once again and hope she stays with us this time. She seems to like the hospital too well, having been there twice in a month.

Manzanita has assumed a very industrious aspect this week. I wonder if examinations have anything to do with that? Adel Armstrong has gone to the hospital with a bad cold. We hope to have her back soon.

Manzanita Hall was arrayed in all its splendors Saturday evening to welcome the Lincoln Hall boys. After the inspection of the hall the rest of the evening was spent in dancing. At 11 o'clock refreshments were served, and we hope the Lincoln Hall men are now convinced that the Manzanita Hall girls are the best little housekeepers in the world.

On Friday evening, with Ruth Pilkington as hostess, a fireside party was enjoyed at Manzanita Hall. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were: Misses Margaret E. Mack, Louise Sullivan, Helen Fuss, Evelyn Evans, Ruth Pilkington, Alethea Hillhouse, Gladys Grady, Evelyn Walker and Tammie Higgins; Messrs. Al Reed, Charles Hardy, Gilbert Bailey, Everett Gooding, Ed Reed, L. Hahn, Clark Simpson and Noble Waite.

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE TO WIN $20

Through the efforts of the Reno Commercial Club, the United States Rubber Company has given two historical signs to be placed on the roads near Reno. These signs are in the form of an open book, on one page being found a short, concise history of Reno, and the other carrying an advertisement for United States tires. Similar signs have been constructed at Truckee and at Minden and are very attractive. A contest for the best history, which is limited to 30 words, is being carried on, and is open to all University students, high school and grammar students. The prize for the best history is $20 in cash and the second best will receive $15 cash.

The same person may submit two histories, thus having a chance at the second prize if not successful for the first. Histories should be submitted to Mr. H. R. Norris, secretary of the Reno Commercial Club, and must be in his hands by 6 p. m. December 20th, 1919. Directors of the Commercial Club will be the judges in this contest.

Wednesday afternoon the Y. W. C. A. held its last meeting of the semester. It was opened by the hymn, "Joy to the World," and the spirit of Christmas prevailed throughout.

The story of the Christ Child was read from the scriptures by the chairman. The trio, Anna Elsie, Elizabeth Tinquely and Anna Davis, gave some pleasing selections accompanied by Miss Diehm. Miss Mary Browder gave a reading "The Little Town of Bethlehem," which brought the ideal of the season nearer to all present.

The Y. W. C. A. of Nevada is glad to be able to send three delegates to the Student Conference to be held in Des Moines, Ia., this Christmas vacation. Nevada's representatives will be Lois Smythe, Anne Underwood, and Hallie Organ. We are sure that these girls will be able to bring back many new thoughts and ideas which will help to build up further the Y. W. C. A. here.

PI PHI'S TO GIVE VICTORY DANCE

Posters in Morrill Hall announce that on Friday evening the student body and faculty are invited to join with Pi Beta Phi in celebrating Nevada's victorious football season. The celebration is to be in the form of a dance, and is to be held in the gymnasium. This will be the last campus dance of the semester, so be sure to be there at eight o'clock prepared for a good time.

The latest figures from the Registrar's office show a total of 373 students registered at the University this semester.

STUDENTS ASK FOR REFERENDUM VOTE

The following message was received as the Sagebrush was ready for press, consequently there can be no discussion on the subject in this issue. However, more information will be published in the first issue of next semester.

New York City,
December 10, 1919, 2:31 p. m.
Secretary of Nevada University,
Reno, Nevada.

Will you kindly deliver the following message to editor of leading college publication or to head of most representative student organization in your institution:

"We, the undersigned, have undertaken to promote a referendum of college sentiment of the country concerning the peace treaty. It is realized that many colleges have held straw ballots on this subject, but the statements of the question have in most instances offered and afforded no opportunity to obtain an accurate and comparative expression of the intercollegiate point of view. The plan is that on January 13 every college and university on the country will be asked to take a vote of its faculty on the one hand and its student body on the other, in which each member of the college community will be asked to declare himself yes or no on

Proposition No. 1—I favor the ratification of the League and Treaty without amendments or reservations;

Proposition No. 2—I am opposed to the ratification of the league and the treaty in any form;

Proposition No. 3—I am in favor of the ratification of the treaty and the league but only with the specific reservations as voted by the majority of the Senate;

Proposition No. 4—I favor any compromise on the reservations which will make possible immediate ratification of the treaty and the league.

"The Committee will forward detailed suggestions as to how the vote should be carried on. It is urged that between now and January 13th the utmost discussion of the situation should be stimulated in your institution. If possible public debate and mass meetings of the students and faculty at which the different points of view will be presented should be held. The undersigned undergraduate committee has submitted the exact form of ballot to Senators Lodge and Hitchcock in an effort to obtain their approval of its method of statement. Both senators have been invited to make a direct statement to the colleges and universities of the country summarizing their respective points of view. You will be fully advised as to their reply. It is planned that the vote shall be conducted under such safeguards as may be established in each institution to secure secrecy and completeness and that the results shall be made known locally at once and telegraphed to the headquarters of the committee where the result for the whole country and for the individual colleges will be compiled and made public. You will appreciate the value of the vote in each academic community, if it is as nearly complete as possible and also the importance of having each college in the country represented on the complete compilation of the result.

"No propaganda whatever will be circulated by the committee and no point of view advocated. The undersigned themselves hold differing views concerning the issue presented. The plan is solely to stimulate discussion in the academic communities and to obtain as accurate as possible expression of college sentiment. The feeling is that the educational results of this effort will be very great and that the indication of sentiment thus obtained

QUEER ROAD MIRAGE AT NIGHT MAKES AUTO APPEAR DOUBLE

An unusual and curious modification of the familiar highway mirage, caused by a layer of heated air, is reported from the Sacramento valley, where the Pacific highway is of glistening cement. At 9 o'clock on a recent night the lights of an automobile were seen to rise over a distant hilltop, and immediately another pair of lights, nearer but less bright, seemed to be turned on. The more distant lights gradually overtook the nearer and merged with them, and an instant later a single car passed the observers.—Popular Mechanics.

will be enlightening to everybody concerned. The undersigned will do nothing more in the whole matter than issue suggestions as to how the vote shall be carried on, compile the returns as reported by each college and give publicity to the result as declared. No further use will be made of the results of the vote. May we ask you to undertake responsibility for putting this plan into effect in your own institution? Full details follow by mail. Will you kindly bring this telegram to the attention of the President of your institution with the statement that in sending it out we have the approval of an advisory committee of which President Hadley of Yale is chairman and on which President Butler, of Columbia, Lowell of Harvard and Hibben of Princeton are also serving. Kindly reply to C. E. Stouch, Secretary Intercollegiate Treaty Referendum, 165 Broadway, New York, N. Y. (Signed)
