Varsity Prepares For Santa Clara Game

NEVADA PLAYS S. C. TURKEY DAY GAME

The Nevada Varsity will take a rest this Saturday from the usual routine of football and spend their time getting in shape, both physical and mental, for the coming game with the Santa Clara eleven, which will be played on Ewing Field, San Francisco, Thanksgiving Day. There will be no other game around the bay on that day and a record breaking attendance is expected. Six thousand people watched the game between Santa Clara and the Olympic Club early in the season and it is reasonable to expect that next Thursday will see double that many when Nevada and the Saints meet.

The coming game is going to be a big one for both Santa Clara and Nevada, and from all indications a hard battle will be staged. The Saints have played but four games so far this season, losing one to Stanford by a 21 to 7 score and winning the others with the following scores: 47 to 0 against the U. S. S. Boston; 79 to 0 against Davis Aggies; 48 to 13 against the Mare Island Marines. Compared with this, Nevada has played eight games, won six of them and lost two. Santa Clara's games, with the exception of the Stanford game, have not been against what would be considered strong teams, while Nevada has met four first rate teams, defeated the two from the Rocky Mountain Conference and lost to the two coast teams, so there is little basis for comparison. Santa Clara has been working for the past several weeks in preparation for the Nevada struggle and is out for revenge, after having suffered a 41 to 7 beating at the hands of the Sagebrushers last season. Nevada is likewise devoting all her time to smoothing off the rough edges of her gridiron machine and putting on the final touches, so when the two elevens meet a hard fought battle is certain to be staged.

WIS. GIVES FIRST DEFEAT TO ILLINOIS

University of Wisconsin upset all predictions Saturday when she trimmed Illinois to the tune of 14 to 9. This defeat is the first one in the Western Conference race for Illinois. Ralph Fletcher, famous Illinois quarter, scored nine points by three perfect place kicks.

Y. M. C. A. STAGES BIG OPEN SHOW

The annual Y. M. C. A. Open House, which is held yearly at the local association building for the entertainment of the men students and faculty of the University, was run off in regular form last week and thoroughly enjoyed from start to finish by the seventy-five or more students and professors present. Following the big send-off given to the team on the eve of their departure for Los Angeles, the crowd moved over to the Y where festivities began.

At the door Secretary Wilson and Mr. Sanborn of the Y, assisted by Prof. Turner, met the men and after disposing of coats and luggage and so on, the show started. First in order was a grand serpentine and snake dance, which ended in the gymnasium in much the same fashion as the old game played by small boys of "crack the whip," leaving with each "crack" a varied assortment of profs and studes scattered over all parts of the room. A big game of new style volleyball was next in order, the ball being a large balloon-like pill of massive proportions, the idea being to bat the ball over a high net and keep it from touching the floor. The entire group took sides and had a part in the game, and a lively battle ensued, with "Little Jeff" Boardman as the moving force on one side, and Prof. Wilcox keeping up the batting average the other. The decision, which was rendered in favor of Little Jeff's proteges, was contested, on the grounds that Jeff having collected so many engineers for his side, took unfair advantage by consistently putting

ALL TICKETS SOLD FOR COMING GAME

The general public will not be admitted to the big game between the University of California and Stanford on Saturday, November 20. The 27,000 seats, the seating capacity of the California bleachers, have all been disposed of. The alumni and undergraduates of both institutions have grabbed every seat.

Following the custom of former years the alumni and undergraduates were given the first chance for seats. It was also the custom in former years to give four tickets to each alumni for himself and his friends. This year the quota was curtailed to two apiece, and even then not a ticket is to be had by the general public.

California promises to increase the bleacher space so that a larger number of fans can be taken care of. The graduate managers realize that it is necessary to hold the interest of the public and more room must be secured to do so. Lute Nichols, the graduate manager at California, said that he could have disposed of 50,000 seats if he had had the space.

According to the dope California seems to be the favorite to win over the Cardinal, but the Stanford supporters will root, as of old, just as though they were going to win.

Undoubtedly the winner of this game will represent the West in the East-West match at Pasadena on New Year's Day.

FROSH HOOP TEAM LAYS BIG PLANS

Under the direction of Assistant Coach Williams, the Freshman basketball team is fast rounding into shape for what promises to be a strenuous season for the beginners. As a Freshman team is a new endeavor in University athletics it is impossible as yet to predict how successful the attempt will be, but it is certain that several games will be scheduled and one or two trips made and this is arousing keen competition for places on the squad.

At present their business manager, Adams, is carrying on negotiations with the Junior Golds of Oakland and also trying to arrange a trip for the Christmas holidays that will take the team to Southern California and permit them to be in Pasadena on New Year's Day to witness the Carnival of Roses and the East-West football game. The clubs with which he is corresponding for the purpose are: Pasadena, Long Beach, Manual Arts Los Angeles, and Hollywood. While it is not likely that games will be scheduled with all of these teams it is probable that sufficient contracts can be made to permit the Frosh to take the trip.

To date there are thirty-five men trying out for the team but the squad will shortly be cut to fifteen. Practice is being held twice a week, on Tuesday and Thursday nights, but when the football season is ended it will take place more frequently, as most of the squad is out for football. Nine men are so far standing out above the rest as basket tossers and probably stand the best chance of making the squad. All have had considerable experience prior to their entrance in college and their form shows them to be likely varsity material.

Walter Lester, temporary captain, was a member of the Oakland Athletic League team. Duborg, a member of the Reno High School team that last year won the state interscholastic championship, is showing up well and playing better basketball than ever

CHESS CONTESTS START TONIGHT

The opening matches of the big Y. M. C. A. chess tournament will be played this evening and from all indications a large number will be entered to compete for the honors. There are among others, two University professors, M. R. Miller and S. C. Feemster, both of whom are old hands at the game. The tournament is open to all interested in the pastime.

The principal object of the contest is to obtain percentages and grade all the players, with the ultimate idea of selecting the best men for a team which will compete in regular matches, here and elsewhere. Record will be kept on the basis of games won or played to a draw. Each person will play two games each, with the other contestants entered. A suitable prize has been offered to the winner of the tournament.

Thursday evenings will be the regular "chess nights" at the Y and all persons interested will be welcomed on those occasions.

Sagebrushers Fall Before Trojan Team

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA AGGREGATION PROVES TOO STRONG FOR SILVER AND BLUE ELEVEN WHICH GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT BY 38 TO 7 COUNT—NEVADA SCORES IN THIRD QUARTER WITH PASS TO MARTIN—DEAN, U. S. C. HALF, IS STAR

"Corky" Courtright's huskies tasted their second cup of defeat of the season last Saturday when they met the speedy Southern California Trojans on Bovard Field, Los Angeles, and went down to defeat on the short end of a 38 to 7 score. Despite the figures, the game was hard fought throughout, and though clearly outclassed, the Sagebrushers kept the southern boys constantly on the jump and threw many a scare into them before the final whistle blew taps, but the breaks went against Nevada and she lost.

The game had hardly commenced, when the Trojans made their first score. U. S. C. had kicked off to Nevada and a few plays had been made which failed to make first down. Reed dropped back for a punt, and due to some misunderstanding of signals or other unfortunate reason, Hammert, protecting the play, failed to stop the Trojan captain, "Swede" Evans, who broke thru the line, blocked the kick and recovered the ball on Nevada's 6-yard line, where Dean took the ball over in two plays for the first score, Evans kicking goal. Nevada then kicked off to Dean of U. S. C. who returned the ball to the Southerner's 35-yard line. Then by straight downs, with Dean, Leadingham, Butterfield and Kincaid carrying the ball, for gains thru the line of from 2 to 9 yards at a clip, the Trojans marched straight down the field until they reached Nevada's 10-yard line where two more bucks and a plunge thru the line by Dean gave U. S. C. their second score. Evans again kicked the goal. The ball throughout most of this quarter was in the hands of the Trojans who bucked Nevada's line consistently. The Sagebrushers attempted a number of forward passes but none of them were successful.

During the second quarter, U. S. C. scored again when the break went their way. Nevada was in possession of the ball and Bradshaw had dropped back on about the 10-yard line to attempt a forward pass, but on receiving

W. S. C. CLAIMS NORTHWEST CHAMP

As a result of last Saturday's game with the Oregon Aggies in which W. S. C. came out on the long end of a 28-0 score, the Washington State College team claims the championship of the Northwest Conference League. Though the game was won practically by line bucks, the feature of the game was the aerial play by both teams, 21 passes being tried and 19 punts attempted.

W. S. C. outplayed Oregon Aggies in all points of the game. Gillis, full for W. S. C., scintillated in the game by his famous line bucks, making heavy yardage again and again thru the O. A. C. line and accounting for the four touchdowns scored by Washington State College.

ing the ball fumbled and dropped it, and the Trojan right end, Smith, who was coming in fast, nabbed it before Bradshaw had a chance to start after it, and it was U. S. C.'s ball on Nevada's 6-yard line. Here again, Dean, the brilliant Trojan halfback, came into the limelight, and in a few plays carried the ball over for his third touchdown, Evans adding his extra point by kicking goal. Bradshaw created quite a sensation in this period when he received a punt from Leadingham on Nevada's 25-yard mark and aided by splendid interference broke thru the entire California team carrying the ball to U. S. C.'s 15-yard line before he was stopped by the safety man. Had Bradshaw shown a little more headwork here nothing could have prevented his scoring. He was carrying the ball close to the sidelines with no one to stop him except Leadingham, who was playing safety. Three Nevada men were loose and almost on Leadingham, and had Bradshaw only cut in toward the middle of the field past his interference instead of the opposite direction, the interference would have handled the safety and the score made. From the 15-yard line Nevada was unable to gain thru the line or by means of passes and the ball went over to the Trojans who promptly kicked out of danger. The balance of the quarter was spent in see-sawing up and down the field with neither team able to make any considerable yardage.

The third quarter opened with Nevada kicking to U. S. C. A few plays

SURPRISE PARTY FOR UNIV. CO-ED

Last Wednesday Miss Ethel Steinheimer found herself the victim of circumstance. A birthday and a reputation for being an entertaining hostess conspired against her, while several of her friends helped the plot along. As a result she found herself the hostess of a well planned surprise party.

The evening was spent at 500; Miss Ross admitting she was the champion of the three tables. The honor is being contested however. Scientific card tricks, transposition of numbers by coins, mind readings and exhibitions of Irish wit, added variety and jazz. Dorothy Harrington sang "La Paloma" and won round after round of applause from the guests. Robinson gave an exhibition of his musical ability by playing "Louisiana" in the wrong key, while Slim Ahlers did some splendid work on the Victrola. A luncheon was served at midnight and everyone took careful count of the candles on the birthday cake, three of which had been previously removed by Miss Steinheimer. The luncheon over more music followed until fearing to impose further on the hospitality of Mrs. Steinheimer, the guests departed.

Those present were the Misses Brown, Harrington, Ross, Perkins and Davis; the men, Walsh, Robinson, Ahlers, Ross and Packard.

STANFORD CO-EDS CAUGHT SMOKING

Palo Alto, California—Delicate whiffs of violet-perfumed smokes, issuing through the keyholes in the women's dormitory, will no longer scent the corridors of Roble hall, Stanford. The lid is clamped on smokes for women. This was made clear in a statement made by Miss Harriet Bradford, dean of women at Stanford University. The first woman caught violating this rule will be expelled.

A silver cigarette case, lying on a bargain counter at the end-of-the-year sale of co-ed's clothing and belongings, last term, first caught Miss Bradford's eye. She admitted that in the past she may have napped, not having resorted to promenading the halls in quest of suspicious scents. However, the women were told that in the future her vigilance and that of the house-mother, Miss G. M. Gardner, would be concentrated on an effort to stamp out the weed.

There was a poor little boy in the neighborhood and after I had been to Sunday school one day and listened to a stirring talk on the beauties of charity I was softened enough to give them to him. Then I wanted them back and cried, but my mother said, 'Don't cry, Bertie, some day you will get your wooden soldiers back.'"

"And, believe me, you lob-sided, mutton-headed, goofus-brained set of certified rolling-pins, that day has come."—Am. Legion Weekly.

RENO HI NOTES

In last week's paper a notice was given of a game between Sparks first and Reno second, on Sunday. This was a mistake. The game was played on Monday, and when the final score came in it stood: Reno 38, Sparks 0. The Reno boys played with their customary vigor, and had no difficulty in decisively defeating their heavier opponents.

The Sophomore Hop, which was held on Friday night, was a success from the start. A large crowd turned out and heartily enjoyed the dancing. Music was furnished by an excellent orchestra and delicious punch was served. George Sterud, president of the class, deserves credit for his untiring work to make the dance a success.

On Friday night there will be an entertainment at the Hi Gym. The music and dramatic departments have combined to give this entertainment. The Glee Club present a musical farce entitled, "Bobby Brewster's Rooster," and the dramatic class present a school farce, called "The Revolt." During the evening music will be furnished by the Hi School orchestra. The admission is only a quarter and the public are cordially invited to attend. The proceeds will be divided between the orchestra and the annual.

Where is the man that does not feel

Y. W. C. A. Notes

The meeting this week was one of the most interesting as well as instructive meetings held this year. There was a large attendance in the parlor at Manzanita. The organization and its work in foreign lands was explained in detail and many strange customs are discovered by the secretaries in their work over the sea. Several Japanese songs were sung, the same ones that are sung by the members of the Y. W. C. A. in Japan.

Schools have been established for foreign girls where they can come and learn to read and write. They also learn to make their own clothes and hats and are taught cooking and housekeeping. In addition to these schools, the Y. W. C. A. provides rooms where the girls and women can come and stay. Some of these rooms have secretaries from the girls themselves who have been with the organization a long time. Others have secretaries sent over from America. When the conventions are held as many as possible of these secretaries attend and tell of their successes in their foreign fields.

THE DEMON FIRE
 Smoke rolled and eddied into the night, broken here and there by leaping tongues of bright red flame that seemed to scorch the floor of heaven. All about was the roar of raging fire, the crackle of wood as it was devoured by the insatiable flames; smashing and tearing of timbers as they fell, shooting showers of starlike sparks into the air. Above all were the cries and moans of those who saw their homes being turned to ashes before their eyes.

The people forgot to think—they were as cattle, like lost souls they ran wildly about. Women, in scant attire, screamed hysterically or, what was still more wonderful, were struck dumb by the awfulness of the scene before them. For once the spectators realized their true insignificance for in the face of the Demon Fire they were as helpless specks.

On the wings of the wind arrived the fire department like the scourge of the "Red Death." The brazen throats of their crimson chariots shrieked out their gladness, their fiendish mirth, at the drunken flames as they fled crazily heavenward; undisturbed by the wild revelry the firemen coupled their hose, swiftly they worked, for lives depended on their every moment. At last all was ready, the signal sent back and they braced themselves against the expected rush of water. For ten minutes they held this pose—then the water came. Smashing and tearing it poured into the fire. A mantle of steam covered all the wreckage; the firemen still undaunted, held the hose and hoped they wouldn't get their new shoes wet.

Someone was in the burning building! The crowd was frozen with horror; a woman swore and two firemen fainted. At last one of the firemen, perhaps with less money in the bank than his brothers, dashed into the awful furnace. The spectators gave up hope, he could never make it. Yet in spite of the fire and falling timbers he appeared with the apparently lifeless body of one of our fellow students. The fresh air seemed to revive him; he sat up and his eyes filled with tears as he groaned aloud: "My Gesh! what a loss—a fourteen dollar pair of Walk-

REX TURNER SPEAKS

I'm only a half grown dog, you know, but I'm quite sure that the school would show more pep, more zipp, more jazz and go, if all the students would get out to all the meetings round about. You say I'm a dog that cannot know a thing about how the school should grow. Yes, I'm a dog. But I've been here enough to know a lot of inside stuff. My master's a Prof. who is known by all, for he's also the Master of Lincoln Hall. One day this Fall, I heard him say, that "Prexy" Clark had shown him the way that the good old Campus was going to be, along about nineteen twenty-three. There will be a brand new lab for Chem, and Math and Physics; more buildings then will take the place of Stewart and "Hatch". Also, where there's an ugly patch of ground between Lincoln and the Lake, will all be lawn, for beauty's sake. Just how will all this come about? Can the Prexy do this? Will the State help out? Yes, the State will help, but not unless some of the "dead ones" show liveliness. There's a certain species of "Weary Will" who is knocking improvements on the Hill. He takes no part in any sport, and when the Sagebrush wants a report on a certain meeting, "I wasn't there" is heard until one cannot bear to think of the things that must be done, but which the "Wills" would leave for one to do alone, that one has a little bit of decent jazz. Reform! Reform! That's what they need, a little life and lots more speed. They ought to see the "N" boys off, they ought to help them pack their stuff to the train and give them a big help, by cheering them. I can only yelp, but I always try to do my best. I'm there at least with all the rest who share my spirit for the "U," and are doing the things that they can do to help advertise the U. of N., and bring recruits in money and men. Don't you be classed with the "Willie boys," get out and vote and share the joys of having helped elect the head of the A. S. U. N. Revive the dead that don't come to meetings as they should. Come, everyone! Help the "U" make good!

Knew His Own Dog

The county superintendent of schools stopped at a farm home one evening and expected to spend the night there. He became friendly with a little boy at the home. When the boy's dog came near him he asked the boy if it were savage. "No, sir," said the boy, "it's shepherd."

Military Department Notes

Rifle Shooting Contests

Shooting contests will be held at the gallery range in December. Contests will be open to individuals and to teams from the faculty and from the members of the Reserve Officer's Training Corps.

Selection of teams to represent first and second year cadets will be made at the end of November from those who desire to compete and who have made the highest average scores at practice before that date.

During November the gallery will be open to all cadets from 3 to 5 p. m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of each week.

Armistice Day Parade

The cadet company organized as two platoons commanded by Cadets Smolak and Quill led the Armistice Day parade and acted as an escort of honor for the veterans. The University made a fair showing as to numbers and presented a very military appearance.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR BEST ESSAY

Those who have a talent for writing, or those who have the knack of thinking of original ways of making money, can now turn this knowledge into money by writing a 500 word essay.

Eight prizes to the amount of $75 are being offered for the best essay on "Five Ways of Earning Money at College". The winner of the first prize will receive $25, and then it scales down to $5 each for the last five prizes.

The awards are being offered by Arthur Murray. According to a recent article in Forbes Magazine, Arthur Murray worked his way through Georgia Tech, and made $15,000 a year by giving dancing lessons. While at Georgia Tech he taught a class of 660 children, the largest dancing class in the world.

Arthur Murray is now gathering information on various ways of earning money at college and is especially anxious to receive essays from students who are working their way through.

Following is a list of the rules of the contest:

- 1—Any student may enter the contest. $75 in prizes for the best essay on "Five Ways of Earning Money at College."
- 2—At least two of the methods of earning money should be original; the other three may be based upon the experience of others.
- 3—If you are working your way through college, state this fact and tell in detail what you are doing.
- 4—The essay should contain not more than 500 words.
- 5—The prizes: First prize $25; second, $15; third $10; fourth, $5; fifth, $5; sixth, $5; seventh, $5; eighth, $5.
- 6—The winning essays will be published in a leading magazine. The contest judges will also be announced later.

UNIV. OF DENVER—Monday, November 8th was declared the annual "Slouch Day" and was attended with much hilarity and fun-making. Garments of the vintage of 1900, pre-Civil War days, and in all states of repair were in evidence. The Annual Slouch Day, observed by students and faculty alike, furnished the long waited for opportunity to wear the 'ol Hi school' suit with the B. V. D. type of trousers and grandmother's old bonnet.

College News

WASHINGTON—Over 100 Frosh have turned out at the University of Washington for the class rowing crew. This indicates that there is no lack of interest in rowing at the college and bids well for the future of Washington on the water. Notwithstanding the fact that Stanford may abide by its decision not to have a crew next year the sport may be kept alive if California and Washington can turn out eights that give close competition.

While a number of the larger eastern university football managements are quibbling about numbering their players to identify them for spectators on the ground that it aids the scouts of rival teams to get a line on their plays, it is to the credit of the Pacific Coast teams that all are employing this method. To all except the college men themselves who attend the daily practice and thus become thoroughly acquainted with the personnel of the players, the men of a football team, when they come on the field, look exactly alike. The student body knows instantly who is making a run or booting the ball, but not one in a hundred of the spectators knows whether Jones is a five-footer or Jenkins the fellow who towers above the timber line. College men are prone to criticize the inaccuracies made by the football writers on newspapers, but they seem to forget that they contribute mighty little to aid in the correct gathering of facts.

O. A. C.—The Scholarship committee at O. A. C. is after the lazy students. A figurative "No Slackers Allowed" placard is to be placed at the gates of the institution. Every student who has done unsatisfactory work will be called before the committee.

CREEL TALKS TO FACULTY AG. CLUB

The University Faculty Agricultural Club listened to a paper Tuesday evening by Mr. C. W. Creel on the "Alfalfa Weevil in Nevada and Elsewhere." Mr. Creel was connected with the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture in Utah on the study of the alfalfa weevil in Utah and presented some first hand knowledge on the subject.

Mr. Creel discussed the origin of the alfalfa weevil, its introduction into this country, life history, spread and work, and methods of control. From the time of its discovery, near Salt Lake City nearly 20 years ago, to the present time it has been closely studied and observed by the Experiment Station experts of the Utah Station and U. S. Department men. Three small infestations have been found in Nevada, thought to have either been brought in by auto tourists or perhaps fresh introductions in the household effects of immigrants. It is at present in Central Oregon and is working down towards Nevada. The average rate of travel is about 30 miles per year. Various means of control have been experimented with including spraying and introduction of parasites. A very satisfactory method of spraying has been worked out in which lead arsenate is used at the rate of 2-4 pounds per acre is sufficient to poison the larvae feeding upon the leaves but does not render the hay from sprayed fields dangerous to stock.

The requests for these personal interviews must be complied with before November 17, so that the suggestions of the committee may be put into effect before the end of the term. If any of the students who were on probation at the beginning of the term are still on probation at the end, they will be asked to withdraw from the institution. Pure laziness, according to the committee, is one of the best methods for a student to get himself ejected from the college.

UNIV. OBSERVES ARMISTICE DAY

The University R. O. T. C. had the honor of leading the American Legion Armistice Day parade Thursday, and Colonel Ryan should feel complimented for the appearance made by his men. As they swung down Virginia street many an "old timer" was reminded of the countless line of companies that used to swing thru the old French villages, on just such damp and cloudy days. The company moved into position at the head of the parade with the easy confidence of veterans and as they marched thru the town a great many people changed their opinion of the University R. O. T. C.

Following them were the Reno High School cadets in a platoon formation, hiking along like seasoned troops instead of high school boys. Then came the members of the American Legion, the "old timers" who had hiked along the Meuse and thru Verdun; men who knew Alsace, St. Mehiel and the Argonne. In a magnificent confusion of rank and uniform they were, to be sure. A six-foot captain in the 91st hiked by the side of a five-foot three-inch corporal of the S. O. S. A sailor stepped on the heels of a second division marine and grinned. Even an English officer marched along with the American "bucks" and felt proud of the fact.

Truly it was a democratic company—an American company where men are not measured by the gold and silver on their shoulders or the loops of cord and insignia on their sleeves but by what they have done, and will do again should they ever have the opportunity.

There was no pomp attached to the little procession; it did not seem very impressive; uniforms were old and hardly too alike and the cadence was a bit uncertain, too, but to those who marched and to those who watched from the sidewalks it was the embodiment of glory, of impressiveness. Every man was paying silent tribute to someone—to some buddy with whom he had hiked, shoulder to shoulder thru endless kilometers of French mud, a buddy who shared his "corn-willie," who carried his pack and who helped him into the billet when tanked up. It is seven thousand miles from Reno to Paris but it's not so very far, after all, to those plain white crosses with the name, outfit and "killed in action" in black letters. Armistice Day brought that Buddy closer and it took but a moment to seem near him again.

The presentation of colors to the local post of the American Legion was held at the Rialto. Mrs. Millner of the Woman's Relief Corp, an auxiliary of the G. A. R., presented the flag, and Miss Dunkle presented the colors to the Darrel Dunkle post, named in honor of her brother, one of the missing "buddies."

GASOLINE TALK BY DEAN SIBLEY

this season. Griswold played center on the Elko High School team that played Reno the final game for the championship and was a competitor for a position on the all-state team. Scranton was also a member of the Elko team and won a place as guard on the all-state team. Codd played guard on the Reno team last year and was chosen as the other guard on the all-state team. Three men are representing Anadarko (Oklo.) High School on the squad and all are proving themselves to be good basketball men. Hearn was an all-state guard in Oklahoma last season, and Hammert and Goodwin also played on the Anadarko High School team.
A permanent captain will not be chosen until after the first game as it is impossible to tell at this early date who is certain of making the team.
Varsity basketball will not start till after the football season is over, but with all of last year's Coast championship team back in school this semester with the exception of "Smoky" Williams, and such a wealth of new material, it looks as though the coming season will be even more successful than that of last year. A heavy schedule has been arranged by Coach Curtright that includes a game with the California Varsity in Reno.

PI BETA PHI

Pi Beta Phi fraternity entertained last Saturday evening at a delightful formal dancing party at the home of Mrs. Prince A. Hawkins on Court street, in commemoration of the fifth birthday of Nevada Alpha Chapter. The artistic drawing and sun rooms were all thrown into one and afforded a pretty background for the unsurpassable Riverside Orchestra. A novel feature of the evening was the unique method employed in the choice of partners for the dancers. First the girls were presented with corsage bouquets, with their would be partner's name concealed therein, and later buetonnaires appeared on the lapels of the boys in the same mysterious manner. The daintiest of vanity bags again found their way to milady while miniature doll "vamps" engaged the attention of the men. The prettiest of the favor dances was one danced to the favorite tune of "Japanese Sandman" during which the lights were all extinguished and the girls found their respective partners by means of dimly lighted silken lanterns. Delicious refreshments were served after which the lingering guests joined in singing popular college and fraternity songs. Patrons and Patronesses of the evening were: Governor and Mrs. Emmet D. Boyle, Dr. and Mrs. George Steinmiller, Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Gardiner. Guests: Dorothy Middleton, Merle Le-maire, Bessie Jones, Frances Jones, Carr Gardiner, Lyndal Adams, Louise Grubnau, Mary Shaughnessy, Agnes Loury, Bertha Blattner, Genevieve Morgan, Helen Robison, Jane O'Sullivan, Marguerite Patterson, Bertha Jerger, Nell Francis, Louise Sissa, Paul Flannigan, William Sawle, Robert Skinner, Donald McNamara, John Lar Rieu, Emil Peterson, Stanley Davis, Harold Fraser, Chas. Oliver, James Valleu, Clarence Thornton, Frank Hartung, Harry Benson, Geo. Gooding, Harry Bogart, Herbert Shirley, Gordon Harris, Harold Luce, Forrest Young, Harry Ravizza, Dwight Edwards, Bill Caffery, Vivian Ninnis, Sam Couzins, Leonard Sullivan, Harrison Gardiner, Mox Charles, Woodford Romig, McKay McKenzie, Jack Frost, Ed Caffery, Bill Melarkey, Jack Pike, Earl Ross, Ed Dollard and Roy Chichester. Members of the fraternity present were: Tessie Ross, Hazel Hall, Gladys Jones, Pearl Stinson, Katherine Rieglehuth, Margaret Mack, Dorothy Mahan, Delle Boyd, Gladys Dunkle, Neal Sullivan, Nevis Sullivan, Virginia Higgins, Dorothy Percival, Marie Grubnau, Erma Hoskins, Marjorie Stauffer, Vera Dallas, Madeline Dallas, Shirley Stewart, Elsie Farrar, Edna Clausen, Josephine Legate, Myrtle Cameron, Edna Short.

D. K. T.

The Riverside Lanai was the scene of a very enjoyable dancing party given by the D. K. T. Sorority Friday the fifth. The hall was beautifully and artistically decorated with baskets filled with ferns and flowers. A large net intertwined with ferns and small shrubs covered the side walls and gave a gay and festive affect to the hall. The sorority emblem shone over the merry guests lighting the western corner of the hall. The clever favor dance was an added attraction of the evening. Delicious refreshments carrying out the sorority emblem in a very unique way by molding it into the brick ice cream were served. The dance closed with the singing of the sorority and college songs. The members of the D. K. T. Sorority are: Misses Helen Fuss, Gladys Smith, Marion Muth, Lois Smythe, Effie Mack, Martha Ryan, Luella Murray, Alma Bocke, Evelyn Walker, Isabelle Bertschy and their patronesses Mrs. A. E. Hill, Mrs. Frank Humphrey and Mrs. George Thatcher. Their guests were: Messrs and Mesdames L. Summerfield, R. O. Courtright, E. E. Wardin, B. L. Ambler, S. Belford, W. E. Clark, R. M. Price, Ruediger and the Misses Eva Ryan, Alma Fisher, Clarita Fortune, Evelyn Perdroli, Marion Lothrop, Leona Bergman, Hazel Murray, Panola Edwards, Ruby Spoon, Vera Smith, Verda Luce, Letitia Sawle, Dorothy Middleton, Mary Shaughnessy, Janet Marshall, Marie Campbell, Lois Wilson, Beatrice Le Duc, Lyndell Adams; Messrs. Hill, Lyndholm, Harms, Simpson, Wright, Douglas, Page, Bruce, Pierce, Rice, Glass, Young, Skinner, Gorman, Le Duc, Schiller, Smith, Milton, Snodgrass, Davis, C. Davis, Flannigan, Proctor, H. Davis, McPhearson and Reagan.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

Sunday afternoon several of the Tri Delt girls entertained their friends at a picnic among the pines at Verdi. The jolly party started in machines early in the morning and did not return until dark. Those who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Organ, Bill Cann, Joe Witmer, Hugo Quilici, Earl Wooster, Al Reed. The hostesses were: Rose Mitchell, Arvella Coffin, Gertrude Haris, Enola Badger, Hallie Organ and Josephine Williams.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

Miss Frankie Porter was given the last two degrees of initiation into Delta Delta Delta Sorority on Monday evening at the home of Miss Hallie Organ on Sierra street. The rooms were tastefully decorated in the sorority colors and emblems and the ceremony was most impressive. Later in the evening the customary initiation breakfast was served. Those who partook of it were: Pryscyla Reynolds, Adele Clinton, Rose Mitchell, Hallie Organ, Gertrude Harris, Arvella Coffin, Thelma Braun, Enola Badger, Marienne Gignoux, Editha Brown, Frankie Porter, Josephine Williams, Julia Callahan, Doris de Hart, Claire Hofer, Mila Coffin, Thelma Coffin, Zulu Talbot, Mildred Bray, Edith Harris and the Mesdames Le Roy Thatcher, James Nyswander, Amos McKinley, Elsie Meeker and Bernice James.

SIGMA NU

The members of the Sigma Nu Fraternity after holding their regular Monday night meeting, at the home of Mr. Charles Frisch, on Court street, were given a surprise social by his sister, Miss Louise Frisch.

When the doors swung open, there stood a table loaded with such epicurean delights as would have tempted a Louis XIV, and decorated with the flower of Sigma Nu—the white rose. The hostess was ably assisted by Mrs. G. Beltz and the Misses Alice and Edna Frisch, making the supper doubly enjoyed.

The supper over, Miss Alice Frisch took her place at the piano and the singing of popular songs became the order of the evening. Those present were:

Hugo Quilici, Charles Frisch, Cyril Fraley, Herbert Shirley, Clark Simpson, Will Cann, George Cann, Ellis Harmon, Harold Fraser, Roland Williams, Mare Le Duc, William Herndon, Waldo Proctor, Walter Reid, David Tobias, John Ross, Robert Skinner.

I. O. A. O.

Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. A. E. Turner, the I. O. A. O. Sorority gave its final initiation degree to Miss Allene Wright. After impressive ceremony, which was performed immediately upon arriving, the members adjourned to the tastefully decorated dining room where a delicious supper was served. Later an enjoyable evening was spent. The delightful function was closed with the singing of the I. O. A. O. songs. Those present were: Mrs. A. E. Turner, Mrs. George Macham, Misses June Harriman, Mary Browder, Leila Sloan, Norma Brown, Allene Wright, Emily Burke, Elvina Blevins, Georgiana Steiner, Clementine Shurtleff, Georgia Money, Dorothy Harrington, Marceline Kenny, Bonnie Stephens, Thres Haughney, Lulu Hawkins.

The Misses Jones, Rahbeck, Cordes and Brockliss entertained at the home of Miss Jones on Nevada street, a number of their friends at a party held in honor of the students from Carson Valley who are attending the University. The evening was spent in playing whist, dancing and fortune telling. At midnight a delicious luncheon was served. Those who enjoyed the evening were the Misses Evelyn Pedroli, Gladys Jones, Clara Gmelli, Thelma Pedroli, Florence Wendel, Grace Jones and Hortense Haughney; Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Wortham; Messrs. Frey, Brown, Theodore Elges, John Jepsen, Dan McNamara, Elwood Beemer, Ed Dollard, Foster Curtis, Leo Gloster, Elliott Douglas and Ashton Codd.

A day off week before last, a day off last week, nothing this week, and next week is Thanksgiving. Sure's great. 'Course Christmas is coming too, but it's a ways off yet. Don't 'spose there'll be anybody left in the Hall Thanksgiving. Everybody is leaving for home. N'I guess ev'rybody 'll be sick after that. Wot'll Mrs. Porter say? Wot'll the fellows be who are half dead now. Steele and Swede, wot'll become of them? But then why concern ourselves with impossibles. S'lucky they're not going home; they're gonna stay and keep company with Rex. Lucky dogs! They'll get nothing and the rest'll get indigestion; but then misery loves company.

We're going to have drinking fountains at Lincoln Hall next summer. Guess the graduates will have to come

CLIONIA DEBATES AND PLAY SOON

Clionia is putting itself on a war basis and getting everything in shape for the coming debates and its annual play. The membership is being increased at every meeting and the modest literary and dramatic lights of the Hill are waking up to the fact that only thru Clionia will they be able to bring their talent and ability before the people. They are showing the real spirit, for if one is a John Drew or a Calhoun he owes it to himself, the school and the public, to join Clionia.

With the present talent Clionia will put on a show next semester that should equal if not surpass its show of last semester, "A Pair of Sixes." It is the plan of Clionia to enlarge its circuit to take in Elko, Winnemucca, Fallon and Tonopah, as well as Reno and Carson. Next to athletics, dramatics does more than anything else to make known the school. Boost Clionia and advertise the school.

back Homecoming Day so they can drink out of them.

Among the new men who have moved to the Hall are Lloyd Coates, Horn, Floster and Miller. We want them to make themselves at home and feel at home while they stay here.

That trip to Los Angeles must have been some trip. You ought to hear the football players tell about it. Their trip thru Movieland, the land of make-believe; thru the studios where painted characters were being hauled out from underneath a fallen house, or a lovely heroine rescued from the incoming waves by some inspiring hero. Yes, even Fatty Arbuckle was there escaping from the open arms of a "reel" vamp, and Charlie Chaplin whirling his cane at the same time hitting some dignified gentlemen over the "bean." They motored to Hollywood, to Venice, and to the Sunset Inn, the resting place for all the actors and actresses. They even saw "reel" snow, rain and sand-storms while the skies were as clear and blue as on a hot summer's day. They'll tell you how it's done, so if you're interested just corner one of the football fellows and have them tell you. They'll reel it off to you.

Gladys Smith was hostess at several of her friends at a "feed" given in her rooms Saturday evening. A box of home-made "goodies" formed the chief enjoyment of the evening. The guests were: Vera Wickland, Mrs. Wickland, Loise Smythe, Helen Fuss, Valentine Olds and Marion Muth.

It's good the string didn't break with the sinkers went up.

And say, Tom, that reminds me: there were ten of us listening when you murmured softly, "Bring your toys to Lincoln and play with us, some day." Just which one of the ten did you mean?

A propos. Colwell hissed "Let's beat it," must have had the usual weight. —Bon Nuit.

And then you wonder why Miss Mack locks the door.

Miss Agne (secrecy essential)—Delightfully entertained in room —? on her 2—(but why be catty?) birthday. The guests never found themselves idle for a moment, and conversation ne'er relapsed. It was "couldn't you borrow a little sugar? The spoon's behind Browning. Of course, you don't mind bringing your own chairs. When it becomes highly heated just gracefully lift it off with the tennis racket. My dear, don't apologize, its really a delightful sensation to have scalding chocolate poured over me." And then the quiet bell, lights out, hisses, an overturned jelly glass or two, last grab for chicken bones, and a wild dash for beds and nightmares.

LOGAN AGGIES TRIM MONTANA

Playing a good brand of straight football Coach Romney's squad of Utah Aggies defeated the eleven from the Montana School of Mines, Saturday, by a score of 21 to 0.

Utah made first downs 22 times in the game to Montana's twice, and hammered their way up and down the field with apparent ease. Though fumbles were frequent, Utah's team was far superior to the Ore Diggers. In the latter part of the game Coach Romney put in an entire new team of subs who played an excellent game, three times bringing the ball to within the 8-yard line only to lose it on fumbles. In the game Erickson at right half was the star with his line gains and end runs. Two of Utah Aggie's men, Dorius and Seeley, are on the sick list and probably will be out for the balance of the season.

SAGEBRUSHERS LOSE TO U. S. C.

were attempted at the line and failing to gain, U. S. C. punted to Nevada, who went thru much the same performance, and kicked back. In the exchange of punts Nevada finally came in possession of the ball on about Nevada's 20-yard line. Here an attempted pass was intercepted by Dean who carried the ball to the 15-yard mark, and in five plays the Trojans worked the ball to the Sagebrush 2-yard mark where Dean again took it across the line for the fourth touchdown of the game. Evans booted the goal and the score stood U. S. C. 28, Nevada 0.

Nevada then kicked off to the Trojans who were held for downs and punted to Bradshaw who returned the ball to the 50-yard line. Here Nevada worked the ball by means of passes and end runs up the field in rapid fashion. A pass from Bradshaw to Foster made first down on U. S. C.'s 40-yard line. Another from Reed to Bradshaw gained 5 yards and a long flip to Martin placed the ball on the 15-yard line. Here Bradshaw threw another pass to Martin who received it across the goal line for Nevada's only score. Heward kicked the goal and made the score U. S. C. 28, Nevada 7.

In the fourth quarter, the Trojans made their fifth touchdown from a "sleeper play." They had the ball in the center of the field and while an argument over possession of it was in progress, three of their players slipped unnoticed to the sidelines. Here a long pass was completed to Leahy who carried the ball forty yards for the final touchdown, and Evans converted.

The legality of this touchdown was questioned, on the grounds that Leahy, who received the pass was in the center of a group of three men and was therefore ineligible to receive it, but the officials ruled different and the score was allowed. Foster who attempted to break the play up was injured when he hit the interference and had to be replaced, as did the Trojan player who stopped him. Later in this quarter, after working the ball up the field, U. S. C. held it on Nevada's 35-yard line where they were unable to break thru the Nevada line. "Swede" Evans came to the rescue and with a pretty place kick added three points more, and the final tally.

In the remaining time, Nevada kept the ball pretty much in her possession. A pass from Reed to Bradshaw for about 10 yards was completed, Bradshaw rambling thru the Trojan team for a total gain of 40 yards before being brought to earth. An attempted pass was turned into a neat end run by Eddie Reed who gained nearly 15 yards before he was downed. A long pass to Waite who was standing across the goal line came close to being a touchdown, Waite catching the ball and then dropped it, but that the closest. A few short passes and end runs took the ball to U. S. C.'s 5-yard line where it remained in Nevada's possession on third down as the final whistle ended the game. The summary showed U. S. C. on the long end of a 38 to 7 score.

U. S. C. went into the game the favorite to win, on the strength of her defeat of Stanford earlier in the season, which though played when Stanford was at her weakest, showed the Coast fans that the Trojans were a team to be reckoned with. U. S. C. students and boosters have high hopes of their local team representing the West in the annual East-West game at Pasadena New Year's Day, and for that reason are out for a perfect record for the season. In Saturday's game, despite early press reports to the contrary, the Trojans outweighed Nevada by a considerable margin, the Southerners averaging eight pounds or better to the man over Nevada. A comparison of the weights is given here. U. S. C. team average 180 pounds; Nevada team average 172 pounds; U. S. C. line, 190; Nevada line 182; U. S. C. tackle to tackle, 197; Nevada tackle to tackle, 189; U. S. C. backfield, 162; Nevada backfield, 153 pounds.

As to individual playing, "Charlie" Dean, Trojan left half, was without question the outstanding satellite on the field, making the first four touchdowns himself, plunging thru the line for large gains, running exceptional interference, and showing all around brilliant playing. Bradshaw was the outstanding star on the Nevada team, making several sensational plays, and being responsible for many other good gains. "Swede" Evans, U. S. C. captain and right tackle, Smith, right end and Greene left end, all showed great stuff in their line work. Leadingham, quarter, and Kincaid, fullback, all helped very materially in winning the game. Bill Martin, Varsity left end, came in for no small share of glory by completing several neat passes and carrying one of them over for Nevada's only score. Ted Fairchild on the opposite end, played a strong game, especially on defensive. Buckman and Fisher worked well in the line and held up in notable shape against the battering of the Trojan backs. Eddie Reed, Nevada captain, played his customary flashy game and was responsible for several of the Varsity's big gains. Foster, at halfback, showed up well as in the preceding games this season, playing a consistent game and evoking much praise from the stands for his tackling.

The following article taken from the Salt Lake Tribune of Sunday, gives a nice write-up for Bradshaw on his work in last Saturday's game:

"The University of Nevada went down to defeat today before the University of Southern California's undefeated football team, 38 to 7. The visitors were considerably outweighed. They scored their only touchdown in the third period on a long forward pass by "Rabbit" Bradshaw, quarterback, over the line to Martin, left end.

too much azimuth on the ball. The decision was held as legal however by the winners.

The next number on the program was one of the best of the entire evening. A three-round bout with "Battling" Frost, the Ely cyclone, matched against Sailor Pressel, Cuban slugger, went the full three periods in the liveliest sort of manner. Staggering blows and knockdowns were frequent, though no knockouts were recorded. At the conclusion of the bout Referee Mac McReynolds held up both fighters hands, and the struggle was pronounced a draw, to the great satisfaction of the audience.

Following the boxing match, the next event in order was a tug of war with an even number of picked men on each side. Two wins out of three were necessary for a decision. The first was won in rapid shape by Shackman's gang, and the next two went to Bryan's aggregation. It is claimed, however, that Bryan's crew almost wrecked a part of the gym apparatus which was very handily situated as regards the end of the rope. A grand battle royal was the next number staged, in which Prof. Feemster, Prof. Jones, Shackman and Bryan were all blindfolded and turned loose at close quarters, armed with pillows. The event was a scream from start to finish, and many and mighty were the blows struck. Prof. Feemster, at the first whistle, according to reports, very wisely placed himself in a rather inconspicuous place and there proceeded to beat a rhythmic tattoo upon the floor throughout the entire contest. This report, however, has not been authentically verified.

After the pillow fight, the visitors made themselves at home, some playing basketball, some swimming and others running the pool and billiard tables overtime, supposedly for the 'Rabbit' Bradshaw gave the fans a thrill for each of two long end runs, one for 65 yards and the other for 40. He was stopped both times by being crowded off the side lines. Bradshaw was heralded by the stands as the real star of the game, and it was pointed out that had he not been faster than the Nevada interference his speed would have carried the ball across the U. S. C. line on at least two occasions."

COLLEGE SUPPORT FOR RED CROSS

When America went into the war there was an immediate rush of college men to take their places on the firing line. By fall 150 institutions reported that 13,250 students were in the army or navy, and 1650 had gone into non-military activities. Whereas the undergraduates for the most part went into active service, the alumni, or those of them who for one reason or another were unfitted for army and navy, went into the service of the relief organizations.

Hundreds of college men and women went into the Red Cross. In fact, this organization was largely made up of college personnel. They went into it because it was constructive, because it gave them a chance to apply practically those ideals which are the ideals of America, and which the training they have received in colleges and universities has taught them to honor and cherish.

And then the war ended. A good many people thought that the Red Cross would end too. But disease and suffering did not end with the war.

championship of the school, until refreshments were served and the guests took their leave and drifted homeward. Altogether, the evening was a very enjoyable one for those present and left with the less fortunate ones who remained away, nothing but a "wish I had" viewpoint.

As previously announced, it is impossible to secure railroad rates of any kind for the game Thanksgiving Day, so that all rooters who want to see the Sagebrush Varsity in action for the last time this season will have to pay straight fare. It was hoped that a special train to carry the delegation from Reno to the game might be secured, but definite word was received several weeks ago that this was impossible, despite strenuous efforts on the part of the local officials.

Health, good citizenship are as important today as they were two years ago. And so the Red Cross work goes on. It still stands for the ideals of America—the ideals which it is the privilege and the duty of every university man and woman to further and cherish.

It is the duty and the privilege, therefore, of every college student to stand back of the Red Cross, to aid in every way possible in its after-war campaign for a healthier and happier America. The Annual Red Cross Roll Call is being held from November 11-25. Ten million Americans joined or renewed their memberships last year. The Red Cross counts on its college friends to join, again, this year. Will the students of the University of Nevada fail them?
