BOTH NEVADA TEAMS ARE VICTORIOUS Strong Coast Team to Play Two Games

Varsity 5 and Women Victors

ZELLERBACH PAPER COMPANY TEAM DEFEATED BY WOMEN IN FIRST GAME—LEGION ALSO LOSES TO NEVADA SQUAD

Two games played on the University floor last Saturday evening gave basketball fans an opportunity to see both the men's and women's varsities in action, and see both games won by substantial margins.

The first game between the Sagebrush five and the Darrel Dunkle Post of the American Legion furnished the spectators with some mighty fast basketball on the part of both teams. Although rather one-sided at the start, it was nip and tuck from the first whistle, with the ball changing hands frequently. The Varsity players had considerable the best of it, in the matter of shooting field goals, Waite, Egan, Reed and Bradshaw all getting in on the scoring in the first period. Waite and Egan especially were all over the floor, dropping in goals from difficult angles with deadly accuracy. The noticeable feature of the game was the absence of the dribble, which heretofore has been very marked. Instead the University men used a short, speedy pass, which made the game much faster, and created many more opportunities for shots than with the other style of play. The Legion players themselves were adept in the matter of handling the ball, also using a snappy pass, which advanced the ball under their opponents' goal for numerous chances at the ring. During the first half of the game, the Varsity five tallied 15 points to the service men's 3, all of which were made by Foster.

In the second half, Coach Courtright sent in his second team to try them out, and though playing hard and getting a good many chances at the hoop, they failed to add very much to the Sagebrush side of the score card. The Legion boys never gave up, playing a fighting game to the last, though hopelessly outclassed. There are two of the men playing with the town team who showed considerable basketball knowledge and would well grace a Silver and Blue outfit, notably Foster and Fairchild. Foster is a mighty speedy boy and handles himself well, and has an uncanny habit of rolling the ball thru the basket for points

Coed Varsity Leaves Tues.

WOMEN'S VARSITY WILL LEAVE FEB. 22 FOR COAST—THREE GAMES INCLUDING ONE WITH O. A. C. SCHEDULED

The Women's Varsity of the University are scheduled to leave Tuesday night, February 22, on No. 5 for their big Coast trip on which they will play a series of games in California and Oregon. This team is perhaps the strongest women's team that Nevada has sent to the Coast for a good many years, and judging by the results of their first game last week, an excellent showing should be made by them on their trip. The game with the Zellerbach Paper company women showed the degree to which the teamwork and basket shooting has been perfected under Coach Somers' instruction. Nevada's forwards are not only experienced, but are very fast, and have developed an ability to shoot baskets that works out with 1-2-3 speed. The guards and centers likewise are experienced and fast. In fact, Nevada has a Women's Varsity that great things are to be expected from.

The usual intercollegiate games with Stanford, California and Mills College will not be played this year, due to the fact that these colleges are specializing in intercollegiate-interclass basket games. Three games with strong teams however are scheduled for the trip. Wednesday afternoon, February 23, Nevada will meet the Dominican College team of San Raphael on the San Raphael court; Thursday a return game will be played with the Zellerbach Paper Company team at the Y. M. C. A. court in San Francisco, and immediately after this game the Nevada team will leave for Corvallis, Oregon. The big game of the trip will be with Oregon Agricultural College women's team at Corvallis, Saturday night.

The women who make up Nevada Women's Varsity and who will make the trip accompanied by Coach Somers, are Captain Hallie Organ, Erma Hoskins, Helen Cordes, Rose Mitchell, Adele Clinton, June Harriman, Margaret Barnes and Genevieve Morgan. The team will leave Tuesday night, February 22 on No. 5 at 8:10 p. m. and a royal send-off should be given them.

Visitors Lose Fast Contest

SANTA CLARA QUINTET LOSES HARD FOUGHT GAME TO CAPT. WAITE'S FIVE—MISSIONITES HAVE NO CHANCE

Monday night the Nevada Varsity five tangled with the Santa Clara Missionites on the gym court and merged victorious, after a thrilling and hard-fought game. From the tipoff the ball was passed around a bit, after which it found itself in Captain Waite's hands, and he promptly spun it thru the hoop and rang the bell for the first Nevada point. From then on, Nevada rooters never were in doubt as to the ultimate result of the battle, though at times the visitors got them worried somewhat by balancing the pill on the iron rim of the basket, only to have it roll the other way, after which the crowd would heave a sigh of relief and take another good breath.

Santa Clara came to Nevada with the expectation of having to fight hard for a victory, and this they did, though unable to record the win, as they hoped. The game played by the Saints is a speedy, fast passing style, with little dribbling, and a peculiar method of working the ball up under their opponent's basket, which however during the first half failed to bring them results, but was more successful in the latter period. Nevada's reverse turn and the five-man defense proved too much for the visitors and only occasionally were they able to break either of them up with any great degree of success. Their own defensive play was much the same as Nevada, something of a five-man defense though it could scarcely be called the same as that used by the Varsity. In the first half, Santa Clara scored but three points, all on free throws, which were tossed by Manelli, out of seven attempts. Field goals were an unthought-of thing, most of the visitors shots being from difficult angles and the center of the floor.

Nevada on the other hand, handled the sphere with accurate precision, ringing up eight field goals, and three free shots out of six tries after fouls.

PHI SIGS LEAVE FOR INSTALLATION

M. T. Smith, president of the local chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa, with John Harrison, inductor, and Jack Frost left for Corvallis, Oregon, last Tuesday night to help in the installation of a new Phi Sig chapter in the Oregon Aggie school. Zeta Epsilon, a local fraternity at Oregon, will become Theta Deuteron of Phi Sigma Kappa while the Nevada men are there, having successfully petitioned the annual Phi Sig convention last year for a charter. The new chapter will be the third to represent the fraternity on the coast. Representatives from California and the Eastern chapters will also be present to aid in the installation ceremonies which will last for three days. The local men will not return until the first of the week.

OLYMPIC CLUB 145-POUND SQUAD TO MIX WITH SAGEBRUSHERS IN TWO GAMES, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY—VISITORS WERE DEFEATED BY STANFORD WITH FOUR POINT MARGIN AND WERE VICTORS OVER SANTA CLARA AND ATHENS CLUB

The 145-pound Olympic Club team of San Francisco is scheduled to tangle with the Sagebrush squad this Friday and Saturday and judging by games in the past, the basketball fans of Reno should have a rare treat when these teams meet.

The Olympics play a fast game and have made an excellent record so far this season. Stanford, touted as one of the Coast's strongest aggregations, defeated them by a scant four points margin, the final score of the game, which was played on the Stanford court, being 39-35. Santa Clara fell before the 145 pounders to the tune of a 41-19 defeat, and the Athens Club of Oakland one of the fastest and cleverest of the coast clubs were downed by the Olympics to a 52-22 tune.

All the men who comprise the quintet have a world of experience, and their speed, accuracy and cleverness has been trained down and whipped into shape by Coach Joe Ryan to a remarkable degree.

Coach Ryan was unable to come up to Reno with his team for their first game with the Sagebrushers but he will be on hand for the second contest Saturday.

The line up of the men who will start the game for the Olympics Friday night as given to a Sagebrush reporter will be: Gavin, forward; Garrigan, forward; Boyle, center; Sweitzer, guard; Kein, guard.

The Winged "O" team is taking no chances on the effects of the Reno altitude and have brought with them four substitutes who no doubt will be used to spell the regulars. Among the substitutes are many stars, noted for their speed and brilliancy on the basket court, and include: Belasco, Lauterwasser, Wallis and Molkenburg. The basket fans of the Hall and of Reno will get more than their money's worth by seeing these games of which the outcome cannot be predicted.

CLONIA SELECTS B. Y. U. DEBATERS

Prof. A. E. Turner, the faculty adviser for the Clonia Debating Society, has selected the debating team for the debate with Brigham Young University. The men selected to represent Nevada in this debate are John Harrison and Howard Westervelt. This oratorical contest will take place on the 18th of March in Reno.

The question to be debated is: Resolved, That Congress should pass a law prohibiting strikes in public utilities, constitutionality granted. The Nevada debating team will have the negative side of the argument.

The try-outs for the intercollegiate debate with the College of the Pacific will be held some time about March 1. This debate will be held at San Jose.

At the next meeting of Clonia, the Junior-Senior interclass debate will be held. Margaret Barnes and Earl Wooster are to speak for the Seniors, while Norma Brown and Francis Walsh will represent the Juniors. The winners of this contest will meet the Sophomores in the final interclass debate two weeks later.

The Clonia play is progressing rapidly, with every member of the cast working hard. It was planned to give the play about the 2d of March, but as it may be impossible to get the Rialto Theatre for that date, the play may have to be postponed.

RADIUM ARTICLE BY DAVIS PUBLISHED

An article titled "Radioactivity and Some Practical Applications" by C. W. Davis of the U. S. Bureau of Mines Experiment Station at the University appears in the February 12 issue of the Mining and Scientific Press. This article is the same one that Mr. Davis read before the University of Nevada Chapter of A. A. E. last November, and deals with radioactivity and radioactive substances, and some of the uses to which they are put, and is an article well worth reading by any engineering student.

WANT GYMNASIUM AT CALIF. TECH

Southwestern Intercollegiate Press. California Tech, Pasadena, Feb. 17. Considerable agitation is being heard around the campus for a new gymnasium, as at present there is none of suitable size within three miles of the college. Caltek is the only institution around Southern California of any considerable size that has no gym on the campus, and the need is fast becoming so imperative that it is regarded as practically certain that this will be the next addition to the group of buildings already at the institute.

POMONA STUDENTS GO OVER THE TOP

By Southwest Intercollegiate Press. Pomona College, Feb. 17.—In a financial campaign promoted for the raising of funds for the new memorial training quarters, the student body went over the top with a will. The goal was set at $3500 and in four days a sum total of $5553 was realized in the form of cash and pledges payable on or before June 1, 1921. This sum added to the gifts of the Alumni Association which is chiefly responsible for the enterprise will aggregate approximately $45,000 which was the amount decided upon as prerequisite to the laying of the cornerstone. Next year visiting athletic teams will be assured delight and roomy dressing quarters with everything "up to the minute" for the comfort of the athlete.

NEW PUBLICATION MEETS WITH FAVOR

By Pacific Intercollegiate Press. University of Washington, Feb. 17. The Columns, Washington's new literary magazine, came off the press this week with such success that within two days the entire output of three thousand copies were sold. The new monthly publication is designed to deal with student activities and problems, feature material of the University, and short stories of Washington life. The name was taken from the University's traditional columns, now on the campus from the University's first building, erected in 1861.

YERINGTON BREAKS EVEN AT STEWART

Special to "Sagebrush". Yerington, Nev., Feb. 17.—Last Friday night the Yerington basketball team journeyed to Stewart where they divided honors with the redskins. The Stewart boys team proved far too strong for the visitors and they came out on the long end of a 51 to 17 score. The girls game however was a close, well-played contest, which is evidenced by the score of 27 to 24 in favor of the Mason Valley girls. From Stewart the Yerington teams went to Gardnerville where they played the following evening.

SORORITY WOMEN STICK SAYS DEAN

By Pacific Intercollegiate Press. University of Washington, Feb. 17. That the percentage of sorority women leaving the University during their college course is much smaller than the percentage for the entire University during the same time, has been proven by statistics, compiled by Dean Ethel Hunley Coldwell, dean of women.

JUNIOR CREW AT WASHINGTON WINS

By Pacific Intercollegiate Press. University of Washington, Feb. 17. Gaining a twenty-foot lead in the last seventy-five yards, the Junior crew won the interclass crew race Friday afternoon over a mile-and-a-quarter course. The Sophomores were second; seniors, third, and Freshman last.

For the first race of the year the speed was considered good; chilly winds and drizzles having continually been present throughout the winter training.

To within 75 yards of the finish, the Sophomores lead. Here, the Junior crew taxed into a final spurt, nosing the 20-foot win.

CARSON BOYS WIN WHILE GIRLS LOSE

Special to "Sagebrush". Carson City, Nev., Feb. 17.—The Carson teams met the Churchill county high school teams in Fallon last Saturday evening. The girls game was very close, neither team leading the other by more than a few points until the last few minutes of play when the Fallon girls made the necessary points to make the score 33 to 17 in their favor. The boys game was also very close due to the fact that the two Carson forwards were out of the game. The final count was 18 to 16 in favor of the Carson boys.

"PEOPLES POET" IS ASSEMBLY SPEAKER

By Southwest Intercollegiate Press. Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 17.—Leading off with a head-liner and a full house, the second regular assembly of the semester at Southern Branch enjoyed a number of interesting and humorous readings by the "people's poet," Mr. Edgar A. Guest, whose verses appear daily in the Evening Express. Mr. Guest kept the audience laughing during most of his talk by his keen wit, but here and there proved himself to also be an artist on the heart strings by rendering one of his more pathetic writings.

He remarked that during the week he had been in Los Angeles he had met everyone he knew east of the Mississippi. "It's a good place to wait for friends," he observed, "if they don't come today, they'll come tomorrow."

RIFLE SHOOTING NOW MINOR SPORT

By Pacific Intercollegiate Press. University of Washington, Feb. 17. Ten men to represent the University Rifle club in the first of a series of ten National Rifle Association matches, to be held at Camp Lewis February 19 and 20, were named Thursday.

With shooting now a minor sport, the rifle club has accepted the invitation to join the Intercollegiate Association of Affiliated Rifle clubs, headquarters of which are at Princeton University. Through this association, the government will send a team of six men from each club to Coldwell, New Jersey, for six weeks every summer. The club will also prepare to send a representative to California next summer to shoot for the Grand trophy, won by the University club last year.

COLLEGE EDITOR CHOSEN AT POMONA

By Southwest Intercollegiate Press Pomona College, Feb. 17.—For the first time in the history of the Student Life a candidate nominated from the general student assembly won out over the nominee of the staff for the position of editor-in-chief of the college news publication. With a comfortable majority of votes to his favor, Albert Rembao was elected over Helen Powell. Although the editor-elect has not had previous experience on the Student Life, his ability in this kind of work is remarkable. His work as correspondent for a Los Angeles daily has been highly recommended while his journalistic ability merits considerable note. Rembao succeeds William B. Worden who has consistently issued a publication highly indicative of the life and spirit of the college.

THE VANDALS
(By Rholer Towle)

There was a saying in France during the war that "the Frenchman fought for his existence; the Tommie for glory, and the Americans for souvenirs." And now that the war has been over for more than two years and these particular men of whom I write are some seven thousand miles from the fields of Flanders which they never saw, the souvenir instinct still burns within them.

It was Saturday afternoon and these two men were ready to sally out in quest of souvenirs. The last touch had been added to their make up; talcum powder carefully sifted thru their handkerchiefs and they were off—two as handsome and roughish gallants as ever stormed a lady's heart.

Their line of march was for the nearest studio and when there they asked to see some mythical proofs. While the unsuspecting photographer or his assistant searched thru the dusty files of proofs these two head-hunters admired the pictures on display. They worked swiftly—from nothing left on the tables and walls but a few empty frames and some prints of a decidedly "Socratic" type of beauty. Now that the studio was depleted of its last vestige of art the freebooters thanked the photographer for his trouble and promised to call another time, when he had found the proofs, and went on their way rejoicing.

This process was repeated until every pocket bulged with imprisoned beauty. Their lust for the beautiful at last allayed they departed with their loot toward Lincoln Hall. Here, locked safely in their rooms, the two desecrators of art revelled in the company of the stolen beauties.

From the walls their eyes smiled down on them, demure, daring, languorous, full of the happy thots that one sees in a woman's eyes when she is looking into a camera. Curving, delicate lips beckoned to them and drooping lashes coaxed.

There was not one word spoken to mar this moment of supreme happiness. These women, the most fair in Manzanita, smiled down on them in silent admiration. In evening gowns, afternoon dress, or negligee they posed in their cardboard frames unabashed at the stern scrutiny of the hunters of beauty—of souvenirs.

At the sight of these pictures the "faithful" of the Hall had spent many sleepless nights. As they looked at some especially fascinating bit of feminine beauty that had been immortalized in cardboard by "the man with the national reputation," they had vague misgivings and in their hearts there was a great doubt. Many questions rose to their lips, yet Spartan like they dared not speak. Could it be that "he" was merely one of many? It was hard to believe. Still here was undeniable proof, hanging coquettishly on the walls of the souvenir hunters' den was the picture. Ah! the falseness of woman. The faithful groaned; still women are all daughters of Eve, with the advantage of having had thousands of years of precedents to guide themselves by. But then "she" was different. (The "one woman" always is.)

These were the thots that tortured the minds of the faithful. These were the thots that made hideous their days and made them smile cynically whenever a woman's name was mentioned. Still they weren't to be blamed, one can hardly expect a man to be overjoyed when he sees "her" picture in the room of another, when she has refused to let him make use of her decorative qualities.

Now that the methods of these two beau brummels (in theory); these two self-styled gentleman vamps, have been brought to light the faithful few may again indulge in twelve hours of untroubled sleep each night and they can rest assured that retribution will be sure and swift on these two photographic kidnappers.

BATTALION OF DEATH
(By Reno)

Major Harrison, Assistant Commandant of the Varsity Army is about to organize a ladies auxiliary. The Major, during his Siberian campaigns, was very intimate with several members of the famous Russian Battalion of Death and it is after this organization that he hopes to pattern the Ladies Auxiliary.

He is very enthusiastic over his plans and intends to resign his present command to take personal charge of the new organization, the University of Nevada Battalion of Death. In his mind it is already a success; that this will appeal to the rugged daughters of the Sagebrush, he is certain. There is a wealth of material in the University and under the organizing genius of Major Harrison the Battalion of Death should soon rival that of the Russian army.

The University should do everything in its power to help this new branch of the military art. The students owe much to the Major, who by his untiring efforts has made the Student army what it is today. There is no doubt but that his woman cadets will soon have as wide a reputation as their Russian sisters.

NOTICE STUDENTS

The gallery of the gymnasium is for the use of students at basketball games. It has not been found practicable to reserve it, as the students do not fill it and the extra space is saleable. Nevertheless, the students are behind the athletics and it is desired that they have the best possible opportunities for seeing the games. Your seat at the game is dependent on yourself. Be on hand early, secure a good seat, and have an unrestricted view of the whole game.

STANFORD—(By Pacific Press)—All men interested in tennis have been called to enter the annual spring handicap tournament. All players have an equal opportunity to win the trophy which is held by the victor for one year. Ford Tussing '22 is the present holder.

STANFORD—(By Pacific Press)—Rushing of Breck letter fraternity members by means of an outside influence was judged illegal at a test case brought before the Interfraternity Conference at a recent meeting. One of the members of the fraternity in question was found guilty of slandering another fraternity and of attempting to influence a rushee's choice during the closed formal rushing period through the instrument of a high school student. This being the first case of the kind, the fraternity was reprimanded and asked to take disciplinary action against the offender.

"STUDE" OR "STEWED"

The Ladies Temperance Society of Oshkosh, Barabota County, Texas has objected to the appellation of "studes" being applied to college students. They say "This undignified appellation is gaining a startling currency among the papers of our country, college papers, themselves, not being excepted. The word is not only too ugly and short to be applied to this fine class of young men, but it has a disagreeable connotation. We know that college students have been occasionally found in this condition, but to the great rank and file of them this does not apply, so therefore; We, the Ladies of the Temperance Society of Oshkosh go on record as being in opposition to the cognomen of 'studes' being applied to the great rank and file of the sober students of the United States of America."

We regret to admit that the usually infallible SAGEBRUSH has been guilty of this moral dereliction. Only last week we referred to the famous Huntington Library of Pasadena, California as being open to "studes." By this we did not mean that drunken men were to have special privileges in the library, but that students of all kinds, regardless as to state of inebriety, could have access thereunto. We own up to our error and agree to use less vicious devices for evening up our headlines in the future.

A "SENIOR" AT NEVADA

In an S. I. P. A. dispatch printed in this issue, the correspondent at University of Redlands tells of the annual "Ditch Day" observed at that institution by the members of the graduating class. Whenever the time seems proper and without warning, the entire Senior class declares a holiday, and casting their textbooks to the winds, loose the bonds of faculty tyranny, and depart for the surrounding hills to enjoy one day, in peace, far from the sight of prying frosh eyes: The affair is shrouded in mystery, not even the participants knowing when or where the party is to be staged. Instructions for finding the place, known as "Senior Hall," are left by the preceding class.

The idea is a good one, and by no means new to western universities. A great many institutions have similar occasions, known by such titles as "Senior Day," "Cut Day" and "Senior Picnic," at which times all seniors are conspicuous by their absence from the campus. It is one day in the year when they celebrate without assistance or interference by the other classes, and enjoy for a brief period, a well-earned rest after four years study. Such a day could easily be arranged at Nevada without working any great hardship on anyone affected by it, and offering a strong possibility that eventually, the day would become one of the university's most cherished traditions.

The "power of suggestion" to the human mind is remarkable, it is declared, and to the college student is especially forceful when connected with such subjects as "holidays" and "no classes." The idea is at least worthy of consideration.

Season tickets, and reserved seat tickets for the Nevada-Olympic Club games can be obtained from the Registrar's office in Morrill Hall. A notice to this effect has been posted on the bulletin board for several days, and is published elsewhere in this paper, and it is to be hoped that all Faculty members and students have read this notice and acted accordingly. Those members of the student body and faculty who put off the purchase of these tickets until the last minute invariably are disappointed and take what is left. Why not DO IT NOW?

DO YOU ARRANGE A SCHEDULE?

Every student at the university, especially one who is engaging to any extent in student activities, is face to face with the problem of how to accomplish everything he or she has to do. "I'm simply swamped!" and "I don't know where to begin!" are exclamations one constantly hears and makes, and with each new assignment and each new appointment on a committee, the problem becomes a more serious one to solve. The freshmen, with their difficulties before them, wonder how the seniors succeed in fulfilling all their many duties, and in filling all of their important offices.

With the solution of this problem before one, the value of a regular schedule for all activities can not be sufficiently emphasized. The busiest person, the one who gets the most done, is the one who works by schedule. The student already has a regular program of classes. Why not add to it a program of study hours and activities? Not that one must strictly adhere to it, for that would be practically impossible, but there is a decided advantage in keeping with some rigidity—and even in trying to keep—to a regular program.

If your activities differ each week, when you belong to organizations which have monthly meetings, make a schedule each week; to make it requires only a moment's time. Indicate the hours for classes, for committee meetings, for club meetings, for study, for recreation, and live that week according to schedule as far as possible. Those students who have tried it give witness of its value in "getting things done." Some have even tried the individual study program, indicating the hour for each study, or at least the order of attack, and found it of infinite success.

If you have a breath taking amount of work in view for the coming week, or the coming day, try the schedule plan, and if you adhere to it with some degree of fidelity, your effort will be well rewarded.—Yale University News.

WEAR YOUR BLOCK "S"

Block letters are awarded by the athletic governing board of the University to men participating in any of the major sports on the Hill whose work on the teams merits the honor of wearing a Block "S." Each year new men win their block letters in some major sport and at the same time there are block letter men graduating from the University leaving only a small number in attendance who are wearers of Syracuse University's highest insignia for participation in athletics.

The Block "S" is a mark of distinction on the Hill and an insignia worthy of the best in ability that an athlete has, to earn the right to wear it. The man who wears the Orange letter has earned that letter by hard work in football, track, crew, basketball or baseball and his right to wear the letter is enviable. To earn a block letter is the aim of every athlete because it sets him off from the rest as a man who has given his best in his particular field of activity and who has been picked because of his service on a University team. To the casual observer on the Campus the block letter means nothing more than the mere indication of athletic participation unless he or she understands the true honor of wearing the letter.

The Block "S" stands for hard work, sportsmanship, and for all that enters into athletic competition. Men who have earned the honor should wear their Block letter with pride at all times. By wearing the insignia on the campus and to classes you are giving incentive to those men who have not as yet earned the letter and making the Block "S" mean more to students on the Hill. The Block "S" should be worn more because it stands for Syracuse and all that Syracuse University represents. The Block "S" is the highest mark of distinction attainable by athletes of the University and we would advocate to those men who have earned the honor that they wear the insignia more often.—Syracuse Daily Orange.

Visitors Lose

Only one feature of the Varsity's play marred the game, and that was in the passing which was not up to standard, due perhaps to the presence of two speedy guards on the Santa Clara five. Fouls were frequent on both sides during the fray, Santa Clara having six personals chalked up against her and three technicals, as against Nevada's record of five personals and eight technicals. The gun sounded the end of the initial period with the scoreboard standing Nevada 17, Santa Clara 3.

In the second half Corky sent in several substitutes to give the first string men a breathing spell. All of these did well, Goodwin especially standing out in the limelight by his speed and ability at covering the floor and handling the ball. He is one of the best appearing players on the squad and given enough opportunity to gain experience this year, should develop into one of the star lights of the basketball team. Failing to keep the Santa Clara score down in this half caused the coach to return his first string men to the court with the result that the Nevada side of the scoreboard began to show signs of activity immediately and a substantial lead over the visitors was again established.

As to individual playing for Santa Clara little can be said. All players worked well together and showed the effects of considerable basketball experience at the Coast school, but they were not of the same class as the Varsity. Diaz, touted so highly, failed to show much at the forward position during the first half, but in the second broke away on two occasions and flipped in baskets. Of the three field goals made by the Missionites, he copped two and Manelli one. Fowler was probably the best man on visiting squad, playing a fast and heady game at forward, and causing the Sagebrush men considerable work in holding him down. Toso at center showed up well also.

All of the Varsity men played well, and did some effective basket shooting, Waite holding the high score in points, with Reed a close second. Buckman played well, especially considering the fact that only that day he was unable to hobble around the campus owing to an infected foot. Bill Martin played a brilliant game at standing guard, and time after time broke up long passes and dribbles which for a moment looked dangerous to Nevada. On the whole the game was one of the best seen this year, and was fast, hard fought, and thrilling from start to finish. Referee Glenn of Oakland, the man who officiated last year's game with the Los Angeles Blues, made his decisions without hesitancy or favor, and gave the spectators an example of what real refereeing is, watching the fouls closely and catching practically all of them. The final score announced at the close of the game was Nevada 29, Santa Clara 11. The lineup:

Waite	F.	Fowler

CO. AGENTS HOLD SPRING CONFERENCE

The County Farm Agents opened a conference last Tuesday morning that will last throughout the week at the Dairy building on the Hill. The morning of the first day was given up to reports of the different agents, while in the afternoon President Clark and Prof. Wilcox of the economics department gave addresses. President Clark dealt with certain principles of foreign and domestic trade while Prof. Wilcox spoke on finance, dealing mainly with the Farm Loan Act and various economic problems.

Wednesday the conference consisted mainly of talks on Experiment stations by Prof. S. B. Doten; Poisonous Plants by C. E. Fleming; Soils by Dr. Robert Stewart; Irrigation and Drainage by F. L. Bixby; Veterinary Control by Dr. Richards. Thursday, Chairman Creel was scheduled to talk on Community Work; Prof. F. W. Wilson on Livestock; Prof. V. E. Scott on Dairying, and Prof. Derr on Vocational Agriculture. Friday and Saturday will be devoted largely to a general conference among the agents who attended: Al Reed from Churchill county; Merrill from Washoe; Chism from White Pine; Brennan from Elko; Wilson from Humboldt and Dobbs from Lincoln.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN STUDIES TOLD

(By Henry Louis Smith, President of Washington and Lee University.)

Peaceful seclusion and scholastic quiet are no longer characteristic of our institutions of learning. American colleges and boarding schools of today have become such a whirlwind center of "outside activities"—social, athletic, musical, religious, journalistic, dramatic—that the casual observer, looking on from the outside, cannot see "where the studying comes," and many young men who left home to obtain a college education are led by campus pressure to substitute for it a varied assortment of courses in college life.

To serious minded students beset by such conflicting claims and earnestly desiring to utilize for their all-round development both college life and college studies, the following suggestions are offered. They are born of long and sympathetic experience, and are presented with full confidence that in them will be found a solution of the problem, unless the requisite wisdom and will-power to follow them are lacking.

FIRST.—Systematize your daily program of work and play.

Time is your most valuable possession. By utilizing for intensive study the odd half and quarter hours now wasted, you can probably save an hour each day for outside activities or recreation. Have a daily program and the backbone to stick to it. Never drift through a day. Drive your ship of life under its own steam along a self-chosen course toward a definite goal regardless of wind or tide.

Cultivate promptness and quick decision even in the smallest matters. Despise dawdling over anything, and shun the habit of postponement as you would a loathsome disease. Take a savage pleasure in doing promptly the things you hate but know you ought to do.

In short, organize, systematize, and speed up your daily routine and you will double your legitimate leisure, without in the least diminishing your daily output of regular work.

SECOND.—Limit your outside activities, and be wise enough and strong enough to cut out purposeless loafing and useless recreations.

Such indoor sedentary recreations as chess, cards, pool, picture shows, drug-store and hotel loafing, novel reading and theatre-going may be suitable for other people but for students in college or boarding school are a foolish waste of precious time. Invest most of your leisure time in manly, competitive strenuous sports and games, preferably in the open air, and gain on the one investment half a dozen dividends. Such recreations test the mind, invigorate the body, strengthen the will, quicken the judgment, make the bodily senses alert, and train the participant in habits of fairness, loyalty, and co-operation.

Do not make the common and harmful mistake of joining too many organizations. Investigate the merits of each. Some minister to childish vanity but are devoid of real campus value; some are merely time wasters, some are positively harmful, while many are of great benefit if wisely utilized.

In general, choose both your recreations and organizations with reference to their real and permanent value in your own all-round development and future welfare, rather than their present pleasantness or temporary value.

THIRD.—Learn to study always with white-hot concentration.

This will not only rapidly develop mental power now undreamed of, but will enable you to do your work in half the time, thus solving the problem of securing success in study and ample time for outside activities.

Try these three suggestions:

(a) Make your surroundings favorable to intense undivided concentration during your chosen times for study. If you cannot do this, have wisdom and backbone enough to seek a new and more favorable location.

(b) Invent and adopt methods of stimulating your concentration. Study in competition with others. With your watch open before you, study against time. In studying, read a paragraph with intense attention, then spend the same number of minutes, with your eyes shut, recalling every word of it. Try a mercilessly applied system of personal rewards and punishments, forcing yourself to earn such rewards as playtime, recreations, picture shows, trips, and social pleasures, and penalizing yourself for neglected duties, failures and wasted time.

(c) And finally, learn to concentrate your attention on a subject as a matter of will-power, regardless of its intrinsic interest or attractiveness. Until you can do this, you have still the untrained mind of a child whatever your age, appearance or college degrees. This ability to control the attention is at once the chief end of all college training and its most accurate measure. It is the infallible sign of mental maturity, the stepping stone to intellectual power, the surest guarantee of future success.

To master a distasteful study by sheer power of will is the most valuable exercise in your whole college curriculum.

RIFLE TEAM IN MEET SHOTS WELL

The scores which Nevada's team made in the R. O. T. C. rifle shoot have been compiled by Colonel Ryan and sent to San Francisco which is the 9th Corps Area Headquarters. The winning team will be announced some time next week.

The following schools entered a team of ten men each in the shoot: Stanford, Washington, Oregon Aggies, California Tech, Montana, Utah Aggies, Pomona, Washington State, California, Oregon, and Nevada. Nevada was represented by: Pike, captain; Adams, Barber, Finlayson, Fothergill, Gorman, Green, Herbert, Molina, and Sawle.

Of the ten Nevada men, Finlayson made the highest total score which was 170 out of a possible 200. Scores were counted from four firing positions, namely: Standing, kneeling, sitting and prone. Following are the highest scores made from the various positions, 50 being the highest score possible. Standing: Pike was first with a record of 44; kneeling, Fothergill and Green tied with scores of 43; sitting, Finlayson took first place with 44 hits; prone, Finlayson again took the lead with a 44 score. Considering the fact that most of the men on the team have had little or no practice on the rifle range before this shoot, the scores are very credible indeed and when the final results are out Nevada should be well toward the head of the list.

STUDENT HEAD AT REDLANDS ELECTED

By Southwest Intercollegiate Press Redlands, Cal., Feb. 17.—Harold Scott is the new president of the student body at the University of Redlands. Scott is well known in collegiate circles throughout Southern California having served on A. A. U. committees and as athletic manager at Redlands last year. Scott was the man responsible for the trip of the Redlands relay team to the Penn relays last year.

Yesterday's election which seated Scott was one of the most contested in U. of R. history. Dick Lackey of basketball fame was the opposing candidate and polled 25 votes less than Scott.

CHAPEL HOUR NOW DISPENSED WITH

Southwestern Intercollegiate Press. Redlands, Cal., Feb. 17.—Monday's chapel hour at the University of Redlands has been dispensed with as far as that service is concerned. In its place the hour is given over to religious discussion groups composed wholly of students with undergraduate leaders. Attendance is not compulsory as was chapel but the record to date is remarkable.

Leaders in various forms of student activity are in charge. Athletes, debaters, journalists and student officers are on the list which omits only the so-called "long hairs." The classes are not doctrinal or denominational in character but aim at practical consideration of current ideas and problems of religion.

STUDENT GETS APPOINTMENT

Miss Madeline Dallas, '22, was appointed last week as enrolling clerk of the state senate in session at Carson City. Miss Dallas has been attending the University for the past two years, leaving college at the close of the second semester in December.

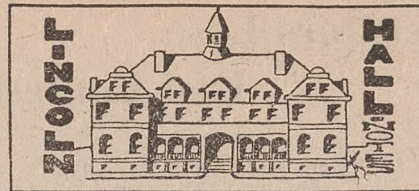

The meeting this week will be a continuation of the discussion that was started last week on "What We Do With Our Day." This discussion is an experiment to determine how the day of the average college woman is passed, and what she does with the leisure time between classes. Some of the women do their studying at this time, others merely waste time. The Y. W. C. A. is trying to devise some method whereby leisure time may be put to the most profitable use.

A class has been started for Bible study on Thursday morning at 7:45. This class is under the leadership of Helena Shade, who conducted the same sort of class two years ago and who made it very successful and interesting. All of the women of the organization are urged to come. The class will be held during the six weeks of Lent and we hope that the women will make an effort to attend it. It is only once a week and may help some of us a great deal.

Remember also that the dues for this semester should be in. The money from the dues goes into the general fund for all expenses of the organization. It is very necessary to pay in your dues when the committee in charge asks you, but don't wait until you are asked. Bring your 50 cents to any one of the cabinet girls as soon as possible.

CALIF. DEFEATS OREGON AGGIES

California defeated the Oregon Aggies Tuesday night with a score of 24 to 19 by a terrific spurt in the last two minutes of play. O. A. C. held the lead, 19-15 throughout the game until the last two minutes in which California made a sudden rally and threw the winning baskets. Stinson of O. A. The Lincoln Hall party has been postponed, due to its conflict with a Varsity basketball game. But be of good cheer, half of the pleasure of life is expectation and believe me when it comes off it will be some blow-out.

Prof. Turner has promised that the rooms will all be carpeted before that time and all the broken windows that were paid for last semester will have been replaced. Even tho the Prof has the interest of the Hall very much at heart there is considerable doubt as to his faith in replacing the windows.

The talent is in strict training and the entertainment that will be put on that night will be remembered by the dwellers of Manzanita for many years to come. In fact as a red letter day, or night, it will far outshadow that afternoon, when they graduated from high school.

SOUTHERN BRANCH STARTS DEBATES

A girl's inter-class debate has been arranged for by David Barnwell, Commissioner of Forensics. The subjects are: Resolved, "That the United States Should Intervene in Mexico," and 2, Resolved, "That the use of free text books in California should be abolished." The time limit will be four minutes on the affirmative or negative of either question. The teams for the girls' Soph and Frosh debate will be chosen from the candidates who try out at this time.

SENIORS OBSERVE BIG 'DITCH DAY'

REDLANDS, Cal., Feb. 17.—The senior class at the University of Redlands celebrated Tuesday at their annual "ditch" day and trip to "Senior Hall." The observance of this day forms one of the most cherished of Senior traditions and is shrouded in mystery, not even the Seniors knowing of it beforehand. The Hall is found by a map left by the preceding class. On the day following, this year's graduates appeared in their caps and gowns for the first time.

CAMPAIGN STARTED FOR "DORM" FUND

By Southwest Intercollegiate Press
Whittier College, Calif., Feb. 17.—A campaign for $200,000 has just been launched by the board of trustees of Whittier College. Need of a new men's dormitory is rapidly becoming greater and it is expected that several "cottages" will be ready to house the men when the institution opens its doors next September. About one-fourth of the funds will be used in the construction of dormitories while the remainder will be added to the endowment fund. Esek Perry, athletic director, is in charge of the campaign.

Southwestern Intercollegiate Press.
Whittier College, Calif., Feb. 17.—The annual Y. W.-Y. M. C. A. party was held in the reception hall of the Girl's Cottage Friday night, Feb. 11. Nearly one hundred students were present and enjoyed one of the happiest formal affairs of the year. One of the features of the party was a stunt which was in the nature of a "take-off" on the faculty. Miss Kathryn Veale was in charge of the occasion.

WHITTIER VARSITY RECEIVES HONOR

By Southwest Intercollegiate Press
Whittier College, Calif., Feb. 17.—After numerous delays, fittings and re-fittings, the sweaters for the football team of Whittier College have arrived. The college this year adopted a new plan in showing appreciation to the football heroes. It is that of presenting to each man who wins his much-coveted letter indicating that he has played in six or more quarters in a conference game, a sweater, purple, with a yellow seven-inch block "W", purple and gold being the college colors. On the left arm of each sweater is one or more gold bands, each indicating the number of seasons he has earned his letter. When a football man has won his letter four years he is to be given a football blanket. Seventeen men received the sweaters this year. Brownson, half-back, is the only man to wear three arm bands. The Quakers will not lose a "regular" through the graduation process.

'TECH' ENGINEERS HEAR PRES.DENT

Southwestern Intercollegiate Press.
California Tech, Pasadena, Feb. 17. Mr. E. W. Carmen, national president of the American Institute of Mechanical Engineers, addressed the student body at a special assembly recently. He spoke on the value of association with others, especially in relation to the engineer after he leaves college, and urged everyone to become affiliated with some national organization along the line of work they are taking up.

Mr. Carmen is a mechanical engineer of national repute, and is the inventor of considerable new apparatus which, it is said, will revolutionize the casting industry.

HOMEMAKERS START BRIEF COURSE WORK

Classes began last Monday in the annual home-makers short course, conducted by the University for the women of this State, and lasting for a period of four weeks. Women are enrolled in the short course, and are busily engaged in carrying on the courses in millinery, dressmaking and foods. All classes are being held in the rooms of the School of Home Economics at the Agricultural building.

The short course is being given under the direction of Miss Sarah L. Lewis, head of the Home Economics department, Miss Jessie P. Pope, assistant professor of home economics and Miss Sylvia Campiglia, state supervisor of home economics for Nevada, and is considered by many to be one of the finest of its kind offered in the country. Instruction included lectures and laboratory work, in addition to a certain amount of outside work given in connection with the course, and embraces the following subjects: "Foods," "Millinery" and "Dressmaking." Each of these is made up of twelve lessons, which are designed especially to meet the needs of the homemakers and give them practical suggestions for every day use.

The schedule follows:
Food—Monday and Wednesday mornings and Friday afternoons.
Millinery and Children's Clothing—Monday, Friday and Saturday mornings.
Dressmaking—Monday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings.

The score was also a 12 to 12 tie at the end of the first half. Just before the final whistle the Gardnerville boys were credited with a free throw which made the score stand 23 to 22 in their favor.

REDLANDS TRACK MEET ON APRIL 9

By Southwest Intercollegiate Press
Redlands, Cal., Feb. 17.—The A. A. U. track and field meet will be held at the University of Redlands on April 9th. This is the first time that the A. A. U. meet has been held at Redlands. Athletic Manager Troyer is deserving of especial commendation for securing this year's meet.

All the colleges and universities of Southern California are expected to enter teams and many of the leading secondary schools will also be represented.

The track at Redlands has always been considered one of the fastest on the coast. This year it is anticipated that it will be in even better shape than ever before. The oval has been graded anew and the straightaway has been widened to accommodate additional lanes for the hurdle events.

New bleachers to accommodate 1500 spectators are to be erected.

from almost unheard of positions and angles. Fairchild is a guard much on the same order as Martin, holding down the standing berth, and is an old hand at the game, having played thru three or four years of high school basketball with "Wild Bill" as his running mate. He was continually breaking up passes and dribbles and proved to be a hard man to get past with the ball. He would do well in a Varsity uniform anywhere. The second half was an even break for both sides as to the total points, each team scoring 10, with four field goals and two free throws apiece. The final score read, Nevada 25, Legion 13. THE WOMEN'S GAME

Immediately following the Varsity game Saturday night, the women's Varsity took the gym by storm and swarmed out on the floor to tangle with the squad from the Zellerbach Paper Company, winners of the San Francisco Industrial League championship. This game started out with a bang, when Adele Clinton tipped the ball off to Rose Mitchell, at side center, who tossed it to Capt. Organ, thence to Erma Hoskins who dropped it thru the hoop for the first taly, all in the first three seconds of play. From then on it was the same old story, until at last, the spectators grew weary of yelling after each basket was made, and merely made signs to indicate their pleasure. These signs occurred on an average of once in every forty-one (41) seconds, the time taken to get the ball from the tipoff to the forward under the basket. Twenty-two field goals were made during the first periods of fifteen minutes, eleven each by the two forwards Erma Hoskins, and Hallie Organ, which computed by simple arithmetic gives the average result obtained above. In reality, the game was all played at one end, very seldom during the whole contest did the ball ever get past the center line and into Zellerbach territory, with the result that while the Nevada basket was smoking from the friction of the ball going thru it, the opposing forwards and Nevada guards were having a hard time trying to keep warm during their enforced period of waiting for the ball to come within reach. Only twice during the game did the visitors effect a change on the scoreboard, once being when Florence Smith, Zellerbach forward, obtained possession of the sphere and flipped it thru the ring for a two point advance, and the other opportunity coming with a basket made from a free throw after foul. The score at the end of the first half stood, Nevada 44, Zellerbach 0.

In the second half two changes were made in the Varsity lineup, Helen Cordes going in at forward for Erma Hoskins and Margaret Barnes taking Genevieve Morgan's place at guard. Both of these new players did equally as well at their positions as did the regulars, Helen Cordes especially having an opportunity to show the effects of her playing on the scoreboard, making eight baskets. Final score was: Nevada 68, Zellerbach 3.

INEZ RUSSELL DIES IN LOCAL HOSPITAL

Miss Inez A. Russell, student and assistant instructor at the University, died last Friday night at a local hospital following only a week's illness. Her mother and sister were present at the bedside when the end came.

Miss Russell came to the University as a transfer, with Junior standing, from the University of California and had only been here a few weeks when she was taken ill. In addition to her regular work, she was an assistant in the mathematics department, instructing a class in plane geometry. In addition to her mother, Mrs. Annie N. Russell of Santa Rosa, she is survived by four sisters and two brothers. She was a native of California and her body was taken to Santa Rosa for burial. During her short stay at U. of N. Miss Russell made many friends who deeply regret her death, and the student body of the University extends to her family their most heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement.

GOODING TREASURER BLOCK "N" SOCIETY

A meeting of the Block "N" Society was held Wednesday afternoon in the Aggie building of this week. It was decided to have a group of pictures of the society taken for the Artemisia on Friday afternoon at 4:00 p. m. This picture will be taken in ordinary clothes and in front of the Aggie building. A baseball committee of which Homer Johnson is chairman was appointed by President Waite to look into the subject of baseball at the University. Everett Gooding is also on this committee.

It was decided to hold an interclass basketball tournament on Wednesday, Feb. 23 in the gymnasium. The first games will be between the Juniors and Seniors and the Freshmen and Sophomores.

It was further decided to award the Block "N" certificates for this season's football at the next regular meeting of the A. S. U. N. to be held after this Friday's meeting.

President Waite appointed a committee consisting of Martin, Ed Reed and Bradshaw to select the sweaters to be awarded to the football team. A report of the treasurer was heard, and Everett Gooding elected treasurer for the present semester to take the place of Jack Heward who has left the University.

"THANKS"

The Student Body of the University of Nevada takes this opportunity to thank most heartily the following stores and firms who so kindly donated the "smokes" for the annual men's "He Jinks" held last week. Their cooperation was largely responsible for the big success of the affair and is deeply appreciated.
