Track Team Leaves For Davis Friday

High Schools To Meet Here

DEBATING, DECLAMATION AND TRACK MEET FEATURES OF ANNUAL CONCLAVE OF HIGH SCHOOLS TO BE HELD HERE.

The next tournament among the high schools of the state to be held at the University will be in the form of a series of debates, and the declamation contests. It was formerly the policy of the University to hold a track meet in conjunction with the verbal contests, but this year the idea of a track meet sponsored by the Block "N" Society was dropped. When the high schools heard that the track meet was dropped several of them organized the Nevada Athletic League, and are going to handle the track meet themselves. They planned to have the track contest the same time as the oratorical contests, and the big combined meet will be held on May 6 and 7.

Plans have been under way for the past two or three weeks for the debating and declamation contests. It is planned at present to have the preliminaries for the debate on Friday, with the final debate in the evening between the best two teams selected by the judges. The boys' declamation contest will come Saturday morning, with the girls' contest coming in the evening.

Although final entries have not been made in these three contests as yet, there will be a large number of contestants to make the meet more interesting. Winnemucca, Carson, Gardnerville, Reno, Sparks, Lovelock and Fallon will probably have teams entered in both the debates and the two declamation contests. There is also a possibility of teams coming from other schools. There has been much competition in the various high schools as to who will represent them at the University. The contestants for the debating teams have been working hard since the question for the debates was sent out. The individual schools are holding debates to select their teams this week. The judges for the debates will be selected by a committee from Clonia, which is working with the high schools relations committee of the faculty. No official of the various committees in charge of the tournament is permitted to aid any contestant in preparing for these debates.

A.S.U.N. Elects New Officers

STUDENTS CAST RECORD VOTE FOR NEXT YEAR'S OFFICERS OF STUDENT BODY—ED REED IS ELECTED NEW PRESIDENT.

In one of the most hotly contested campaigns ever staged at the University of Nevada, new officers for next year's student body positions were chosen at the big spring election held last Friday. The biggest vote in the history of the University was polled, 363 casting their ballots out of 423 eligible to participate. Four offices were uncontested, those of A. S. U. N. treasurer, Assistant Editor of the Sagebrush, Assistant Manager of the Sagebrush, and Business Manager of the Artemisia. Two candidates sought each of the other positions, with the exception of the presidency, in which three men were nominees.

One of the features of the campaign, which came after the week's "politicizing," was the appearance on the morning of the election, of dozens of large posters pasted on all parts of the campus, listing the candidates, and the various offices they had held in student body affairs, with gentle hints "Keep Leaders Leading" and "Vote for the Doers."

By far the closest race of them all was that for the presidency of the A. S. U. N. Until the final ballot was counted, the office was anyone's, first one candidate leading then another, and between the hours of 3:30 and 6:30, during which the votes were being counted, the lead was constantly changing until the final tally which showed Ed Reed elected by a majority of five votes over Bill Martin and 19 votes over Dewey Conrad. Bill Martin receiving the second highest number of votes automatically becomes vice-president. Both of these men have been very active in campus affairs, both playing varsity football and basketball every year since entering college, and both being prominent in student body affairs, and should make excellent officers for the association.

Evelyn Walker won the secretaryship over Ethel Steinheimer by a margin of 19 votes, the second closest contest of the day. Miss Walker has taken an active part in university life and is well fitted for the position to which she was elected. Melvin Sanders had no opposition for the office of treasurer, receiving 329 votes. Sanders is an old hand at handling student body money, for he served the first semester of last year in that capacity until his withdrawal from college necessitated his handing in his resignation.

In the contest for Women's Athletic Manager, Erma Hoskins came out victorious, gaining a majority of 71 votes over Rose Mitchell. The new manager has taken an active part in athletics and other college activities and has been a member of the women's basketball varsity for the past two years, and should make the best of managers for her position. Men's Athletic Manager for next year will be John Harrison, who was elected over Ernest Harker by a majority of

Big Play Set For Next Week

PRESENTATION OF 1921 PLAY BY SENIOR CLASS WILL BE GIVEN AT RIALTO THEATRE THURSDAY—SEATS ON SALE.

The class of 1921 is noted for putting things over in style. The Senior play will be no exception to this rule. From the rehearsals, the fun promises to be fast and furious and the audience is assured of a grand time from the rise of the curtain on the first act to the going down of the same at the close of the last. All of the cast have proven themselves actors and actresses of ability. Enola Badger and Earl Wooster, who are taking leading parts have both distinguished themselves in previous plays and they are working hard to make this one a success.

John Douglas in the role of a fat man, does his part perfectly and this is saying a great deal, considering that Doug has never taken a fat part before.

Gladys Dunkle as Mrs. Harrington, declares that she can imagine nothing more useless than a dead husband, which proves conclusively that Gladie is not married.

Lulu Hawkins, as Nora, fell so hard for Monty (John Gottardi) that it was with great difficulty he kept his balance.

Helen Fuss, the bright light of D. A. E., shines equally as brightly here. It takes an exceptional woman to be able to keep silent, but Helen does it with outward ease, showing no sign of the struggle that she is having.

Tom Hobbins has a double part, as the butler and as the doorkeeper. If you want to see one man be in two places, just come and see Tom. He can do it.

SWEATERS ARRIVE FOR VARSITY MEN

The long delayed and much heralded football sweaters have arrived at last and are now appearing on the campus in the proud possession of the Varsity football men. It was fully expected that the sweaters would be here to be presented to the players on Mackay Day with appropriate ceremonies, but due to a mistake at the manufacturers, they were made of the wrong yarn and had to be made up anew, and were accordingly delayed over a month.

The following men who were awarded the Block N for participation in football last fall will receive the sweaters:

Captain Eddie Reed, Captain-elect Bill Martin, Jimmie Bradshaw, "Windy" Johnson, "Tiny" Fairchild, "Ted" Fairchild, Bill Church, "Vince" Dunne, Herb Foster, Tom Grant, "Pete" Hammert, Tom Middleton, "Fish" Fisher, Kenneth Rees, Mark Colwell, Jack Heward, Tom Buckman, and Noble Waite.

All men who have not yet received their sweaters may get them by calling at the office of Coach Courtright.

Varsity Track Men Will Meet Farmers

SAGEBRUSH VARSITY TRACK TEAM SLATED TO LEAVE FRIDAY NIGHT FOR DAVIS TO TACKLE CALIFORNIA AGGIE SQUAD—ELEVEN CINDER BURNERS WITH COACH COURTRIGHT WILL MAKE THE TRIP—MEET TO BE HELD SATURDAY.

The University of Nevada Varsity track squad will leave for Davis Farm on Friday night to meet the California Aggie cinder path men on April 30 in the only intercollegiate track and field meet of the season for Nevada. Coach Courtright is taking eleven men to win the contest from the Davis farmers. Those who will compete against Davis Farm next Saturday afternoon are:

"Buzz" Havens, "Duke" Cotter, "Jek" Frost, "Swede" Larson, Goodwin, Ned Martin, Carlson, Lohse, Al Lowry, Fraser, and Jack Pike.

Nevada tracksters are going down to Davis prepared to take the California Aggie scalp. The team this year has been exceptionally well organized by Coach Courtright through a lot of gruelling work on the oval track. Despite the fact that the Mackay Field track is in poor condition, devoid of a sufficient thickness of the under blanket, and very soft in the straightaway, some good times have been made, which have already caused Coach McClish of Davis Farm to redouble his efforts toward getting his men into prime condition.

The Aggie dope pan was filled two weeks ago concerning the outcome of the Davis-Nevada meet. More than an even chance is given the Davis teams against Nevada down there. The Farm sheet was made up just after the inter-fraternity Lincoln Hall meet held on Mackay Field on April second. At that time the Sagebrush runners and field men were merely in the primary stage of conditioning process. Their calculations are all based on that one unimportant meet the first of this month. Since then the Nevada men have gone through over three weeks of muscle torture, training in nasty weather which adds incentive to the little noticed efforts of runners and jumpers.

The following is Nevada's figures on each single event:

Mile

Pike and Fraser will run against Banker, Scovel, and Schultz of Davis. This event is conceded to the Nevada men as both Pike and Fraser will skip the distance considerably under five minutes. It will be a good race every stride.

100-Yard Dash

No predictions on this sprint, as anything may happen to any of the runners during so short a distance. The Davis sprinters are, Sims, captain Sentuous, Stephenson, Meckfessel, and Rhigetti. "Swede" Larson and Frost will try to bust the tape ahead of their five opponents. Here's luck, speed burners!

Half Mile

Nevada will win this event with Lohse. He will match strides with Feltham, Banker and Waltz of Davis. Lohse can do the half-mile under 2:05 in the Sacramento Valley air with ease. Five points for Nevada!

Quarter Mile

Davis figures Stephenson, Kye and Abbott to win here, without effort. Lohse and Frost, Nevada, will negotiate the quarter right around 52 seconds next Saturday. One of these men should win here, so, go get 'em!

Davis will use her same five sprinters who are entered in the 100-yard dash. "Swede" Larson and "Buzz" Havens will make any one of the five hump fast to win. Both Nevadans will tick off the furlong around 23 seconds flat. This will be a sharp, close race for blood!

Hurdles

Vazielle and Woodford are topping the timber for Davis. Cotter is a dangerous man in the 120-yard high sticks and "Buzz" Havens can step a bit

COFFIN AND KEYS RUNNING TOMORROW

The University campus will be the scene of the annual Coffin and Keys running tomorrow morning when the newly elected members of the upper class honor society will appear for the first time in public. No information has been given out regarding the nature of their stunts, but from past experience all students know they will be worth going a long way to see. Festivities may commence at any time, and take place almost anywhere, members of the organization admit furitively. They will give out no information other than the fact that tomorrow is the big time. As is the custom, the initiation will also take place tomorrow, to be followed by the annual banquet and get-together in the evening.

The newly elected members comprise a number of the best known and most active men on the Hill in college affairs, and have been prominent in many different phases of Nevada university life. They are as follows: John Harrison, Herbert Foster, James Bradshaw, Noble Waite, Jack Ross, Stanley Davis, Leslie Bruce, and Laurence Quill.

RACQUET STARS WIN EXHIBITION MATCH

Those who braved the cold wind last Sunday morning in order to go to the Municipal tennis courts and see the mixed doubles matches, were well repayed for their interest in the sport. Miss Ramelli and Mr. Bradshaw furnished the spectators with one of the best exhibitions of clever tennis ever seen in Reno.

They defeated Mrs. Choisy and Mr. Zeisler in straight sets, 6-4 and 6-3. The latter showed the lack of practice as they were not playing in their usual form. Miss Ramelli's volleying and accurate returns combined with "Jimmie's smashes from the center of the court were the outstanding features of their play. Miss Ramelli was champion of the Freshman class at the University of California last year and is acknowledged to be the best player among the women on the Hill. Bradshaw has won medals in middle west tournaments and is showing better form this year than he ever did before. Mrs. Choisy and Mr. Zeisler were both champions in their respective classes in the tournament held here last summer, and will be far more dangerous opponents after a little more practice.

Considerable interest has been manifested by the University students in the tournament now in progress on the city courts, due to the fact that a large number of university students are entered. Among the University entries, Jimmie Bradshaw and Catherine Ramelli are probably the best known, having had considerable experience playing in tournaments, and consequently show no small amount of skill with the racquet. The preliminary round of the tournament has been going on all this week and it is expected that this will soon be completed and that the semi-finals and finals can be played off this Saturday and Sunday on the municipal courts. The completed games played so far are as follows: The figures before the player's name indicate the handicap they are playing under. Where (0,-15) is read, the player plays alternately one game at scratch and one at -15 handicap, and so on:

An exhibition game has been aranged between two University men and two Reno players which should be fast and furious from start to finish and well worth watching. Jimmie Bradshaw and Joe Witmer are matched with Phil Wentworth and Zeisler, all experienced players, the game being set for probably May 15.

GLEE CLUB MAKES HIT AT RECITAL

The recital that was given on Friday last under the auspices of the Glee Club was a success in every particular. The undertaking was engineered by Miss Diehm and she deserves great credit for the splendid showing of both the Glee Club and the Orchestra. The performance was given in the auditorium of the new Education building and a good crowd was in attendance although more tickets were sold than were taken in at the door. The songs by the Glee Club were well rendered and the Orchestra proved its ability to handle difficult music in an able way.

The play by the Dramatic Society was the last feature and the actresses repeated the successful playing which they had shown at the Century Club some weeks ago. Miss Evelyn Walker, who was in the cast at the first presentation, was unable through illness to take part but her place was filled by Miss Dorothy Harrington in a most able manner. Miss Harrington took the part at the last minute with only two rehearsals, but her handling of the part was finished and she proved once more that she is a versatile and charming actress.

The whole affair showed the results of weeks of practice on the part of all of the participants and the recital passed off in a most creditable manner to all concerned.

On Saturday evening the performance of the Glee Club, D. A. E. and the Orchestra was taken to Carson and there repeated the success of the previous night. The High School auditorium was filled with students and townspeople, which testifies to the interest that the City of Carson takes in all of the University doings. The recital of the Glee Club and of the Orchestra were well received and the play put on by D. A. E. members was applauded vigorously. After the recital a dance was given by the High School and the University students enjoyed themselves greatly during the short time they were given in which to dance. At 11 o'clock Miss Diehm led forth her charges to the "Canary Bird," which was waiting at the depot and the start homeward was made.

No little excitement was aroused at the start of the troupe from Reno when it was found that the director of the play was not to come. Telephones were put to use and the wires kept hot, but Professor Hill was nowhere to be found. Then Dede and Sis Brown were conspicuous by their absence, and as they, especially Dede were indispensable to the show, Miss Diehm set a time-limit on them of 4 1/2 minutes. If they did not show up in that time the Canary would start the flight to Carson without them. With anxious hearts and all watches on the job they were awaited. Promptly on the stroke of the half minute a cloud of dust was seen, and with a whirl and a good many interjections, the missing two arrived. Great relief was manifested on the part of the rest of the gang and the Canary set out on the eventful trip to Carson.

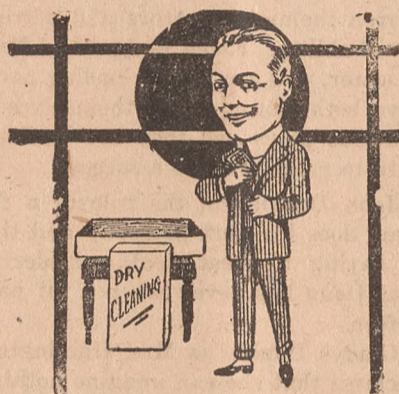

After the show the party adjourned with lots of pep to the Leisure Hour Hall where a dance was in progress. The fun promised to wax fast and furious but Miss Diehm decided that the Canary was lonesome and so marshalling all her forces she set out for the depot. Upon arrival there it was found that there were 23 tickets and only 22 performers. Great consternation ensued but at last it was decided to count Ray Carroll twice and then quiet was restored (for half of a minute). On the way home the driver was entertained in a most delightful manner by all of the crowd who sang and tried to sing. When at last the lights of Sparks were seen the three people who had been asleep were awakened and the famous troop of singers and near-singers, actresses and almost-actresses, alighted and plodded home to their various domiciles.

Special to "Sagebrush"
California Tech, Pasadena, April 28. Dr. John B. Anderson, on the staff of the Mt. Wilson Observatory, recently gave a very interesting talk here on the question of accurate measurement. His topic was "Measurement to the Millionth of an Inch," and he illustrated his remarks with a demonstration of the delicate apparatus by which this is made possible.

Delta Delta Delta takes pleasure in announcing two new patronesses: Mrs. C. T. Shockley and Mrs. C. W. West. The other patronesses of the sorority are Mesdames H. W. Hill, Frank M. Lee, J. H. Clemons and H. E. Reid.

A full round of gaities was enjoyed last week end by the members of Delta Delta Delta Sorority, who entertained in honor of Miss Agnes Husband, the visiting delegate from the National headquarters.

On Friday, Mrs. Maxwell Adams entertained at a luncheon for Miss Husband, and had as her guests Dean and Mrs. Hall, and Lindal Adams.

Mrs. James Nyswander was hostess at a dinner party Friday evening. Her guests were Miss Husband, the Mesdames J. R. Scrugham, Leroy Thatcher, and the Misses Arvella Coffin, Gertrude Harris and Rose Mitchell.

A luncheon was given Saturday by Mrs. Frank Simpson. Those who gathered about her table were: Miss Husband, Mrs. Edna Salter, Grace Harris, Gertrude Harris, Marianne Gignoux, and Editha Brown.

A reception was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. N. Evans. The faculty and women students were invited to meet Miss Husband at this affair.

Miss Husband was the guest of the Misses Dorothy Ross, Enola Badger, Jule Callahan and Claire Hofer, at dinner at the Riverside Hotel, on Saturday evening.

As a farewell party to the delegate, Mila Coffin entertained all the active and alliance members and the pledges of Delta Delta Delta at her home Saturday evening.

ATHLETIC REVIEW OF YEAR PRINTED

The High School Relations Committee has just mailed their Athletic Review bulletin to the various high school of their state. This bulletin is in accord with their policy of from time to time sending out news bulletins to the different high schools and newspapers of the state, giving academic news that might be of interest to the high school students. This service is beneficial to the University and it is news of this sort, continually being brought before the eyes of the high school students that each fall is helping to bring more and more Nevada high school graduates to the University. The latest bulletin of the committee, of which Prof. H. W. Hill is chairman, and Professor Frandson, Jones, and Spencer are members, gives a short resume of Nevada's athletic seasons for the university year that is just closing, and is given in part below:

FOOTBALL 1920

Altho the University did not have as many wins as in 1919, the season was very successful. The schedule was more ambitious than Nevada has attempted in some years. Victories over the University of Utah and Utah Aggies offset the losses. These schools rate high among the Rocky Mountain Colleges.

The trip to the Hawaiian Islands was in every way a success and did much to spread the fame of Nevada across the ocean and indeed all over the United States. The games were marked by the highest type of sportsmanship and at one time the Nevada Captain allowed the University of Hawaii Captain and quarter-back to re-enter the game when the rules of the game would have kept him out. The players and coach were extended every courtesy and they have nothing but praise for their treatment while in the Islands. An educational feature was the trip to the famous volcano Kilauea, which is one of the few active volcanoes in the world.

BASKETBALL 1921

The basketball season opened badly. The first game was lost to St. Mary's by a small score but proved due to the lack of practice, as the rest of the season showed. The other games in the league were won by a comfortable margin or forfeited to Nevada, and the final standing showed Nevada and Stanford tied with five wins and one loss each. Nevada still holds the championship due to the fact that she won it last year.

On account of the showing of the team against the Los Angeles Athletic Club the merchants and business people of Reno raised enough money to send the team to Kansas City to the National A. U. U. Basketball Tournament. The first two games were won by close scores and in a hard fought game the Kansas City Athletic Club succeeded in eliminating Nevada in the third round. This team won the championship. The critics pronounced Nevada one of the few best teams at the tournament.

SPRING ATHLETICS

At present the men are busy with track and intramural baseball. Some of the new men give great promise of becoming star track men but the spring has been so cold and windy that no good performances have been made. If the weather and time would permit, Nevada could put a good college baseball team in the field that would compare favorably with any on the coast.

TRYOUTS HELD FOR UTAH AGGIE TRACK

Southwestern Intercollegiate Press. U. A. C., Logan, Utah, April 28.—After several postponements the tryouts for the dual track meet with the B. Y. P. U. of Provo were held last Tuesday, April 18. The work done by Worley, Ballif, and Croft was the outstanding feature. Worley shattered the state record established last year when he hurled the javelin 151 feet, six inches. Ballif ran the century in 10 2-5 seconds while Croft covered the high hurdle course in 17.3 seconds. Both of the latter were running better time than at the last spring State meet.

The direct meet with the B. Y. U. will take place at Provo Saturday afternoon, April 30.

U. A. C. ANNOUNCES SUMMER TERM PLANS

Southwestern Intercollegiate Press. U. A. C., Logan, Utah, April 28.—Dr. J. H. Linford, director of Summer School, announces that the summer quarter opens June 6, the first term ends July 15, the second term begins July 18 and ends August 26. Courses are so arranged that students may enter at the beginning of either term. Almost every department will offer courses during the summer. An especially complete line of courses is offered in education, home economics, and automobile work.

Barron county is represented by 51 students, including 16 women and 35 men, at the University of Wisconsin this year.

THE SENIOR BALL

If rumors now being circulated among the students are correct, the University of Nevada is to lose another of its most cherished and time-honored traditions, which for many years past, has been an important event in the college life of every graduating student, namely the Senior Ball. It has been stated with authority by prominent members of the Alumni Association that the affair was not to be given this year and would in all probability be dropped for good. This announcement was received by the students in general with no great display of pleasure, and by the members of the graduating class in particular, with considerably less.

As originally carried out, the Senior Ball was one of the four big affairs of the college year, and the last large formal dance before the close of the semester. It was an event especially looked forward to by the outgoing Seniors, about to leave their Alma Mater and sever the ties of companionship with their classmates. In addition to the usual good time, some little touch of sentiment was connected with it by those about to leave the University. It was an event, which though happily anticipated, often brought a lump to the throat of many a Senior. To do away with such an event, seems to them, much the same as graduating without commencement exercises or without diplomas. When the alumni of the University voluntarily took upon themselves the task of fostering and putting on the ball each year, instead of the Senior class giving it, as was customary, it was naturally expected that they would go through with it, and give the dance each year as originally planned. This however, they seem reluctant to do, for some unknown reason. It is indeed a sincere regret to all the students and a bitter disappointment to the members of the graduating class.

THE DAVIS MEET

Nevada's track men will leave Friday night on No. 5 for California where they will meet the California Aggies at Davis in the first and only inter-collegiate meet of the year for the wearers of the Silver and Blue. Davis sport writers have figured the Farm team as an easy victor in the meet and the Nevada team is fully expecting to upset all their predictions.

The Nevada men have had an intensive training the last few weeks and are in the best of form. This places the chances for Nevada's victory squarely up to the student body. The team can trim the Davis Farmers, and they will trim them providing they have the whole hearted support of the A. S. U. N. But—should the team leave Friday night on No. 5 with no rousing N-E-V's and as they look out of the car windows and see only four or five of the "faithful few" and not the entire student body, it is possible that the Davis predictions may prove true. The track team has had but little support—it needs a big lot Friday night.

A. S. U. N.—it's up to you.

EXEMPTIONS AGAIN

University of Texas is not the only institution at which the question of exemption of seniors from spring term examinations has come up for discussion. The proposition was recently placed before the faculty of the University of Kansas and evoked response of various sorts from the members of that body. It has not been definitely decided upon as yet at Kansas, and the outcome will be awaited with considerable interest.

Members of the senior class of the University and members of the faculty will do well to give this matter serious consideration with reference to its merits and demerits, as members of the senior class propose to bring it seriously and sanely before the general faculty in the near future.—"Daily Texan."

THOSE GREEN NUMERALS

Class spirit, loyalty, and enthusiasm are qualities much to be desired. They can, however, be shown in much better ways than the painting of numerals on public property. Such action savors much of high school days and of high school minds, and should, in the future, be eliminated; if necessary by the elimination of those who persist in the offense.

The basic principle is the same whether the numerals were painted by freshmen, sophomores, or as seems to be the case, investigating, and is prepared to take severe more or less permanently disfigured and no benefits are derived. The student council, feeling the seriousness of the case, is investigating, and is prepared to take severe measures to prevent any further painting.—O. A. C. Barometer.

FROWN ON LOAFERS

A student may think, that inasmuch as he is spending his own money, he has the right to waste his time while in college, if he sees fit. But he has not that right because every man who decreases scholarly attainment at Delaware by so much lessens the value of the diploma of every other graduate.

Are you harming in this manner the college which you profess to revere? If not, are you going to allow a classmate to lessen the value of your diploma? Assuredly not.

Then, frown upon the college loafer, encourage the faculty to be less tolerant of them; by so doing, you will help re-establish the spirit of work for which Delaware wants to be noted. At the same time, your own diploma will become of greater value.—Deleware College Re-view.

INITIATION HELD BY PHI KAPPA PHI

The University of Nevada Chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary scholarship society, held its annual initiation ceremonies last Saturday evening in the Agricultural building, with a large number of members present. Following the initiation, several splendid talks were made by different faculty members which were greatly enjoyed by those present. The new members initiated were, Prof. C. W. Spencer, Prof. C. W. Lantz, Margaret Barnes, Gladys Dunkle, Lulu Hawkins, Leila Sloan, Virginia Higgins, Charles Chatfield, Harry Capper, John Gottardi and Ernest Metscher. Lois Smythe was unable to be present, due to illness and will be initiated later.

The annual Phi Kappa Phi banquet will be held during Commencement week.

At the business meeting held immediately following the initiation, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected:

President—Prof. A. E. Turner.
Vice-President—Miss Margaret Mack.

Secretary—Miss Helena Shade.
Treasurer—Prof. James Nyswander.
Marshall—Prof. S. G. Palmer.

NEVADA DEFEATED BY PACIFIC TEAM

Last Friday evening Nevada lost the second intercollegiate debate of the year to the College of Pacific debaters at San Jose. The Nevada-College of Pacific Debate is always one of the big debates in the opinion of the followers of the art in both these institutions, and much keen competition results as a result of this. Maurice Sumner and Leonard McKaig were the men who upheld the Tiger's honor in this, debate, while Carroll Wilson and John Harrison were the Sagebrush word-slingers.

The question dealt with the direct-primary, the Pacific debaters contending that the Constitution of the United States should be amended to provide for the election of Presidential candidates by nation-wide primaries, while Nevada upheld the negative. The debate was interesting from the start, the men became heated up over their arguments at the beginning of the verbal contest and did their best to win. The decision of the judges at the end of the debate was three-nothing in favor of the Pacific debaters.

Maurice Sumner of the Pacific team will be remembered by the students of the University as one of the members of the Tiger team which met a close two-one defeat last year in Reno. He is a remarkable speaker and did well in upholding the Pacific side of his debate. Leonard McKaig, the other member of the contending team, is a new man in intercollegiate debating, but he is a strong man when it comes to the part of debating, and did much to swing his end of the discussion last Friday evening.

Wilson of Nevada is also a new man in the intercollegiate debate field, but he is also an able talker. Harrison, the other Nevada man, has had the experience gained from the Brigham Young debate a month ago.

The College of Pacific team was a strong team of fluent talkers but the Nevada men gave their opponents a close run for the money, for they say the debate was no man's debate until the judges gave their decision.

SPRING FESTIVAL IS NEVADA STORY

On Saturday, May 7, Miss Sameth will have the members of her dancing classes and a number of grade children Gymnasium. The manuscript for the festival has been written by one of the girls who is studying the physical education course. It deals with the seasons of the year, the mountains, snowflakes, vegetation and flowers being represented by the various girls, all of whom are dressed in special costumes. Briefly the story of the festival is this:

It is autumn. The Nevada mountains, clothed in dingy browns and tans, and one of purple complain about their barrenness and lack of vegetation to the Designer of All Things. As if to emphasize the dryness and the wind swept knolls, tumble weeds are blown in and dance a merry autumn dance.

Then comes Winter, a hoary old man, accompanied by the dainty snowflakes. Sleep comes over the mountains. The tumble weeds become drowsy, some consent to being covered with the snowflakes mantle, while others retreat, but in vain. Dreams, represented by girls dancing a slow, wavering dance, take their place beside the mountains. The Dreams are followed by tropical birds and flowers dressed in gaudy colors. Some brandish strange leaves and flowers, others have moss hanging from their arms. They begin to dance, with the peacocks strutting about, the parrots following in a characteristic dance, followed in turn by the other birds and flowers. Though the movement is slow at first, the dance becomes a wild whirl. The peaceful mountains, at first, are pleased with their dream, but when the birds and flowers engage in the mad whirl, cover their eyes and ears. In great distress, they implore the Designer to forgive them for their discontent. The Dreams touch the mountains, who sink back to sleep. The flowers and birds leave, dancing a farewell dance as they depart.

Then comes Spring, which is a solo dance followed by the dance of attendant flowers. These flowers, of Nevada, are made harmonious by the green of the sagebrush and the silver gray of the pussy willows.

The tickets for the festival are twenty-five cents. The reason for charging this fee is to defray the cost of the costumes. Tickets will be called in Friday and admission at the door will be fifty cents. Miss Smith states that this nominal charge will be made for the next couple of years, but by that time the department will have a stock of costumes and then they will have no expenses.

Come and see the Spring Festival. Tickets twenty-five cents. Admission at the door fifty cents.

NEW SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CO-EDS FOUNDED

Two new scholarships have recently been added to the University list that will be awarded this May at the Commencement exercises. Miss Sarah Lewis has founded a scholarship of $100 to be awarded to the most proficient woman in the the Home Economics department.

The Nevada Chapter of the National Association of Collegiate Alumni, formerly known as the Association of Collegiate Alumni, has founded a scholarship of $200, and will be awarded for the first time this Commencement. This scholarship will be awarded to the woman member of the Sophomore or Junior Class who has shown herself to have an excellent, all round record and who has done all of her work at the University of Nevada. The recipient of this scholarship will be chosen by the Scholarship Committee of the University with the approval of the executive officers of the Nevada Chapter.

U. S. C. TO PRESENT THREE NEW PLAYS

By Southwest Intercollegiate Press

U. S. C., Los Angeles, April 28.—Departing from the custom of presenting a full play every spring, the College of Oratory will give in lieu three one-act plays this semester. The plays selected are "Where But in America," by Oscar Wolf, "The Florist Shop," by Winifred Hawkins, and "The Rescue," by Rita Creighton Smith.

TROJAN ATHLETE LEADS OWN PLAY

By Southwest Intercollegiate Press

U. S. C., Los Angeles, April 28.—Charles Paddock, world's champion runner in the 100 and 200 yard dashes, will play the leading role in "Sidney Carton," his own dramatization of Dicken's "A Tale of Two Cities," which was selected for the junior class play this year. Sidney Carton will be the first play to be given in the auditorium of the new administration building now nearing completion.

With his selection for the title role Paddock has successfully taken up another college activity. At present his activities include track, playwriting, acting, debating, and editing "The Trojan," the student body paper. His scholarship record is considerably above that of the average.

TECH PUBLISHES RASPBERRY PRESS

Special to "Sagebrush"

California Tech, Pasadena, April 28. A special edition of the "California Tech" recently appeared on the campus under the caption of the "Red Hot Rivet," the issue taking the form of a "Raspberry press" and being written and put out by a group of initiates of the Press Club of the Institute. The paper appeared printed on bright red paper and contained in its columns many "hot rivets" directed at deserving professors and students.

DR. CLARK RETURNS FROM COAST TRIP

Dr. Walter E. Clark returned last week from a short trip to the Coast where he was a guest of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce at their annual meeting in San Francisco.

After the meeting of the S. F. Chamber of Commerce, Dr. Clark attended the Del Monte Conference at Del Monte, where he gave an address on the "Effect of Immigration on American Ideals" before a large gathering.

High Schools To Meet Here

The boys' declamation contest which is to be held on Saturday morning, will be a close hard fought series of declamations among the various high schools. There will be about eight to ten boys trying to win the honors in this contest, and as there is some splendid material in the various high schools, the contest should be interesting from start to finish. The big drawing card of the tournament is the girls' declamation on the evening of the 7th. The girls throughout the state take a keen interest in this work, and will give some splendid examples of interpretive speaking. There will undoubtedly be about ten girls entered in this contest.

The track meet on Saturday afternoon will be only a four or five-cornered meet among the schools in the western part of the state. Each high school is obliged to pay its own expenses and arrange for the care of its teams while in Reno as the track meet is not handled by the University as in the past. The Nevada Athletic League requested that the University furnish judges for the track contest, and this request was granted.

All entries for the various contests will be in this week and arrangements will be made for the contestants. The various committees are hard at work preparing for the coming of the spring tournament and wish to make it a success from every viewpoint. Clonia has appointed two committees which are working with the high schools relations committee, of which Dr. H. W. Hill is chairman, and with the committee appointed by the high schools.

The Nevada Athletic League is an organization of the high schools of the western part of the state formed to foster better, cleaner athletics in the various schools, to promote a better feeling between the schools, and to handle such meets and contests as do not come under the supervision of the University.

The officials of the League are working hard to make the track meet a successful affair, and they are receiving such aid from the University as it is possible to give them.

This spring tournament is looked forward to by the high schools each year, and the University fosters it as a means of advertisement. It is only because of the great expense involved in bringing teams from remote parts of the state which caused the discontinuing of the track meet. It costs the high schools large sums each year to send the basketball teams and this was a factor entering into the withdrawal of the track meet.

Big Play Set For Next Week

propensity for jazz and creating merriment is guarantee enough that his role will be successfully portrayed.
John Knight, Emily Burke and M. T. Smith all have responsible parts and they interpret them well. They are not, however, in an eternal triangle plot, as it might appear here.
Tickets will be on sale at the Registrar's office and the Y. W. C. A. candy booth, while down town they can be procured at Hilp's and Cann's drug stores or at the Rialto theatre. These tickets will be exchanged for reserved seats on May 4th or 5th.
Don't forget your "Under Cover" date. You can get it openly or secretly, under cover or out, but get it. Don't miss one of the best plays the University has ever seen.
Professor Turner, who has coached all of Clonia plays, and several Senior plays, has given his time and aid liberally. The greatest credit is due to him, for his unceasing labor is the most essential thing for the success of "Under Cover." Without him, there would probably be no Senior play. Don't forget the date, May 5th. You won't regret it, but you will regret staying under cover instead of coming out to see "Under Cover."

MINING STUDENTS ARE ENTERTAINED

On Thursday, April 21st a tea was given at the Mining Building by Professor F. C. Lincoln, for the purpose of bringing the mining students and their professors into closer touch with each other. Mrs. Lincoln, with the assistance of Mrs. Henry Higgins, presided as hostess; Mrs. A. E. Hill, Mrs. Lind and Mrs. Davis poured tea, while the Misses Margaret Hill, Edith Fraudsen, and Leslie Lincoln served.
During the afternoon the Shriners Saxophone Sextette, led by Charles Gorman, entertained with several popular selections. Dancing was indulged in in the museum by the guests late in the afternoon, and all of those present, which included the members of the Bureau of Mines, students and professors of the department, with their wives and lady friends, reported a most enjoyable time.
The tea was somewhat in the nature of an experiment, but proved such a success that it is planned to have it become a semi-annual institution. More attention is being paid to social intercourse between the students and their professors than formerly, which is one of the things that Nevada has looked forward to with anticipation for some time. This affair is but one of many delightful get-together parties that have been planned for the near future.

SERVICE MEN TO TAKE UP FARMING

Varsity Track Men Will Meet Farmers

himself in the 220-yard low hurdles. Courtright has entered both Cotter and Havens in the hurdles. Look out Davis!
Discus
Rhigletti, Brown and Avery are hurling the plate between 115 and 120 feet for Davis. Carlson for Nevada has struck the 117-foot mark in practice this week, and Goodwin is not far behind.
Shot Put
Davis Farm claims a margin at putting the lead pill. Mauer, Butler and Avery will put for Davis. Carlson will sling the pellet close to 40 feet for Nevada. Some doubt here!
Broad Jump
Al Lowry will take first place in this leap. He can sail over 21 feet any time, while Ned Martin will do 21 feet with a good take off. Reeves is the Davis favorite with Feltham and Butler backing him up. Nevada wants eight points here!
High Jump
Lease and Merritt for Davis are doped to take both first and second. Goodwin and Ned Martin can top the bar around 5 feet, 8 inches. Davis men claim this event is theirs. Hold 'er Deacon!
Javelin
We give first place to Rhigletti of Davis without further argument. He can hurl the spear over 150 feet. Carlson will take second it is doped to be. Tough for Nevada!!
Pole Vault
Reeves does the best elevating for the farmers. Davis claims first place. Goodwin and Ned Martin can top ten feet which will win four points anyway. This is Davis dope, girls!
Two Mile
No stuff on Davis men here. They will have to ride horses in this event to win from Pike and Fraser of Nevada. Both tracksters are gluttons for punishment and never can be passed without some considerable argument. Nevada cops the two mile down there!
Relay
It looks like a half-mile relay between Davis and Nevada. Davis has a neat relay team in Sims, Sentuous, Stephensen and Meckfessel. The Nevada team is composed of Larson, Havens, Goodwin and Frost. They will run the relay around 1 minute, 38 seconds and will do better than that if not too tired. Go and get 'em lads!
That is the dope on next Saturday's meet at Davis Farm. The coach hopes to make the California Aggies look like a bunch of farmers. No doubt he will! The student body will send the team away with a rally at the Southern Pacific depot at 7:30 p. m. A large gathering will be present to finish out the most successful athletic year ever enjoyed by the University of Nevada.
Nevada's prediction on the outcome of the Davis-Nevada meet is—Nevada will win the meet with a total of 70 points, while Davis is conceded to be able to win 57 points.

49 votes. He served on the executive committee this year as Sophomore Representative and is well acquainted with the duties of the office to which he was elected.
Both class representatives were elected by substantial majorities, Herb Foster winning the Junior position from Dorothy Harrington by a margin of 80 votes, the largest majority of the election, and Bob Skinner taking the Sophomore office by 70 votes over George Duborg.
The candidates for the Sagebrush positions had no opposition, Jack Ross being elected Assistant Editor with 326 votes and Laurence Quill, Assistant Manager with 322 votes. Both of these men are well fitted for their respective jobs, having served on the Sagebrush staff for the past year in very successful manner, and have considerable outside newspaper experience to their credit. They should make splendid men for the positions.
The Artemisia editorship was a hard fought contest and was finally won by Jack Frost who was elected by a lead of 38 votes over his opponent, Phil Frank. Frost has served on the staff of the college annual for several years and is thoroughly familiar with his job. With Jack Pike as Business Manager and Frost as Editor, the success of the yearbook for next year is assured. Pike received the largest number of votes of any candidate, 334, the office being uncontested.
All of the new officials elected Friday are well known on the campus, and with the proper support from the student body should make next year a banner one for the Associated Students. The following will compose the Executive Committee for next year:
President, Ed Reed; Vice-President, Bill Martin; Secretary, Evelyn Walker; Treasurer, Mel Sanders; Women's Athletic Manager, Erma Hoskins; Junior Representative, Herb Foster, and Sophomore Representative, Bob Skinner.
