Co-eds Discontinue Swimming Classes

Y.M.C.A. Pool Not Available; Five Women Are Awarded Life Saving Emblems

Swimming classes for the University women have been discontinued for the time being.

The Y. M. C. A., whose classes have been held for the last two years and which is the only pool available, has raised its prices. Owing to this fact and also to the extreme low temperature of the water it was thought best to drop swimming entirely until Miss Sameth's return.

The swims Club Stops. The Swimming Club, which is composed of women who are advanced swimmers and members of the Red Cross Life Saving Corps, will also discontinue their meetings for the same reasons.

At the close of last semester five of the advanced swimmers had received their life saving certificates, the intermediates had perfected the Australian crawl, the side, and other strokes, and the beginners had learned the crawl and the side stroke. All three sections were given some instruction in plain diving.

Y.W.C.A. Cabinet Is To Arrange "Retreat"

The first Y. W. C. A. activity of the semester is being planned for next week-end when cabinet members will spend several days at the W. A. A. lodge at Galena Creek, providing weather conditions permit.

Among the problems to be brought before the meetings will be the question of a Y. W. C. A. secretary for the student group, the election of new cabinet members, and the outlining of a program for the semester. Doris Thompson and Marjorie Blewett are making the arrangements for the retreat, and Mrs. Esther Laugh, Y. W. C. A. secretary, will probably accompany the group.

Pipes save no midnight oil

IF PIPES made the man, anybody at all could rise in the world just by smoking a few pounds of Edgeworth. But pipes do not make the man. Men make the pipe—most men do. Somewhat depends on the individual, more on the pipe, and the tobacco is most important of all. Things must be congenial. Edgeworth is a congenial tobacco, cool, slow-burning, fully flavored. Edgeworth has poise, kindly good nature, real tobacco personality—Edgeworth welcomes new friends. Many a good man has been pledged to pipes by Edgeworth alone. Like to meet Edgeworth? Just ask with the coupon—and the postman will bring your first few pipefuls of the genuine, three years seasoned if it's a day. Our treat, if you please. Others have found Edgeworth and quit their discontent. So may it be with you!

EDGEWORTH Edgeworth is a careful blend of good tobaccos—selected especially for pipe-smoking. Its quality and flavor never change. Buy it anywhere — "Ready Rubbed" or "Plug Slice"—15¢ packet package to pound humidor tin. Larus & Bro. Co., Richmond, Va. I'll try your Edgeworth. And I'll try it in a good pipe. Lincoln Hall Enforces Rules

Because of the fact that Lincoln Hall "quiet" rules have been unobserved so far this semester the upperclass committee has adopted stringent rules to enforce regulations and punish offenders. Anyone making unnecessary noises in the halls after 7:30 during week nights will receive punishment at the hands of the upperclassmen.

Senior Play Tour Plans Premature

Success of Last Year's Journey Brings Numerous Requests For Repeat Trip

Although talk concerning a tour of the state with the senior play some time in late April has been prevalent on the Campus for the last few days, Instructor Edwin Duerr announced this week that "any such plans are absolutely premature. No arrangements for such a tour will be made this year before first consulting the proper University administration authorities. Their attitude must be ascertained." It is planned, however, to consult them in the immediate future, it was admitted. As echoes from last year's long tour, requests have already come in from Tonopah, Las Vegas, and Lovelock as to possibilities for making a repeat journey.

Comments Cited

Ely editorially voted last year's "Take My Advice"—the best advertising for the University and its work brought to this town for years." Elko reported: "It is regretted that we have not seen more of these players. They are a splendid representation of our state University." Winnemucca said: "Come again!" Tonopah citizens, in their printed programs, wrote: "If this is a sample of what is done at the University, let's make this visit an annual one."

At present several different plans are being formulated for a potential tour this year. Nothing is as yet definite. Everything waits upon official sanction.

But Campus Players hope to take the tour because "We want to bring the University to the people of the state. We want to advertise culturally. And we desire to serve somehow the various communities of the state that make our work and the institution a possibility."

Volley Ball Starts

Intramural Tourney Planned By Gothic N Society

Volley ball practice started again last Friday. Due to the interruption caused by rushing, class games will not be played until next Thursday.

For the first time volleyball will be sponsored by Gothic N, the women's honorary athletic society, as an intramural sport. So far the two dormitories and the independents have entered teams and it is expected that the sororities will have their teams entered by next week.

The winner of the volleyball tournament will be awarded a silver loving cup by the Pan-Hellenic Society which must be won by an organization two consecutive years to be retained.

Intramurals Started

Gothic N has initiated an intramural program in an effort to get the women on the Campus more interested in sports, and to get the women belonging to the various houses and organizations acquainted with each other. The other intramural tournaments which it will sponsor as the sport is in season are tennis, basketball and archery.

The managers of the three volleyball teams already entered in the tournament are, Manzanita, Clara Tomlin, Artemisia, Helen Mann, Independents, Verdell Fant.

1929 Artemisia Is Given Honor Rating

Yearbook Entered in Annual Competition With Many Others

Receiving a first class honor rating, Dan Senseney, editor of the 1929 Artemisia, has on hand the score book of the National Scholastic Press Association of the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis.

The book was awarded 870 points out of a possible 1000 being judged on nine points. This score gave the Artemisia what the press association considers an excellent rating. It was considered among those universities and colleges having an enrollment of 500 to 999 students, only educational institutions being in this class.

Better Books Is Aim

The purpose of this score book, as declared by the association, is not so much to stimulate rivalry between schools in this respect but to make possible better yearbooks through the pointing out of specific and widespread defects in the usual college annual.

This year a twenty-five per cent increase in the number of books entered in the contest over those entered last year was evidenced. Consequently many of the ratings are lower than last year.

Regent Talbot Is Given $900 Court Judgment

The state supreme court last week handed down a decision reversing a judgment rendered by the district court of Washoe county of September 7 awarding G. F. Talbot, regent of the University of Nevada, $900 for services and $175.07 for commissions alleged to be due from the Nevada Fire Insurance Company while he served as president of that company.

Talbot originally sued the company in the district court for $3900 upon the theory of an implied contract for services rendered by him outside of his official duties as president and director during the year 1914, and for commissions in addition to his monthly salary which the company in an express contract agreed to pay him for the year 1915.

Finance Committee Schedules Boxing

Meet Arranged with University of California; Solari Named Manager

A meet with the University of California boxing team for Feb. 8, at Nevada, was scheduled by the Finance Control Committee at a meeting Tuesday night. Ben Solari was appointed manager of the Nevada boxing team.

A ruling was made that all complimentary tickets issued to players must have written on them the names of the persons by whom they are to be used. The reason for this measure is to try to keep them from being sold.

The committee voted to discontinue the annual payment of $50 to the West Coast Conference. The payment was for referees who were obtained through the conference but who are now secured through another agency. The sum of $350 was voted to Coach Philbrook for track equipment for the coming track season. Another meeting of Finance Control will be held Friday noon, at which time all budgets will be brought up for approval by the committee.

Lloyd Smith Receives Ph.D. From Cornell

Lloyd P. Smith, who received the degree of Bachelor of Science in electrical engineering from the University of Nevada in 1925, has been awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Cornell University. While attending Nevada he was an honor student and was a member of Phi Kappa Phi. At Cornell he was an instructor in physics while working for his doctor's degree.

Helen Smith, his sister, who is also attending Cornell taking a post graduate course in mathematics, has been elected to membership in Sigma Delta Epsilon, national science honor fraternity. She was graduated from Nevada in 1925, and was also a member of Phi Kappa Phi. While here she held the office of president of D. A. E., honorary English society, during her senior year and was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Sophomores at Columbus tried to punish the freshmen in a fight and the second year classmen, (the deceased)—were identified by frat pins.

No More Auditorium Plays Says Director

Attempt to Popularize Hill Has Failed According to Duerr

Probably no more plays in the auditorium of the Education auditorium; this is the latest edict from Edwin Duerr, director of dramatics, and the Campus Players' managerial staffs. According to them the hall is absolutely inadequate for the type of productions at present being given. "In seating, in stage equipment, and in continual conflicts over the usage of the auditorium, present arrangements are most unsatisfactory," they declare.

Mr. Duerr pointed out that "For three years we have tried to popularize the Campus, to induce patrons to come up here. But we have failed to fool them. They wait for only the downtown shows, knowing they will be better presented. We can't afford to stay here until we are better equipped."

Plays Are Submitted

Longmans Green Drama Contests Will End Tomorrow

February 1st is the last date for the submission of plays in the 1929-30 Longmans Green-Drama League Playwriting contests. Manuscripts should be turned in to Edwin Duerr, director of dramatics, 107 Hall of English.

It is pointed out that February 15 is the date for final judging of all Nevada manuscripts. So far three manuscripts have been received, although the committee of judges has not as yet been finally appointed.

The contest is in three divisions: The full length play, the one-act Christmas play, and the full length Biblical play or pageant.

The winning plays, if suitable, will be given a performance some time in April by Campus Players.

in Prove while returning from a visit to his home in Iowa. He played about half of the time in the games, but was out of condition, and consequently did not come up to his usual strong game. As in the Stanford and Utah games, it seems that Coach Scranston's younger combination, made up almost entirely of sophomores, turned the best game for Nevada.

Scranston remarked that he was very well satisfied with the play of the team except for their basket tossing. "The team will begin to win games when it learns to shoot," he said.

Arentz Introduces Land Grant Bill

Measure Will Be of Benefit to University of Nevada Experiment Station

The University of Nevada is one of the land grant colleges of the United States which will participate in the benefits of a bill sponsored by the Association of Land Grant Colleges, recently introduced in the senate by Congressman S. S. Arentz of Nevada. The bill provides for a lump appropriation of $90,000 for the fiscal years 1930, 1931 and 1932 and an appropriation of $50,000 for each fiscal year thereafter for each college, to aid in the maintenance of engineering experiment stations. The University of Nevada would be benefited since it maintains a small engineering experiment station.

Nevada Gets Aggie Fund

Under the original Morrill act, which provided for the maintenance of land grant colleges, it was stated that the measure was for the promotion of agriculture and mechanic arts. Subsequent acts provided funds for agriculture experimental work. At the present time the University receives $90,000 a year from the federal government for its agricultural experiment station but receives nothing for the engineering experiment station.

The Association of Land Grant Colleges has been trying, over a period of years, to secure federal appropriation for the engineering experiment stations. Such a station here will be of benefit as it could handle numerous water problems and hydraulic engineering difficulties.

Similar Bill Offered

A similar bill was offered in the senate at the special session of congress and differs from the Arentz bill in that the latter provides a lump appropriation of $90,000 for the first three years, while the senate bill appropriated $20,000 for 1930, $30,000 for 1931, and $40,000 for 1932. President Clark stated that the Arentz provision was much better than the senate bill since it would give each college an opportunity to equip its station at once.

Sport Sallies

With Butch Lawlor back in the line-up, things are looking up on the hard wood. Those three years of Varsity experience are going to help out a lot with the green team representing Nevada on the court this season.

Chet Scranston called the shot last week. He said the Mormons had a better squad on the floor than the Utes, and they were. Nevada also showed improved form in the games, say reports. Maybe the Wolves break into the win column this week-end.

Last year the boys split the series with the San Jose Teachers, and are planning on something better this time. The first home game of the semester, and the first conference squabble would be a good time to completely shut out the opposition. And the Wolves are about due.

The news seeps out that Dick Wallace has some real box-fighters working out for his newly organized boxing class. A pair of heavies, Swede Huntington and Tony Poloni, look particularly sweet at the afternoon workouts, and there is Jimmy Foran.

Rifle Competition Held in R. O. T. C.

Gallery rifle competitions tryouts for the University of Nevada division 9th Corps Area R. O. T. C. will be held from January 16th to February 3rd, the final competition for this corps area being held between February 3-21, after which the best team will represent the district in competition with others in the United States.

A team of 15 men will be selected, and cadets firing in all stages of this match will be eligible for one of four prizes offered by the department ranging from twenty to five dollars for high score men.

"Is Zat So" Will Be First Play For This Year

Cast of Senior Production Will Not Be Released For Two Weeks

Tentative casts for the first two productions to be offered this semester by Campus Players were announced last night by Edwin Duerr, director. They were selected from the group of well over a hundred students who participated in the tryouts held Monday and Tuesday afternoons.

No cast was announced for the senior play, "Never Say Die," although all tryouts for that offering have terminated. Not quite definitely chosen as yet, however, it will be released within two or three weeks' time. Nor casting was done for the group of original plays either. Actors will be picked from those not participating in the first two plays.

The group to be seen in "Is Zat So" by James Gleason and Richard Taber, at the Granada theatre, February 20, is as follows:

A group of twenty students has been selected to carry the heavy load of "Lilom," by Ferenc Molnar, when it is presented on March 21 at the Granada theatre. The tentative cast:

Students Return To Live In Halls

Six of Seventy-Five Men Are New Residents of Lincoln Hall

Nevada's three dormitories, Manzanita, Artemisia, and Lincoln halls, were thrown open to returning students last Saturday and are rapidly filling up again and resuming their inhabited aspects. Although Lincoln Hall is not yet filled to capacity as is the usual case at the beginning of the second semester, seventy-five men have been listed by Prof. W. R. Blackler as permanent residents, with several more expected later. Sixty-seven of the men who lived there last year are back at the hall and eight new men have so far entered. Six men remained in the hall over the Christmas vacation. Only general improvements were made in the hall in the line of sweeping and mopping of all the floors in the rooms, and the cleaning, waxing and polishing of all hardwood floors downstairs.

One New at Manzanita
Manzanita Hall has but one new resident this semester, and although all women have not yet returned, between eighty and eighty-five are so far permanent residents. Manzanita received a general house cleaning also over the holidays.

Artemisia Hall will have no new inmates this semester.

Music Work Is Begun

Band Suffers Loss of Four Experienced Players

With most of the old members back the music organizations, including the band, orchestra, and glee clubs have begun their semester's work this week. The singing organizations can accept but few new members as their schedule and positions are nearly all filled. In the band, however, there are several vacancies left by students not returning to school. Too, any man playing even a little will be given an opportunity to practice with the group if he desires, in order that a reserve of future players may be built up.

The loss of several valuable men is felt in Frank Nagle, who is on a world cruise, Andy Brown, who is working in San Francisco, in Gilbert Matthews, now in Reno, and in Horace Church, who is ill.

Various concerts by the different groups, both individually and collectively, have been tentatively arranged for the semester. Dates will be announced later.

Philbrook Finds Roads Impassable

Coach George Philbrook, returning home from a trip to Los Angeles found the road over the mountains impassable because of heavy snow and was forced to abandon his car at Sacramento. He resumed travel by train and arrived in Reno well rested after his vacation in the south.

The coach resumed his duties at the helm of athletic affairs and is busy formulating plans for the coming year.

Soph Class Meets

New Vigilance Committee Will Soon Be Appointed

Formation of a new sophomore vigilance committee to discipline wayward freshmen was proposed at a sophomore meeting held last Monday in the Agriculture building.

Feeling was expressed that several members of the committee existing the last part of the semester were not competent to hold their positions again this semester. As a result, Kent Ingalls, president, promised that a new committee would be announced in the near future.

Finances Discussed
Discussion regarding the use of surplus money in the class treasury closed the meeting. A plan regarding a sophomore snowball fight was explained, whereby the women as well as the men take part. However, as the meeting was poorly attended, and by men alone, nothing definite could be decided, so all business was postponed to the next class meeting.

Campus Romance Is Famine In Sierras

Former Students On Honey-moon Forced to Ski 20 Miles For Provisions

The climax of a Campus romance was reached last week when two former students were forced to ski for provisions in the high Sierras while on a honeymoon. The couple were married during the Christmas holidays and were honeymooning near Brockway at Lake Tahoe. Their provisions failed to arrive by the boat and they were finally forced to hit the trail through the deep snow drifts or starve in their tiny domicile.

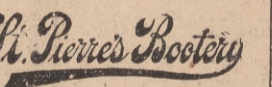

The skiing bride, Virginia Lou Stewart, before her marriage in December at her home in Van Nuys, was active in dramatics here. The bridegroom, Dan Trevitt, who broke the trail on the twenty mile trip to Truckee was also prominent in dramatics in addition to being social chairman last semester. As the couple are both expert skiers, they are none the worse for their enforced trek and are back in their log cabin, safely reinforced with provisions.

Assembly Approves Debates Cancelled In Schedule Change

Six Home Forensic Clashes Are On Tap While Team Will Take One Trip

Debate schedule for the coming season as announced by Bob Griffin, coach, shows many changes from the schedule given out last semester.

Due to the fact that debate finances are low and also because of the lack of time needed for preparation a debate formerly scheduled with the University of Hawaii has been cancelled. This had been planned for the first debate of the season.

Women Squad to Work
Debates at home will include a meeting with Weber College February 24, with University of Southern California.

Art Teacher Is Marooned
Miss Katherine Lewers, associate professor of art at the University of Nevada, has been snowbound at her home at Franktown, Washoe Valley, for the past week. Miss Lewers, who goes back and forth each day, had much difficulty in getting to school last week on account of a frozen radiator and slippery roads, but this week due to the heavy snow on the highway she has been unable to make the trip.
