Cantlon Takes President Gavel In Year's Last A. S. U. N. Meet

Students Take No Action on Desert Wolf Controversy

Cannot Settle Question On Account Of Old Constitution

WOLF KEYS AWARDED A.S.U.N. Officers Installed At Meeting By President Jack Walthers

What promised to be one of the most stormy A.S.U.N. sessions in history turned out to be an ordinary meeting this morning when discussion started last week on abolishing the Desert Wolf was ended by the announcement that since the old constitution was in operation until May 30, nothing could be done about the situation.

The Desert Wolf situation was discussed on both sides during the past week, following the heated arguments at the A.S.U.N. meeting last Friday. Voting was to be deferred until today, but was omitted when the technicality was discovered. What will become of the Desert Wolf is not known, and any action will have to be taken next semester.

Officers Installed
The recently elected student body officers were installed by President Jack Walthers. Jean Hughes, retiring president of the Associated Women Students, installed Margaret Walts as the new A.W.S. head.

In turning over his gavel to Edwin Cantlon, President Walthers expressed his appreciation of the cooperation he had received from students and committees, and congratulated the students on their selection of new officers, whom he said would find their work for next year both interesting and worthwhile.

Archery Cup Awarded
Shirley Johnson, winner of the intramural archery tournament, was presented with the silver loving cup awarded by Pan-Hellenic Council.

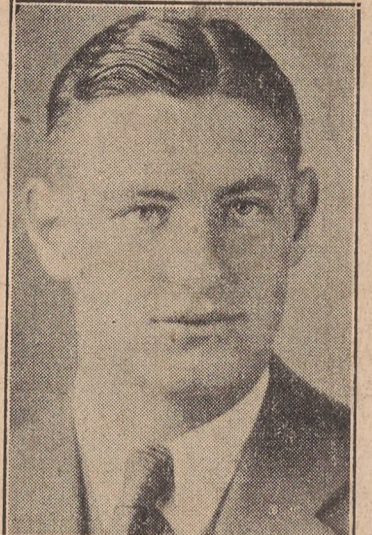

Pan-Hell Draws Up New Rushing Rules
George Vargas, senior week chairman, urged all seniors to buy copies of the senior week plans, which are on sale at the registrar's office for twenty-five cents.

Fair Play Urged By Women's Council For Next Season
Following long discussion first semester rushing rules on the order of those used formerly by sororities on the campus was drawn up at a special Pan-Hellenic meeting held for the purpose in Manzanita Hall Wednesday night. Another meeting will be called next week to formally adopt the rules which have been read and approved by all of the sororities.

Costs Taxed
The costs of rushing parties are not to exceed twenty-five cents per person and the formal dinner, including favors and entertainment, is not to exceed seventy-five cents per person.

Moving Pictures Of Tumbling In Spring Festival Show
Moving pictures of the tumbling done by a group of women in the Spring Festival were shown to all interested women Thursday morning at 11:25. These pictures will be shown again if there are enough requests for them, according to Miss Sameth, women's physical education director.

Ex-Prexy

John "Shifty" Walther, who gave up his student body president's chair this morning in the final meeting, Walther has been a prominent student for four years, and has served the students ably. No cut of his successor, Edwin Cantlon, was available.

Board of Regents, Honorary Visitors Will See Campus

University To Be Inspected; Finances Checked By Members

Assembling for its annual commencement meeting, the Board of Regents will gather in Reno Saturday, May 9, to pass upon the names of seniors who will receive degrees at Commencement.

Names of students who finished their courses last semester will be passed upon, and degrees awarded to them with the rest of the graduating class. The Board of Regents consists of Dr. A. C. Olmsted, Frank Williams, Walter E. Pratt, George S. Brown, and George Wingfield.

The honorary board of visitors will hold its annual meeting during the Commencement season to inspect the campus and check on University policies and finances.

Members of the board are appointed for two year terms by the governor of the state, one from each county. The chief justice of the state supreme court is the ex-officio chairman of the board.

Four Are Initiated By Cap and Scroll

Formal Banquet Concludes Ceremony of Honorary Society

To initiate Juanita Johnson, Marion Nichols, Mary Baird, and Margaret Ede, Cap and Scroll met at the Federated Church last night to hold services. After the ceremony was concluded, the group adjourned to the Overland where a formal banquet was held at which Juanita Johnson was elected president to succeed Gwen Pierson. Marion Nichols was elected secretary-treasurer, and Mary Baird, marshal.

Those present at the dinner included Dr. J. E. Church, Miss Margaret Mack, Gwen Pierson, Dora Clover, Juanita Johnson, Frances Humphrey, Elizabeth Johnstone, Richmond Mann, Doris Conway, Paralle Smithson, Marion Nichols, Gertrude Wyckoff, Margaret Ede, Marjorie Blewett, and Mary Baird.

STUDENTS!
All students who have changed their home addresses during the past semester will please inform Miss Sissa of this at once so that the proper change in her mailing address system may be made.

In the event that the information is not conveyed, final grades will not be made available to students whose addresses have been changed until the beginning of the next semester.

J. Claude Jones To Succeed Haseman In Dean's Position

Ill Health Causes Withdrawal Of Present Dean of Men For Treatments

Professor J. Claude Jones was appointed to fill the post of dean of men at the University of Nevada left vacant by the illness and subsequent withdrawal of Dr. Charles Haseman, who has gone East to the Mayo Brothers clinic for treatments, according to an announcement made public this week. It is expected that Professor Jones will assume the duties immediately, and will hold the office until the return of Dr. Haseman at the beginning of the spring term next year.

Dean Haseman has been ill for some months, and was stricken last summer while on a vacation trip in the East. Since the beginning of the fall semester he has been forced to undergo treatments for stomach trouble several times.

Complete Rest Required
Physicians several months ago prescribed a complete rest for all work, and Dean Haseman followed the advice as soon as he could complete his proposed plans for this year. Last week he withdrew from all active duties, and left for the Mayo Brothers clinic where he will take treatments for some time. It is not known whether he will return to the West for a rest or will remain in the East until Christmas.

In assuming the duties as dean of men pro-tem, Professor Jones will take a position not entirely unfamiliar to him. Since coming to the University of Nevada in 1909, he has taken a keen personal interest in the welfare of the students here.

His interest is divided among a wide range of activities, and he holds active membership in five student organizations. His activities include Coffin and Keys, Snowdowners, Mu Eta Epsilon, Omicron Club and Sigma Gamma Epsilon, of which he is national vice president.

Professor Jones as dean of men, will continue his activities as a member of the Student Affairs committee. Whether another member of the committee will be appointed to fill the vacancy has not yet been decided. The committee is composed of the dean of men, the dean of women, and two members chosen from the faculty.

Spring Is Theme Of Last Issue Of Comic Quarterly

"Spring" as the theme for the next Desert Wolf, which will make its appearance next week under the direction of John Mariani, may be the means of dispelling doubtful notions as to whether it is really here or not. The cover, by Marion Severinghaus, is in futuristic design.

Mariani, the new editor-in-chief, has spent much time and trouble on his first magazine. Many new contributors on the staff this time have turned in more poetry and short-sketch copy while there is less art work, cartoons, and illustrations than in previous issues.

The printing company has been held up by the printing of a high school annual, or the spring number would have been out sooner. This issue will complete the series of four contributed annually.

Men's Glee Club Elects Nagel Head

At their rehearsal Wednesday night the Men's Glee club elected Fred Nagel president and Al Berns, business manager, for the school year 1931-32. The new officers took office at once and started plans for next year. They replace Jim Henrichs, president, and Donald Knapp, business manager. The outgoing officers were praised by Instructor Post for the work they have done in putting the club on its feet during the past year.

Chloupek Judged Best Drilled Man In R.O.T.C. Outfit

Company C Wins Competitive Drill In Annual Review By Corps Commander

MEDALS TO BE AWARDED

Wednesday Cadet Inspection Is Made By Lieutenant-Colonel Gregory

As a result of the competitive drill held in Military 2 and 4 on Wednesday afternoon, Private First Class Arthur D. Chloupek, of Truckee, California, was awarded the gold medal by Col. W. R. Standiford at the last formation of the year on Friday morning.

The five cadets remaining after the elimination drill were completed were Cadet Private James W. Crawford of Alturas; Cadet Sergeant Alfred Theis of Hayward, California; Cadet Private Russell R. Elliot of McGill; Cadet Sergeant Paul L. Nichols of Reno, and Cadet Private First Class Arthur D. Chloupek of Truckee. In accordance with the provision of paragraph 99, Regulations for the Department of Military Science and Tactics, the inspecting officers inspected the records of these remaining five men.

Perfect Records
Chloupek and Elliot both had perfect records in attendance and discipline during the year 1930-31, so the winner was determined by the grades in instruction in theory in classroom work for the school year. Chloupek had an average of 99.3 plus in his work, and Elliot 95.2. It is very unusual that it is necessary to go to such lengths in order to determine the winner, declared Colonel Standiford. Such results show an intense application to the subject, he said.

The medal is a large gold disk with the seal of Nevada engraved on the face. Around the margin the words "University of Nevada R.O.T.C." are placed in raised letters. This emblem is suspended from a ribbon from a bar pin with the winner's name engraved upon it. Fastened to the lower edge of the pin are two crossed rifles, symbolic of the U. S. Army. The whole assembly is a very attractive award and represents an intrinsic value of about fifty dollars. The legend is engraved on the back of the medal proper. This award represents the highest standard in basic military at the University.

Elimination Held
The method of elimination is as follows: Judges are stationed throughout the company and the company commander drills the men. As a man makes a mistake he is eliminated from the drill. When five men remain in ranks they are joined with the five men from other two companies and the unit drilled until but five remain. The officers then inspect the records and make the award accordingly.

The medal, as well as the fifty dollars awarded to the rifle team, are awarded by Colonel Standiford under the offices of the military department at the University. The colonel has been transferred to Fort Benjamin Harrison and will be remembered here in raising the discipline and education to its present high standards of excellence.

'C' Wins Color Honors
Of Companies A, B, and C, C company received the highest number of points in the company competitive drill held before the individual drill. As a reward the company will be designated "color company" for the year 1931-32 and will be the honor of having a streamer attached to the corps colors, bearing the name of the company.

C company is commanded by Cadet Captain Merriman C. Richards of McGill, and has on its staff of officers the following men who were responsible for the success of the company: Cadet Second Lieutenant Calvin J. Dodson of Carson City, who won the medal for individual drill last year; Cadet Second Lieutenant Walter D. Mitchell of Reno; Cadet Second Lieutenant William H. Stuart of Fallon; Cadet First Sergeant Philip J. Mann of San Francisco; Cadet Supply Sergeant Ellis H. Gates of Long Beach, Calif.; Cadet Sergeants Wayne S. VanVoorhis of Fallon and Alfred Theis of Hayward, Calif.; Cadet Corporals Calvin C. Bannigan, Pierson, John B. White, Bakersfield, Calif.; Robert L. Horschman, Reno; George W. Davis, Reno; Harry Dunseath, Jr., Reno, and John A. Brooks, Carson City.

For the first time in the duration of the service of the present officers at the University there were no demerits given for dirty uniforms or rifles by the inspecting officer. This is a very unusual condition for first year men, according to Colonel Standiford. Another unusual feature of the drill was that for the first time two freshmen were left in the remaining five cadets at the close of the competitive drill, James Crawford and Russell Elliot. Elliot would have had a perfect record except for one absence during the school year. The standards have been unusually high the last two years as brought out in these competitive drills, according to the colonel.

The officers making the inspection and judging the drill were: Colonel John P. Ryan, ret. of Reno; Lieut. Col. Keith S. Gregory, ret. P.M.S. & T. Reno High School; Captain John Grant, 40th Military Police Company, Nevada National Guard, Reno.

University of Nevada to Confer One Hundred Thirty-two Degrees During Commencement Exercises

Senior Week Plans, Commencement Day Program Described

Baccalaureate Service Is Set For Sunday in U. of N. Gymnasium

FACULTY BALL GAME

Graduating Seniors to be Feted In Various Ways During Next Week

With the last class over tomorrow, the last examinations finished, the last term tests finally completed, the last cut taken, the graduating seniors of 1931 will put their four years of college behind them, and prepare to spend a lazy senior week until their University career comes to an end with Commencement on Monday, May 11.

As announced by George Vargas, chairman of the senior week committee, the annual faculty-senior baseball game will add the traditional touch of humor next Monday afternoon. Tuesday will be rest day to precede the strenuous activities which will occupy the remainder of the week.

Wednesday evening the women of the graduating class will be entertained at dinner at Veddi Glen by Dean Margaret E. Mack and Mrs. Walter E. Clark, while President Clark and the deans of the colleges will be hosts to the men graduates at a banquet at the Lincoln Hotel in Sparks.

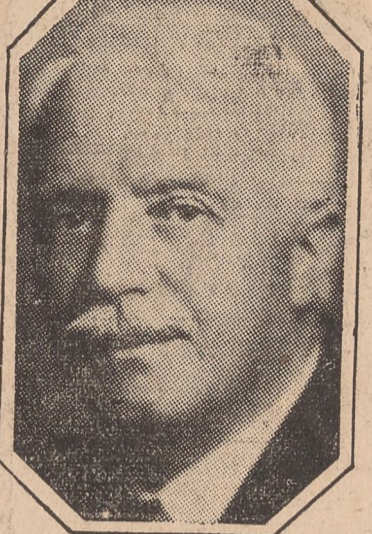

Thursday, the seniors will make a farewell pilgrimage to the buildings on the campus, where members of the class will make short speeches. Friday promises to be the high spot of the program which is the Senior play day, which takes the place this year of the picnic which has always been held in the past. Plans call for a basket luncheon to Bowers' Mansion, an afternoon of swimming and golf at Carson Hot Springs, followed by a dinner, a dance, and a midnight frolic at Minden Inn.

The Associated Women Students will be hostesses to the women graduates and their parents at a tea at Manzanita Hall Saturday afternoon. Sunday will be the Baccalaureate service in the gymnasium.

Monday morning at 10 o'clock the academic procession will assemble at the south end of the Quad and march to the gymnasium, where the commencement exercises will begin at 10:30 with President Clark presiding. The commencement program is as follows:

Doctor Cousins

Dr. James Cousins, who will deliver the Commencement Day address this year, Doctor Cousins was well received on his last appearance here, as a Fulton lecturer, speaking on India and on Irish poetry.

Cousins Returns As Commencement Speaker, May 11

"Education and Life" To Be Discussed By Fulton Lecturer

"Education and Life" is the subject which Dr. James H. Cousins has chosen for his address at the Commencement services at which he will be the honored speaker. He will be an honored guest at the annual Phi Kappa Phi banquet during senior week.

Dr. Cousins was this year's Robert Lardin Fulton Foundation lecturer, whose talks in the auditorium on philosophy, poetry, literature, and social conditions in India were attended by hundreds of interested listeners.

Chosen To Return
Dr. Cousins was chosen to return to deliver the Commencement address after his success with his lectures at the beginning of the semester. The lecturer, an Irish poet, educator and orientalist, was at that time making his second lecture tour of America. For the past month he has been presenting a lecture series in Southern California.

Dr. Cousins has spent thirteen years in India in intimate contact with its cultural life and has organized exhibitions and given talks on Hindu art in many foreign capitals. He brought with him to Reno a collection of 100 paintings representative of modern native Hindu art.

Nevada Electrical Engineering School Curricula Changed

A few minor changes have been made recently in three courses in the engineering college at the University of Nevada, according to Dean F. H. Wright. All of the changes concern the electrical engineering department.

One of the changes which was made and approved by the engineering faculty members was to increase the credits in E. E. 63 and 64, which is an advanced laboratory course in electrical testing, from three to four units, and to add a recitation period to the course.

EIGHT ARE ADVANCED

Patrick Anthony McCarran To Receive Honorary M.A. Award

One hundred and thirty-two degrees, including nine advanced degrees, will be conferred upon graduates of the University of Nevada on Commencement Day, May 12. Of this number 73 will be degrees of Bachelor of Arts in the College of Arts and Science, and 11 will be degrees of Bachelor of Science in the College of Arts and Science.

Three degrees will be awarded for Bachelor of Science in Chemistry; five as Bachelor of Science in Mining Engineering; two as Bachelor of Science in Metallurgical Engineering; seven in Electrical Engineering; six in Mechanical Engineering; two in Civil Engineering; five in Agriculture, and nine degrees of Bachelor of Science in Home Economics.

Advanced Degrees
Of the advanced degrees to be conferred there will be one each in electrical engineering, civil engineering, Master of Science in chemistry, Master of Science in Botany, Master of Science in Biology, Master of Science in Physics, Master of Arts in English, Master of Arts in Economics.

Forty-nine of the graduates will receive high school teachers' diplomas in addition to their bachelor degrees. These two-year normal diplomas will be awarded at the same time. Twenty-six of those receiving degrees finished their regular courses at the close of the fall semester, although several have been continuing with college work since then.

The list of students receiving degrees is as follows:
Electrical engineer, Arthur J. Shaver.
Civil engineer, Willard P. Smiley.
Master of Science in Chemistry, Francis S. Oakberg.
Master of Science in Botany, Rolla V. Johnson.
Master of Science in Biology, Jean J. F. Rausy.
Master of Science in Physics, Irving J. Sandorf.
Master of Arts in English, Harriet May Wilson.
Master of Arts in Economics, Milan J. Webster.

Names marked by asterisks are those who will receive state high school teachers' diplomas along with the regular graduation certificate.

Officials Elected For Coming Year By Social Groups

House Administrations Turned Over To New Presidents; Assistants

Fraternity and sorority officers who will guide the destinies of their respective houses next year have been chosen by almost all the social organizations. In most cases the new officials have taken over the work to which they have been newly appointed. The list of officers elected is as follows:

Delta Delta Delta
President, Mary Baird; vice president, Virginia Cole; recording secretary, Betty Seeds.

Pi Beta Phi
President, Farnell Balhassan; vice president, Helen Peterson; treasurer, Dorothy Ernst; recording secretary, Doris Shaver; house manager, Helen Olmsted.

Kappa Alpha Theta
President, Beatrice Patterson; vice president, Betty McAnally; secretary, Elizabeth Carpenter; treasurer, Katherine Wright; house manager, Lena Perri.

Gamma Phi Beta
President, May Vutch; vice president, Marion Stone; secretary, Virginia Garside; treasurer, Fern Witwer.

Beta Sigma Omicron
President, Melva Fowler; vice president, Blanche Cosby; secretary, Anna Jensen; treasurer, Charlotte Pope.

Beta Delta
President, Nora Gardella; vice president, Blanche Radcliffe; secretary, Isabel Baker; treasurer, Ruth Sauer.

Sigma Nu
President, Ted Overton; vice president, Harold Faber; secretary, Earle Seaborn; treasurer, Bill Blakely; house manager, Edgar Leonard.

Sigma Phi Sigma
President, Oscar Bryan; vice president, John Brooks; house manager, Pat Sanford.

Delta Sigma Lambda
President, Fred Collins; vice president, Jim Settlemeyer; secretary, Ted Kitchen; treasurer, Chris Gansberg; house manager, Dwight Leavitt.

Beta Kappa
President, Walt Mitchell; vice president, Edwin Force; treasurer, Donald Knapp; secretary, Calvin Dodson; house manager, Horace Church.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Fred Fader, mayor; Leroy Chanslor, secretary, and Leroy Russell, treasurer.

Alpha Tau Omega
Phil Daver, president; Roy Bankoffler, chaplain; Stan Johnson, keeper of the exchequer; John Griffin, scribe; Elmer Hawkins, usher; Harold Curran, sentinel, and Allen Young, Palm reporter.

Hayford's freshman class carried on the tradition laid down for it by the three classes preceding it, when it finished first in the 1930 psychological examination given by the American Council of Education to 127 colleges throughout the country. The average of the class of 1934 was 233.73, almost eleven points better than that of the class of 1933.

"PUBLICATIONS HALL"

Old Chem. Building, where publications workers have slaved for the past two semesters, along with student officers. This building will not be used for this purpose next year. Possibly it will be occupied by classrooms, possibly it will be torn down. But for a time it served a useful purpose, and will be remembered by those who have worked together this year.

Names Are Added To Book of Oath By Class of 1931

Document Is Signed By All Seniors Since 1920 As List Grows

When the class of 1931 has passed out of the picture of present living college generations, and has gone on to make a name for the school that is left behind, one hundred and thirty-two signatures will have been added to that ever growing list in the Book of Oath of the University of Nevada.

Bound in blue Morocco leather, with silver hinges, nameplates, and clasp, the book was presented to the University in 1920 by President Walter E. Clark as an original contribution. For eleven years the oath written by him has been taken by every student who passed out of the portals of the University of Nevada.

Each graduating class is given a page in the book, and each student signs his name thereon as a testimony of his good will, and of his willingness to serve his school, his state, and his country, to the best of his ability. One page also is reserved for the service flag of the University, with the names of the seventeen students who lost their lives in the World War. Five pages at the end of the book are reserved for the service roll of the University.

The oath, which was compiled by President Clark, reads as follows: "I, about to be graduated from the University of Nevada, "Acknowledging my great debt to the Giver of all life who has given me life in Nevada, the State whose people are most blessed with pioneering strength, and whose land of all American life is freshest from His hand, and most truly His cathedral, with mountain columns, star vaults, and sage incensed aisles, hourly urging me to reverent thinking and living,

"Acknowledging my great debt to this Nation, and to this Commonwealth which, through guardian organization and through open school doors, have jointly made it possible for me to come into full riches of my natural and my racial inheritances.

"Here and now pledge lifelong loyalty to the shaping of ideals of American civilization:

"Liberty: bounded by law drawn to the common weal.

"Equality of opportunity for all, and justice administered in accordance with the dictates of the common will, lawfully expressed.

"I shall serve, both alone and with others, to the high ends that uncleanliness, greed, selfishness and pride shall lessen, that cleanness, charity, comradeship, and reverence shall widen, and that this, my generation, shall bequeath an even better and nobler civilization than came to it."

Gardella Elected Aggie Head
At the last regular meeting of the Aggie Club Wednesday night, Louie Gardella was elected president, Robert Dutton, vice president; Ed Recanzono, secretary; and Chris Gansberg, treasurer.

The FAVORITE tobacco of the Dartmouth man is ...

IF you want to know the Dartmouth man's favorite tobacco, watch him as he loads his pipe between classes in front of Dartmouth Row. Watch him as he strolls along Wheelock Street and pulls the familiar blue tin of Edgeworth out of his pocket.

A pipe and Edgeworth—this is the smoking combination that has won the college man. Harvard, Cornell, Michigan, Stanford, Illinois... all agree with Dartmouth. Natural merit has made Edgeworth the favorite smoking tobacco in America's leading colleges and universities.

College men everywhere respond to the appeal of pipes packed with cool, slow-burning Edgeworth. Be guided by their choice; try Edgeworth yourself. Taste its rich natural savor that is enhanced immeasurably by Edgeworth's distinctive "eleventh process." You will find Edgeworth at your nearest tobacco shop—15¢ the tin. Or, for generous free sample, address: Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive "eleventh process." Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—"Ready-Rubbed" and "Plug Slice." All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to pound humidifier tin.

Ross Mooney Urges Better Fraternity Spirit On Campus

National Representative Gives Summary Of Inter-Greek Situation

Ross T. Mooney, national representative, surmised the inter-Greek situation before a group of local fraternity representatives here last Thursday afternoon in an effort to aid the local chapters in their various problems.

Mr. Mooney began his discussion by giving the origin and history of the National Inter-Fraternity Conference, which he states, was originated to help benefit all the national fraternities by an exchange of ideas and discussion of problems of each in order that they might all benefit by the experiments and experience of others. He pointed out that in as much as the ideals of all the fraternities were basically the same, they would obtain the highest good by overlooking petty differences and realizing that the best advantages for all could be obtained only by group discussion of fraternity problems. This, he said, would also aid in furthering more friendly relations between the organizations.

The subject of scholarship was next discussed. He said that before the methods to improve the scholarship of the fraternity men were begun, the national average was below that set by the schools over the country, while at present, the average of the fraternity men was two per cent above that of the non-fraternity men and one per cent above that set by the school.

One of the methods cited by the representative was that being followed at this time at the University of Ohio. There they have a tutor in each fraternity house who helps the students in their courses and sees that they have proper study habits, and acts in the capacity of general advisor concerning all the problems of the university.

Mr. Mooney stated that not only here but in other institutions as well the greatest problems were financial. As an example of the methods used by some of the other universities concerning financial problems, Mr. Mooney told about the way the University of Illinois cooperates with the fraternities by buying the land for their houses, loaning $20,000 toward building each house and then furnishes coal, light and water for seven years. The University collects all the bills of the fraternity houses and thereby advantages are gained for the groups through this handling that could not be managed individually. The University of Florida is contemplating instituting this system.

The U. of Pennsylvania has recently undergone a great building program which caused many financial difficulties, forcing the university to take strenuous steps toward overcoming them. Each student is required to give a $1000 bond to the university. Because of this bond the students may receive credit in any establishment in

Beta Kappa Gives Spring Formal

Beta Kappa fraternity entertained on Friday evening at its annual spring formal dinner at the Riverside hotel. Table decorations were in purple and gold, the fraternity colors, and red flowers centered the tables. The patrons and patronesses for the evening were Messrs. and Mesdames Yerner E. Scott, V. P. Gianella, P. A. Lehenbauer, and Robert Stewart. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shea, Eugene Tucker and Jack McGee; the Misses Mabel Flournoy, Helen Ann Richardson, Margaret Sullivan, Mary Pickering, Rita McIntyre, Jessie Gulling, Lorrain Curtis, Mary Griffin, Jean Guinn, Hazel Brown, Adene Daniels, Mildred DeWitt, Dixie Morrill, Katherine Wright, Gladys Clark, Marjorie Fay, Josephine Knowles, Jessie Hartley, Evelyn Molleaux, Lois Barber, Ellen Eckman, Anne Sullivan, Helen Bolte, Thelma Lewis, Goldie Lawson, Ruth Shute, Grace Costello, Muriel Conway, Frances McEachern, Ellen Dermody, Pauline Berrum, Lucie King, Constance Phillips, Martha Hansen, Hazel Davis, Thelma Kand, Donna Anderson, Marjorie Ligon, Mabel Myers, Adelaide Shogren, Shellah Roberts, Helen Mitten, Walter Mitchell, Edward Usnik, Calvin Dodson, Angelo Granata, Horace Church, Paul Shea, Mason Myers, Hugh McIntyre, John Swearingen, Frank Estes, Nolan Gault, George Stoekle, William Wright, George Jackson, Laurence Zoebel, John Molini, Leonard Sidwell, Robert Seibold, Dan Harvey, Victor Krol, Benton Turner, Bernadine Barenko, Ned Morehouse, Jess Christenson, Oliver Sturia, Thomas

Y.W.C.A. Cabinet Meets At Bowers

In order to prepare for next semester's Y.W.C.A. activities the members of the cabinet held a picnic meeting at Bowers' mansion, Sunday. Mrs. Lough, who accompanied the women, was presented with a miniature silhouette by Helen Olmsted, who represented the other cabinet members.

The Y.W.C.A. calendar for next September will include a tea for all freshman women, to be held the second day of fall registration.

They are not released from the bond until they withdraw or graduate, at which time all bills are settled.

Considering the condition on this campus, Mr. Mooney suggested a system used by another school that could probably be carried out successfully here. In this plan he proposed that a secretary be hired by the combined fraternities to care for and organize class budgets and that the treasurers work with her and accept her advice, inasmuch as she should have a better perspective concerning their problems due to her familiarity in dealing with them. In abiding by this system, all fraternities would use the same type of treasurer's book and each month these would be taken to the secretary and the weak points in each budget would be pointed out by the secretary and discussed.

Pi Phi Celebrates Founders Day

Nevada Alpha Chapter of Pi Beta Phi celebrated its 64th birthday of the founding of the fraternity on Tuesday evening at the Riverside hotel. A "House" motive was used both for decorations and for the toasts. Miniature houses and brick place cards made very attractive table decorations. Toasts were given by Miss Katherine Reigelhuth, "Founders"; Mrs. Ruth Ferris, "Builders"; Miss Rena Semenza, "Family"; and Mrs. Carrie Troner, "House Beautiful." Miss Grace Burnett, president of the Pi Beta Phi alumnae chapter, presided as toastmistress.

Pi Phi Has Formal Tea

Pi Beta Phi entertained with a formal tea at the home of Mrs. Prince Hawkins on Court street on Thursday afternoon in honor of their patronesses who are the Mesdames Fred Balzar, E. F. Lunsford, J. H. Gray, Ralph Elsmann, George Robinson and Vinton Muller. During the afternoon vocal selections were given by Doris Thompson, accompanied by Mary Adeline Thompson. Del Leach, George Gottschalk, Jack Williams, Bill Gilmartin, Plevone Spicknall, Pat Sanford, Fred Wilson, James Tonkin, and Aubrey Cupples.

Pi Phi Sigs Elect New Officers

New officers for the Eta Deuteron chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa were elected last Monday night at the fraternity meeting. Irvin Ayer was chosen president; John White, vice president; Al Chevalier, secretary; Red Ayers, treasurer, and Tom Hilberg, rushing captain.

Sigma Nu Holds Annual Dinner Dance

Delta Xi chapter of the Sigma Nu fraternity entertained with its annual spring formal dinner dance at the Reno Country Club last Friday evening, April 24. Music was furnished by Fred Nagle and his 7-piece orchestra. Entertainment during the evening was in the form of songs given by a men's chorus and solos sung by George Gottschalk. Those who attended were: Dr. J. C. Jones, Prof. and Mrs. W. R. Blackler, Prof. Harold Brown, Messrs

OUTWARD BOUND

With chins up, eyes ahead, ready to meet the world and lick it, they pass from our midst, these seniors who have been with us these past four years.

It is a grave step, yet lightly taken, this breaking off from the sheltered University life. And how bravely they face this drawn curtain of life, stretched before them!

There is no fear and dread as they walk past this, the jumping off place in life. Well they know that they are going out into a world where fate throws the often loaded dice.

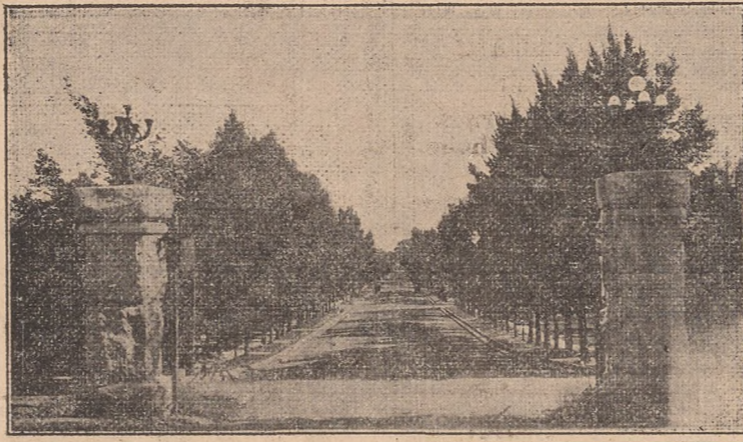

They do not fear, for they feel that they are prepared. Why else were these long four years spent in classroom and laboratory? And how different they are from the timid group of high school youngsters who walked unobtrusively along these walks four years ago, the first white registration slip clutched in their hand and a look of awestruck wonder upon their faces.

College has done something for these graduating seniors. Remember them, if you can, the timid boys and girls of yesterday who walked into a room as if treading on egg shells, sought out inconspicuous corners, and feared to speak. The difference is the result of their stay at the University. Now they are confident, self assured. They have conquered the University, a world in the miniature. Now they are ready for the larger task, the real world.

It is not only in the class room that they have learned. In the social life of the college they have met their fellows, and from that contact has come an invaluable lesson in life. In campus activities they have played at tasks for the sheer pleasure derived therefrom which will mean their existence in life.

The services next Monday, termed "Commencement" are well named. The process which severs the connection of the student with the institution is indeed the commencement of life. It is the step into the dark, and bravely taken, the commencement of a voyage into an unknown but unfeared sea.

THE GATES

This view is appropriate to one who is about to pass out of the student picture. We pass through the gates and go out into the broad avenues of life in our own fashion.

Out of Bounds

With no tears in my eyes, dear readers, I end this column. Without a doubt it has been one of the loudest bits of prattles included in the history of the Brush. However, it has been of some service to myself from the experience point of view, and if it has been of even half this much value to a few readers, I would be more than satisfied. However, I'm afraid this is not so—so, so much for that!

Next week the campus will experience not only its last week, but its most hectic, if we are to except Homecoming, possibly. What with exes, high school track meet, senior activities, Block N party, and many and sundry private—er—parties. Thank heaven, at least three fourths of us are underclassmen and have three months "vacation" during which to recover.

Artemisias and Wolfs will be out next week. Mariani claims the victory over Smith as he will be out on Monday, and the yearbooks will be distributed on Tuesday or Wednesday, from reports. Well, the dark-haired one deserves a boost, what with all the handicaps he's been working under. And for that matter, so does the elder Smith—

he's got more than an even chance of having the best Artemisia ever published attributed to his genius.

Looks as though the Wolf, so long as we have started discussing it—will be with us a while longer. Thank heaven, and much to the chagrin of certain faculty members, organization supporters, and general opposition. No doubt there will be a lot of sour grapes being slung around as the losing side usually does, but this will be quickly covered by the unrepressible glee of the friends of the Wolf.

In closing, dear friends, I would like to make one more statement. For your beer busts this week, the special is on at Pyramid Lake. Reservations can be made out there for space in the rocks and sand, while swimming privileges will no doubt go begging. And that, fond public, is the hilarious end of this column!

Something new in "majors" is being tried for the second successive year at Sweet Briar College—a system of research courses in which general fields are laid out, including several courses on the curriculum. Courses offered are, "American Problems," "Romanticism and Revolutions" for the language and others including those on music, biblical literature, art, political science, etc.

MUD BALLS

CRUMLEY LURES YOUNG CO-EDS AWAY FROM STUDIES

Newt Crumley played the hand of Diamond Dick Monday evening, when he walked into the library, sauntered to a table, and stood twiddling his thumbs, and pulling at a mustache that wasn't there. He walked over to the desk where Miss Elsie Kibbee was studying ardently, threw her a coy smile and said, "Come on, gal, let's scam out of here." Kibbee said no, but Crumley was the stronger, and another co-ed had been lured from her studies for the evening.

STUDY SANCTUM IS CLEARED AS SETTLEMAYER SMOKES PIPE

Showing the same dash of gallantry which has borne him successfully thru five love affairs during his college career, James Settlemyer, prominent junior student, caused a commotion in the library at a late hour last night when he filled his pipe, lit it, and sat back to blow smoke rings while crowds of wondering students stared agog at his daring.

They had laughed when he lit the pipe, but their laughter turned to tears as the first whiffs of smoke began to penetrate their eyes and noses, and they left the building en masse, to fill their lungs with the pure air outside.

NEW HOTEL TO GIVE ALL COMFORTS OF HOME

The editor of the mud balls column is about to open a hotel for those who are forced to sojourn in the charming little city for the summer. All rules will be strictly enforced. House rules appear below:

Towels changed weekly.
Anyone troubled with nightmare will find a halter on the bedpost.
Candles and hot water charged extra.
Don't worry about your bill, the house is supported by its foundations.
Dogs not allowed in the bunks.
Guests coming in feet first will settle up with the bell hops later.

DAVIS LEADS IN FIRST "GREAT LOVERS" CONTEST

With interest at its peak, as evidenced by threats on the life of the columnist, the "First Annual Great Lover Contest" draws to a close with the final issue of the Sagebrush this week, as but half the contestants express themselves as satisfied.

Last minute entries which were too late to run last week have entered into the competition to make the selection of the five Great Ones an almost impossible task. The decision reached by the columnist was to the effect that the three oldest and the two newest couples should have first consideration, with honorable mention going to five of the most ardent.

With this in mind, the outcome of the contest is announced as follows: (1) Al Davis and Lois Carman; (2) Bus Johnson and Mae Vuich; (3) Robert Merriman and Marion Stone; (4) Lucie King and Marvin Humphrey; (5) Rose Mahana and John Taylor.

Honorable Mention
(1) Ted Lunsford and Ethel Hanson; (2) Dorothy Johns and Julian Epperson; (3) Bob Merrit and Texas Donaldson; (4) Margaret Martin and Fred Trevitt; (5) Rose Fodrin and Gordon Burner.

In his selection the columnist makes no apologies to anybody, believing that

Sageless Brush

Slogan of the week: "Do you smell anything?" Well, unless you have reached that stage where you're unconscious—evade the southern end of the campus. With only one week of college left, wouldn't you think that the gardeners could have waited to spread out the unmentionable on the grass? The lawn aren't the only thing that are green nowadays. I bet business in the Wolf Den is good with that lovely scent wafted by the breezes through the open doors.

The last two weeks are busy enough when every little thing is O.K. But when some people always have to go and spoil things—damn, damn, damn—

It must be hard on the students who have been dismissed from the libe the next to the last week of the semester. But the funny part is that they may be dismissed in writing but not in fact—I've seen familiar faces—

The S.A.E.'s got a lucky break in the gardeners' contest. Now if they beat the Sigma Nu's. Says the other, "Whadya mean, Sigma Nu's? He's an S.A.E."

Lheard a heated discussion the other day. Says a freshe woman to an upperclass ditto: "Gee, I think Bing Crosby is darling. What a break for the Sigma Nu's." Says the other, "Whadya mean, Sigma Nu's? He's an S.A.E."

"Well, I guess I ought to know—I'm from Los Angeles."
"Bing Crosby's from Fresno."
"He's not—he's right from Los Angeles."

"Well, anyway, he's got cute curly hair."
"Curly hair, my eyes. It's straight as a stick."
"Say, listen, I've been out with him. I tell you it's curly."
"I tell you it's straight. By the way, did you know he's separated from his wife?"

Here the frosh glared at the upperclassman who paled. "Married? Are you sure? Why he never to-old me."
"Told you," says the frosh. "Say, do you know him?"
"Of course I do," says she, "I've been out with Bing."

"Where?—in Los Angeles?"
"No, right here on this campus."
"But he's never been on this campus, or at least I don't think so."
"Say are you talking about Bing

he has weighed the merits of each individual case, and sifted out the truly Great Loves from the Puppy Love affairs.

In this final issue the writers wish to thank all those individuals who have worked tirelessly to furnish material for the column, and also those cutters of capers, innocent though they might have been, who were the subjects on which informants worked. As for the dirt column next year, it is understood that no decision has been reached as to the policies to be followed. But it is believed that the column will follow the same slogan that has been in effect all this year: "The Students Must Know all the INSIDE DOPPEL!"

Crosby, or Bing Crosby?"
"I'm talking about Bing Crosby."
And then the light dawned. That's the trouble with being nicknamed after a famous crooner in songland, and both femmes were talking about Bing Crosby—or so the story goes.

It's a crime the way these profs pile work on one at the end of the semester. We all make the same vows at the beginning of the year to work hard so that the work won't pile up so fast at the end of the semester and then we must unlay a little bit and well, I guess we're all in the same predicament.

And if you are as tired of reading this column as I am of writing it—well, goodbye till next semester—better luck next time.

A new type of test for college students has been suggested by Professor H. E. Smith of Brown University. The new plan calls for "comprehensive" examinations by referring to text books. Under this building the student goes to his college building on a certain day, draws a slip from a box on which he finds indicated a subject within the field of his knowledge. Inside of 24 hours he must complete and write out a lecture on the subject. This system is now practiced in European universities and is a great success as the student must have a complete knowledge of his subject.

"THE THINKER"

... a telephone version

The name Electrical Thinker might be applied to one unit of telephone apparatus. Technically it is known as a Sender and is brought into action each time a call is made in a panel dial central office. By means of electrical mechanism, it records or "remembers" the dialed number and routes the call to the proper line.

The steady expansion of the Bell System

— in volume of calls, number of telephones and miles of wire — cannot be taken care of merely by an enlarged use of existing types of apparatus.

To serve the continually growing telephone needs of the nation, it will always be the task of Bell System men to devise, refine, perfect and manufacture new kinds of equipment such as The Thinker.

A.S.U.N. Finances Closed By Control Board For Term

Four Hundred Dollars Allowed As Salary For Assistant Football Coach

Finance Control committee will allow $400 for the salary of an assistant football coach for the Wolf Pack next fall, according to a decision reached by that body last Tuesday evening in the final meeting of the semester.

Furnishing a complete financial report of the A.S.U.N. for the spring and fall semesters, Graduate Manager Bernard Hartung said that the books showed a small balance at the close of the year.

Discussion on awarding medals to the members of the record breaking relay team, which lowered the old mark in the San Francisco University meet, was held over for discussion until next semester's first meeting.

President Jack Walther, President-elect Edwin Cantlon, and Graduate Manager Hartung, were chosen as delegates to represent Nevada at the Pacific Student Presidents' Association, which will be held in Tucson, Arizona, May 20-23, and expense money was allowed them.

Money was also provided for a delegate to the Far Western Conference convention.

The condition of the A.S.U.N. finances was summarized as follows:

A.S.U.N. Financial Report (As of the Year 1930-31)

Fall Semester Expenditures
August, 1930	$2,412.37
September, 1930	4,138.05
October, 1930	9,099.17
November, 1930	4,350.84

Karchmer Leaves Bolivia To Take Position In Russia

Nathan Karchmer, ax-'28, a challenger for the Mackay School of Mines fellowship two years ago, who took a position in Bolivia after leaving school, has recently left the South American tin mines to do metallurgical work in Russia.

HIS NAME IS LITTLE, BUT HE HAS A BIG INTEREST IN MUSIC

Assistant of Grounds and Buildings at University Has Been a Director in Campus Musical Activities

His name is Little—and he's not so big in stature. He can be seen on the campus at any time of day—busy in the performance of his duties. He has been the assistant with buildings and ground at the University for many years.

W. J. Little is comfortably settled down with Reno for his home and he has a wife and family. Although he is not a faculty member he has taken a paramount interest in the musical activities of the campus and has been one of those most interested in the staging of recitals and concerts which the University Glee clubs, band and orchestra have participated.

Several years ago he organized a band at Lincoln Hall, the members being men who lived there. He has taken a part in organizing and directing the community orchestra.

Mr. Little seems to be a musician by nature and he has always taken a part in musical activities on the campus and in musical activities of the community. He has also given music lessons to University students. Among the musical instruments which he plays and has become efficient in are the bass and snare drums, and the xylophone. He is also an expert with the cornet but has not played that instrument a great deal in recent years.

One would not know that the man who is frequently seen on the campus with a cheery "Hello" for his many friends among students and faculty, is a musician, and very interested along these lines. But nevertheless, he can often be seen with the band or orchestra, and in the final band concert which took place below the tram several Sundays ago he took an active part.

As a reward for his interest in the University band he has been made an honorary member of Kappa Kappa Psi, national honorary band fraternity.

Results of an investigation of the vocational activities of 891 college women from 255 colleges and universities throughout the country, carried on by Dr. Roy N. Anderson of Teachers College of Columbia University, which were recently made public, indicated a lack of vocational discrimination.

Extensive Program Planned For Tally

American Engineers' President To Visit Nevada Section Of Institute

Robert E. Tally, president of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, will visit the Nevada section of the institute, which includes the Crucible Club, this Saturday, May 2. He will arrive either by train or aeroplane, and an extensive program in his honor has been planned by the committee.

When Mr. Tally cancelled his date for Mackay Day, on account of trouble in his mine in Arizona, he promised to return and make his official visit before Commencement. He will undoubtedly want to visit the University, his alma mater, and his birth place at Virginia City. A banquet has been planned at the Riverside Hotel in his honor, at which will be present many of his old friends and prominent men of the state. This affair will take place, Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock, members are especially invited.

Robert Tally graduated from the School of Mines in 1899. Upon graduation he entered the employ of the United Verde Copper Company at Jerome, Arizona, as a miner, working his way to the top. He is at present chief stockholder in the mine, and he has one of his associates Mr. Clark, the donor of our library. Mr. Tally has always remembered Nevada graduates and many have been associated with him at his mine.

NEW SPECIMENS RECEIVED FOR MINES MUSEUM

Two new specimens have just been added to the ore museum at the Mackay School of Mines. A piece of plumbogjarosite ore, which is an unusual iron lead sulphate, was sent by Mr. Gus Rogers of Winnemucca from the Nevada Consolidated Mines Company near that town.

The other addition was a specimen of pink tourmaline in large dolomite from San Diego county. This stone is semi-precious and is used for gem stones. It was sent by C. D. Woodhouse to show the kind of ore he was mining.

Blakely, Umber Will Attend Convention

Representing Delta Xi chapter of Sigma Nu fraternity at its annual convention, Bill Blakely and Howard Umber will journey to Bigwin Inn, Ontario, Canada, during the week of August 23 to 30.

While in the East, Blakely and Umber will visit Montreal, Canada, Boston, New York City, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., and Chicago. The trip will last for three weeks.

Music Groups To Present "Carmen" At Century Club

Post Believes Best Talent On Campus Cast In Opera

National music week in Reno is being observed by the Century Club in the form of a concert by the University of Nevada Glee clubs and the University-Community orchestra, when the combined clubs present the opera "Carmen" on Tuesday, May 5, at 8:15.

According to Instructor Theodore H. Post, the Century Club has taken a great deal of interest in the event and has advertised it widely as a very worthwhile event. Post also declared that the best talent on the campus is represented in this group, and although the concert is the biggest musical event ever attempted by the musical organizations, a successful performance is expected.

All arrangements have been made by Mrs. S. T. Spann, president of the Century Club, and the sponsorship of this event means considerable in the way of support to the University organizations, Post declared. The performances by the clubs at the Century Club have been so successful that it is hoped that they can be continued as a yearly performance.

The presentation has the services of seventy-five young musical people in the University and community, under the direction of Theodore H. Post. The cast also includes Mrs. Dorothy B. as soloist. Accompanists are Leota Roby, Helen Steinmiller and Dorothy B. Post.

A student admission of fifty cents is made and it is predicted that the event will be worth while for the musically minded scholars to attend.

The program for the evening is as follows:

Pack Tracksters Picked To Win Far West Meet

Philbrook's Charges Chances Said To Be Good In Western Meet

SCOTT SHIFTED TO 220 Waits Favored to Win Furlong On Undefeated Record During Season

By TED MOORE
With high hopes for bringing home a Far Western track crown, Coach Geo. Philbrook and his Wolf Pack track team left Reno this morning for the annual meet to be held at the Sacramento Junior College oval tomorrow.

Philbrook's squad of tracksters will be composed of the following men: Capt. Neil Scott, Frank Walts, Frank O'Bryan, Fred Wilson, Roy Salsbury, Howdy Arthur, Dan Bledsoe, Al Lefebvre, Byron O'Hara, and Earl Seaborn.

The quarter mile race will be one of the best of the day with Walts, undefeated this year, and Scott, who has been shifted from the century and 220 yard dash to his favorite event the quarter mile, running for Nevada against such men as Sickles of San Jose; Lomborg of Fresno, and Wright from Cal Aggies. Walts and Scott are expected to take first and second respectively.

Wilson, a letter man from last year, will run with Walts in the half mile event. Markle of Fresno is conceded first place in this race, with Walts and Wilson placing second and third for Nevada. Oren and Sickles, both of San Jose, with Wright of Cal Aggies will make the going tough for the three mentioned above.

"Cookie" Favored
Salsbury is the only man entered in the mile run for Nevada and is given better than an even chance to win this event providing he puts on one of his sensational finishes to defeat Clark of San Jose and Hatch from Pacific.

The high hurdles will be closely contested with Arthur and O'Bryan of Nevada running neck and neck with Wool of San Jose, with Arthur given the edge over the other two.

O'Bryan, running for Nevada in the and has a good chance to beat our Stiff of San Jose for first place.

In the high jump Nevada should at least place three men with Arthur, O'Bryan and Bledsoe entered in this event. Marty from Fresno will fight it out with Arthur for first place, while O'Bryan and Bledsoe will take third and fourth.

Lefebvre Has Edge
Lefebvre is given the edge for first place in the broad jump over the rest of the field. Captain Scott will also be given a chance to place in this event with Manford and Stuecklin of Chico, Marty of Fresno, and Dieu of San Jose given an even place with Scott.

Nevada should place three men in the pole vault with Wool of San Jose first, and O'Hara, O'Bryan, and Lefebvre all from Nevada a tie for the rest of the places.

Lefebvre is a likely winner in the javelin throw, with Cunningham from San Jose his closest rival. Both tied for first two weeks ago at San Jose.

Nevada's relay team will be out for a new record and ought to win this event with ease. Their best time this year is 3:25, while none of the other teams have done better than 3:30. Scott, Wilson, Salsbury, and Walts will run in this event for Nevada.

No Sprinters
Nevada will not enter anyone in the 100 or 200 yard dashes. She will also be weak in the two mile run, the shot put, and discus throw. It is likely that Lefebvre will place in the shot.

Nevada is given an even chance to win the conference with Fresno and San Jose fighting it out for second. Pacific should place fourth and will help Nevada out if their star sprinter, Loveridge, can compete. Loveridge has been out of competition all year due to a leg injury. Chico and California Aggies will fight it out for last place.

Average Nevada Year Is Shown In Annual Review Of All Major Sports With Hope Expressed For Much Future Improvement

By KENNETH JOHNSON
Finishing up the current 1930-31 University of Nevada inter-collegiate athletic competition tomorrow at the Far Western Conference track meet at Sacramento with fair prospects of upsetting the dope bucket to top the conference track championship, the Wolf Pack has come through with an average Nevada year registering approximately as many wins as losses in all lines of varsity sports.

Starting off the 1930 football season with bright prospects and an abundance of reserve material fell before the onslaught of the powerful University of Utah gridgers (two times undefeated Rocky Mountain Conference champions) to the tune of 20-6, before a large opening game crowd. The following week the Nevada varsity journeyed to Provo to battle the powerful Brigham Young University eleven. The game resulted in a 6-6 tie which was featured by a sensational 80 yard run for a Nevada touchdown by Sultenfuss in the opening minutes of play.

Santa Clara Tied
Due to the phenomenal playing of George "Morely" Drury, Jack Walters and Bob Madariaga, the Wolf Pack staved off the savage attack of the powerful Santa Clara grid machine, earning a moral victory as well as a scoreless tie. In this game the Nevada line-play was par-excellence, stopping the Bronco attack before it could get under way.

Homecoming day the Nevada grid men reached seemingly new heights in walloping the 1929 Far Western Conference champion Cal Aggies to the tune of 31-0. Another victory was registered by the Wolf Pack in the following week in handing the College of Pacific Bengals a 21-13 defeat in a fighting game which Nevada won in the last half, after trailing by two touchdowns in the third period. Jack Hill and Clem Sultenfuss were the outstanding field men for the Pack.

Fresno Wins Conference
The final home game on the schedule resulted in a 20-14 victory for the strong University of San Francisco gridgers in a hard fought game that was featured by the stellar playing of Al Lefebvre and Art Levy for Nevada, and Bob Kleckner for the Gray Fog.

November 8 half the Nevada campus journeyed to Berkeley to witness the Nevada-California classic that was fought in a sea of mud. The Wolves went down fighting to the tune of 8-0, establishing Nevada football well on its way to Coast recognition.

Thanksgiving Day marked the battle between Nevada and Fresno State for the conference supremacy which the Bulldogs won by one lone touchdown, 6-0. The game was an upset in football circles, but due to the inability of the backfield to function up to expectations Nevada once again failed to score.

Thus ended another chapter in Nevada football history with Al Lefebvre, backfield ace, and Jack Walters, versatile Wolf Pack center, receiving honorable mention on Pop Werner's All-American team.

Basketball Opens
On the basketball floor the University of Nevada's first game was the 1931 season with the powerful University of California Bears. The Pack dropped the first game only to come back fighting to handily outplay the Bears in every department of the game and walk off with the first victory of the season.

Coach Martie, after an absence of a year from the hardwood, took over the team that Assistant Coach Chet Scranton had developed into a fair scoring machine the year before.

This same team that split the opening series with Cal gave every early season promise of being reckoned as one of the most outstanding aggregations on the Pacific Coast. The next game played was with the strong University of Montana five which resulted in a hard fought game with Nevada on the four quint of the score. The following week injuries, and the declaring of John Gilmartin, star center, out for the rest of the season on account of an injury, resulted in a double loss to San Jose State Teachers (conference champs). The Pack showed the real Nevada fight the next week-end by handing the highly touted Fresno State Teachers basketball team a double drubbing to make the conference average 500.

Hard Luck Appears
The Pack again went through a period of hard luck and stalked by injuries from every side, lost a two game series by very narrow margins to the Cal Aggie hoop artists.

The next week-end Coach Martie was forced to use all reserves against the Chico State team and much to the surprise of the Wolf Pack followers, ran rampant over the Teachers to score again a double win and bring the percentage column back to 4 won and 4 lost.

St. Mary's Defeated
The most drastic blow to be felt by the hoop team resulted the Sunday following the Chico series when the untimely death of Captain Joe De Reemer, sterra guard, occurred after a short illness. The series with San Francisco University was called off and a weak, but defeated pack met the strong St. Mary's quintet at Moraga. The first game resulted in an overwhelming Nevada victory and the second game was lost after a steady drive for the hoop by the Gaels netted them a one-point victory over the Wolves.

The final basketball series with the College of Pacific resulted in a double loss for the Pack, ending up a basketball season that was destined, from pre-season dope, to be a banner year.

Boxing Registers Thrills
Nevada's newest sport, boxing, tho not recognized as a major sport, registered its share of wins and thrills for the University of Nevada supporters. Like the basketball men the milt-slingers were visited with their share of hard luck. First Captain-elect Jimmy Olivas (Far Western welterweight champion) and Nick Vets, sensational state middleweight champ, were declared ineligible, and then Wally Rusik, speedy light heavyweight, withdrew from school. Coach Dick Wallace made the best of the season with the aid of several inexperienced but willing men.

The first inter-collegiate match of the 1931 season was held at Palo Alto with the Stanford University boxers, resulting in a 4-3 decision in favor of the Indians. The next match featured the newly organized St. Mary's University milt-slingers, who were handily dealt with by the Pack suggesters, losing 5 matches to 2. The following week the strong Coast champion Cal Aggie sluggers easily defeated a squad of Nevada boxers who lost 5 bouts to the Mustangs, but decisively won the remaining two. The final bouts of the year were held with the highly touted University of California aggregation.

The final results were 3 victories for Nevada, 3 victories for California, and one bout forfeited to Cal, due to Nevada fighting Ures, who won his fight but was ineligible for college competition.

Foremost among Coach Dick Wallace's men who will return next year are Spud Harris; welterweight; Cliff Devine, featherweight, and Ole Theis, heavyweight. These three men were mentioned as possible Coast champions in their divisions. Other men who developed rapidly were Paul Fontana, Elmer Hawkins, Ken Austin, and Max Thompson.

Versatile Cinder Athletes
On the cinder path the University of Nevada has shown to date a squad of versatile athletes with the possibility of establishing three new school records in the conference meet tomorrow.

The first track meet of the current season was held at the University of San Francisco, which was won easily by the Wolf Pack cinder stars to the tune of 87-44. The following week Geo. Philbrook's charges were taken into camp by the powerful San Jose Teachers, 85-46 in a hectic meet which was featured by the inability of the Wolf Pack speedsters to get their stride.

According to Coach Philbrook the University of Nevada track records that may fall in the Far Western meet tomorrow are: 440 yard dash, both hurdle races, high jump, broad jump, and pole vault.

A review of freshman athletics for the past year shows that Coaches Chet Scranton and Morton Kaer have developed some first class material for future Nevada varsities. Morton Kaer, former U.S.C. football star, took over the yearling grid squad, and Chet Scranton, assistant athletic director, was frosh basketball mentor.

Kaer's aggregation showed strength in its first game, in which it downed the fast Fallon eleven 26 to 18, in a game that featured clever aerial work between Harold Curran in the backfield and ends Kistler Rivers and Gene Salet.

Antlers Win
Jim Olivas' Reno Antlers Club upset the yearling ball toters in their second game, which ended 2 to 6, and the Antlers leading. The homecoming (continued on page eight)

S.A.E. Upsets Dope To Win Over Phi Sig; Sigma Phi Heavyweight Crown

Phi Sigma Kappa Suffers First Defeat of Year in Game With 7 to 1 Score TWO TEAMS TIED

Championship Play-off To Be Tomorrow Afternoon Will Be Interesting

No puns and no hits for eight and two-thirds inning was what Vernon Hirst, speedball artist of the S.A.E. nine, handed out to the Phi Sigs last Saturday. An error on what should have been the last out, paved the way for the only hit of the game, when Oscar Frietag, powerful Phi Sig slugger, poled out a long three bagger to give his team their only run of the game. However, the run proved of no avail, and the league leading Phi Sigma Kappa team went down to its first defeat of the year by a 7 to 1 score.

Hirst proved to be a whole show in himself in the most startling and thrilling upset of the baseball season. He pitched a marvelous game, striking out 18 men, walked one and hit another, which, coupled with the last inning error and the only hit of the game allowed but four men to get on base, and only one of which was able to score. His control was nearly perfect and his fast ball had the Phi Sigs puzzled from first to last.

League In Tie
Not only did the game prove an upset but it threw the league leadership in a tie. Until yesterday afternoon the Phi Sigs had one more victory to their credit, but the S.A.E.'s rounded out their league schedule with a well earned victory over the Sigma Phi Sigs, winning by the score of 5 to 2 yesterday to tie the league up, and forcing another game between them and the Phi Sigs.

In winning the S. A. E.'s played their best game of the year, they made but one error in the field, and at bat they showed themselves to be a powerful batting combination. Parsons, Hirst, Backer, Beckley and Flounoy drove out long hits. The winning hit of the game was a long three bagger by Parsons, driven out over the center fielder's head, with the bases loaded. That hit gave them a lead that proved

Antone Poloni Wins National Amateur Heavyweight Crown

Reno Fighter and Al Gomez Bring Titles To West Coast

Antone Poloni, former University of Nevada student, was acclaimed national light heavyweight amateur boxing champion in New York City last night when he knocked out Joe Melham of Kansas City in the third round of the finals.

Fighting under the colors of the Reno Antlers Club, Poloni took his three previous opponents into camp via the knockout route, and then stepped up to championship bouts to bring the crown to the West Coast from a handful of hard fighting competitors in the East.

Gomez Gets Title
Al Gomez, San Francisco, fighting in the 135 pound class, was the only other West Coast entrant to win a championship. He took a three round hairline decision from Al Salek of Massachusetts after three frames of furious slugging as the ten thousand spectators lifted the roof with cheers from the opening gong.

Poloni, in winning the championship fight, was described as a dead ringer for the Jack Dempsey of 15 years ago. He took things easy for the first two rounds, only to open up with a whirlwind attack in the final round to knock out Melham in fifty-five seconds.

Knockout King
It marked the first knockout of the day, and the third of the tournament for the slugging Sparks heavyweight. In the semi-finals he mauled Anthony Sutton of Chicago around the ring for three rounds, dropping him to the floor sufficient to win. And twice during the game Fern Ambrose, stellar Phi Sig fielder, was forced back into the little pine trees to retrieve the ball. These two are the only instances of the year in which the ball has been knocked over his head.

The championship game will be played tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 on the University diamond. In all likelihood S.A.E.'s, and while it is hardly likely hood Hirst will take the mound for the to look for another no hit, no run game of a week ago, it will undoubtedly be just as thrilling and spectacular as the first fray was.

for counts of nine of two occasions, but allowing him to finish.
He was the only member of the Antlers Club team to come through to the finals. Bob Olivas was eliminated in the quarter-finals, while James Olivas snapped a tendon in his knee while in practice at Chicago, and physicians would not allow him to enter the tournament. Olivas was considered as promising championship material. He will not be able to use his leg for some time, dispatches say.

15 Schools Compete In Home Ec. Contests

With girls from fifteen Nevada high schools taking part, the seventh annual home economics contest started at the University of Nevada yesterday morning under the direction of Miss Ruth Talbot, state supervisor.

The child care and guidance demonstration took place at 9 o'clock Thursday and at 1 o'clock Dr. Walter Clark greeted the contestants.

Various demonstration contests took place today, and Saturday the affair will close with a banquet at the Century Club at 6:30, when the prize winners will be announced.

The schools taking part include Sparks, Wells, Yerington, Fallon, Las Vegas, Winnemucca, Bunkerville, Battle Mountain, Gardnerville, Lovelock, Tonopah, Lund, Carson, Carlin, and Overton.

No Noise In Libe During Last Minute Rush Of Studying
That the last minute study rush is not conducive to noise is indicated by Ina Thea Thompson this week when 17 students were placed on her dismissal list at the Clark Memorial Library.

Al Lefebvre To Take Part In National Meet

Sensational Nevada Athlete To Represent L.A.A.C. In Springfield

Al Lefebvre, the University of Nevada's spectacular tumbler and track man, has received an invitation to take part in the National Gymnastics Meet in Springfield, Mass., on May 23. Lefebvre will leave for the East on May 15, and will go as a representative of the Los Angeles Athletic club, with three other members of the club. After participating in the National Gymnastics Meet, Lefebvre plans to enter the National Track and Field Meet, which will be held three weeks later.

Lefebvre was coach of the University tumbling team which worked out two evenings a week during the last semester. The team has developed several very promising tumblers and is contemplating future inter-collegiate tumbling meets if they can be made possible.

Team Exhibits
The tumbling team staged an exhibition on the afternoon of the final game of the state high school basketball tournament. On the team were Lefebvre, "Kelly" Bannigan, Cephus Fort, Dave Clark, and Chesley Hart.

Lefebvre has been working out in tumbling, but his time has been somewhat limited because of his track activities, but after the Far Western conference meet he plans to settle down to intensive training for the National Gymnastics meet.

Big game is big game whether you hunt it yourself or share the thrill from an open book or the silver screen. Likewise, a good cigarette is a smoke. What you taste in Chesterfield is what you want to taste—milder and better tobaccos—nothing else! The right taste is there because the tobaccos are right. And, thanks to the "cross-blend," none of that fragrant mildness can get away!

They Satisfy —that's Why!

FOR NINETEEN years, our Research Department has kept intimate touch with every new development of Science that could be applied to the manufacture of cigarettes. During this period there has been no development of tested value or importance to the smoker which we have not incorporated into the making of Chesterfield cigarettes.

Summer Session To Be Independent Of Regents' Board

Tuition Increased To Twenty-Five Dollars As Term Cut One Week

Summer school, which will be undertaken independently of the Board of Regents by the summer session faculty, will convene for a five week period starting June 15. The length of the session will be five weeks instead of the usual six, and the tuition has been increased to $25.

Classes will be conducted on Saturdays, which was not previously done, and in this manner the number of recitations in each class will be the same.

The reason for conducting classes on Saturdays was given as to shorten the length of the session so that the increase in tuition could be paid by the saving that would be made in living expenses.

It is necessary that 125 students make known their intention of attending the session by May 25. Walter W. Anderson is sending announcements in the May issue of the Educational Bulletin to teachers who reside in the state.

SENIOR BALL TO END SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL SEASON

The last formal dance of the school year will take place Saturday evening when the senior ball is given in the State Building. This affair will bring to a close the social season of the University of Nevada, and will be the final celebration of the seniors before they go out to conquer the cold, cruel world, and end the business depression.

A tax of fifty cents per person was levied upon each member of the junior class in order to make this affair a high light in the seniors' commencement week and a happy memory to close their college social career.

Last Tux Appearance
This dance will not only present a final opportunity for the men to climb graciously into their tuxes but for the women to don pastel gowns of crisp organdy or flowered chiffon which have made a timid, but effective, appearance at one or two formal teas and house dances.

Dick Hillman's orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion which will be an added inducement to those privileged to attend.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the dance consists of Bruce Thompson, chairman; Newton Crumley, Walt Mitchell, John Winters, Gordon Robertson, Kenneth Ingles, Del States, Emily Gracey, Josephine Bernard, Betty Seeds, and Jane Harcourt.

Clawson, Linn Nuptials Told

Word has been received in Reno announcing the wedding of Mr. William E. Clawson, Jr., and Miss Ruth Linn.

William Clawson is a graduate of the aggie school at the University of Nevada with the class of 1927. Miss Linn formerly resided in Reno where she attended the public and high schools.

The wedding took place in Walnut Creek, California, on April 27th at the Community Church of which Miss Linn's father is minister.

Bolivian Indian Rug Added To Collection In Museum

The Mackay Museum is the recipient of an Indian rug for its collection, made by the natives of Bolivia. The blanket depicts a farm scene. It was brought from South America by Victor Pimentel. Pimentel also brought the Museum some very fine specimens of tin ore, from the locality in which he has been working.

New Constitution To Appear In Handbook

Bibles Ready To Distribute By Next Fall, Says Thompson

Bruce Thompson, chairman of the frosh handbook committee, reports that progress is being made on the book and that it will be ready for distribution at the beginning of the fall semester. Other members of the committee are Howard Umber, business manager; Elbert Walker, and Catherine Wright.

Finding it necessary to reduced expenses, the committee has decided to use paper book covers, thus lowering the sales price to fifty cents. In previous years, the covers were of leather, and the price was seventy-five cents.

The "Bible" will be practically the same as former ones in size and content. One new feature will be the printing of the recently revised constitution. Advertising material has been secured and about ten advertisements will be used.

Honorary Group To Initiate Members

Final Blue Key Banquet Is Slated For Wednesday Night

Members of the Blue Key fraternity will hold their final banquet downtown on Wednesday evening. Initiation of new members will take place at this time. The men to be initiated are: Oscar Bryan, Dan Trevitt, Del States, John Winters, Dwight Leavitt, Joe Jackson, Bruce Thompson, Elbert Walker, Phil Dayer, Ben Johnson and Ken Johnson.

The members recently held an election of officers and chose the following men for the offices next year: Al Davis, president; Fred Trevitt, vice president; Irwin Ayers, secretary; Fred Woods, treasurer.

Underclass Victors In Women Baseball

With a squad of four the underclass women's baseball team defeated the upperclass team of eight members last Tuesday by a score of 11 to 3. This game closed the sport season for women.

A feed for all varsity baseball players and archers was held at the W.A.A. Lodge at Galena Creek Thursday evening.

Sports Review

preliminary with Reno High ended 6-6. To atone for its rather poor showing in the last two games, Kaer's outfit came back to overwhelm Susanville 22 to 0, and Lovelock 34 to 0. These games starred Monty Boland and Harold Curran, whose field work was responsible for much of the scoring.

Frosh Lose One Game

Out of some sixteen games the frosh basketball quintet was beaten only once. Virginia City staged a surprise attack on the frosh in the University gym, which ended with the miners leading 23-16. In the frosh first out of town game they had taken Virginia 29 to 15. Seranton's regular first squad gave the guard positions to Harold Curran, Gene Salet, and Lloyd Guffrey; center to Mike Gould, and the forward positions were contested between Bob Leighton, Ole Glusovich, Everett Wayman, and Elwood Rose.

List Given

A list of freshman who made their numerals in football follows: James Tonkin, Monty Boland, Harold Curran, Tom McKay, Rowan Colgan, Bob Leighton, Jack Lukey, Gene Salet, Kistler Rivers, John Stock, William Murphy, Dudley Acree, Fred Fuetch, Joe Boswell, Ole Glusovich, Nevin Fryer, Bill Montgomery, John Vinay, James Morrison, Fred McElroy, Frank Sharp, Ed Brewer, Oden Romwall, Mike Sherrup, and Bernard Underwood.

Coach Chet Seranton recommended the following for numerals in basketball: Harold Curran, Ole Glusovich, Lloyd Guffrey, Bob Leighton, Monty Boland, Charles Leach, John Dolan, Everett Wayman, Bruce Gould, James Tonkin, Elwood Rose, Fred McElroy, Gene Salet, Russell Elliot, Brooks Park, Dan Harvey, Loren Beckley.

Seismograph Shows 75 Earthquakes In Period Of 4 Months

According to Professor J. S. Jones, geologist of the Mackay School of Mines, the seismograph in the building has been very active since the first of the year registering 75 earthquakes. The recent Los Angeles quake which caused such a stir, and the Nicaraguan quake, which resulted in much disaster, both registered very faintly, probably because they were so near the surface.

Of the 75 earthquakes recorded since the first of the year the most distant one was ten thousand miles away, in New Zealand, and the nearest, averaging about six miles have been recorded in this valley. However, there is nothing to be alarmed over as few of these earthquakes were violent enough to be felt.

Wallace Will Head Sophomore Class

Combines clicked again with the result that a new group of officers was elected by the freshman class to head them for the first semester next year. Considerable excitement was occasioned by the closeness of the race for several of the offices.

Jim Wallace was chosen over Tommy Hilberg as president; Pearl Romwall over Anne O'Sell, vice president; Dorothy Rose over Jean MacIntyre, secretary; and Elmer was victorious over Bill Gilmartin for treasurer.

D.A.E. Installation Held At Riverside

D.A.E. installation took place Saturday by Hazel Selby, national vice president of Chi Delta Phi, from Salt Lake City. Miss Selby was assisted in installation by Faralle Smithson, president; Helen Montrose, vice president; Mary Ruth Seamon, secretary; Margaret Ede, treasurer; Elsie Seaborn, Elizabeth Wallace, and Cecelia Hawkins.

Saturday, at the Riverside Hotel, Miss Selby was entertained at a luncheon. That evening she was entertained at a banquet which was attended by the newly installed members in Chi Delta Phi, D.A.E. alumni, and members of the English department. She departed that evening for her home in Salt Lake City.
