Heart Trouble Brings Death to Archie Woods, Senior Student

Chem. Club Head Succumbs After 3 Weeks' Illness

Senior Student From Sparks
Was to Have Graduated
This Spring

Influenza Complications Cause Death; Burial Will Be Next Week

Archie Albert Woods, senior student at the University of Nevada, passed away at 9 o'clock this morning after an illness of about three weeks. Complications resulting from influenza, coupled with a weak heart, caused his death.

He would have graduated with the class of '32 this year and was president of the chemistry club this semester. He had been active in chemistry circles the past four years, and was to have received his degree of Bachelor of Science in chemistry.

Chiefly interested in industrial chemistry, he had expressed his intention of entering this field, and had prepared himself for his work by long hours of toil in the laboratory. He had worked on several experimental projects with Dr. Sears, head of the department of chemistry.

Faithful Worker

Students who knew Woods expressed great shock on being informed of his death. Dr. Sears, together with other faculty members, regretted the loss of one whom they felt was destined to contribute much to the field of chemistry. Dr. Sears, in commenting, paid a high tribute to Woods when he said, "Woods was one of the most faithful and hardest working students I have ever been privileged to instruct. I deeply regret his loss."

Woods was born in Sparks, Nevada, January 27, 1909, and was 23 years old. He was a graduate of the Sparks high school. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Corey of Sparks, two brothers, Merle of Sparks, and Leonard of Vallejo, one half-brother, John Corey of Sparks, and three half sisters, Mrs. Maurice Worden of Reno, and Eunice and Amy Lou, both of Sparks. The body is at the Ross Burke parlors. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Chinese Situation Holds Interest Of Nevada Students

Three Nevada Graduates Now Holding Position in War Zone

With three University of Nevada graduates holding positions in China at the present time, and two members of the student body whose homes are in China, the situation in the orient is of particular interest to those on the campus.

Fawn S. Louie, a Chinese student graduated in 1928, who has been working as superintendent of a large plant manufacturing enamelware at Mukden, recently wrote a letter to Dean Maxwell Adams telling of his escape to Peking during an unexpected machine gun raid on the city of Manchuria.

Mrs. Sutton Christian, formerly Miss Nevada Semenza, is women's editor of the China Press in Shanghai. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Semenza of 141 Vine street of this city have had no word for several months, but believe her to be safe. Grace Semenza '35, is Mrs. Christian's sister.

William Young, a member of the class of '29, is now serving the city government at Canton, but is too far south to be in any great danger.

Frank Sam, whose people live in Canton, and who is majoring in mineralogy at the University of Nevada, had had a position waiting for him in Manchuria until the completion of his course here, but will be unable to take it on account of the present difficulty there.

Yu Kwan, a chemistry major at the University at the present time, whose family also lives in Canton, says, "We do not object to the Japanese carrying out their imperialistic plan, but we do object to the taking of innocent lives by bombing and brutal methods of warfare."

He states that the university students studying in Nanking and Shanghai are taking an active part in the war by boycotting Japanese goods and throwing it in the river. They also hold parades through the streets and lead meetings to protect their sovereign rights.

Yu Kwan is a member of the Chinese club organized in Reno to raise funds to send to China for the relief of those who have no homes. Several thousand dollars have been raised by the combined clubs of Reno and San Francisco.

Doris Shaver, '33, will resume her studies Monday after an absence of several weeks, during which she was incapacitated. She is afflicted with Pi Beta Phi.

'AX' TO FALL ON DORMANT ASSOCIATIONS

Announcing that work on the revising of the University of Nevada catalog is well under way, President Walter E. Clark has requested Ed Cantlon, A.S.U.N. head, to call a meeting of the Executive committee next Thursday to determine the status of those organizations who now are allotted space in the catalog.

Room must be made for other active organizations that have made their appearance on the campus since the catalog was last published. Notable among those honoraries to be put in the new catalog are Mask and Dagger, Kappa Kappa Psi and Sagens.

The so-called campus clean-up of "dead" organizations must be done so that fitting recognition may be given to those other organizations that are doing service to Nevada.

Those dormant organizations under the axe are Clonina, Press Club, Campus Y.M.C.A., Caucous, Mu Beat Sigma, and Commercial Service Club. Cantlon wishes to announce that any one interested in seeing the above mentioned organizations remain here should see him about the matter at once.

Mackay Day Queens To Be Announced Next Week In 'Brush

Old Time Gold Mining Camp Atmosphere Present For Whiskerino

No advance rumors have unveiled any part of the mystery of who the three queens for Mackay Day will be, but Chairman Fritz Wilson of the committee stated that next week's Sagebrush will tell the whole story.

At the last of the week they will have their pictures taken for the Artemisia, according to Elbert Walker. Mats for the reproduction of pictures for newspapers have already been prepared, which will be sent to all Nevada publications and several California papers.

Women Must Cooperate
It will be wise for women students to search their attics for calico or gingham dresses which will be fitting for the bearded and bearded men. All women will be required to wear these simpler dresses at the Mackay Day Whiskerino dance.

Two ancient, but appropriate brass-railed bars have been loaned for decorations, and large stein-beer barrels will add the final bar-room touch. Under a starry sky, the two drinks of the evening, will be served over these bars in gold camp fashion.

The Aggie club has volunteered to be in complete charge of the wood-chopping contest to be held in the afternoon. The number of men already signed up for this feature indicate that it will offer a great deal of interest.

Faculty Helps
Along with the clean-up program, tentative plans are being made to turn the tennis courts over to the faculty of their respond to the proposal that they join in all festivities. This is an entirely new idea, and if successful, will be at least an incentive for more students to turn out.

Joe Lynch, superintendent of buildings and grounds, has promised Fritz Wilson that he will give the Mackay Day committee three spruce trees to be planted in conjunction with the ground breaking for the Haseman memorial. The trees will be planted on the Memorial site at the northeast end of Manzanita lake.

It is yet unknown what the decision of the Reno Chamber of Commerce is in regard to the naming of University and Center streets, Mackay avenue, a proposal recently submitted by the associated students of the University of Nevada. The proposal is now in the hands of a chamber of commerce committee, who will report the advisability of such a name in the near future.

A fitting dedication will be held on Mackay Day if the street is named after Nevada's great benefactor.

The Whiskerino contest will officially start on Monday, although it is apparent that many students are sprouting their conglomeration of beards at the present time. To produce the right effect the whole of the three remaining weeks before Mackay Day will be necessary for the raising of whiskers.

"Don't Shave," will not only be the school slogan for the next few weeks, but will be a challenge to the spirit which has in the past been shown by a very large majority of Nevada men.

Hart Stricken Ill; No Upperclass Meet

The meeting of the Upperclass committee for the purpose of punishing Dale Hart, freshman tradition breaker, has been postponed owing to illness that has been keeping Hart from appearing before them.

The meeting will be held during the coming week.

State Prep School Basketball Meet Set For March 10

Alvin Lombardi Appointed to Be Manager of Annual Tournament
Eight Strongest Teams of State Will Contest for High School Title

Announcement of March 10, 11, and 12 as the dates for the annual interscholastic basketball tournament, following the appointment last week of Alvin Lombardi, '31, as manager of the tourney.

The appointment of Lombardi was made by the Nevada Interscholastic league, which is sponsoring the tournament this year. The action of the league was necessitated by the announcement last fall, that due to financial difficulties and the dissatisfaction of certain teams attending the tournament, that the Block N Society would not attempt to manage a state-wide tourney this year.

Lombardi is a University of Nevada graduate and a former star basketball player and is perfectly capable of handling the problem before him. He will be assisted by Jack Walther, another University graduate, who besides being a star athlete was president of the student body last year. The connections that these two men have with the University and with the different high schools throughout the state, will help them a great deal in promoting this year's tournament.

The financing of the meet is the biggest problem that confronts them, but with the announcement that only eight teams will be allowed to compete clears up some of the financial difficulties.

Consolation Bracket Planned
A championship and consolation bracket plan will be followed. This permits each team to play at least twice. The teams meeting defeat the first day will be bracketed in the consolation flight, and the winners will continue in the elimination climb for the championship.

Fraternity houses will again assist in the housing of the teams. The visiting players will not only sleep but will take their meals at the different frat houses, according to arrangements being made with the house managers of the greek letter organizations. This plan should be more convenient than in previous years when the teams were housed at the different fraternities and forced to take all meals at the University dining hall.

Eight Teams Entered
Of the eight teams in the tournament, two will come from the southern section, two from the eastern division, and four chosen from the western division.

In the south, Ely appears to be the strongest of all contenders and will undoubtedly be of championship caliber. The next strongest team in that division appears to be Panaca who has been beaten by Ely, but has decisions over Tonopah, Overton, Bunkerville, and Las Vegas. Tonopah experienced a bad road trip last week, when they dropped two contests, one to Bunkerville and the other to Overton. These two losses will probably be enough to drop them out of the tournament.

The strongest teams in the eastern district appear to be Winnemucca and either Elko or Carlin. Winnemucca appears to have the strongest team since they were defeated by Tonopah in the finals three years ago, and it would not be a bit surprising to see them battling Ely for the championship on the final night.

In the western section Lovelock and Stewart, according to season scores, are the best teams. The tournament contestants however, will not be chosen until a week previous to the state meet, when a district round robin will be run off, and it is very likely that Sparks and Reno, despite their poor records up to date, will find a place in the tournament.

Frosh Glee Plans Announced By Chairman Miller

March 5 Set as Date for Formal To Be Held at Twentieth Century Club

With the coming of spring the campus formal season will be inaugurated on March 5, when the class of '35 will give the annual Frosh Glee at the Century Club.

Orson Miller, chairman of the dance committee, recently appointed to assist him in preparations Robert Creps, Sally Fagan, Denver Dickerson, Ernie Mack, and Marjorie Cannon.

Some form of entertainment is being planned, according to Miller, and the Century Club will probably be decorated in the class colors. Music will be furnished by Ray Hackett and his orchestra.

The formal dance is a tradition with all freshman classes which being dumped into the lake and painting the "N." At this time not only the frosh but the whole campus will be entertained.

Sophomore Circus Jig Is Ready For Hill Social Lions

The "Dancing Horse" to be the Evening's Attraction, Say Committeemen

Soph Class Gets Together Many Freaks to Put Over Its Glittering Affair

Tomorrow night, following the championship basketball games the staid gymnasium will be turned into such a glittering circus that even Mr. Barham himself would be caused to wonder if his eyes were not deceiving him.

The dancing horse, imported from California, has improved to such an extent in the desert air that his antics have caused his keepers to reinforce the stable. The few sophos who have seen this marvelous beast have been going around the campus for the past week in a daze. He is still shrouded in mystery, however, for those who have been lucky enough to see the animal can not find words to express their feelings. This astonishing equine with the dancing hoofs would be sufficient to attract a circus crowd, but the sophos were not satisfied. They have added clowns to the entertainment.

Not the usual funny faced affairs that contented Sells-Floto. Those were scorned by the committee. These clowns tower 20 feet into the ozone—that is, in their stocking feet. When fully dressed and with his high hat on Monsieur Clownee, the leader of the troupe, measures 20 feet 5 inches. Together, they form a spectacle that would cause Ripley to put out an extra.

Aside from this, all the freaks that travel with a circus, from the fat woman to the living skeleton, have been secured. These freaks have been concocted from the soph class, disguised of course by maestros of make-up. The only fear is the Barker. This poor human may break down when he sees his own wares.

The soph committee, consisting of Tom Hilberg, chairman; Oscar Robinson, Gene Sallet, Dan Harvey, Tom Meyers, James Cazier, Dorothy Rose, Ina Johnson, Margaret Martin, and Jean McIntyre, realized that the campus needed food and relaxation after such breath-taking phenomena, so they have ordered pink lemonade and a seven-piece orchestra to provide for the frailties of the orchestra.

And here is the announcement that the males have been waiting for. This astonishing, incredible, amazing entertainment, through the generosity of the sophomore class, is being provided for the nominal price of one dollar, exactly one one-hundredth of what it is worth. Stags are accepted.

Los Angeles Trip For Speech Prize Won By Mergen

Judges Decide Contest After Deadline for First Place Is Broken

Southern City Final Winner Will Go to National Capital

Assured of a trip to Los Angeles and the possibility of one to Washington, D. C., Bernard Mergen, Jr., University of Nevada freshman, who won the Washington oratorical contest at the Education building auditorium last Monday, is preparing to leave soon for the regional meet.

Mergen was only after reconsideration of a tie decision with Elwin Jeffers. The three judges gave Mergen two "firsts" and one "third" for a total of three. Jeffers placed one first and two second, also for a count of three, and the contest was a tie until late Monday night when the judges announced that Mergen was the victor by virtue of his two "firsts."

Third and fourth places were won by Donald Butler and Reo St. Clair, respectively.

The title of the oration with which Mergen won the Nevada contest and which he will use in the Los Angeles match is "Washington, Exemplar of American Idealism."

The Nevada State Bar Association will send Mergen to Los Angeles where he will compete in the regional match. From here the winner will go to the national contest at Washington, D. C. The date of the Los Angeles match has not yet been definitely decided.

Those who also took part in the local contest are Lucas Benito, William Crowell, and Ed Montgomery.

The judges were Reverend Brewster Adams, pastor of the Reno Baptist church; Professor C. C. Smith, professor of history at the University, and Lester Summerfield, Reno attorney.

Miss Maude Russell Is Now In England
Miss Maude Russell, recent visitor to the campus Y. W. C. A., is at present studying international affairs in England. Later she will travel to Russia, where she is planning to study the background of the communistic movement.

Huge Rally is Set for Tonight As Pack Prepared for Crucial Series With Cal. Aggie Cagers

Basketball Rally For Game Tonight By Service Group

Pep Session Will be Conducted By Blue Key; Manzanita Hall Meeting Place

Nevada to be Given Send-Off In Crucial Basketball Series

Starting from Manzanita Hall tonight promptly at 7 o'clock, preceding the Cal. Aggie-Nevada game at the gym, the last rally of the year will be held. Under the direction of Blue Key, Men's upperclass organization, every available student from the dormitories, fraternity, and sorority houses will take part, and with the students in cars, will proceed down town to the business district and enthusiasm will be raised to the highest possible pitch for the Far Western conference championship games tonight and tomorrow night.

Yell Leader Bill Blakely will have charge of the rally and a large attendance would make this one of the most successful student projects of the spring semester.

Realizing the amount of student support necessary for a credible showing in this final series, Blue Key has made every effort to make this a big affair and is entitled to the whole-hearted support of the student body.

At a meeting Tuesday afternoon Blue Key voted in favor of sponsoring an after-season get-together to immediately follow this basketball season and possibly set a precedent to be followed after every major sport season.

The society also decided at the same meeting to revise the custom of having a bi-monthly dinner in conjunction with their meetings. The meetings will be held down town at a place to be selected later in the semester.

Junior Jump Date Set For March 12

Annual Dance Given for High School Tournament Men During Stay

With few details as yet formulated for the annual Junior Jump the junior committee in charge, with Kenneth Johnson, as chairman, has set Saturday, March 12, as the tentative date.

As in former years, the Junior Jump will be given in conjunction with the entertainment for the out-of-town guests who will be in Reno for the annual state high school basketball tournament, which will take place at the University this spring on March 9, 10, 11, and 12.

The specific purpose of the dance, however, is to help the members of the junior class to finance the annual senior ball which will be held on May 6.

Each year the members of the Junior class bid farewell to the seniors by entertaining them at a formal dance, the Senior Ball, the expenses of which are borne by the juniors. Money raised from the Junior Jump will be used for this junior-senior affair.

Members of the Junior Jump committee are Kenneth Johnson, chairman; Katherine Wright, Keith Lee, Kathryn McCormack, Kathryn Ligon, and Walter Baring.

Donna Anderson, ex-'32, is attending California School of Fine Arts in San Francisco. She will resume her studies here next semester. She is affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta.

WHISKERINO CONTEST BEGINS
1930 Winners Promise Contestants a Good Race
MONDAY FOR MACKAY DANCE

After a two-year period in which to train their beards and the fleas therein, the winners of the 1930 Whiskerino contest are planning to re-enter the beard contest again, claim a slight edge over the rest of the would-be miners. These men will toss aside the old scrapers on Monday and try to set a pace for the beard growers.

Winning the division for the blackest beard in the last contest, John Griffin should offer plenty of competition to even such men as Bill Blakely and Vic Arobio, who they say have a young forest after a couple of days' growth. "Red" Avers will sprout his fiery red brush and may carry off the honors again, unless Dud Nix flares with his deeply tinted foliage. Growing up from the freshman with the longest beard, Bill Beemer should be a reproduction of "Grizzly Ike." Only fate will tell the winner of the funniest beard, but if Bob Geyer, who won this division in the last contest, has any more tricks in his sleeve, he may take a prize again.

SOCIAL HOUR STARTS WITH GRAND RALLY

A combined social hour and reception in the form of a student get-together and rally honoring the Wolf Pack basketball team, will take place Wednesday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the gymnasium and about 45 minutes will be given over to down-town speakers and former students who will tell of former Nevada athletic achievements and at the same time the basketball team will be introduced and given a hand for their splendid work this past season. After the speeches, school songs, yells and other forms of entertainment the first weekly social of the spring semester will take place. Hackett's eight-piece orchestra will be on hand, and dancing will be enjoyed by all until 9:30 o'clock.

Blue Key is sponsoring this get-together and a committee with Francis Smith, chairman; Phil Daver and A. Davis, are in charge of all festivities.

Students Vote To Pledge Dollar Of Blanket Deposit

Haseman Memorial Funds Anted Rased Fifty Cents by A. S. U. N.

Cal. Aggie Officials Attend Meeting of Students This Morning

University students will give $1.00 of their blanket deposits to the Haseman Memorial fund instead of the 50 cents they pledged recently, to erect a bench to the memory of the late dean of men, it was decided by a unanimous vote of those attending the A.S.U.N. meeting this morning at 11:25 after Chairman Phil Daver explained that a larger amount would be necessary to secure aid from down town business men.

"Crip" Toomey, Cal. Aggie coach, and Carl Stevens, captain of the Mustang basketball team, attended the meeting, and expressed their opinions of tonight's game. "Doc" Martie, Nevada coach, declared that he believed that the University has the best team this year since 1925, and that he was pleased at the support and interest of the students in the sport season.

"Win or lose," he said, "tonight you're going to see the greatest basketball game here this year."

Members of the A. S. U. N. stood in a moment of silence for their fellow student, Archie Wood, who died this morning after a short illness.

President Edwin Cantlon announced the Executive committee's clean-up of campus organizations, which will be discussed at the next A. S. U. N. meeting. The list of organizations appears in this issue.

Aggie Assistant In Automobile Accident

Gregory Adams, assistant in the agricultural chemistry laboratory, accompanied by Stanley Leahigh, former student at Nevada, met with a slight automobile accident while returning from Truckee last Sunday.

A car traveling at an excessive speed, driven by an unknown driver, skidded sideways into the Nevada's car, hitting the bumper. Adams said his car was undamaged, but the other car received two badly bent fenders and a broken running board.

High School Prexy
Convention Plans
Now Under Way

March 10, 11, and 12 Set as Date for Annual Meet

The high school student body presidents' convention committee has made tentative plans for the convention of the high school presidents, which is sponsored yearly by the University student body, and is held during the same week as the state high school basketball tournament, March 10, 11, and 12.

There will probably be three meetings of the presidents, one to be held each day of the convention. At these meetings President Walter E. Clark and representatives of the Artemisia, Sagebrush, and Desert Wolf will speak to the visitors, endeavoring to help them in solving problems connected with their offices.

The sororities and fraternities on the campus will act as hosts and hostesses at luncheons for the delegates. Cars will be provided to take the visiting students sight-seeing in and around Reno, and they will be permitted to visit University classes if they so desire.

Nevada Faces Final Conference Battles On Home Hardwood

Nevada Must Win Both Games To Take Conference Championship

California Aggie Players Best Basket Shots in Far West Conference

By KEITH LEE
With a double victory necessary to clinch the Far Western conference championship, the Nevada Wolves will battle "Crip" Toomey's California Mustangs tonight and tomorrow night in the final and most crucial basketball series of the present season.

If Nevada can win both games this week, "Doc" Martie can lay claim to one more championship for his basket tossers, but should they win only one game, then Chico and Nevada will go into a tie for first place, with a playoff necessary to decide the winner.

Last week California Aggies were nosed out by Pacific in two hotly contested conference battles, and undoubtedly the sting of these two losses will place the Aggies in a fighting frame of mind for the contests this week.

Coach "Crip" Toomey of the Aggies has two double basket shots at the forward posts. Captain Carl Stephens at one position and his brother George at the other have supplied the fireworks for the Aggies all season. In one contest against Fresno two weeks ago these two men scored 35 points between them, and their ability to make baskets from all angles of the floor will keep the Nevada guards on their toes at all times.

The other leading men for the Aggies are Sen and Feck, guards, and Dobbas at the center post, and when these men get hot under the hoop, they can give any team plenty of trouble.

Wolves in Slump
The Wolves, in their two-game series with San Francisco university last week, appeared to be in the middle of a late season slump. The basket-shooting was the weakest of the season, and the passing was erratic.

Could be the only man to make any kind of a showing at all, and even his basket-shooting was poor. In the second game Gould was shifted to center, and his ability to secure the tip-off will probably find him shifted to that position in the starting lineup tonight. Leighton and Bledsoe will probably start at forward, and Griffin and Bankoff at guard.

If these men fail to click, it is very likely that some of the smaller men on the squad will see considerable duty.

Practice every day was the schedule "Doc" Martie outlined for the Wolves during the past week in an effort to work off last week's slump, and put the Pack in top shape for the Mustangs.

Only a double victory will satisfy Martie and the Nevada fans, and the significance attached to the series this week will undoubtedly see the biggest turnout of the season. The word has already gone out that Nevada has clinched the conference, but such is not so. The games tonight and tomorrow night will be the deciding factor.

Advance reports from Sacramento state that Toomey has been working his men overtime in order to perfect a man-to-man offense to use against the Wolves, and that he intends to stop the march of the Pack toward the conference crown.

A fast-breaking offense which gives many close-in shots, and the long distance shooting of Captain Carl Stephens will give the Nevada defense plenty of trouble, and it's going to take a wide-awake team to stop these Davis boys.

Plays Presented At 'Open House' By Campus Players

"On Second Thought," "Raw Men," "Turn in the Road" Are Featured Plays

Work Shop of Campus Players Inspected by Those Interested

Entertaining the students and downtown people, Campus Players' "Open House" last Wednesday night was something new in the line of publicity for the dramatic organization.

"Raw Men" the first play to be presented, was the story of two men, faced with tragedy in the wilds of Alaska.

Clifford Devine, who took the part of the friend of the dying man, had parts in "The Racket," "Androcles and the Lion," "Lillom," "Three Dead Files," "He Who Gets Slapped," and others.

The cast for the second play, "The Turn in the Road," included Joe Jackson, the disabled war veteran, who, with his sweetheart, Carole Hunt, decided to leave the beaten path of honesty and go crooked.

Playing up the satirical side of marriage and divorce, the third play, "On Second Thought," was a light comedy, directed by Parnell Balhassar.

All three of the plays were supervised by Helene Turner.

After the plays, an inspection of the work shop was made by interested spectators.

The "Open House" Wednesday night was the first attempt of its kind to better acquaint the public with the work of Campus Players.

To Pacify Women's Upperclass Group

Committee Not Satisfied with Last Appearance Before Student Body

Because the students did not approve of a stunt given by freshmen women tradition-breakers at an A.S. U.N. meeting last semester, the women taking part will make another attempt to entertain the student body at its next meeting.

At its last meeting, held recently, it was proposed that infringement on library rules be placed with breaking campus traditions and that anyone violating them be punished by the Upperclass committee.

Careful watch is to be kept on students, and those who insist upon violating Nevada's traditions will be severely punished.

Auto Corporation Celebrates Its 80th Year Anniversary

Celebrating its 18th birthday, the Studebaker Automobile corporation, with assets of over $100,000,000, is another case of a Horatio Alger, Jr., story coming true.

Of interest to business administration students at Nevada is the fact that a concern should remain in business for more than four score years. This is itself quite unusual.

Fines Announced By Library Head

The list of students owing fines at the library include the following: Marguerite Anderson, Sam Arentz, Norman Blundell, Richard Cooke, Cosby, Phillip Daver, Hazel Davis, Denver Dickerson, M. Gates, Teresa Glennon, Abigail Hackett, Myron Kibby, Lairy, James Leavitt, Florence Lehmkuhl, K. McCormack, A. Matson, Mitchell, Pearl Romwall, Holyce Scruggs, Frances Smith, St. Clair, Daniel Toquero, M. Wells, Cy Wainwright, B. Wilt, Elizabeth Young, Zuick.

The students who are dismissed from the library until their fines are paid are Sam Arentz, Richard Cooke, Phil Daver, Teresa Glennon, Abigail Hackett, Cy Wainwright, B. Wilt and Elizabeth Young.

YOUNG MAN'S FANCY TURNS TO MID-TERMS

With the coming of spring, a young man's fancy turns to mid-terms. Two robins, in knickers, were seen on the campus this week heralding the season of sunshine and flowers.

Mid-term examinations started early this week and will extend through the first of March.

Portraits of the individual members of the cast of "June Moon," to be presented Wednesday, February 9, at the Granada theatre, are being painted by the members of Miss Katherine Lewers' art class.

Individual Cast Members of 'June Moon' Portrayed

Down-Town Advertisement of Production to be on Large Scale

Two life-size portraits of Dan Trevitt and Dorothy Cooper are being executed in charcoal and lithograph by John Mariani and will be hung at the Granada theatre for advertising purposes.

Ray Hooper is assisting in the making of the portraits and is doing the printing on all the work.

Several windows in downtown stores are being decorated in an ultra-modern manner for the advertising of the production by Oscar Robinson and Genevieve Wolf.

Washington Day Addresses Given At High Schools

Speaking on "Washington Yesterday and Today," the same topic with which he addressed a University assembly last Friday, Judge Clyde D. Souter, instructor in business law, spoke to students of the Carson high school last Monday.

Judge Souter in his discussion emphasized the present economic and political situation, stating that citizens must remember to uphold the principles and ideals of America which were personified in Washington's campaign and political career.

Professor R. C. Thompson, head of the philosophy department, also addressed a prominent group when he spoke on "Washington" before a combined meeting of Reno service clubs including the Rotary Club, Kiwanis, and the 20-30 Club Wednesday afternoon.

George Vargas, formerly a student at the University of Nevada and now a student in law at Stanford, spent the week-end in Carson City with his father-in-law, Governor Fred Balzar.

Temperance Union To Conduct Essay Contest This Year

Prize Contest Resumed After Year's Discontinuance; $25 First Money

After being discontinued for a year, a prize essay contest, sponsored by the Women's Christian Temperance Union, will be held again at the University of Nevada, providing at least ten students agree to enter the contest.

The student winning the local prize will submit his essay in a state contest of the same kind. In states having only one university, the essays will go to a committee of the W.C.T.U. and will be judged by it.

The essays will not be voted on until the end of the semester, and, due to this large amount of time, it is hoped by its sponsors that the contest will prove successful and that the W.C.T.U. will decide to make this contest a permanent annual affair.

Sigma Sigma Kappa Elects Three New Members Recently

Three men were elected to membership in Sigma Sigma Kappa, honorary chemical fraternity, at a recent meeting. They are Donald Butler, Cecil Harris, and Alvin Jacobs.

Initiation will take place on Wednesday, March 2, at which time each will be required to present some form of entertainment pertaining to chemistry.

Members are selected from the Chemistry club, and must have shown outstanding ability in the field of chemistry, but they do not necessarily need to be majoring in it.

CHERRY TREE STORY DOUBTED BY NEVADA MEN

Monday of this week George Washington had his 200th birthday. Unlike most of us, he keeps on having birthdays after his death.

Of course, when one is having a birthday for the 200th time, most of the novelty has worn off.

The University celebrated his birthday by holding an oratorical contest in his honor, in which a silver medal was given to the student who made the best speech bringing out facts of his life, which perhaps would have been news even to him.

As a further tribute to his memory, Cap and Scroll, women's honorary society, gave a patriotic tea party, but unlike the other patriotic tea party the tea was not only drunk, but it was enjoyed.

Patronize university advertisers; they are considerate of us.

Committee Named By Home Ec Prexy For Mackay Lunch

At the last meeting of the Home Economics club, chairmen were appointed for Mackay Day committees.

Mildred Goble, kitchen; Katherine Wright, salad; Florence Lehmkuhl, setting of tables; Katherine Nason, serving; Beatrice Patterson, cleaning.

In keeping with tradition, the home economics department will serve the Mackay Day luncheon in the gym, which will be planned this year by Verna Selmer, president of the club.

A social evening was planned for the next meeting on March 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Huntington, former students at the University of Nevada, are now living in Allegheny, California.

Conference Champions?

Tonight and tomorrow night our potential championship basketball team entertains the visiting hoop squad from California Agricultural College. The outcome of this all-important series will determine whether or not Nevada will win its first Far Western conference basketball championship.

Coach "Doc" Martie and his valiant squad of 13 basketeers have had to date one of the most successful seasons of recent years and with a double win this week-end are sure of bringing Nevada additional athletic glory to make up for a not so successful football season.

With the undivided support of the entire student body, our basketball team should go on the floor tonight and tomorrow with an assurance of confidence that will replace the sting of the double defeat handed the Pack by the Aggies last season at Sacramento.

Win or lose, we at Nevada are assured that the Nevada men representing us on the hard wood will continue to show that real sportsmanship that has so characteristically marked every appearance of the Wolf Pack throughout the entire 1932 season, both at home and on trips.

Confronting the realization of a conference championship this basketball series will climax a truly banner season.

Paint That "N"

Either because they have no system of adequate supervision to guide them, or because they think they can get away with it, the freshmen have as yet forwarded no plans whatever for giving the big "N" its spring coat of whitewash. The emblem has been given its coat of paint each spring just before Mackay Day from the time of its erection, and there is no reason why the practice should not be continued.

From all reports, the painting of the "N" last fall was a decided washout, which leads one to think that the incoming group of freshmen are not composed of the staunch stuff of which real Nevadans are made. The yearlings to date have failed to achieve one single objective worth the telling, and they have not even attempted to do one thing which would make them outstanding.

The class of '35 has not even attempted to cooperate with the rest of the student body in making the present year a big one. What is infinitely worse, they even refuse to rally to the defense of their comrades, will not sit together at games, and in general conduct themselves in such a manner as to make one wonder why they ever entered college.

And the yearlings are aided in their negligent attitude by a sophomore vigilance committee which fails to function as well as it might, and an upperclass committee which does not give the vigilantes all the backing to which they are entitled. This is not a plea to haze freshmen. The yearlings should not be hazed too much. But there are tasks which tradition says must be done by the freshmen. If they fail in those tasks they should suffer the consequences. The upperclassmen should see to it that they do not fail to paint the "N" a week before Mackay Day.

Weeding Out

The Executive committee next week will get busy with its axe and weed out many honorary clubs and organizations which have outlived their purpose and disintegrated into dead and useless nothingness.

The passing of the organizations brings to mind names connected with the University years ago. The two formerly powerful debate societies — Caucas and Clonia — were among the first to feel the stroke of the ax. Organized at first as separate clubs, the two formed a single society, membership to which was considered a high honor. Many a Nevada graduate still fondly treasures his golden hammer of Clonia. Unwise selection of members caused a slackening of interest, and the society died completely two years ago. Since that time there has been no debate organization on the campus.

The Press Club calls back many vivid pictures of journalism student gatherings. This club died through the malice of one man, and its passing was lamentable, for it leaves the campus today with not one single journalism organization.

So it is with other groups. The campus might be better off without them, but old-timers cannot but shed a tear at their passing.

Debate

Leaving this morning for Portland, Oregon, on an extended tour of all the leading colleges of the Northwest, Nevada's varsity debate team, made up of Granville Fletcher and Vincent Casey, accompanied by Coach Robert Griffin, will meet these Northwest university teams on the subject of "Easy Divorce." For the most part the Nevada men will uphold Nevada's divorce laws which have come under so much criticism during the past year.

In upholding the Nevada side of the divorce question, Fletcher and Casey do not protect our lax resident requirements but endeavor to prove that divorce is an evil that must be remedied whether in Nevada or in any other state.

These men will represent the University of Nevada and besides giving a typical student viewpoint on the divorce situation are sure to make a creditable showing against their so-rated powerful opponents and leave a lasting impression on those audiences to whom they address their arguments.—K. J.

Whiskers

Commencing Monday the real Nevada man will forget about the morning shave and begin that ordeal of showing his manliness in its greatest glory. All the above means that the annual "Whiskerino" will be underway and may the best beard win by a hair.

This revived Mackay Day custom should prove to be one of the highlights of the current Mackay Day celebration and will lend a desired atmosphere of the old gold-rush days in early Nevada history.

Cooperation should be the key-word of the entire festivities and with the backing of every fraternity, together with the entire male population of the campus, this "Whiskerino" contest should prove to be one of the most interesting in the annals of our institution.

A word might be said that both the chairmen of the Frosh Glee and the Junior Jump committees have given their whole-hearted support and extend invitations to all be-whiskered males to their respective campus functions, which are to be held March 5 and March 12.

Rally Around

There is a rally set for tonight, and there is another one set for next Wednesday night. The first is to work up enthusiasm for the games with the California Aggies this week-end, while the second is dedicated to the basketball team and the hoop season in general. Nevadans should turn out for these rallies en masse.

The rally tonight is of especial importance. Upon the outcome of the Cal. Aggie games depends the conference championship. Nevada is in the lead at the present time, but if the Wolves should drop their games to the Aggies, Chico would take the seasonal honors, which, by the laws of average, should go to Nevada this year.

The rally Wednesday night is also important. It will make Nevada's basket tossers think that their efforts for the past season have not gone unrewarded. Also, the Wednesday fest will mark the re-opening of the weekly social hours. These were operated on a paying basis last semester, and did much towards making for a better "Hello" spirit on the campus.

Anything That's Right

Miss Jane Coffey has a lot to learn before she can be qualified as a full fledged Nevadan. If the young lady wants to know if there are still a few traditions to which all good Nevadans must adhere. One of them is that she should not cut campus, and another that she should not sit on the senior bench until she is a senior. Her most flagrant violation has been to appear on the campus recently in a Block N sweater. This is absolutely against all rules and precedent. John Pulmis should not leave his sweater laying around where she can get hold of it, and the young lady might display a little more intelligence.

Beatrice Bareback's Advice

Dear Miss Bareback: I have just discovered that my Bobbie has false teeth. Can you advise me what to do? MARION.

Dear Battie: Not if she is a real tall girl. Of course you can use a stepladder. BEA BAREBACK.

Dear Bea: I am in love with a boy who is almost three years younger than I am. What shall I do? ETHYL.

Dear Ethyl: The only remedy that I can think of is to act your age and see what happens. BEA.

Dear Bea: I have been using your remedy and now I can't keep my elbows off the table. What to do? ELLEN.

Dear Ellen: Try our new rub down machine, and once more be popular with our little Raymond. Don't give up the ship. BEA.

Dear Beatrice: The boy I am trying to go with is too short for me. Can you suggest anything that will correct this ailment? JANE.

Dear Jane: Try Crisco shortening and see how far you get. It never fails. BEA.

International Club Formed By Students

Grouping together to foster better international thinking and understanding, a small nucleus of University students on the campus has formed an International Relations club, which is fostered by the Carnegie Foundation. Temporary officers, Dan Trevitt, chairman, and Katherine McCormack, secretary, were chosen by the group of students who met last Monday to complete organization. M. J. Webster, instructor in economics, was chosen as faculty advisor, and the members are planning to hold meetings twice each month to discuss international problems and review books dealing with world conditions. The Carnegie Foundation has already sent a number of these books to Webster, and part of the program is to keep all clubs in this enterprise supplied with the very newest and best of literature on world conditions.

The organizers on this campus plan to limit the membership to 30, and maintain a waiting list of all those above the quota. Up to the present time 12 students have signified their intention of petitioning for membership.

"All those interested in joining a club conducive to better fellowship and closer touch with world affairs would do well to see Mr. Webster, Katherine McCormack, Vernon Loveridge, Neva Shaw, or myself," Trevitt said.

Information regarding organization, future plans, and membership in accordance with the national program, has been sent for, and further action will be deferred until the suggestions arrive.

As an additional activity, the club will help promote world speakers and will send a student delegate to the southern conference each year.

"Doc" Martie, Manager Seeliger, and Nevada's big handsome basketball squad were fortunate enough to be out of town last week-end while the women were upsetting the campus peace and quiet for their novelty beauty contest. We are glad that none of the Nevada ball players were adjudged the "handsomest man." The strain of autographing pictures and shaking hands might have been too great for any of the giant Wolves, and the Davis Aggies would have had another advantage.

Strong Don Team Defeats Nevadans In Two Contests

Nevada Basketeers Fail to Find Hoop with Consistency In Either Game

San Francisco University, Led By Kleckner, Outplays Nevada's Cagers

Led by the diminutive "Happy" Chambers and big Bob Kleckner, a strong San Francisco University quintet defeated the Nevada Wolves at Kezar stadium last Friday night to the tune of 25 to 15, and gave them the most thorough routing of 29 to 15 Saturday night.

Taking the lead from the start, the S. F. U. team proved too strong for Nevada, and the first half ended with a score of 15 to 5 in its favor. At no stage of the contest was this lead threatened by Nevada.

Kleckner, San Francisco guard, was the outstanding player of both teams, at one time sinking three field goals out of four consecutive attempts. Bruce Gould, Nevada forward, led the Wolves scoring with eight points to his credit. Bledsoe, Carroll and Leighton, scoring aces of the Nevada contingent, failed to get their eyes on the hoop as the bay city men tied up an already strong offense.

In the second game of the two-game series, Kleckner repeated his brilliant playing of the night before and again was the outstanding star, helping to pile up a lead of 15 to 10 at half time.

Kleckner, participating in his last basketball game for S.F.U. after four years of service, proved the Wolves' nemesis once more by breaking up their attempt to score with long passing attacks. Kleckner played exceptional ball, both offensively and defensively.

Chambers of San Francisco was high point man of the evening by scoring nine points for his team, while Gould and Bledsoe were high for Nevada, each accounting for four points.

These two defeats make a total of four losses to date for Nevada's season. The Wolves have lost to Olsen's Terrible Swedes and Chico State early in the year. The S.F.U. series, however, have no bearing on Nevada's conference standing since both were non-conference games.

Junior Team Wins First Game 56 - 24

Speed Weaver's "A" squad of the junior varsity started out their schedule in the Y.W.C.A. basketball league with a bang last Thursday night when the Reno Sporting Goods team was defeated by the lop-sided score of 56 to 24.

The game was a walk-away from the very start, and, with everybody hitting the basket for scores, the down-town team failed to hold the varsity at all. Jack Hill and John Flournoy were the stars for the evening, making a substantial number of points for the University players. Their floor work and basket shooting were outstanding. Hill was high point man, scoring 18 points for the varsity.

This was the first contest for the "A" squad of the junior varsity. A game scheduled for February 4 with the strong Chism quintet was postponed. A date for the game will be arranged later.

Although the toughest games are ahead, the varsity should come out on top in the "A" division, judging by last night's performance.

Games remaining to be played are with the Y.M.C.A. team February 25, N.A.C. March 3, and with Chism's.

Members of the "A" team include John Flournoy, Ed Olsen, Russell Elliott, Ralph Smith, Bud Beasley, John Fulmish, Jack Hill, Roy Salsbury, Bill Beemer, and Fred Morrison.

One Case Attended In Hospital During Past Several Days

Another week of comparative inaction at the University of Nevada hospital was reported this week when only one case was attended to by the matron, Miss Ethel Shurtleff.

Albert D'Allesandro was treated for an injury of his foot. The incapacity was caused from a blow received from playing basketball.

Dr. Dwight Hood is inoculating members of the local R.O.T.C. unit for their summer training period, and there are eight more members of the corps to be treated.

Earlin Tobler, who recently was operated on for appendicitis, is convalescing nicely and was released from care last Wednesday.

CONFERENCE STANDINGS

	Won	Lost
Nevada	7	1
Chico State	6	2
Calif. Aggies	4	4
Pacific	3	5
San Jose State	2	4
Fresno State	0	6

Playing its final games in the Far Western conference this week end against the California Aggies, Nevada must win but one of the contests in order to clinch the conference title.

Considering that the Aggies suffered two defeats at the hands of the College of Pacific this past week-end and that the Wolves beat the latter team twice by large margins, it is generally conceded that the Mustangs will not seriously threaten Nevada's championship chances.

Chico State is second place in the conference with 6 wins and 2 losses, being the only Far Western team to hold a victory over the Wolf Pack.

This week Chico plays San Jose State in what may prove one of its hardest series this season. The San Jose squad, last year's title holder, although in fifth place, is looked upon as among the league's best teams. Inconsistent playing accounts for its position in the conference race.

If successful in overcoming the Aggies this week, it will be the first Nevada basketball team to win the Far Western conference championship.

Miss Gladys Downing, '30, spent the week-end with Enid Harris, senior student of the University of Nevada. Miss Downing resides at Napa, California, with her parents.

State High School Basketball Games Feature Upsets

Lovelock, Winnemucca, Stewart Lose to Dark Horses In Past Week

Last week's Western Nevada high school conference games kicked the dope bucket over the fence with a hearty boom and sent the conference leading undefeated Stewart Indian school Bucks off their high pedestal when they took a defeat at the hands of the Sparks high school Railroaders.

Coming from behind in the third quarter the rail city quintet downed the Indians by a 22 to 19 score in the biggest upset of the season. Sparks was near the bottom of the zone in standing while the Stewart boys were leading the race.

Nearly as great an upset was the defeat of the Winnemucca high school hoopers on Friday evening by the Reno high school Huskies. The Red and Blue warriors piled up an early lead to win in a walk by a 23 to 17 score.

No less of an upset was the defeat of the Lovelock high school Invincibles when they were nosed out by a 12 to 10 score in a close tussel on the Churchill county floor. Good teamwork and an air-tight defense won Fallon a hard earned victory.

On Saturday evening the Reno high school quintet took a Susanville, California, team, composed of high school and junior college men into camp by a 28 to 24 score on the Reno court. Scoring heavily in the first half the Reno bucketeers had little trouble in upsetting the northern team.

Sparks lost a second time to the Winnemucca hoop aces on Saturday

Student Operated On At Hospital

Wendell Duplantis, sophomore student, underwent a minor operation at a local hospital last week. His condition is reported as favorable, and it is thought that he will be able to resume his classes some time next week.

Miss Emily Ross, who is attending Stanford university, spent the week-end here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Ross.

evening by a 26 to 21 score. Yerington defeated Carson City 17 to 11 and won from the Hawthorne five 13 to 11. The University of Nevada freshmen ran all over Virginia City high school team to the tune of 32 to 11. Gardnerville trounced Wellington 15 to 10 in a slow contest.

This week's games include: Tonight—Reno High at Winnemucca; Gardnerville High vs. U. of N. freshmen at Reno; Fallon High at Sparks; Carson City at Lovelock; Wellington High at Yerington.

Tomorrow night—Reno High at Elko; Stewart Indians at Wellington; Yerington High at Lovelock; Hawthorne High at Carson City.

Beta Kappa Cagers Beat Union Ice Co.

Beta Kappa upset the Y.M.C.A. basketball league dope bucket Thursday night when it took the Union Ice company squad into camp by a score of 29 to 19. The ice heavers had been leading the league up to this time, and were considered the potential winners in the class "B" division of the league.

This is the first game the Greek letter men have won on their schedule, having lost to Bell Telephone, 19 to 5, February 4, and National Guards 8 to 13 on February 11.

If the first men play at all as they did Thursday night when they met Piggy Wiggy February 25, the will undoubtedly take the grocers, but they will have a hard time winning from the junior varsity "B" squad March 1.

Beta Kappa kept up its winning streak when it defeated the Reno High "B" team Friday night, 24 to 14. This game was a preliminary to the Reno-Winnemucca game.

Mason Meyers was high point man in both contests, scoring 17 points in

was only one of the many tense moments in the various fraternity davenport athletes' contest for checker hurdling honors. Harold Brown, Virginia City youth, with a quick wrist and a master mind, seems to be the outstanding checker artist in the contest.

Most of the changes made in the football rules by the committee have been hanging fire for several years, and have been effected through the efforts of the younger bloods on the coaching staffs. Most of the old boys who played back in the days when students played the game defend the flying wedge, the flying block, and the flying tackles on the grounds that these plays give the game action and thrills.

Bills Issued For Artemisia Panels To Organizations

Complete List Is Posted By Business Manager For This Year's Annual

This year's Artemisia is likely to consist largely of pictures of the faculty and a joke section.

This became known when the Finance Control committee authorized the 1932 Artemisia to collect for this year's panels before publication. And, behold!—when the debts were posted the list of arrears read like the roll call of the organizations of the University, from the Aggies to the Y.W.C.A. Cabinet.

From Manzanita, which is behind the nominal sum of $57.63, the bills range downward to $8.54, which honor is shared by six organizations.

Every fraternity owes a little bill, ranging from $49.42 for the Alpha Tau Omega, to $37.52 for Phi Sigma Kappa. The sororities owe more and less. Alpha Delta Theta is behind only $26.66, the Gamma Phi Beta at the top of the bottom, of the sororities, owes $50.02. The Artemisia offers to cancel the two cents, and accept $50.00 in full payment of the bill.

The total of the bills owed by campus organizations is just $915.00, with six organizations whose bills have not been computed, unaccounted for. Fraternities and sororities owe $628.43. In determining this total, the bills for organizations other than fraternities or sororities was added and subtracted from the total in order to get the Greek letter bill.

Following are the list of organizations and amounts owed by each:

Fraternities
Alpha Tau Omega, $49.42, Beta Kappa $42.82, Delta Sigma Lambda $42.22, Lambda Chi Alpha $48.82, Phi Sigma Kappa $37.42, Sigma Alpha Epsilon $45.82, Sigma Nu $42.22, Sigma Phi Sigma $41.62.

Alpha Delta Theta $26.62, Beta Sigma Omicron $35.62, Delta Delta Delta $45.82, Gamma Phi Beta $50.02, Kappa Alpha Theta $48.82, Pi Beta Phi $42.22.

Other Organizations
Manzanita Hall $57.63, Lincoln Hall $40.42, Men's Glee Club $11.04, Women's Glee Club $11.04, Community Orchestra $11.04, U. of N. Band $12.54, Cap and Scroll $9.54, Block N $8.54, Gothic N $10.24, Chi Delta Phi $18.04, Sigma Gamma Epsilon $9.64, Nu Eta Epsilon $12.04, Square and Compass $8.54, Sundowners $8.54, Kappa Kappa Psi $11.44.

Y.W.C.A. Cabinet $12.64, Aggie Club $19.24, Home Economics Club $8.54, Normal Club $8.54, Chemistry Club $8.54, Crucible Club $8.54, Mechanical Engineers $8.54, Interfraternity Council $15.64.

Accounts of the following organizations will be announced soon: Coffin and Keys, Scabbard and Blade, Campus Players, Mask and Dagger, Omega Mu Iota, and Blue Key.

Glee Club Accepts Coast Invitation To Sing In Concert

The Men's Glee Club of the University of Nevada has accepted an invitation to appear in the Pacific Coast Associated Glee Clubs' concert in San Francisco Saturday evening, April 23. As a supplement of the Associated Glee Clubs of the Mid-West, the newly organized Pacific coast aggregation will stage its first concert with glee clubs of all major Coast colleges in attendance.

With prospects of a highly successful initial concert in the offing, plans are being made to establish future concerts as musical contests with the winning clubs competing in the national contest held annually at Chicago.

This is Nevada's first attempt at glee club competition and with the large present enrollment it is hoped Nevada's "men of voice" will win fame outside the Silver state.

The present men's glee enrollment includes: R. Major, E. Rivers, A. Bernes, D. Leonard, B. Geyer, H. LaVigne, M. English, N. Wainwright, Bill Squires, D. Berry, B. Beasley, W. Linehan, L. Carter, C. Joseph, J. Thurston, E. Montgomery, T. Parmenter, H. Hooper, G. Salet, D. Fryer, F. LaMarsna.

MASTRANNI QUESTIONED ABOUT PAINT

Many questions were fired at Joe Mastranni last Monday morning when he appeared in classes with a faint resemblance of blue paint in his hair and behind his ears.

Joe, being of the retiring sort, would not talk to his friends about it, but it soon leaked out that he was only being initiated into Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

It seems that he had to report to the fraternity home at 5:30 Monday morning, and, with the other initiates, perform any work that might be required of them. The first job was to calculate the upper halls.

All went well until Mastranni mounted a chair to reach the ceiling. He was up on the chair with bucket in one hand and brush in the other when he lost his balance, and over he went.

Eye witnesses report that the scene was better than any movie could ever hope to be; the bucket traversed the air, turned upside down and landed on the unfortunate's head.

State High School Aggie Vocational Contests Planned

Members of Aggie Club Will Act as Judges of All Meets

The annual contest among the high schools of Nevada which teach vocational agriculture will be held here the week previous to Easter. The contest will consist of identification of various seeds, weeds, and crops, together with the judging of livestock.

J. B. Jepson, state supervisor of vocational agriculture, will supervise this contest, and the members of the Aggie club will act as judges. The winning team will be sent to Kansas to judge at the Kansas Royal Livestock show.

The Aggie club, in its meeting held last Monday, agreed to make the necessary arrangements for housing the guests, of which there will be ten, at Lincoln Hall, and at the Alpha Tau Omega house, and to make arrangements for them to take their meals at the University dining hall. The members of the club have agreed also to furnish $25 to cover part of the expenses.

This contest has been in existence for a number of years, but previously it has been held at the University farm sometime in the fall in conjunction with the annual apple and potato show.

Three Nevada Men Attending School At U. of Michigan

Nevada is well represented at the University of Michigan with three graduate students and an instructor in the chemistry department taking advanced work in their respective fields.

Frank Stewart, a graduate with last year's class, is studying anatomy as part of his medical training. Claude Winder, also a member of last year's class and recipient of the gold medal, is taking research work in biology in order to receive his doctor's degree. Winder made the highest possible record while studying in Michigan last summer.

Edward Randall, a third member of the '31 class, has a fellowship in the chemistry department and is working for a master's degree.

S. Allen Lough, assistant professor in the chemistry department here last year, is on leave of absence to obtain his Ph.D. He received his M.A. at Michigan in 1927.

The real Wolf Pack snap didn't seem to be there during the last home series when Nevada blasted the conference hopes of College of Pacific. A score-book full of fouls made the games look something like free throw contests, with the local contestants getting the most tries.

Nevada Debaters Will Meet U.S.C. Early In Spring

Vin Casey and Keith Lee Will Uphold Nevada's Side of Political Question

Sometime during the early part of April, debate teams of the University of Southern California and the University of Nevada will clash here over the controversy of "Should the Democratic Party be returned to power in 1932?"

Defending the side which the local institution chooses will be Vin Casey and Keith Lee. Glenn Jones, captain of the S. C. squad, and Ames Crawford will represent the visitors.

The question involved is of such interest as to warrant a record crowd in attendance. Casey and Lee, together with their coach, Robert Griffin, are already assimilating material from the East in preparation for their arguments.

Graduate Manager Bernard Hartung said this week that he planned to give more publicity and pains for the success of this debate than any of the previous ones, due to the interest of the question to be argued and the record of the visiting team. If possible, Hartung stated, the affair will be held down-town so as to provide suitable seating facilities. KOH will broadcast the performance provided it comes during the evening when the Columbia hookup is not in effect.

Squadron from March Field Makes Visit to Reno

When the squadron of 12 United States army airplanes that swooped down upon the University last week Frank Wittenberg of Tonopah, better known to the government as Lieutenant Frank Wittenberg, United States Army Corps, was paying a tribute to his alma mater.

Wittenberg is a graduate of the class of 1930 from the University, in the College of Agriculture, and is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

The squadron was here under Lieutenant Graves from March field, California, for the purpose of studying difficult rendezvous problems concerning radio. They picked out Reno because it was centrally located.

After leaving here, six of the planes went to Visalia, California. They met later on by radio contact, and resumed their journey to their home

We know why men smoke PIPES

WOMEN don't smoke pipes. They're not the style for women. But pipes are the style for men. And more than that, a pipe and good tobacco gives a man greater smoking pleasure than tobacco in any other form.

In 42 out of 54 American colleges and universities Edgeworth is the favorite pipe tobacco. Cool slow-burning burleys give this fine tobacco exactly the character that college men like best of all.

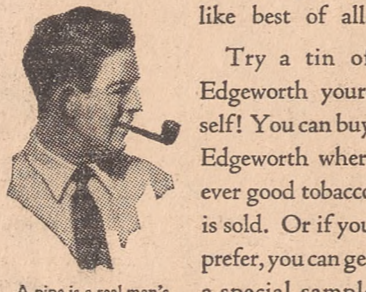

Try a tin of Edgeworth yourself! You can buy Edgeworth wherever good tobacco is sold. Or if you prefer, you can get a special sample packet free: write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va., and ask for it.

EDGEWORTH SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleven-step process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 1 1/2¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidifier tin.

TICKET CONTEST FEATURES SOPH "CIRCUS DANCE"

One of the features of the sophomore circus dance is an advance ticket sale which is in the form of an interfraternity contest. The fraternity buying the largest number of tickets before Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock will be given a prize of several free tickets to the dance.

The winner will be judged on the percentage basis. Tom Hilberg, Gene Salet, Jess Christensen, Oscar Robinson and Dan Harvey are selling the tickets at one dollar per couple or stags.

The dance will be informal and will begin immediately after the basketball game Saturday night in the University gymnasium.

Chemical Society Meeting Attended By Dean M. Adams

Many Interesting Talks Heard at Monthly Meeting in San Francisco

Dean Maxwell Adams, professor of chemistry, has returned from San Francisco where he attended the monthly meeting of the California section of the American Chemical Society. The meeting was held in the mechanical institution. Dinner was held at 6:30, after which speeches were delivered by various members of the society.

Among other interesting talks, according to Dean Adams, was one given by Mrs. McBane, wife of Dr. McBane of Stanford University. She gave an illustrated recitation of a trip to Europe during which she and her husband did some intensive work at the University of Upsala, in Sweden. "They were interested," said Dean Adams, "in

Women's Hoop Season To End With Big Dinner

March 10 Set as Date for Finish of Co-ed Hoop Contests

After two more weeks of practice, the basketball season for women on the Nevada campus will be brought to a close by the annual dinner on March 10, it was announced by Genevieve Wolf, basketball manager.

Eligibility to play on a class team requires that each woman attend 16 practices preceding the interclass contests, which will be held on March 8 and 9 and possibly 10. Intra-mural contests are scheduled for March 15, 17 and 18. Women must attend six practices before being eligible for an intra-mural team.

At the first of the year, when basketball season for women opened, approximately 50 women signed up for the sport, but at present only 36 have been present regularly at practices, which will take place for the next two weeks from 3 until 5 o'clock on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

As a means of stimulating interest for the remaining practice periods, the women have been assigned to three teams, which will compete against each other. Anna Nelson, Marthene Solares, and Kathryn Martin are the team captains. The inter-class teams will be chosen from the following students: Margaret Williams '35, Dorothy Hoskins '35, Marjory Sanborn '35, Charlotte Pope '34, Dorothy Pope '34, Ruth Stewart '32, Ruth Jones '34, Mary Trudell '33, Kathryn Martin '34, Anna Nelson '35, Agnes Gardner '35, Gertrude Gardner '35, Helen Peterson '33, Camille Cerrito '34, Lena Perri '35, Emma Azunera '35, Alice Mason '35, Lydia Grandi '32, Mary Tucker '35, Ida Rogers '33, Marjorie Clark '35, Genevieve Wolf '34, and Marthene Solares '34.
