

Midnight Rally Ushers In 1932 Football Season

Nevada Wolves Open Season With Oregon Normals

"Flying Teachers" Will Arrive Here by Plane This Afternoon

Mitchell's Nevadans Go Into Action Against Tricky Opponents

Opening their season in a game against an opponent of unknown strength, the University of Nevada Wolves will go under fire for the first time this season when they battle the "Flying Teachers" from Oregon Normal College on Mackay field tomorrow at 2:15 p. m.

This will be the Wolf Pack's first game since Coach C. L. "Brick" Mitchell took over the team. A rejuvenated campus spirit and a roster of 37 willing youths will back the new coach in his first venture under Nevada colors.

ARRIVE TODAY The "Flying Teachers" will arrive here this afternoon by airplane for the game with the Nevada men. Coach Larry Wolfe will have 24 men with him when he steps onto Mackay field for the battle tomorrow. The Oregonians will run through a few plays on the local field before they turn in for the night.

Reports from the north on the strength of the northern invaders are decidedly vague. Except that they finished at the top of their conference last year and drove six touchdowns over the Oregon State team's goal last year, little is known of their records.

Tricky Offense Coach Wolfe is reported to have one of the trickiest offenses of any that has been produced on the coast in the last few years. His offense depends entirely on speed and trick plays. Every man on his team this year is a veteran of at least one year of college competition.

Just what the tricks in Wolfe's bag are is a mystery to the Nevada coaching staff. Several coaches from the northwest told Mitchell what the Oregon offense was like, but each one of them told a different story.

Both teams will line up on the field in a similar manner. The Oregon team as well as the Wolf Pack uses a double wingback backfield formation on offense. Both teams use a six man line backed up by a roving center, called the 6-2-2-1 system.

Just what the Nevadans will do against an offense of which they know very little is a matter of which even Coach Mitchell knows little.

Look Good "They all look good in practice," he said of his charges, "but they have never been tested under fire. I will find out how much football they know when they play that game Saturday. We cannot expect too much but we can hope for the best."

Coach Mitchell has given his men intensive drill on fundamentals of offense and defense and has not yet had time to drill the men any elaborate system of plays. They will go into the game tomorrow with very little training. They will have to "use their heads," in the words of Coach Mitchell, when they go on the field for their first battle.

Starting Lineup Given Announcement of the starting lineup of the Wolf Pack for the season's opener was made yesterday. It is as follows:

Mitchell's starting team averaged exactly 179.5 pounds to the man. The line averages 182 pounds, while the backs have an average weight of 175 pounds. This is much lighter than the elevens of the coast aggregations.

Reserves Good A good reserve squad is ready to fill the gaps in the Wolf Pack lineup. It is composed of Madriaga and Carroll, tackles; Adams and Linehan, guards; Sallet and Hackett, ends; Holt, fullback; Ambrose, quarterback; Harvey Hill and Bud Beasley, halfbacks. This team weighs approximately the same as the starting eleven.

In scrimmages this week the Nevada gridlers have been showing plenty of fire and drive. Coach Mitchell has been watching them carefully and ironing out the defects in their play.

Jack Hill, Harvey Hill and Fern Ambrose, the speedy backs who have made most of the yards for Nevada in the past few years, have proven up to form, clipping off 10 yards at a play in scrimmage. Guffrey, phenomenal Freshman varsity back of two years ago, is also showing plenty of promise.

Hill Punts Most of the punting and passing in this game will be handled by Jack Hill and Ambrose. Cashill and Guffrey will boot the ball on the opening kickoff. Utility blocking jobs in the backfield will be handled by Backer and Parsons.

NEVADA'S MENTOR

Coach "Brick" Mitchell, starting his first year as head man for the Wolf Pack. Mitchell has proved a leader and his men know fundamentals.

Engineers Entertain Campus With Dance Tomorrow Evening

Proceeds From Dance Will Be Used to Finance Engineer Homecoming Exhibit

Beer and Pretzels Featured at Engineers' Brawl in Gym

For the first time in four years the engineers will leave their secluded quarters and entertain the campus, when tomorrow evening they stage an old time Engineers' Brawl in the gymnasium.

Students were started this week by the appearance of an enormous sign strung across the road by the bulletin board, telling the campus "what the hell" the event is all about.

The theme for decorations, favors and programs is to be in true engineer style. Beer, or a probable substitute, and pretzels served at a bar will comprise the refreshments. Ray Hackett's orchestra, assisted by talented engineers, will furnish music and entertainment.

The proceeds from the dance will be used to finance the engineers' exhibit to be held during Homecoming. Jack Smith, president of the Associated Engineers, announced that the dance will take the place of the annual engineers' day, which was formerly held in the spring. Four years ago this event was replaced by the Homecoming exhibits.

The committee in charge includes Harry Duseath, chairman; Sam Arantz, Bill Beemer, Paul Fontana and Mason Myers.

Band, Orchestra Begin Semester's Work in Earnest

40 Musicians Join Community Orchestra; Band Appears in Rally Sept. 23

University of Nevada band and orchestra organizations are well under way for a year of intense activity, according to Prof. T. H. Post, director of music.

Getting off to a fine start, the university band held two rehearsals last week in preparation for its participation in the coming monster mid-night football rally and parade to be staged tonight. Several peppy numbers have been arranged for the occasion, and with an enrollment of over forty members, prospects of an unusually good concert are in evidence.

The University of Nevada community orchestra under direction of Prof. T. H. Post convened for the first time Tuesday evening. Composed of faculty members and students, this musical organization consists of some forty players, some of whom registered in the course for credit. Any student who plays a musical instrument and is interested in such work may sign up for this activity next Tuesday evening.

Homecoming Plans Announced for Gala Celebration

Committee Functions Properly to Make October 22 Big Celebration

Big Dance to Climax Festivities, Graduates To Be Guests of Honor

With the celebration only a short month away, plans were launched yesterday for the annual Homecoming Day celebration of the University of Nevada to be held on October 22, under the direction of Joe McDonnell, chairman of the committee in charge of preparations.

A huge bonfire rally will be held on Thursday evening, with C. L. "Brick" Mitchell, Wolf Pack coach; the coach of the California Aggies and several downtown business men speaking to the assemblage.

On Friday morning a parade will be held with all of the campus organizations taking part. Cups will be awarded for the best fraternity and sorority floats and for the best float of any campus organization. Cups will also be given for the best decorated fraternity and sorority houses.

On Friday evening the annual Wolves Frolic will be held. A depression theme will be followed and work on the show is now under way.

Big Dance Planned The Homecoming Day dance with the graduates as the guests of honor will be held on Saturday evening. The guests of honor of the entire celebration, who will lead the parade, are Governor Fred Balzar, Lieut. Gov. Morley Griswold, Mayor E. E. Roberts and President Walter E. Clark.

Exhibits will be displayed by the agricultural and engineering departments. An automobile show is also planned.

Members of the Homecoming committee will announce their plans in more detail later. The committee is composed of Joe McDonnell, chairman, Mildred Under, Gladys Morris, Jack Smith, Philip Mann and Howard Umber.

Y. W. Book Store Shows Fair Profit After Two Weeks

Exchange Is Established as Financial Aid to Students

One Hundred and Fifty Books Sold, Freshman Texts Popular

The Y. W. C. A. second-hand book shop which was located in 111 Agricultural building, closed Friday after two weeks in business. About 150 texts were sold for a total of $200, it was announced today by Helen Steinmiller, Y. W. president.

The book shop was open from 1:30 to 4:30 every afternoon and from 10 to 12 Saturday mornings. Dortha Robertson, Y. W. finance chairman, was in charge of the exchange, with Camille Cerita as her assistant.

Students who in former years sold their texts privately brought them to the book shop when the greater convenience of exchanging there became known. Many out of town alumni and townspeople sent their books up to be sold. Several sororities and fraternities raised money by sending in old texts.

The exchange was opened primarily as a convenience and financial aid to the students, not as a money-making venture. The owners of the books set their own prices, which in many instances were very low. Two copies of "Health's Readings in English Literature," valued at $4 each, sold for $1 and $1.50, respectively.

The book shop had about 100 books for sale when it opened the second week of school, but texts to the number of several hundred were brought in during the time it was open.

The most popular books were those used in Freshman courses. Bolton's "Syllabus" and "The Colonization of North America" were outstanding sellers among history texts. There were many calls for Newell's Chemistry and "Health's Readings in English Literature." An especially large number of Gates' psychology were sold, owing to the unusually large enrollment in psychology 5.

Whether or not the book exchange will become a permanent feature depends upon the finding of a suitable permanent location as well as the cooperation given by the students in offering their used texts for sale and in coming to purchase.

The Y. W. is considering adding the profit from the book shop to its student loan fund as a further aid to the students.

Business Staff of U. of N. 'Brush' Is Announced

Crowell, Russell, Springmeyer and Stark Chosen as Assistants

Appointing Elna Jensen as women's manager, and William Crowell, Lowell Russell, Leslie Springmeyer and LaRue Stark as junior managers, Charles "Chick" Koerner today announced his major appointments for the business staff of the University of Nevada Sagebrush.

The staff was chosen from the list of trustees who have been working for the business staff of the Brush for the past four weeks. "There are still positions open on the business staff of the Sagebrush for anyone who is willing to work," states Koerner.

Other members of the staff are: Advertising, Jean Burroughs, Georgia Cole, Miss Couplin, Florence Doyle, Roberta Gregory, Eileen Haffey, Kathleen Haffey, Lillian Smith, Beth West, Darnel Cain, John Daszewicz, Kenneth Spencer, John Elkin, Louis Gibson and William Zmack; secretarial, Cornelis Arentz, Paula Bradshaw and Frances Slavin.

Work on Frolic Progressing as Talent Exhibits

Sixteenth Annual Show Well on Its Way Toward Success

Prominent Undergraduates Featured in Leading Roles

With four weeks left before the presentation of the sixteenth annual Wolves Frolic, final general preparations for the show have been completed.

Dudley Nix, University of Nevada student orchestra director, is in charge of the music for the Frolic. He will furnish a 13 or 14 piece orchestra for the show, using all the student musicians possible.

Members of the University of Nevada glee club, under the direction of Professor T. H. Post, will do a short specialty ballad number for the Frolic. No skits as "house" skits will be used. Any house wishing to present an act has been requested to see Director W. R. Miller immediately. Mr. Miller states that he will not write out any acts, but expects them to be entirely original.

Students who have individual acts to present still have a chance to obtain places on the Frolic program if they will see Mr. Miller at once and arrange for presentation of their acts for his approval. Any and all talent will be acceptable.

Students Qualify Several students have qualified for leading parts in the production. Don Brown and Geraldine Herbert and Paula Bradshaw and John Mariani will present novelty word skits. Chesley Hart and Dave Clark are to do a tumbling act. They have been members of the university tumbling team for two years.

Jean McIntyre and Margaret Martin will entertain with a specialty clog dance, and Jack Ritter will sing several numbers. Edith Mortensen will present one of the features of the program, a tap-toe dance. James Schultz, John Bettler, Blythe Bulmer and Herbert Peck will do dialogue and monologue selections.

The chorus for the show is working out twice a week under the supervision of Miss Ruth Ryan, of the Ryan school of singing. Members of the chorus are Ellen McFarlane, Ruth Brown, Abigail Hackett, Leone Clark, Marie Richards, Eleanor Underwood, Virginia Murgott, Ruth Lyons, Helen Lewis, Evelyn Anderson, Betty Ochsner, Grace Armstrong, Anna Nelson, Edith Mortensen, Florence Kirkley, Margaret Walker, Marianne Severne, Marian Cross, Katherine Slavin, Marguerite Enlow and Anne Jenkins.

Blue Key fraternity is handling the sale of tickets and publicity and will furnish ushers for the show.

Sagens to Assist With Pep Rally

Four Students Sign Up Under Yell Leader

Cliff Devine, A. S. U. N. yell leader, announced that four men are trying out for the positions of assistant yell leaders. The tryees are Bill Crowell, Paul Fontana, John Lewis and John Betts. Crowell and Fontana led the student body meeting last Friday, while Lewis and Betts are scheduled to make their appearances tonight at the rally.

Until the assistants are chosen by the executive committee Devine will call upon the tryees to assist him at the rallies and games. Those interested in trying out should apply to Devine.

Experiment Station Receives New Paint

For the first time since the Agricultural Experiment Station has been moved to its present site from the Nevada campus, it has received a most brilliant red painting on its old weather-beaten roof.

The red roof can be seen for miles away, as this is the highest roof of all the campus buildings.

Starting Lineups for Today's Game

Table with columns: No., NEVADA, Pos., OREGON. Lists players like Austin, Theis, Haynes, Mohorovich, Beemer, Dellanoy, Bankofier, Parsons, Backer, Guffrey, Hill, J. for Nevada and Phillips, McKenzie, Burn, Harp, Wedin, Cannon, Gordan, Hiatt, Gretch, Edwards, Welter for Oregon.

Nevada roster—Austin 8, Bankofier 11, Theis 27, Madriaga 26, Beemer 12, Mohorovich 20, Haynes 25, Beasley 7, Guffrey 3, Parsons 18, J. Hill 6, Sallet 14, Hackett 23, Cashill 24, Dellanoy 29, Carroll 30, Sherrup 16, Adams 21, H. Sorority Derby Results Listed

Pi Beta Phi Leads Thetas, Gamma Phi and Tri Delt Follow

For the first time in the last four years in which the derby has been the climax to the sorority rushing period, Pi Beta Phi has come out on top—its 22 pledges leading by a small margin, the five other sororities on the "hill."

For the second time, Kappa Alpha Theta came in second with 21 pledges; Gamma Phi Delta followed with 12 girls, while Delta Delta Delta secured 11 pledges and Beta Sigma Omicron and Alpha Delta Theta pledged 4 and 2 respectively.

Four years ago the derby was started through the influence of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity in an effort to create more interest in the competition among the various sororities. Since then it has given a tea each year in honor of the house which gets the most pledges.

First Derby Is Tie The first year that the derby was held the Delta Delta Delta and Gamma Phi Beta sororities tied with 12 pledges each. The Alpha Tau Omegas were forced to weigh the pledges of each house to make a correct decision, and the derby went to the Gamma Phi Beta. Two years ago the honor went to the Thetas and last year the Tri Delt won the derby.

Formal pledging was held last Monday by all the houses. Those pledged by Pi Beta Phi are Margaret Tramer, Virginia Hill, Henrietta McElroy, Margaret Crosby, Mary Vaughn, Dorothy Roseberry, Colleen Hollan, Eunice Canton, Nell Kilpatrick, Winifred Walsh, Marguerite Enlow, Ellen Ernst, Laura Gamble, Elda Haslett, Ann Jenkins, Evelyn Semenza, June McGuire, Miriam Butler, Amelia Zorick, Charlotte Wilson, Blanche Keegan and Rita Jepson.

Kappa Alpha Theta pledged Lois Midgeley, Genevieve Wakefield, Clara Willison, Margaret Copren, Violet Robeleate, Catherine Dondoro, Florence Kirkley, Dorothy Phillips, Betty Horton, Lorraine Johnson, Mary Tholl, Gwen Dohr, Heleen Lewis, Ruth Lyons, Mary Feltz, Julia Shiley, Eleanor Fisher, Cornelia Arentz, Evelyn Bradshaw, Frances Slavin and Mary Eleanor Underwood.

Gamma Phi Beta pledged Arlene Boerlin, Alice Boland, Muriel Bikker, Inez McGilivray, Mary Coreco, Margaret Pierce, Eleanor Bateman, Marian Cross, Marianne Severne, Jeanne Monaghan, Fae Wittwer and Roberta Gregory.

Those pledged by Delta Delta Delta are Charlotte Robinson, Georgia Cole, Darrell Doyle, Roberta Browne, Lois Brooks, Jean Burrow, Dolly Hawkins, Velma Menley, Orva Seikrick, Odessa Bick and Florence Ford.

Beta Sigma Omicron pledged Dorothy Shoup, Ruth Morgan, Rita Gunter and Mary Hill. Alpha Delta Theta pledged Velma Ramelli and May Parman.

Football Rally Staged Tonight by Station KOH

A radio rally at which all of the prominent athletic leaders of the University of Nevada student body are to speak will be held over radio station KOH tonight at 8 o'clock.

J. E. "Doc" Martie, head of the physical education department of the university, will introduce the program. It will include speeches by Larry Wolfe, coach of the Oregon State Normal College team; C. L. "Brick" Mitchell, Nevada mentor; Fritz Coltrin, assistant coach, and Keith Lee, student body president.

Members of Blue Key, national honorary service fraternity, will give several college yells and songs under the direction of Clifford Devine, student body yell leader. An orchestra will play several popular college selections.

Rain fell recently on the nitrite pampas of northern Chile, the first time in fifteen years. (That must have made the night right.)

Mammoth Rally to Be Staged Tonight at Roxie Theater

Student Serpentine to Follow Band Through Streets in Torchlight Parade

Will Rally at Roxie Theater at 11; Speeches, Acts, Picture on Program

Opening the 1932 football season with a bang, Nevada's second annual mid-night football rally will be held tonight at the Roxie theater. Under the direction of the rally committee and Blue Key, students will assemble in front of Manzanita at 9:45 for a torch parade through the downtown business section prior to the theater performance which is scheduled for 11 p. m.

Band, Speakers Lead Parade Heading the parade, the University band, under the direction of Prof. T. H. Post, will be transported on a large truck that will also carry the downtown speakers, football coaches and yell leaders. Following the torch parade, the students will serpentine through town and stop at Second and Virginia for band music and yells.

Proceeding to the Roxie theater, students will participate in a rally program presided over by Keith Lee as master of ceremonies. A brief talk by President Clark will be followed by a program including speeches by Coach "Brick" Mitchell of Nevada, Coach Larry Wolfe of Oregon State Normal, tap dancing by Pizome and Haggerty, numbers by Dudley Nix, Nevada coordinator, U. of N. band and a feature picture, "This Is the Night," starring Charlie Ruggles, Lily Damita and Roland Young.

Designed as a non-profit affair to arouse greater interest in Saturday's opening game, the program was made possible through the courtesy of the Roxie theater management. According to Graham Kislisbury, assistant manager at the theater, a small admission charge of 20 cents is necessary to cover advertising and operating expenses.

Program Starts at 11 "In observing the request of the student affairs committee that the rally be concluded by 12:45, it is essential that the program be under way by 11 p. m., so students are requested to be inside the theater by that time," stated Kislisbury. Tickets may be obtained from Blue Key members or at the box office of the theater.

Tonight's rally is the first of a series of pep assemblies to be held throughout the coming year by the rally committee and Blue Key, in an effort to stimulate enthusiasm in Nevada athletics and arouse the interest of the townspeople in activities on the hill.

Saviors of Electrical Company has donated a loud speaker truck to be used in advertising the opening game and the midnight rally. The announcing will be done by Ed Montgomery, according to Cliff Devine, chairman of the rally committee. Other members of the rally committee who were appointed by Keith Lee are Margaret Martin, Claire Galvin, Fern Harvey and Graham Kislisbury.

The ushering and traffic duties for this season's home games will be handled by the Blue Key, honorary service organization.

Artemisia Tryees Turn Out This Week

Thirty Sign Up for Editorial Staff; Nineteen for the Business Staff

Tryouts for Artemisia staff were held Monday afternoon in the Artemisia room in the Student Administration building, with about the usual number of tryees signing up. Thirty signified their desire to work on the editorial staff, with nineteen signing for the business staff, Bill Gilmartin, editor, announced.

The trial period extends all through the semester, at the end of which those students who have shown ability and willingness to cooperate will be given places on the regular staff.

Don Atcheson, Bob Creps and Walter Baring will have charge of the tryees.

Those interested in working for the editorial staff include Beverly Douglas, Carl Dodge, Elwin Jeffers, Oscar Robinson, Lloyd Leonard, Clarence Byrd, Clara Galvin, Lloyd Guffrey, Bruce Moore, Elva Neddnerly, George Francis, Marjorie Record, Catherine Slavin, Mary McCullough, Jack Blum, Nell Price, Florine Frank, Jerry Bingham, Eleanor Fisher, Georgia Cole, Blythe Bulmer, Don Brown, Mary Williams, Helene Stark, Anne O'Neill, Ruth Brown, Myra Sauer, Ned Morehouse, Bob Rice, Ina Johnson.

Dr. Wood Pleased With Students and Campus of Nevada

Quiet of Campus Is Welcome Relief After Bustle of Larger College

Professor Frederick Wood, newly appointed head of the mathematics department, says that he is well pleased with the students and the campus of Nevada.

Having recently come from a large Minneapolis university, he finds the quiet of the Nevada campus restful and a beautiful setting in which to work. Although a product of the middle west, Dr. Wood feels much at home in Nevada. Having taken his degrees in a college of engineering, he enjoys being among engineering students. He reports the Mackay Science building as being the finest equipped building in which he has ever worked.

Taught in South

Dr. Wood cites as one of his most interesting experiences the three years he taught in Georgia Wesleyan college, a Methodist women's college in the south. However, he prefers state universities because of his ten years' teaching experience in that type of college.

Professor Wood possesses a striking sense of humor which promises that his will be among the most popular classes offered. His associates report that he has a great deal of tact, and that there is a mathematical precision about everything he undertakes.

Received Ph.D. in 1923

Dr. Wood took all of his degrees at the University of Wisconsin, his Ph.D. having been received in 1923.

With the exception of the period he taught in Georgia, until his arrival at Nevada, his entire teaching experience has been in the middle west. For the last three years Professor Wood has held the position of dean of mean at Hamline university in Minneapolis.

Progress Is Made Selling Tickets

Under the direction of Blue Key, the sale of football season tickets has made rapid headway, it has been announced by Dwight Levitt, Blue Key president.

More than 300 tickets have been sold to date and 100 are still unaccounted for. Levitt expects this year's sales to surpass the record set last year.

With only three games being played on the home field this year, the price of tickets has been reduced from $5 to $2.75. The tickets will not be accepted for admission to Freshman games.

Season tickets have been distributed to the downtown stores and can be bought at the Block N, Southworth's cigar store, Hip's drug store, Burke & Short or Wilson's drug store.

Normal Club Meet Is Scheduled Soon

The Normal Club will hold a meeting within the next two weeks to elect officers for the coming year and to charter plans for club activities.

The meeting has been delayed to make it possible for the girls to get acquainted in order to intelligently select a staff of leaders.

THIRD YEAR

Ole Theis, regular tackle for three years, has proved himself one of the main bulwarks of Nevada's line both in defense and on offense

RUGGED LINESMAN

Bob "Fat Man" Madriaga is back in uniform and should prove himself one of the toughest tackles in coast football circles

Dunseath Elected Engineer President for Next Half Year

By the narrow margin of 30 to 26 votes, Harry Dunseath, electrical engineer, was chosen vice president of the Associated Engineers of the University of Nevada at a run-off election held Friday.

Winston Somerville, civil engineer, was the runner-up who last semester tied Dunseath in the race for the office, making a second election necessary.

John S. Smith, civil engineer, is president of the organization and Cornelius Grabbe, also a civil engineer, holds the office of secretary-treasurer.

They are not present in Luckies... the mildest cigarette you ever smoked these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so

Does not this explain the world-wide acceptance and approval of Lucky Strike?

FIRST ISSUE OF WOLF OUT HOMECOMING

Homecoming day will see the first issue of this year's "Desert Wolf." The publication is scheduled to be a general magazine of approximately 36 pages, but Editor John Mariana states that there is a possibility of making it a larger issue if permission can be obtained to include the Homecoming day program in the magazine. This program will include pictures of the California Aggies football stars, as well as of Nevada men, together with the lineups for that day's game.

No definite cover illustration has as yet been decided upon, but the staff expects to have the initial sheet in a four-color scheme.

The staff for this year's Wolf will include: Denver Dickerson, assistant editor; Blythe Bulmer, women's editor; Katherine McCormack, literary editor; and Kay Hansen, art editor. James Cazier is in charge of the advertising and financial end of the publication for this year.

This makes the fourth year of service on the Desert Wolf for both Blythe Bulmer and Katherine McCormack, and they have both shown themselves fit for positions as editors. Denver Dickerson has served only one school term on the publication, but has shown potentialities.

Campus Club Has First Meeting

Plans for Fall Semester Activities Made and Discussed

The first meeting of the Campus Club of the Federated Church was held at Lake Tahoe at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Case on September 10 and 11. Plans for the fall semester were made and speakers and devotional leaders for each Sunday were appointed. Swimming and a campfire on the lake shore were enjoyed, with about 20 members in attendance.

On September 16 approximately 100 students and faculty members attended a dinner in the church parlors. The group was presided over by Paul Hartman, and welcoming addresses were given by Esther Rozzone, co-president, and by Robert Margen, past president. Ralph Preese sang novelty and classical numbers and several modern piano selections were given by Max Kepl.

Professor Jay Carpenter addressed the group on the character development offered by college life, and through such associations as the Campus Club. Prof. I. J. Sandorf extended a welcome to the newcomers. Mrs. Case designated the first Sunday of each month as "dinner night" and announced that regular meetings of the Campus Club would be held on Saturday evening at 8:30, and that the much discussed book, "Young China," would be used for study.

Wife of Dean Receives Degree

Mrs. Charles Haseman, wife of the late Dean Haseman of the University of Nevada, was graduated from the George Washington university this summer, with the degree of bachelor of arts in library science.

Mrs. Haseman was well known on the campus as the women's Pan-Hellenic lawyer, and was very active in all social affairs on the Nevada campus.

Mrs. Haseman, who received her bachelor of arts degree at Stanford university in 1914, has been attending the George Washington university for the last one and a half years.

Beta Sigma Omicron Holds Dinner at House

The Beta Sigma Omicron sorority held their formal preference dinner at their house at 688 West street. The decorations were in the autumn motif, the candles and flowers in shades of yellow.

The honored guests were Ruth Morgan, Dorothy Shoup, Rita Gunter and Mav Hill. The Mesdames Wayne T. Wilson, F. B. Headley, Vincent Gianelli, George Robinson and Louise Albright were patronesses.

The alumnae present included Ruth Jones, Pauline Denim, Melva Fowler, Ellen Russell, Mabel Flournoy, Ida May Robinson, Marian Jones, Wilma Kennedy and Mrs. William Martin.

Two Pledged Alpha Theta

Misses Lucille Hook and Elizabeth Barnes were pledged to Alpha Delta Theta at pledging ceremonies Monday evening.

Following a business meeting the members of the group were entertained by piano solos played by Lucille Hook, Helen Dunn and Blanche Radcliffe. Refreshments were served later in the evening.

Nelson and Haynes Married Saturday

Miss Evelyn Nelson and Howard Haynes were married on September 17 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Nelson on University avenue. Rev. William Moll Case of the Federated Church officiated at the ceremony. The maid of honor was Miss Evelyn Heide of Oakland. Miss Helen Adamson and Mrs. Newton Breakfield attended the bride as maids.

A buffet luncheon was served after the ceremony and Mr. and Mrs. Haynes left on their honeymoon. The bride is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. After her graduation from the University of Nevada she was instructor in physical education at the

Y. W. Activities Outlined for Year

The first general business meeting of the Y. W. C. A. took place yesterday afternoon in Manzanita Hall. It was presided over by Helen Steinmiller.

Members of the cabinet presented their programs of activities for the year and committees were selected, after which regular meetings were scheduled.

The membership drive has been a success and it is expected that the hundred mark will be reached soon, according to President Steinmiller.

The Y. W. student loan fund has made loans to financially distressed students already this semester and will continue to function.

The candy booth, which was first opened last semester in Morrill Hall near the postoffice, will continue selling, owing to its financial success. As a novelty feature the candy booth is offering for sale comic maps of the university, which are the work of Ida Mary Robinson, who graduated with the class of '27. The drawings depict favorite hangouts known and appreciated by Nevada students.

The Y. W. C. A. works through committees, the chairman of each committee being a member of the cabinet, which is the executive group.

The social service committee, which is in charge of Camille Cerita, is planning, as a financial aid to the university women, to look for part time positions which can be filled by students. All prominent women's clubs are being asked to aid in this search.

The finance committee is making preparations for its annual drive. Dortha Robertson, chairman, announced that this group will study the problems of financing and budgeting.

Other committees include floating university, membership, music, publicity, social service, social activities and worship.

First Woman Joins Engineering Body

Margaret Piercy Interested in Aviation; Plans to Fly and to Teach

The only woman ever to undertake a four year electrical engineering course at the University of Nevada, became a member of the hitherto exclusively male engineering student body when Margaret Piercy enrolled this year to gain a fundamental knowledge of mechanics and aeronautics in preparation for flying school.

In conjunction with her engineering activities, Miss Piercy plans to complete a major in mathematics in order to teach, and expects to add flying to her ground school work during her senior year.

Miss Piercy, who first became interested in aviation during her high school years in Tonopah, took flying lessons, but was not allowed to make a solo flight because she was underage.

She said, "I have always wanted to fly, to tinker with my own machine. I am as interested in the mechanics of airplanes as in the technique of flying them. My engineering work here will be preparatory to entering a flying school."

SCARE GIVEN HALL CO-EDS BY SKELETONS

Manzanita Hall was thrown into an uproar the other day when every one of the new girls found that a skeleton had been slipped uncannily into her room.

Agonized cries of "What shall we do?" and "I'm petrified already!" swept through the hall.

Elder residents regarded them pityingly. Evidently they recalled that similar circumstances had made them feel much the same way in years past.

The skeletons had blood-red writing on them. It was the gist of that writing that caused the cries, for it gave strict orders to entertain before the Manzanita Hall Association next Monday night, as a part of initiation.

third year that the fraternity has invited the pledges from all of the sororities to a tea.

The idea of the affair is to settle the sorority derby. In case of a tie between sororities, the scales are brought in and each pledge is weighed. Then it is a question of pounds against pounds. The heaviest group wins.

This year the men may have to use their scales. There is to be music and dancing, and light refreshments will be served.

Sigma Phi Visits Campus Last Week

Herbert Barthells, former University of Nevada student and football player, has been visiting friends on the campus for the last few days.

RALLIES

Tonight there will be two rallies held to usher in the 1932 edition of the Wolf Pack, and to bring to the attention of its downtown supporters the fact that we up here on the hill have a real football team to offer during the forthcoming season.

The first rally is slated for 8 p. m. and is given under the auspices of radio station KOH, which has generously donated the university a half-hour program.

The second gathering of real Nevadans will be climaxed by a huge midnight rally at the Roxie theater. This group will assemble at Manzanita Hall at 9:45 p. m. and after the usual parade through the downtown business district will convene at the Roxie and be entertained by a lively pep meeting and several distinguished leaders will address the crowd.

These rallies are another means by which a closer and better feeling of good fellowship can be attained. Attendance of these very necessary functions of real college activities shows a desire on the part of the student to lend his or her aid in putting our campus in the spotlight and back on the pedestal that it once reigned on in the collegiate world.

NEVADA'S YEAR

Tomorrow afternoon eleven men will open another season of football for Nevada. To some of those men it will be a new experience; to others who are veterans it will be less novel.

What will be in the minds of those eleven men and their substitutes when the opening whistle has sounded and the new season is under way? No doubt many of the veterans will recall former opening games, with the cheering crowds and colorful setting, only to have such thrilling memories blotted out by reflections of games that followed.

Tomorrow is the start of another season, the success of which depends, to a great extent, on maintaining the spirit and enthusiasm that is bound to prevail at an opening game.

THEY GOVERN THE MALES

Under the direction of Keith Lee, A. S. U. N. president, the following men students comprise the men's upperclass committee for this semester: Pat Santoro, chairman, Wayne Van Vorhes, Bill Beemer, John Bryan, Jack Reed, Gail Parsons, Mathew Mohorovich, Hank Rampoldi, Lowell Russell.

Initiation of new members for the Chemistry Club will be held within the next three weeks, according to Ed Dyer, president of the organization.

Sophomores Win Annual Field Day

Freshmen Win Two Boxing Bouts, Victorious in Tire Rush

Sophs Show Organization, Win in Jousting and Tie-Up

By JACK MYLES
By winning the annual field day with a score of 35 to 20, members of the class of 1935 are entitled to wear the traditional white vests and derbies.

The Sophomores made a clean sweep of the jousting match and tie-up, but met with considerable opposition in the boxing matches and were completely overpowered by sheer numbers in the tire rush.

The slugging bout between Dale Hart, Sophomore, and Dan Pimental, Fresh, was the biggest event of the day. Hart was awarded the match by Referee "Brick" Mitchell on a technical knockout in the third round, but Pimental put up a game battle and during the bout succeeded in showing Hart a few fists.

Noyes Wins

In the 135 pound class John Noyes, Fresh, proved to be entirely too clever for Reed St. Clair, but the Sophomore showed all he had and, during the last round, put over a few haymakers which enlivened the whole affair. The two boys were standing toe to toe when the last gang rang, and Mitchell had to separate them before he could raise Noyes' arm.

In the 180 pound class Vic Maxwell had too much advantage and experience for Freshman Jack Betts. However, Betts eluded most of the slashes made at home, and stayed the three rounds.

Fresh Win

The Fresh easily won the blindfold bout. Shortly after the match began Jim Thompson, Sophomore, overbalanced himself with a roundhouse swing, which failed to connect, and he fell to the canvas and was disqualified. Chick Chavez, the other Sophomore, carried on the fight gamely, and outsmarted Clark and Lewis by letting them hammer each other, but when the two Fresh finally got their range they began to pummel Chavez and Referee Mitchell awarded the bout to the Fresh.

The jousting match lasted less than three minutes. Practically every Freshman was dismounted in the first rush and the Sophs who were still on their mounts put on a few finishing touches by daubing the horseless men with their bright red war paint.

Organization seemed to be lacking on the part of the Fresh in the tie-up, and they succeeded in taking only three Sophomores off the field during the time the class of '35 was carrying away some twelve yearlings.

In the final event of the day the Fresh ganged up on the Sophomores and succeeded in beating three-fourths of the tires over their own goal line, not to mention the number of Sophs hanging onto the tires.

Year's First Game Will Be Broadcast Over Reno Station

Ken Johnson Will Announce Game Play by Play to All Nevada Fans

A play by play account of the first football game of this year, between Nevada and Oregon State Normal, with Ken Johnson at the microphone, will be broadcast to the radio audience tomorrow over KOH through the courtesy of the Associated Oil company.

A loud speaker system will also be installed for the benefit of the people in the grandstands. As yet no definite announcer for this system has been picked, but one will be selected as soon as possible.

Replaces Linehan

Johnson will broadcast in place of Walt Linehan, who this year is playing on the football squad.

Walt Mitchell handled the grandstand announcing most of last year, but this year he was lost through graduation.

Scores To Be Announced

Arrangements have also been made to announce the results of all varsity games played away from home by Nevada, through the loudspeaker system during Fresh or other games being played on Mackay Field.

Last year the loud speaker's were set up and handled by both Saviers and the Standard Oil company. Saviers will handle Saturday's game.

Fall Track, Tennis Sign-Ups Completed

O'HARA NEAR GRADUATION AT AIR SCHOOL

Byron O'Hara, Nevada pole vault star, student body yell leader and a graduate of the University of Nevada, through the loudspeaker system during Fresh or other games being played on Mackay Field.

Last year the loud speaker's were set up and handled by both Saviers and the Standard Oil company. Saviers will handle Saturday's game.

The Nevada graduate has been in training for 16 months. He reports that the course is grueling but filled with thrills. O'Hara now has 321 hours in the air to his credit, of which 158 were flown in a pursuit plane at Kelly Field.

The former Nevada man reports that he has communicated frequently with Walter Mitchell and Newton Crumley, two graduates of the University of Nevada with the class of 1932, who are now in training at the preliminary Randolph flying field. Randolph field is 15 miles east of San Antonio, Texas, while Kelly field is located five miles south of the same city.

O'Hara is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, while Crumley was a Sigma Nu. Mitchell is affiliated with the Beta Kappa fraternity.

- Nov. 11—Stewart at Bishop, Calif.
- Nov. 12—Reno at Sparks; Lovelock at Winnemucca; Frosh at Susanville.
- Nov. 19—Sparks at Lovelock; Fallon at Reno.

Men students at the University of Arizona have formed a "Bachelors' Club," members of which will endeavor to make Arizona co-eds pay half the cost of all dates until the depression is over. That the average girl has as much money as the average man and a dwindling number of dates are the main causes of this move.

Martie Gets Medal for Bravery During Recent World Fight

A distinguished service medal for bravery under fire in the World war, the Purple Heart medal, has been received by J. E. Martie, head of the physical education department of the University of Nevada.

guished service which Martie has received. Five of his decorations are from the government of France and three from the United States. The medal was presented to him by the Washington Bicentennial commission. The medal was recreated from one designed and given by Washington to his men for distinguished service in the Revolutionary war. It is a purple heart mounted on a bronze background. Its central feature is a picture of Washington.

Chemical Society Speakers Discuss Traffic Lacquers

Hydro-Metallurgy of Manganese Is Subject of First Talk

Traffic Lane Lacquers Spoken Of in Detail by Chemists

The Sacramento Section of the American Chemical Society held its first meeting of the year at the University of Nevada September 17 in the Mackay Science building, with about forty people present. The 1933 meeting will be held in the Junior College in Sacramento.

The American Chemical Society is for the promotion and welfare of chemical problems in the United States, and the society was the first of its kind to be founded in America. The first paper written on or about the society was published in September, 1768, and in 1789 the Columbia Society was founded, which later on became known as the American Chemical Society.

Two prominent men gave speeches, one being C. W. Davis, chief chemist of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, talking on "Hydro-Metallurgy of Manganese," and Dr. G. H. Lichtard, chemical engineer of the California division of highways, talking on "Traffic Lane Lacquers." Both talks were very interesting and beneficial to all who attended.

Mr. Davis feels that 95 per cent of manganese is used for the production of steel and alloy steels, and 90 per cent of the manganese used is shipped to us from Russia. Hydro-metallurgy of manganese is the recovery of manganese in a suitable grade and suitable form so that it can be used for metallurgical processes, including some commercial uses also. There are three processes of hydro-metallurgy of manganese. One, the Finch, another the Sweet, and the last the SO₂. These three processes were explained in full by Davis, and he mentioned their advantages and disadvantages, stating that deposits of low grade manganese was the basis of the above processes.

Nevada Lines
Dr. Lichtard said that "there is not such a great need in Nevada for traffic line lacquers as there is in California, at the present time, and the interest in this subject is becoming more universal each year." About 15 gallons of the prepared white lacquer is needed per mile to make a four inch stripe on the road, and the lacquer paint averages about $1.75 a gallon, making the paint cost much more than the labor needed to put it down. In the last year the lacquer company put out about 50,000 gallons and it cost about $40 a mile to line the roads, including the labor.

Dr. Lichtard showed the assembled group samples of gums used in the paint lacquer and samples of resin used, samples of tin with paint on them, samples of paint on cement blocks, samples of paint on glass, photographs of different tests made and the final complete product exactly the same that is put on the roads in California.

TEN CENT DIG APPEALING TO MORE STUDENTS

The social hour is growing. More and more the students realize that the best things in life cost 10 cents. As for entertainment—well, everyone for himself. The dog in the manger stags have promised not to stand in the middle of the floor, and keep the benches empty. Men, there are plenty of women just as you desire them.

Volley Ball and Horseshoes Open Frat Competition

Basketball Practice Opens But Actual Games Will Start October 3

Interfraternity competition began in earnest last Wednesday afternoon, the initial contests being doubles and singles in horseshoes and volley ball. Phi Sigma Kappa defeated the Lambda Chi team on the volley ball court with a victory of two straight games. Sigma Phi Sigma won on a forfeit from Sigma Nu when that fraternity failed to enter a team.

In the horseshoe doubles match Sigma Nu defeated Beta Kappa, and the Independent team forfeited to Lambda Chi Alpha. Sigma Nu defeated Lincoln Hall.

Basketball Practice Starts
Wednesday was also the initial day for the beginning of basketball practice. This practice, however, will terminate October 1, and actual play will begin October 3, when Lambda Chi meets S. A. E. and Beta Kappa plays Lincoln Hall. The last game of this round robin tournament will be played November 10.

All aspirants for the cross country run have been requested to turn out for training on or before October 3, in order to be eligible for this race, which is to be run on the morning of Homecoming.

Doubles and singles matches in tennis are slated to begin October 3 and they will be triple elimination contests.

Men's Uppercass Committee to Act as Campus Police

This year the men's upperclass committee will act in the capacity of police while on the campus.

The committee has offered its services to aid the yell leader in rallies and other demonstrations.

In New York state women drive 16 per cent of all cars registered. (Are we glad we live west? Or are we glad?)

SAGEBRUSH LOSES STAMPS FROM OFFICE

Kenneth Johnson, editor of the University of Nevada Sagebrush, is wondering this week what became of 99 cents worth of stamps which are missing from his desk in the Student Administration building.

Whether the stamps are gracing the letters to home of some student of the university, are reposing in the pocket of some professional thief or any of a hundred other conjectures are passing through the mind of the Sagebrush editor.

A prized black leather binder and a pair of glasses are also missing. Johnson has threatened to surround his office with chicken wire.

Men's Glee Club Begins Rehearsals for New Season

With an enrollment of 26, the University of Nevada men's glee club began rehearsing Monday for a year of unusual activity. Invitations to appear before various groups throughout the coming year have been received by Prof. T. H. Post, director of music.

A schedule of three rehearsals weekly has been arranged, with one meeting to be held on Wednesday evening of each week so that members of the football squad who are interested in music can participate in glee as an added activity.

A variety of new songs has been secured for the coming season, some of which will be presented in the first public appearance of the year, to be given in Fernley.

Campus cutters and general offenders will be subject to the committee, it was stated by Pat Sanford, chairman.

The policy of this committee is to regulate matters in such a way that rough treatment with offenders will be needless.

The committee will also aid in the sponsoring of social hours.

Sundowners' Day Will Be Featured in 'Hobo' Garb

Plans for the first annual Sundowners' Day were progressing rapidly this week, with George Schilling heading the entertainment committee.

The entire group will attire in "hobo" garb, next Wednesday, and parade the campus all day. Entertainment will be offered by the members and in the evening they will attend the regular social hour.

The idea for the "day" was formulated last week at the first meeting of the group and it was decided to make it an annual event. Pat Sanford, president of the organization, appointed Schilling to act with a committee to find suitable entertainment for the group.

The Sundowners of the Sagebrush, as they are known on the campus, are an honorary good-fellowship organization, typifying the spirit characteristic of this state. It is the most informal group on the campus and has for its aim the idea of forming good-fellowship among students.

Active members for the fall semester are Jack Conlon, Keith Lee, Mathew Mohorovich, Fred Morrison, Granville Fletcher, Lionel Grindell, Al O'Connell, Elmer Perry, Henry Rampoldi, Harold Sanford, Leslie Tomley, Ben

WARN FROSH LAST TIME FOR BIBLES, DINKS

A final warning has been issued to the Frosh to buy their "Dinks" and "Bibles." The last shipment of "dinks" for this semester arrived a few days before field day and there are about thirty left.

The dinks and bibles may be purchased from Bernard Hartung, graduate manager, whose office is in the Student Administration building on Mackay avenue, and every Frosh is advised to be well equipped before an investigation by the upperclass committee is made.
